MINUTES.

Tuesday, November 22, 1910, 10 a. m.

The thirteenth State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia was called to order in Savannah, November 22, 1910, by the State Regent, Mrs. John M. Graham.

The opening exercises were simple and very impressive, consisting of prayer by the Rev. W. T. Dakin, assistant rector of St. John's Church, and the song "America," in which all those present joined.

Mayor Geo. W. Tiedeman welcomed the visitors in behalf of the city, expressing the wish that the Daughters would enjoy in every way the beautiful city of Savannah.

Mrs. John M. Bryan, as Regent of the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter, gave a warm welcome to Savannah from the hostess chapter and gave as the watchword of the D. A. R., "The perpetuation of noble American ideals; the education of young children throughout America."

Mrs. W. A. Winburn as Regent of the Savannah Chapter gave a few pleasant words of welcome to the Daughters in her own charming way.

In her address of welcome as State Regent, Mrs. Graham recalled the fact that the D. A. R. Conference had met in Savannah eight years ago, and since that time the number of cities represented had more than doubled.

From the address of Mayor Tiedeman to the final welcome of the State Regent, Mrs. John M. Graham, not a speaker failed in paying tribute to the memory of Oglethorpe and in recognizing the historical importance of the occasion to be celebrated the 23d of November, the unveiling of a monument in his honor.

Miss Anna C. Benning, Vice-President General from Georgia, gave a few impromptu words of welcome from the National Society telling something of what the work of the Daughters really means and what they have accomplished. Mrs. James A. Rounsaville, of Rome, gave a few gracious words of welcome.

The response to the addresses of welcome was made by Mrs. Joseph H. Morgan, of Atlanta, Regent of the Atlanta Chapter, who complimented Savannah's characteristic hospitality. She reminded the conference of the patriotic purposes of their organization and urged greater patriotic education.

The beautiful "Song of the Revolution" by Dr. Francis Orme was then sung.

The report of the chairman of the Credential Committee, Miss Cosens, of Savannah, was then given.

Miss Benning moved "that report of Credential Committee be accepted, but that a more complete report be made at next session." Carried.

Mrs. Taylor, of Macon, moved "that the election of officers be substituted for the memorial to Mrs. Parks and take place at the night session on Tuesday, the memorial to be given in place of the election on Wednesday."

Mrs. Rounsaville, of Rome, expressed her willingness to have the election substituted for the memorial address Tuesday evening, and moved as an amendment to Mrs. Taylor's motion "that the time of the presentation of this address be left to the Regent and that the remainder of the program be taken up in regular order as reached without regard to previous assignment by sessions." This was seconded and the amendment and motion were both carried.

Mrs. Peeples, of Cartersville, seconded by Mrs. Ellis, of Macon, moved "that the State Regent's annual report be printed in some paper, preferably the D. A. R. column of the Atlanta Constitution, and in pamphlet forms be run off and sent to every local regent in the State, with the request that this report be read to individual chapters, for the purpose of informing them of the scope and aim of the State work." Carried.

Miss Benning spoke of the year books that have been published by various chapters. By a ruling of the National Society all Year Books are asked to be a uniform size, 5½ x 7½ inches, in order that the Librarian General can file these Year Books as records.

Miss Benning moved "that information in regard to the Year Books be printed in the D. A. R. column." Carried.

The reports of Mrs. Howard H. McCall, Recording Secretary; Miss Mabel Cortelyou, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Richard Spencer, Treasurer, were then given and Mrs. Morgan, of Savannah, seconded by Mrs. Foster, of Atlanta, moved "that a rising vote of thanks be given to these officers for their efficient and faithful work of the past year." Carried.

A letter from Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, President-General; was read by the Regent, in which she expressed her great regret at not being able to be with us at our Conference in Savannah.

Miss Benning moved "that the Corresponding Secretary send telegram to Mrs. Scott expressing our regret at her inability to be present."

Letter from our former President General, Mrs. Donald McLean, who is so well beloved by the Georgia Daughters, explaining that only the presence of a new little Emily in her daughter's home, prevented her from accepting the kind invitation to be present at our thirteenth Conference, expressing the hope that the D. A. R. of Georgia would keep the grandmother and little one close to their hearts.

Miss Anna Benning, seconded by Mrs. J. A. Rounsaville, moved "that we send telegram to Mrs. McLean expressing our love for her and our desire to adopt her little granddaughter, Emily." Carried.

Mrs. Yeandle, of Atlanta, moved "that letters be sent to Mrs. Egbert Jones, Vice-President; General from Mississippi; and Mrs. Sam W. Jamieson, of Virginia, who had intended being present, expressing our regret at their inability to be present." Carried.

Mrs. Taylor, of Macon, moved "that letter of sympathy be sent to Mrs. Morgan Smith, of Alabama." Carried.

Miss Benning spoke of the pleasure it gave her of seconding in person the invitation extended by Mrs. Graham in behalf of the Georgia D. A. R.'s to Mrs. Scott and Mrs. McLean and the Board to be present at this Conference. This occurred at the October meeting of the National Board of Management.

The report of the State Editor, Miss Ruby Felder Ray, showed very interestingly how the publicity work of the D. A. R. was handled through the year, and contained some practical suggestions as to the preparation of material for the press.

Mrs. Yeandle as Regent of the Chapter of which Miss Ray is a member moved "that a rising vote of thanks be given her for her faithful work of the past year." Carried.

The report of the Executive Board meeting held in February, 1910, at the home of the Recording Secretary, Mrs. McCall, and while Mrs. P. W. Godfrey was regent, was then read.

Miss Benning seconded by Mrs. Yeandle, moved "that this report be accepted." Carried.

The report of the Executive Board meeting held at the home of the State Regent, Mrs. Graham, in September, 1910, was then read. Mrs. J. A. Rounsaville, seconded by Mrs. John M. Bryan, moved "that these minutes be accepted without the recommendations and that the Regent appoint a committee to report on these back to the Conference." Carried.

The Regent appointed the following committee: Mrs. Mallory Taylor, chairman; Mrs. James A. Rounsaville, Miss Anna C. Benning, Mrs. S. W. Foster, Mrs. Howard H. McCall, Miss Mabel Cortelyou and Mrs. Richard Spencer. Mrs. Taylor asked that this committee meet before the afternoon session.

Mrs. Joseph Harrison, of Columbus, spoke briefly of Ex-Governor John Clark, of Georgia, and the grave of himself and wife at St. Andrew's Bay in Florida. This spot is marked by a monument erected by two of his children in 1832. There was some talk of removing these bodies and monument to Panama City. But it is earnestly wished by some, that the D. A. R. in Georgia will take some steps to have the remains and monument removed to Georgia. John Clark was a Colonial scout at 16, the oldest son of Elijah Clark, a Major-General, and twice Governor of Georgia. We now have $235.70 in the treasury left from the O. M. fund, $1,176.26 having already been given to the Oglethorpe Monument Association of Georgia by the D. A. R.'s in Georgia. The State Regent asked that this Conference at the proper time decide on the final disposition of this money.

This memorial to be a bust to be placed in Continental Memorial Hall. Mrs. Wm. Lee Ellis, of Macon, moved "that this resolution be read." Carried.

"It was the intention to have this bust made in Florence, Italy, but it was afterwards determined to be more in keeping with the purpose of the memorial to have the work done by an American sculptor.

"Some fugitive contributions have been received by Chapters and individuals, but no effort has been made so far to raise the amount, as it was thought fitting to place it first before the Georgia Daughters.

"There can be but one first Real Daughter. No other State can claim that prestige. Sensible of this great honor to our beloved State, every Georgian, and especially every Chapter represented, is given the privilege of making an offering to this beautiful sentiment.

"Proud as we are that Georgia claims the first Real Daughter, we are prouder far that the bearer of that title, who stands as the representative of her class, was one of the noblest women, one of the most patriotic spirits whose generous and lofty interest in all that concerned the purposes and aims of the National Society, is well remembered by the pioneer workers in this great cause. We believe that every Chapter will take pride in responding to this request, and as the Joseph Habersham Chapter is the banner Chapter in the whole National Society for Real Daughters, we have requested the Regent of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, Mrs. Spencer R. Atkinson, to receive the amounts.

"MRS. WILLIAM LAWSON PEEL, Atlanta."

Mrs. Mallory Taylor, chairman of Committee on Recommendations, read the following report:

"1st. The motion by Mrs. Geo. Brown, 'that a committee be appointed by the Regent to place a memorial from the Georgia Chapters to the memory of Mrs. R. E. Park in Memorial Continental Hall in Washington,' was reported favorably.

"This action was unanimously endorsed by the entire Conference.

"2nd, Miss Ray's recommendation to appoint a Memorial Day to decorate Revolutionary soldiers' graves was reported favorably."

Miss Ray then moved, "Whereas, we the grateful descendants of the soldiers of the American Revolution organized to honor their memory should ever point to them as a noble example of heroism and true patriotism;

"Therefore, be it Resolved, First, That the Daughters of the American Revolution name one day in each year as a Memorial Day for the soldiers of the War of the Revolution. And upon that day each Chapter shall decorate with flowers and evergreens the graves of these soldirs, which may be accessible to them.

"Second, That July 11th, the anniversary of the day on which the soldiers of Great Britain evacuated Savannah in 1783, thus delivering the government of our entire State to the people of Georgia, be observed by this society as Memorial Day for the soldiers of the War of the Revolution."

This was seconded by Mrs. Yeandle and carried.

"Third, the recommendation of Mrs. Oscar Peeples, of Cartersville, 'that this Conference memcrialize the State Legislature and ask that a monument be erected on the State Capitol grounds or some other suitable place, in honor of the memory of the heroes of the Revolution buried in Georgia scil, said memorial to bear all names of soldiers buried in this State,' was reported unfavorably."

After much discussion and short speeches from Mrs. James A. Rounsville, Mrs. J. H. Redding, Mrs. Mallory Taylor and others, explaining the fact that this recommendation would interfere with the Compulsory Education Bill and Child Labor Bill which will come up before the next session of Legislature. The bills are of vital interest at the present moment to the D. A. R. in Georgia.

Mrs. Peeples then moved "that a movement be started looking towards the erection of a monument somewhere in the State to Revolutionary soldiers."

This was seconded and carried.

"4th. The recommendation of Mrs. Geo. M. Brown, chairman of the Historic Sites and Monument Committee, "that the Executive Board recommend that a sinking fund be raised for the work of this committee, especially the Ebenezer records, which require money just at this time' was reported favorably, leaving out the word sinking."

This resolution was then put to the Conference and carried.

Mrs. S. W. Foster of Atlanta moved "that the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution raise and maintain a separate fund for the purpose of suitably marking historic spots and sites in Georgia, and that each Chapter be requested to contribute annually to the same. This fund to be used in marking such places only as the Conference may designate."

This was seconded and carried.

Mrs. Joseph Harrison of Columbus moved "that in marking historic spots the Daughters of the American Revolution do not encroach upon the domain of other historic societies, working primarily in the Revolutionary period, fixing this period between 1765 and 1812." After much discussion Mrs. Morgan, of Savannah, moved "that this motion be tabled," which was carried.

The recommendation of Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, of Covington, "that the Executive Board recommend that the State Conference be carried over from November 1910 to 1912 prior to Congress in 1912," amended by Miss Ray of Atlanta, "that we have Conference in the Spring not to interfere with Lent" was reported favorably.

The approval of this recommendation of the Executive Board was unanimous; many speaking in favor of it. This comes as the culmination of a feeling that has long been growing in the society that the Conference being held in the Fall was not desirable and disadvantageous both to the society as a whole and to the Regent, who was nominated at the Conference in the Fall but not elected until the meeting of the National Society in April. This new ruling which brings the nomination of the Regent within a few weeks at most of the meeting of the National Society is a very important act accomplished by this Conference.

The recommendation of Mrs. Mallory Taylor, of Macon, "that any member or chapter who wishes to amend by-laws, shall send these amendments in writing to all Chapter Regents 60 days in advance of Conference at their own expense" was reported unfavorably.

After much discussion, Mrs. McCall, of Atlanta, moved "that all notices in regard to amendments of the By-Laws, either by members or Chapters, were to be sent out by State Corresponding Secretary, instructed by State Regent in an official way, to all Chapter regents, 60 days in advance of conference."

This was seconded and carried.

The resolution of Mrs. S. M. Dean, of Palmetto, "that recognizing the valuable help that the D. A. R. of Georgia have received through the columns of the Atlanta Constitution, which is so effectively used by our State Editor, therefore be it resolved, That the Georgia Conference assembled at Savannah do hereby express their most sincere thanks and appreciation to that most excellent paper, also to thank them for the many courtesies extended to our State Editor" was unanimously passed by the Conference.

The announcement of Mrs. John M. Bryan, of Savannah, "that at the next conference she would offer an amendment to by-law 4, section 3 to read: "Recommendations for nominations shall be by a committee formed of Chapter Regents, elections by ballot" was reported unfavorably by committee.

By-law IV, section 3 reads: "All officers but Regent and First Vice Regent shall be elected annually, nominations from the floor, election by ballot, a majority of the votes cast for any officer shall elect."

Mrs. J. M. Bryan offered this amendment: "Recommendations for nominations shall be by a committee formed of Chapter Regents, elections by ballot."

Mrs. Horace Crane of Savannah offered an amendment to this amendment "that the nominating committee consist of Regents, not more than ten."

Mrs. Morgan, of Savannah, amended this by saying "that each Chapter send a representative to serve on the nominating committee to recommend nominees."

After much discussion and several forceful speeches, especially from Mrs. Oscar Peeples, of Cartersville, Miss Nonnie McCall of Quitman, and Mrs. S. W. Foster, of Atlanta, who wish to be placed on record as being opposed to nominating committees, these amendments were all lost and By-law IV, Section 3 remains the same.

Mrs. James A. Rounsaville, of Rome, gave notice that she would offer an amendment to be acted on at next Conference. To amend By-law IV, Section 3 "that the Chapters in the State be divided into five sections and the appointment of a nominating committee from representatives of each section."

Mrs. Morgan, of Savannah, moved "that of the money now in treasury for the Oglethorpe Monument, that $50 be sent to the Tallulah Falls school as a gift from the D. A. R., the balance of fund to be placed in the fund for Historic Sites and Monument Committee."

Miss Benning, of Columbus, amended this by "refer this fund to the Chapters donating to Oglethorpe fund"; this amendment was lost.

Mrs. Morgan's motion was seconded and carried.

It was moved and carried "that chairman of press committee publish in paper the announcement of the gift of $50 to the Tallulah Falls School by the D. A. R."

The Sect. appointed to make report of the State meeting in Washington in 1910, Mrs. Mallory Taylor asked for the privilege of reading her report.

Mrs. Lee Trammell of Madison moved "that as the time was so short, that we dispense with the reading of this report." This was seconded and after a discussion was carried.

Mrs. Richard Spencer, of Columbus, seconded by Mrs. J. Y. Carithers, of Athens, made the following motion: "I want to move under new business that the minutes of the meeting in Washington be incorporated in the minutes of the Savannah meeting." This was amended by Mrs. Dean, of Palmetto, as follows: "that the minutes of the meeting in Washington at Congress in 1910, as approved by members present at said meeting, be printed in the minutes of the Savannah meeting." This was voted on and carried.

The 13th State Conference closed with the reading of a tribute to the memory of Mrs. Robert Emory Park, of Atlanta, by Mrs. James A. Rounsa-ville of Rome, a former State Regent.

It was fitting that this last tribute be paid to this noble woman, who was in the highest and best sense a typical Southern woman. Descended from a long line of distinguished men and women, Mrs. Park illustrated in her mind and person the combined virtues and charms of her ancestry. As a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, she was active in every good work, having always before her the betterment of humanity and striving always to preserve the worthy traditions of the past for the benefit of the future generations.

Conference then adjourned to meet in Marietta in 1912.

Minutes of Executive Committee.

The meeting of the Executive Committee of the Georgia D. A. R.'s was held Wednesday, February 16th, 1910, at the home of the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Howard H. McCall, in Atlanta. A large gathering of the officers and chairmen of standing committees was present, fourteen of the members having come from different parts of the State. Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, State Regent, presided. Letters of regret were received from several of the members.

The minutes of the last Conference, which had been received from the printers January 18th, were presented and accepted by the Board. Owing to the illness of the chairman, Mrs. J. A. Rounsa-ville, of the Resolutions of Thanks and Memorial Committee, the Secretary found it impossible to include the resolutions of these committees in the minutes, and was instructed by the Regent to have the minutes printed. Owing to the importance of these Resolutions, action was taken by the Executive Board to have the Regent appoint a committee to draft certain resolutions and to forward the same to the different chapters in the State. Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, Mrs. Sam Jones and Mrs. Roswell Drake will prepare suitable resolutions concerning the hospitality of Brunswick, the pleasure derived by the Conference of the visit of our esteemed President General, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, and also the regret of the Conference at the resignation of Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, Regent.

The D. A. R.'s in Georgia hold very near to their hearts the Martha Berry School at Rome and this year over $1,200 has been given to the school by individual and chapter collection. The Marietta Chapter has been particularly keen in their interest in this beautiful educational work.

Mrs. I. Y. Sage brought before the Board the resolution passed before the Conference at Brunswick of placing a bust of Georgia Founder, Oglethorpe, in the Memorial Hall at Washington. $356 of the $500 needed is in the hands of the Committee, and it is earnestly hoped that each Chapter will devote part of the proceeds collected from the George Washington birthday party, on the 22nd, to this work—only a few dollars from all the Chapters and the Board earnestly recommends this to the Chapters.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, our ex-Vice-President General, Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, was granted the favor of naming one of the pages for the next Congress at Washington in April. This favor she generously gave to the Regent, who appointed Miss Sophie Meldrim of Savannah for the place.

After much discussion in favor of indorsing the work of our President-General, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott (her platform in favor of all things educational and uplifting being very near the hearts of her Georgia Daughters), Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan moved and it was carried "that the Executive Board wishes to indorse her work of the past and pledge her our support for the future." It was decided to have the "Song of the Revolution" written by Dr. F. H. Orme, dedicated to the Atlanta Chapter, and which has been adopted as a State song by Conference sung at the Congress in Washington just after the Georgia Regent makes her report. Miss Laura Boyd, of Savannah, was chosen as singer by the Executive Board.

The resignation of the State Historian was read and Mrs. Roswell Drake appointed to this office, but on account of being Regent of Pulaski Chapter, Mrs. Drake was unable to accept. Mrs. Morgan moved "that the Regent appoint Historian later." Carried.

The Treasurer's report was read by the Secretary. Mrs. Morgan moved "that $100 due LaHatte Printing Company be paid at once." This is the bill for printing minutes of Conference. Motion was carried. It was moved and seconded "that $4.00 for printing badges be paid." Carried.

Miss Helen Prescott of the Records Committee made a very interesting report, especially of the Ebenezer Records, but as there is no money in the treasury, the Executive Board could only give its very hearty thanks to Miss Prescott and the wish to help her in the future.

Mrs. Redding gave an interesting report of the historical program committee and the interest in this work by various Chapters.

Miss Ruby Ray, State Editor, spoke of the immense importance to us of the saving of the County Records and it was thought best for the Regent to write an open letter to all chapter Regents and to extend the help of the Executive Board to the State Editor in this work. Mrs. Dean, of Palmetto, at her own expense, offered to have the records of her county preserved. Mrs. Sage moved "that we give our approval, both of Miss Ray's and Miss Prescott's work." Carried.

Mrs. Graham, chairman of Georgia Day, gave a full report of the work done by Committee in the past and present and the thanks and loyal support of the Executive Board was given to her.

Report of Miss Cortelyou, the fact of the Marietta Chapter and Cobb County giving over $300 to Martha Berry School was received with applause by the Executive Board.

No action was taken in regard to the Scholarship for the Georgia Normal and Industrial School at Milledgeville, as there were no funds in the treasury.

It was moved by Mrs. Sam Jones "that letters of sympathy be written by Corresponding Secretary to the families of Mrs. R. B. Toy and Mrs. F. O. Foster for the death of these beloved women." Carried.

Mrs. Morgan announced that the unveiling of the Oglethorpe Monument would occur in May and that it was earnestly desired that every Chapter in the State would send a delegate to be present at the unveiling.

Mrs. Morgan asked if the Executive Board would permit her to mention in her address at Washington, in April, that the Georgia D. A. R.'s desired to have their Regent and Vice Regent elected at our Conference and not at Washington. This request was granted by the Board.

The gavel was handed by our beloved Regent to Mrs. Graham, our Regent-elect, as this will be the last Board meeting over which Mrs. Godfrey will preside. A rising vote of thanks and appreciation was given our retiring Regent.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned for luncheon.

Minutes of Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee of the D. A. R.'s in Georgia held a meeting Tuesday, September 20th, at the home of the State Regent, Mrs. John M. Graham, in Marietta. Fourteen members were present. Letters of regret were received from several members. Minutes of the Executive Board meeting held in February were read and approved.

Mrs. Godfrey moved "that minutes of the two board meetings be read at Conference." Carried. In a letter received from Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, expressing her regret at not being able to attend this meeting, she requested that a motion be made in her behalf to postpone the usual order of business, at the opening of the meeting, and "express by a standing vote our deep sorrow and sense of loss in the death of our beloved Mrs. Robert Emory Park." This motion was presented by Mrs. Godfrey and carried. Also "that it be resolved that the Corresponding Secretary convey to Mrs. George M. Brown an expression of our deep sympathy in her bereavment in the death of her mother, Mrs. Hoyt."

By Mrs. Godfrey, resolved "that the Corresponding Secretary be requested to convey to Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan an expression of our deep sympathy."

thy on account of the death of her son, and our regret that she is unable to be with us at this meeting

Our State Regent made a short verbal report of the work accomplished during her Regency, asking that all chairmen make full reports of the work being done by their committees. The reports of the State officers were then given. The following resolutions were adopted. Mrs. S. W. Foster offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we commend the able and efficient manner in which our President General, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, has discharged the duties of her office.

"Resolved, further, that we extend her a cordial invitation to attend our Conference in Savannah.

Mrs. Geo. Brown offered the following, which was carried unanimously:

"Resolved, that the Corresponding Secretary be requested to send an invitation to Mrs. Donald McLean to be present at the State Conference in Savannah."

Mrs. Oscar Peoples offered the following, which was carried:

"Resolved, that the Corresponding Secretary be requested to send an invitation to be present at our State Conference in Savannah to Mrs. Miranda B. Tulloch, Vice-President General in charge of Organization of Chapters."

Mrs. Peoples, seconded by Mrs. Godfrey, moved "that invitations to be present at State Conference be sent to Mrs. Hugh Willet, President State Federation, Miss Alice Baxter, President U. D. C. and Mrs. Wilder, President Colonial Dames." Carried.

The Regent announced that she had appointed Mrs. J. L. Walker, of Waycross, State Historian.

The program which had been prepared by the hostess Chapter was read.

Mrs. Mallory Taylor called attention to the motion made at Brunswick Conference in regard to new business being placed on the program for the second day. Mrs. Foster also called attention to the fact that Chapter reports were limited to three minutes instead of five.

Mrs. Brown, as Vice State Regent, in behalf of the Atlanta Chapter moved "that a committee be appointed by the Regent to place a memorial from the Georgia Chapters to the memory of Mrs. R. E. Park in Memorial Continental Hall in Washington." Carried, and the details of this committee will be left to Regent who appointed Mrs. Geo. Brown chairman. Reports from the various chairmen were then heard. All reports showed that much good work had been accomplished during the last few months.

Credential Committee—Miss Cosens, not present.

Program—Mrs. Bryan, not present; submitted to the Board her report:

On account of the lack of funds, not very much work has been accomplished by the Historic Sites and Monument Committee. Mrs. Brown moved "that the Executive Board recommend that a sinking fund be raised for the work of this committee, especially the Ebenezer records which require money just at this time." Carried. Twenty-five dollars was given as a nucleus for this fund, five dollars each by Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, Mrs. Hardaway, Mrs. John M. Graham, Mrs. Geo. M. Brown and Mrs. S. W. Foster.

Splendid reports were given by:

Mrs S. W. Foster, chairman Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves.

Miss Fannie Glover, chairman Berry School Scholarship.

Compulsory Education, chairman Mrs. Mallory Taylor.

Real Daughters, chairman Mrs. Robert Hardaway.

Under the new ruling by the National Society, "all money contributed for educational work in Georgia from D. A. R. must be sent to the Regent, or her appointee, who will forward it to the Treasurer General, who will send it to the proper place. This is only to let Georgia have a National Credit for her educational work.

Report on Conservation was given by Mrs. A. O. Harper.

As chairman of Memorial Committee, Mrs. Peebles asks that all names of deceased members be sent to her as soon as possible. The Recording Secretary asked that the $15.00 allowed her for stenographer at State Conference be given for helping publish a list of the Georgia D. A. R. in minute book. Mrs Foster moved "that this money be given for that purpose." Carried. Mrs. Foster moved that incidental expenses, incurred by State officers, be paid out of State Treasury." Seconded by Mrs. Taylor and carried.

Letter from Mrs. John M. Bryan asking that Corresponding Secretary send out to the Regents of all the chapters the following announcement: "that at the next conference she would offer an amendment to By-law IV, section 3, to read: 'Recommendations for nominations shall be by a committee formed of Chapter Regents, elections by ballot.'" Mrs. Taylor moved "that the Board recommend that any member or chapter who wishes to amend By-laws shall send these amendments in writing to all Chapter Regents sixty days in advance of conference at their own expense." Carried.

Mrs. S. Atkinson, chairman Press Committee, made short report.

The Regent spoke of the new Chapters being formed, a full report to be given at Conference.

Mrs. Godfrey moved "that telegram of invitation be sent to Mrs. Scott and Mrs. McLean."

Miss Ray made motion "to recommend to State Conference that whereas our State Regent, while State Editor, did such noble work in calling the attention of the D. A. R.'s of the State to the long neglected graves of Revolutionary soldiers, and through this effort many graves have been located and marked, the State Conference appoint a day to be Memorial Day when the Chapters will decorate the Revolutionary graves in or near their towns as a tribute to the services rendered by these men to our country, and therefore, continue the interest started by Mrs. Graham." Carried.

Mrs. Peebles moved "that we recommend to the Conference to memorialize the State Legislature and ask that a monument be erected on the State Capitol grounds, or some other suitable place, in honor of the memory of the heroes of the Revolution, buried in Georgia soil, said memorial to bear all names of soldiers buried in this State." Carried.

Mrs. Godfrey moved "that the Executive Committee recommend that the State Conference be carried over from November 1910 to 1912, prior to Congress 1912." Carried.

Mrs. Brown moved "that this Conference be held in March or April." Miss Ray amended this "by moving that we have Conference in the Spring at a date not to interfere with Lent." Carried.

Mrs. Mallory Taylor moved "that all Chapters be informed of the action of the Executive Committee in regard to the change of date of Conference."

Upon motion of Mrs. Foster, a rising vote of thanks was given to our State Regent for the delightful day spent at her home and our appreciation of the good work done within the last few months.

Before a chairman was elected Mrs. Morgan explained to the delegates present, that on account of sickness, the State Regent, Mrs. P. W. Godfrey was unable to be present and had asked the Washington authorities to allow Mrs. Morgan to act as her alternate.

Mrs. Mallory Taylor then moved "that as the State Regent had made this request, that Mrs. Morgan be made chairman of this meeting." Seconded and carried. It was moved and seconded "that Mrs. Mallory Taylor be made Recording Secretary." Carried.

It was announced that as the State Regent's alternate was not present, at the session that afternoon, Miss Benning at the request of the delegation from Georgia, had answered for Georgia at the roll call. As the young lady appointed to sing the "Song of the Revolution" for Congress could not be present, it was moved and carried "that the chairman attend to the appointment of some one to fill her place."

Mrs. Morgan read the report of the Executive Board of February, 1910. The election of State officers resulted as follows:

MRS. MALLORY TAYLOR

APPENDIX

Address of Welcome by Mrs. J. M. Bryan.

Madam Regent, Honored Guests, Daughters of the American Revolution:

Welcome, thrice welcome, to Savannah; to our hearts and homes; to the city that Oglethorpe founded; to the spot he found "goodly for a settlement," and which his followers have found so goodly, that their long broad asphalt streets stretch East and West, and from the river's bank, out, out, to the great meadows of golden-rod, and bowers of the Cherokee roses—pleasant places where we invite your foot-steps to linger, but not of our pleasant places, nor our honored historic spots shall I speak, as I bid you a warm welcome but leaving that for abler tongue than mine, will instead give you the key-note of a purpose, which I am sure will find an echo in your hearts.

It has been said of us (by casual acquaintances) that as an organization, we take ourselves "too seriously." To take one's self seriously in large affair, is as it should be. Was ever great deed in merry jest? Was ever battle fought, and won or lost, 'midst song and laughter? Was ever nation built, or nation overthrown, by careless chance? Surely not, to take one's self seriously in things worth while to do, is the heart-throb of a determined purpose. We have behind us some wonderfully great deeds for so short a life as we have lived, and yet young as we are, our watchword echoes from the mountain tops, to the booming billows of the mighty ocean, and over the wide waters, into the lands beyond our watch-word. The perpetuation of noble American deeds. Education for the young children throughout our American land.

We women must "take ourselves seriously" when we look into the face of the "little boy guiding the plow" and into the weary eyes of the "little mother" and in our ringing call for compulsory education we must indeed be serious, and determined. To give these splendid American children a chance only a chance—a few hours each day must be the watchword of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia.

Education is the foundation-stone of a nation's power. Then can we American people afford to trifle with the pressing moment? We do not have to go down into the slums of a great city to find the tired, drooping little drudges shut out by endless labors, from a ray of educational enlightenment, we do not have to seek them among the paupers, and beggars, below the darksome wharfs. We can find them, and often, in the homes of the stubborn, narrow-minded, or careless, selfish, middle-classes.

As I look upon this gathering of intelligent, thoughtful women, I am more sure than ever, that to take one's self seriously in matters of concern the helpless young of our land, is what has been the tremendous upbuilding of this great Society. To do what one finds to do with one's might, makes life worth living. Women of Georgia, let us do this with our united might!

And the flowers will hold a new perfume
And the course of each star a new light;
And the ebb, the flow of the tide waves—
As they sway in the moon's mystic light.
Will unfold with their circling system,
New wonder's of God's gracious plan,
To the youth and the maid of the Southland,
That knowledge has helped to expand.

Response to the Welcome.

By Mrs. Joseph H. Morgan.

Madam Regent, Officers, Members and Friends: When the invitation from your Committee came asking me to make the response to the cordial extended by our sister chapters and the Mayor of Savannah, I hesitated to and beautifully expressed words of welcome, which has been so graciously accept—feeling that I was unable to convey, in fitting words, the pleasure it is for us to meet with you; especially on the eve of such a great occasion as the unveiling of a monument to the soldier, philanthropist and Georgia's Founder, Oglethorpe.

From the time of his landing, the cordial hospitality of Savannah has been one of its many charming characteristics. Tomichichi and other braves were so impressed with this spirit, that they became our friends.

This City has been peculiarly blessed in having, in and near it, so many historic spots. The first captive of the War of the Revolution was made at Tybee Island, and of the thirteen thousand pounds of powder captured, five thousand were sent to Boston and used in the Bunker Hill fights.

Daughters, in all these lovely surroundings, let us not forget that much of this gracious welcome is, because we represent a great patriotic organization.

This society which now spans this entire country, was organized for the specific purpose of memorializing the men who fought that we might have a free government, marking with appropriate tablets the memorable events of the days of the Revolution. Restoring and preserving all records of the history of that time.

Are we as Daughters fulfilling the promises we made when we became members of this great order? Are we training our children and the children of other nations, who are coming in ship-loads to this country, to be patriotic Americans? How many of our high school graduates are familiar with the Declaration of Independence and what it stands for? Are they taught to appreciate historic days that mark some great event?

Let the Daughters, this coming Fourth of July, and other eventful days, enlist the young men and boys in a sane and educational observation of these occasions.

Again, in behalf of the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, I thank you for your cordial greeting. May our Heavenly Father guide and direct us in the deliberation of this Convention to the good and up-building of this organization and may Heaven's choicest blessings rest upon Savannah and its people.

Welcome by Mrs. W. A. Winburn.

Savannah Chapter sends a cordial greeting to the Regent, Officers and members of the 13th annual State Conference and bids you welcome to our city and thrice welcome to the hospitality of our Chapter.

Greetings from Mrs. John M. Graham, State Regent.

Honored Guests and Daughters of the American Revolution:

As a pilgrim journeys to Mecca, so we, Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, have come to the cradle of our State, the spot where its founder first set foot on Georgia soil, the city which he planned and built and loved, the birthplace of the revolution in this State, and a battleground rich with memories of that immortal conflict.

Standing on this historic spot and with these memories crowding upon us, we deeply realize the special tie that binds these Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution to Savannah. We love our mother city, we are proud of it, we delight to come to it. We are proud of it not only for what it was, but for what it is. We are proud of it because in all the changes of these changeful times it preserves and exemplifies the best traditions of that past which is so dear to every true daughter of our Southern land, and especially to us of this society, dedicated, as we are, to the work of keeping alive the memories of our older civilization. Among those traditions of the old South there is none of which we are prouder than that of the old Southern hospitality; and here we find that hospitality at its best.

Here too, in this city of monuments we find a people congenial with us in our aim of honoring with fitting memorials the patriots and heroes of our history.

When we last assembled here we joined in doing honor to the memory of General Nathaniel Greene, whose re-interment was then commemorated by a bronze tablet erected by the Savannah Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution; and we attended the unveiling of the fountain erected at Jasper Spring by the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter. And now we are here to witness the realization of the hopes of our society in Georgia, and of other patriotic societies, which for many years have been laboring with us for the erection of a monument in this city to the beloved founder of our commonwealth.

During the eight years that have passed since our last meeting in Savannah great strides have been made by our society. In that period our membership in Georgia has almost doubled. The number of cities and towns represented has more than doubled, and chapters are being formed in a number of others. Our society at large has swelled its membership to eighty thousand, and is the largest and most active and influential patriotic organization of women that the world has ever seen.

During those eight years there has been a great broadening of the aims and work of the society, but without any departure from the lines planned in its constitution. While we are first of all a memorial and historical society, we are much more than that. We seek not merely to keep alive the memory of the patriotism of our revolutionary fathers, but our eyes are turned to the future; and when all the monuments have been built and all the historic sites marked, there will remain to us living patriotic interests to appeal to our hearts and to call forth the best that is in us. It is our mission to instill and foster high ideals and a true spirit of patriotism in those to whom will be committed the future destinies of our country, and to aid those who are denied the educational opportunities needed to fit them for good citizenship. And true patriotism bids us to labor for the betterment of our own communities, as well as for the good of our common country.

To the breadth and variety of the patriotic interests that engage our activities are due the wonderful growth and vitality of our society.

I am glad to look into the faces of so many of those who have been attending these gatherings in the long years we have worked together, and to welcome among us those who come for the first time, and who are to carry on the work we have begun and to improve upon it.

In the session upon which we are about to enter we shall have but a brief time to review the work we have done and to discuss plans for the future. I hope, however, that we shall hear from every chapter, as well as from each committee, and that we shall have as full and free discussion of each question brought before us as our limited time will permit.

I feel that I need not urge that our proceedings shall be characterized by harmony and by that high courtesy of which the members of this society—the flower of American gentlewomen—should be the chief exemplars.

This accomplished, we shall return to our homes with pleasant memories and new ideas, with old ties strengthened and new friendships formed, ready to labor with fresh inspiration and enthusiasm for the noble aims of our society.

State Regent's Report from November till April, 1910.

Trips in the State for D. A. R. extension work 4

The State Regent's visits to Savannah, Valdosta, Madison and Monticello were most enjoyable and a great stimulus to the work.

Amount raised for Berry School was between one thousand and fifteen hundred dollars, for which our organization should feel justly proud, and this work was of greatest importance to the cause of the future generations. The money was needed there to help to get the fifty thousand dollars promised Miss Berry should she raise the amount needed to assure her the endowment. Just so now, we must work for the preservation of our old records which if left for a few years will be beyond recall. Daughters, lend every effort to aid Mrs. Wilson in securing this amount as well as the other demands of the several schools that need our help. It was a great disappointment to the State Regent that she was not able to attend the last Congress, but circumstances over which I had no control held me back. However, Georgia secured from the Congress what she asked and that was the election of Miss Benning as Vice-President General for*which we are grateful, for Miss Benning to have lost would have meant the State Conference's endorsement to have meant nothing.

The fine work that Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan has accomplished, particularly in the matter of the Oglethorpe monument, where she succeeded in having the inscription changed, is one of the greatest good we have done, and we are deeply grateful for the love and energy placed thereto, and the Oglethorpe monument which is being unveiled in your midst, speaks much for the D. A. R. as well as the other organizations.

With grateful appreciation of the support you have given me in the past and with the knowledge that you will stand by the present State Regent as you have always done, and with the prayer that only love and harmony will attend all of your undertakings,

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. GODFREY.

Report of State Regent.

A State Regent, commissioned in May, and committees appointed when Chapters are about to suspend work for the summer, have only a brief period of work to review in reports made in November. This is said not merely by way of apology, but to suggest the desirability of holding our annual meetings near the close of an administration, when officers and committees may render a full account of their stewardship before turning over the work to their successors.

The records of this conference should not be silent as to the work done by my predecessor, Mrs. Godfrey, in the latter half of her term as State Regent, and she has been requested to furnish to us the report made by her at the congress last April, or such other report on the subject as she may deem proper, for publication with the proceedings of the conference.

Membership.

There has been a steady increase of membership in our society in the State. We have now about 1,500 members in Georgia. About 250 have been admitted in the year just closed.

Chapters.

It is believed that a material increase in the number of Chapters will soon be made. Two new Chapters completed their organization this fall, and were named in honor of two of Georgia's revolutionary heroes—the David Meriwether, of Greenville, and the Governor Irwin, of Sandersville. The Henry Walton, of Madison, was organized last winter.

Regents have been appointed to form chapters at Bainbridge, Barnesville, Buford, Cedartown, College Park, Dalton, Dawson, Eatonton, Fitzgerald, LaGrange, St. Simons, Swainsboro, Sylvania, Tennille, Thomaston and Tifton, and there has been much correspondence with a view to forming chapters in a number of other places. In this work assistance has been rendered by the committee on organization of Chapters, of which the second vice-regent, Mrs. DeVoe, is chairman. Suggestions and help are requested of members of the conference as to extension of this work into localities which have no Chapters.

The members of two of the Chapters in Atlanta—the Thomas Jefferson and the Sarah McIntosh—feeling that they could do better work by uniting with other chapters, have disbanded and transferred their membership, the entire list of members of the Sarah McIntosh being transferred to the Joseph Habersham Chapter.

Committees.

Much time was given to the formation of committees, and several new committees have been created. The large size of some of the committees is due to a desire to put chapters and members more fully in touch with the work of the State organization, and to secure their active help in that work.

Mrs. J. L. Walker, of Waycross, was appointed to fill the vacancy in the office of State historian.

Officers and committee chairmen have shown great interest in their work. Thirteen members of the executive board were present, and communications were received from others, at the meeting of the board in Marietta on the 20th of September, and considerable business was transacted. Several matters of interest and importance were brought up, which will be presented to the conference in the report of that meeting.

Correspondence.

The correspondence conducted during the last six months includes about 400 letters written by me as State Regent, and a very much larger number of communications sent out by our faithful and efficient corresponding secretary, Miss Cortelyou.

Historic Sites and Monuments.

The first work mentioned in The Constitution of the Daughters of the American Revolution is "the acquisition and protection of historic sites, and the erection of monuments."

Of our work in regard to the Oglethorpe monument you will hear in the report to be presented by our Oglethorpe monument committee through its chairman, Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, a distinguished pioneer member and former State Regent and vice-president general of this society, who headed the first committee appointed on the subject.

Oglethorpe Trail.

The marking of the Oglethorpe trail—so strongly urged by our former state regent, Miss Benning, is one of the undertakings of the future which I commend to your consideration.

Bloody Marsh Memorial.

To commemorate the victory of Oglethorpe and his troops at the battle of Bloody Marsh, it is proposed that a memorial be placed at Frederica, and in pursuance of a resolution introduced by Mrs. J. H. Redding, of Waycross, a committee consisting of herself and Mrs. W. H. DeVoe and Mrs. Bolling Whitfield, of Brunswick, has been appointed to confer with senators and representatives with a view to securing an appropriation from the national government for this purpose.

Kettle Creek Monument.

The efforts of the Kettle Creek Chapter, of Washington, are likely soon to bear fruit in the erection of a monument on the site of the Battle of Kettle Creek. A letter, recently received from Congressman Howard, who introduced a bill providing for the erection of the monument, says: "This bill was reported favorably at the last session of congress, and I hope to be able to pass it at the approaching session."

The site of the battle was purchased by the Kettle Creek Chapter, and a public road to it has been opened.

Screven and Stewart Monuments.

Favorable action has also been taken as to appropriations for the erection of monuments by the national government to the revolutionary generals Screven and Stewart at Midway Church.

Memorial Arch to Revolutionary Soldiers.

The Savannah Chapter expects soon to erect its memorial in Colonial cemetery to revolutionary soldiers buried there.

Monument to Revolutionary Soldiers.

It is felt that our State, which has been generous in the erection of monuments to its soldiers of a later period, should erect also a monument to its soldiers of the revolutionary war. In pursuance of a resolution offered by Mrs. Oscar T. Peeples, at the meeting of the executive board, she has been appointed chairman of a committee to endeavor to procure the erection of such a monument by the State on the capitol grounds at Atlanta.

Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves.

One of the new standing committees is the committee on revolutionary soldiers' graves, the chairman of which is the former able regent of the Atlanta Chapter, Mrs. S. W. Foster, who will present a report on the subject. I urge your co-operation with her committee in this work. In the location and marking of such graves, Georgia is much behind many of the other States.

Tablets.

The Nancy Hart Chapter, of Milledgeville, has in view the marking of the old capitol and executive mansion in that city with bronze tablets bearing appropriate inscriptions.

The Piedmont Chapter, of Atlanta, has followed up its placing of the Junia McKinley memorial on the walls of the state library in Atlanta, by raising funds to mark with a bronze tablet the Indian treaty stone at Indian Spring.

Monument Fund.

Many of our historic sites are in localities where no chapter exists, and the State organization has no fund in hand for the marking of such sites. Two things are desired in order that due progress should be made in this work—the establishment of chapters in these localities, and the accumulation of a fund by the State conference for work of this character.

A movement to start such a fund was begun at the meeting of the executive board, by Mrs. George M. Brown, first vice regent, chairman of the committee on historic sites and monuments, and several contributions were made for it. The subject of historic sites and monuments will be further dealt with in the reports of the committees.

The setting apart of a day by memorial associations and the State for placing flowers upon the graves of patriots who fought in the war between the States is in striking contrast with the neglect shown to the graves of those who fought in the revolution. A recommendation on this subject, offered by Miss Ray and adopted at the meeting of our executive board, will be read to you from the minutes of the board.

Meadow Garden.

It is important that I should call attention to the historic site for which we have a standing committee—the Meadow Garden committee, headed by Mrs. Harriet Gould Jefferies, honorary State Regent. We, in Georgia, have been peculiarly fortunate in having the national society purchase this site for us in honor of the memory of one of Georgia's signers of the Declaration of Independence, George Walton, whose home it was; it has not been usual for the society at large to purchase historic sites. It now rests with us to keep it in a proper state of preservation and to make it attractive as well as useful.

It is very desirable to us that our society should have in this State a storehouse and museum of its own for revolutionary relics, and we have this at Meadow Garden. Mrs. Jefferies, having labored to secure the purchase of Meadow Garden by the national society, has since made it an object of constant care, and she is now appealing to you to assist her and the Augusta Chapter by subscriptions of money for the proper maintenance of the property and for donations of relics for the museum and of appropriate books for the library. If each Chapter would make even a small contribution the total would be of material help. A descriptive pamphlet, with a catalog, is sold for the benefit of Meadow Garden.

Records.

The notes and extracts made by the chairman of our committee on records, Miss Helen M. Prescott, from county records and other documents in old counties of Georgia visited by her in behalf of and at the expense of her Chapter, the Joseph Habersham Chapter, of Atlanta, were published a few months ago in volume 3 of the Joseph Habersham Chapter Historical Collections. They contain much valuable data as to marriages, births, deaths and other matters of interest in the early days of the State.

Credit is due to our State Editor, Miss Ray, for efforts through the D. A.

R. department of The Atlanta Constitution, which have led several chapters to investigate the condition of the county records in their counties and to attempt to bring about some improvement in the manner of keeping records. It is hoped that more chapters will appoint committees for this purpose.

The translation and preservation of the records of the Salzburger Church, of Ebenezer, is an important matter which was discussed at the meeting of the executive board and will be dealt with in the report of the committee on records. Contributions are desired for this object.

Historical Program.

A committee on historical program was created by Mrs. Godfrey, with Mrs. J. H. Redding, of Waycross, as chairman, for the purpose of preparing programs of historical study for Chapters desiring them. Mrs. Redding has continued as chairman and has taken a deep interest in the work of this committee and chapters have found the programs very helpful.

Georgia Day.

Keeping in mind what the constitution of our national society says as to celebration of patriotic anniversaries, and what is said in the by-laws of our State Conference as to perpetuation of Georgia history, it has been deemed advisable to retain among the Standing Committees a Georgia Day Committee, though the object for which the original committee was appointed has been attained in the adoption of the Georgia Day law. This committee might properly be called a committee for promoting the study of Georgia history in the schools. Last winter the State School Commissioner, Mr. Pound, in recognition of the work done by our Georgia Day committee in procuring the adoption of the Georgia Day law, addressed a letter to me, as chairman of the committee, requesting that we undertake the preparation of programs of exercises and other matter for use in the public schools on that day. In reply he was requested to write to Miss Mildred Rutherford, a member of the committee, and I wrote to her requesting her, as one of the committee, and as a distinguished educator deeply interested in Georgia history, to undertake this work. The result was the admirable pamphlet prepared by her and issued by the State School Commissioner, and sent to all the schools last February. The day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and interest in the schools, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy joined in celebrating it, having adopted it as their flag day. Miss Rutherford is now chairman of the Georgia Day committee.

Fourth of July.

Chapters throughout the country are trying to bring about a more suitable observance of the Fourth of July, or, as it is called, a "saner Fourth." I commend to your attention the report of the Atlanta chapter on this subject, which tells of its participation, under the leadership of its regent, Mrs. Joseph H. Morgan, in exercises held on the Fourth of July at St. Philip's cathedral in that city, Bishop Nelson officiating, at the request of the chapter.

Education.

The constitution of our society, in a quotation from Washington's farewell address, places before us, as one of the objects of the society, the education of youth, so as to prepare them for the duties of citizenship, and there is a growing tendency among our members to extend the society's work on this line. There are no objects more patriotic, and none that appeal more strongly to both head and heart, than the education, the protection, and the betterment of those children upon whom the future of our country must depend. In most of the States ample educational facilities and compulsory education laws leave comparatively little to be done by our society in respect to elementary education. In Georgia and neighboring States, conditions are different, especially in mountain districts, away from the railroads. There we have a sturdy people of revolutionary stock, mostly poor, with children growing up in ignorance, walled off by mountain barriers from advantages enjoyed by children in other parts of the country, yet who, by education, could be made into a fine type of citizens and would add greatly to the prestige and influence of this section. The Daughters of the American Revolution in all parts of the country, disregarding narrow sectional considerations, are directing their attention to these people, and are raising money and sending it to the south for schools and scholarships among our mountain people. What an inspiring example of unselfish patriotism it is, and how proud we should feel to be members of this great society. When we see the Daughters in Massachusetts with a Berry school committee raising funds for this Georgia school, and in one year sending more than a thousand dollars to it for the education of Georgia boys. Shall we in Georgia do less? I hope the Georgia chapters will this year repeat the splendid record in behalf of education made by them last year under my predecessor, who now heads our committee on patriotic education. While not desiring to confine our help to any particular school, I have appointed, in addition to that committee, a Berry school committee, with Miss Fannie Glover as chairman, and she will present to you an interesting report, showing work done by her committee, outside as well as in this State. In continuing to direct special attention to this school, we are doing what other organizations in the State are doing for particular schools. There are other schools which are being aided by our Chapters, as you will hear from the Chapter reports, as well as the report of the Committee on Patriotic Education.

One of the delegates to this conference, Mrs. Logan E. Bleckley, of Clarkesville, is the founder of a mountain school at Clayton—the Logan E. Bleckley Memorial school—for which assistance is asked.

State Scholarship.

At the conference last year a resolution was adopted that a scholarship valued at $50, at the Georgia Normal and Industrial School at Milledgeville, be given to the girl in Georgia writing the best essay on an historical subject selected by the scholarship committee; but no fund was raised for this purpose. Mrs. Howard H. McCall has been appointed chairman of the committee.

Children of the Republic.

It is the desire of the national society that clubs of Children of the Republic be established in each State. While the clubs have been established chiefly for the purpose of Americanizing the children of foreigners, they are intended also for the training of other children in good citizenship, and I hope to see some of these clubs established in Georgia. I would be glad to communicate with any members inclined to assist in such work.

Child Labor.

Associated with the subject last mentioned is the proper regulation of child labor, upon which a report will be read by Mrs. J. A. Rounsaville, as chairman of the committee on child labor.

Moving Picture Shows.

Some of the chapters have made successful efforts to have objectionable pictures removed from certain moving picture shows. By arrangement with proprietors of such exhibitions, good educational work can be done through them. Slides for temporary use may be obtained at moderate cost from our national society's committee on patriotic education.

Conservation.

In the work of the national society much prominence has recently been given a place on the program of State conferences and of many chapters. Our committee of last year on the preservation of Tallulah Falls has been succeeded by a committee on conservation, the chairman of which is Mrs. A. O. Harper, daughter of that great conservator of human life, Crawford W. Long, the discoverer of anaesthesia. I was glad to have the opportunity last summer of appearing, as a representative of the society, before a committee of the state senate, to advocate legislation for the preservation of Tallulah Falls. The legislature has adopted a resolution urging congress to pass the Appalachian national park bill, which will include Tallulah Falls. Our national board of management is advocating this measure.

The work of our organization was recognized in the appointment of myself by Governor Brown as a delegate to the Southern Conservation Congress, which I attended, in Atlanta in October, and I was requested to appoint five additional delegates from our society in Georgia. These were appointed from our committee on conservation, and three of them—Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Logan E. Bleckley and Mrs. Porter King—attended the congress.

American Monthly Magazine.

I urge a better support of the official organ of our society, the American Monthly Magazine.

It is hoped that every chapter, as well as individual members, will subscribe for it, and that our chapters will send to it reports of their work. In the reports published in it will be found many useful suggestions as to work and entertainment, and valuable historical and genealogical matter. This year every subscriber received without extra charge, the book of 648 pages containing the proceedings of the last congress of the society—itsself worth more than the yearly subscription price of the Magazine. There has been some increase in the number of subscriptions from Georgia since the appointment of our Magazine committee, of which Mrs. S. M. Dean is chairman.

Smithsonian Reports.

The United States government publishes annually, in a report issued by the Smithsonian Institution, information as to the work of our society and its chapters, and I urge that each of the Georgia chapters comply with the request of the assistant historian general, Mrs. H. S. Bowron, and send her by the first of December, a report of its work from October, 1909, to October, 1910.

Reports to State Editor.

I urge also more general co-operation with our State Editor, Miss Ray, in furnishing information to her as to chapter proceedings.

Memorials: Continental Hall.

The needs of Memorial Continental Hall will be brought to your attention by our vice president general, Miss Benning, who is chairman of the committee on the subject.

Emily Hendree Park Memorial.

In this connection attention is called to the proposed Emily Hendree Park Memorial, to be placed in Continental Hall. As to this you will hear more fully from the chairman of the committee appointed on the memorial, Mrs. George M. Brown.

Mary Hammond Washington Memorial.

At the last congress of our national society, Mrs. William L. Peel, of Atlanta, chairman of the committee on real daughters, proposed a subscription for a bust to the late Mrs. Mary Hammond Washington, of Macon, Ga., the first real daughter in the society and founder of the chapter which bears her name, this bust to be placed in Memorial Continental Hall. This matter will be more fully presented to you at the proper time.

Report of Proceedings.

It is proposed that a full directory of our members in Georgia be published in the pamphlet containing the proceedings of this conference.

It is desirable that a copy of the proceedings be mailed to each member. A large proportion, if not a majority, have not been receiving these reports. To mail each member a copy, however, would entail extra expense and some provision should be made for meeting this expense.

I wish to acknowledge our indebtedness to our very efficient recording secretary, Mrs. Howard H. McCall, for her excellent report of the proceedings of the last conference and for its early publication.

Year Books.

I have been glad to receive beautifully prepared year books from several chapters. Copies of year books should be sent to the librarian general of the national society as well as to the State Regent. A rule was adopted at the last congress prescribing a uniform size for year books— $5\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ inches—for convenience in filing.

Chapter Reports.

The work of chapters for civic improvement, the building of chapter houses and other matters of interest will be brought before you in chapter reports, to which I invite your attention.

Report of State Historian.

The Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia have left little undone in the way of promoting patriotism and in commemorating the deeds of brave men and women. They have worked among the law-makers until "Georgia Day" will be observed for ages to come. They have offered prizes for the purpose of encouraging the study of American history. They are marking the graves of the Revolutionary soldiers who are sleeping in our State.

In seeking information for unrecorded events, I have gathered bits of history which are to be inserted in a little book called, "Lost Towns of Georgia." This book contains forty towns, some of whose lives have almost passed into silence. Some of the traditions that I have obtained came from aged people, who had once lived in these places, and whose memories are reliable on historical facts.

A field for original research lies before us. Our State is rich in history and romance of a time when our world was young, and knighthood was in flower. My thoughts turned backward into the grim and distant past when a race alien to ours in dress and custom inhabited this land, and the "Great Spirit" went about making the world beautiful. "Nature was then primeval, and reveled in space." Quaint and curiously gabled villages dotted the countryside and the Indian trail led to the wigwam in the forest where the flowers bloomed and birds and brooks sang with a low and rippling melody. That was ages ago, and time has swept back on the bosom of a Lethian stream the Indian legends, and the life of the ninety-eight Indian towns that once existed. I have only located ten villages, with a meager history of each, Coleraine and Chiaha, being the most complete.

The Old Stage Coach.

While looking for something to record in the year book of our Chapter, I came across the history of the old stage coach line. I had heard of its passing from lips that now are dust. There are few people living to-day who remember the old stage coach, and heard the joyous sound of the horn and the sharp crack of the driver's whip as he proudly flourished it "over the leaders." Few have seen the open-mouthed wonder of the small boy as the lumbering vehicle drew up to the station. In those days when Milledgeville was the capitol, each stage line was reckoned from there. The line from Milledgeville to Augusta was eighty-eight miles in length. It passed through Sparta, Warrenton, Sweetwater, Kirkpatrick and Ligon. The fare for the whole distance was ten dollars. Southern Georgia was very thinly settled at that time, and from Milledgeville to St. Mary's was a most monotonous journey. Only three towns were passed on the entire way. The first was Jacksonville, then the county site of Telfair, but now classed among the dead towns. The next place was Carver's, next came Wareboro, at that time the County site of Ware. Here the horses were changed for the last time before reaching St. Mary's.

The most telling work undertaken by the Daughters of the American Revolution is that of conservation. It has been truthfully said that "he who plants a tree, becomes a public benefactor." An oak tree will outlive two generations, which history clearly demonstrates in the "Wesley Oak" at Frederica. Arbor Day has been adopted by many of the Chapters. It is observed in Southern Georgia on the 5th of December, the school children taking part in the exercises. Some of the Chapters are begging for the preservation of Georgia's forest lands. The burning of the wire grass for pasture is a means of greater destruction to the forests than any other source.

These destructive fires consume, each year, thousands of dollars worth of yellow pine. An alarming fact is before us. Will we, like Palestine, have, in the coming years, a treeless country? Palestine has no forests of any description, and the only trees that they have are fruit trees, with now and then a cypress in a garden. If this generation fails to do its part toward the preservation of our natural resources, it accumulates misfortune upon those who come after. Each generation has its problems, not only for its own well-being but for the well-being of those yet to come. If we permit the natural resources of our land to be destroyed, so that we hand over to our children a heritage diminished in value, we truly prove our unfitness to stand in the forefront of a civilized people. It has been said that our forests are the best defense against cold and floods, which in the past have during a single twelve months destroyed property officially valued at twice what it would cost to own the Southern Appalachian Reserve.

Report of the State Editor.

To the State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution for Georgia:

At the State Conference for 1909, held in Brunswick, I was elected State Editor for the full term, beginning the latter part of April, 1910. Mrs. W. C. Clark, my predecessor, having resigned, I was appointed by the State Regent to fill her unexpired term, beginning the second week in December, 1909. I therefor bring you a report for one year's work, lacking two weeks.

Upon taking charge of the office, I at once wrote each Chapter Regent asking that news of Chapter work, together with the election of officers and entertainments be sent in for publication in our D. A. R. column. The response was good and during the year 75 Chapter reports and news articles have appeared in our Column from 32 different chapters. Still there are 8 Chapters that have not been heard from. We trust they will yet forward something for publication.

I wish the Chapter Regents could more fully realize the value of a publicity organ. The D. A. R. column in the Atlanta Constitution has been of great benefit to our Society in Georgia. Each Chapter Regent should keep in touch with the work, both State and National, and this cannot be done unless they read the two columns in the Atlanta Constitution devoted to D. A. R. news.

For the benefit of our members, I want to say that the Sunday edition of the Atlanta Constitution containing D. A. R. column, including genealogy, can be had at the subscription price of $2.00 per year.

Under my management, I am pleased to say, the D. A. R. Department has appeared in each edition of the Sunday Constitution during the year, with the entire two columns allotted us filled, except on a few occasions, when our space was cut down to give room for other matter.

During the year your State Editor has written twelve editorials, and eighteen articles of some length. She early realized that through her pen she had an opportunity to aid the noble work, to which the D. A. R.'s stand pledged and has labored earnestly to gather facts and history for these articles.

She has worked especially to impress upon the Chapters the importance of caring for and preserving their County Records, especially the County Newspapers, containing as they do, the current history of the County, a source from which much valuable information may be drawn by Historians.

In the Spring of 1910, Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, State Regent at the time, sent out a circular letter to all Chapter Regents asking that they investigate the condition of their County Records and make report to the State Editor. Four Chapters only responded, sending in full reports. Nearly all found that some recommendation should be made to the County authorities.

I now, again, make appeal to each Regent to examine into the condition of your County Records and send in the report for publication. This work is to the honor of our Society in Georgia, and if continually pressed, will result in better care of these priceless records.

The chief burden of the editorial work has fallen upon the State Editor. In October, 1910, Miss Maude Clark Penn, of Monticello, was appointed an assistant, and is sure to be a valuable addition to our staff.

Mrs. W. S. Wilson of Savannah, was up to that time, our only assistant; her aid was invaluable, handling as she did, fully three-fourths of the genealogical matter which appeared, in a way thoroughly satisfactory. Two long family records have appeared, more than 78 queries about families and 41 answers, coming from London, England, the Northwest, Texas and all the Southern States.

Genealogy is a very valuable Department of our editorial work. I fear we Daughters in Georgia fail to realize what a privilege it is to have the great benefit of the wide circulation of the Atlanta Constitution for this purpose. Many have been enabled to join our Society through information obtained through our D. A. R. column.

The answers to queries number but little more than one-half the questions asked. I urge each Daughter of our Society to read these queries and to send in answers whenever they can.

The State Editor desires to thank Dr. W. B. Burroughs of Brunswick, for two valuable articles.

An article I am especially gratified to note, appeared July 24, 1910, to-wit: "Rules of Parliamentary Law, Briefed for Use of Chapters," which we trust will be of some service to our members.

Mrs. J. L. Walker, of Waycross, the State Historian, has contributed eight interesting articles concerning certain dead towns in Georgia.

It has been of great advantage to me in my work, to be in personal touch with the staff of the Atlanta Constitution. Mr. Francis Clarke has been especially kind, aiding me in many ways. Two editorials have appeared in the daily Constitution, commending the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, one upon the Preservation of County Records, the other upon the Marking of Historic Spots.

The Savannah Press also had an editorial upon our work for the Preserving of County Records, for which we now return thanks.

The Atlanta Constitution has furnished me with D. A. R. News from the Clipping Bureau and several times, has telegraphed its correspondents to assist me in collecting certain news items. Still it is nearly impossible to induce them to print upon the Woman's Club Page certain articles, such as addresses, poems, and papers read at Chapter meetings. This is our excuse for the failure of some articles of this kind to appear in our D. A. R. column. Besides the regular duties connected with the office of State Editor, there is much necessary correspondence to be done. I have during the year, written 70 letters and 43 postal cards, besides sending out upon request, many newspapers containing our D. A. R. Column.

Looking back on the year's work, I cannot help but feel gratified at the result. It has been at times hard, but I love the work and I love our noble Order, which has made it a work of love. I want to thank all who have given me assistance and especially the Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia, who have so kindly commented upon my work.

Respectfully submitted,

RUBY FELDER RAY, State Editor.

REPORTS OF CHAIRMEN OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Report of Chairman Memorial Continental Hall Committee

Madam Regent and Ladies of the Conference:

Since the National Board of Management has taken two thousand dollars as the price of the Memorial Column, and since Georgia has given more than that amount, the Chairman of your committee, in her report at Brunswick, recommended that the balance in excess of the two thousand dollars be devoted to some memorial appropriate to the State. Her report being accepted, Mrs. I. Y. Sage moved that it be made the nucleus of a fund to pay for a bust of General Oglethorpe, to be placed in the rotunda of Memorial Continental Hall. This motion being carried, the Chapters were asked to send contributions for the bust. The following are the Chapters which contributed:

Atlanta	$ 5.00	Oglethorpe	15.00
Brunswick	15.00	Piedmont Continental	9.10
Elijah Clarke	5.00	Pulaski	5.00
Etowah	5.00	Sarah McIntosh	5.00
Fielding Lewis	5.00	Savannah	5.00
George Walton	5.00
Button Gwinnett	5.0		$111.60
Governor Treutlen	2.50	Shadrach Inman	10.00
Button Gwinnett	5.00	Tomochichi	5.00
Hannah Clarke	5.00	Xavier	10.00
Jonathan Bryan	5.00	Shadrach Inman	5.00
Kettle Creek	5.00	Lyman Hall	5.00
Mary Hammond Washington	5.00	Georgia Chapters	4.75
Nancy Hart	5.00	Total	$151.35

Some remitted to Mrs. A. O. Harper; others understanding that she had resigned, remitted to Mrs. Spencer, the incoming Treasurer; others to the Chairman of your Committee, and still others handed it to her during the session of the Congress.

Here and now, let me thank the Chapters for their generosity, and at the same time recommend that they send their contribution to the Chairman of the Committee at her home as early as possible.

Reason: It saves time, postage, bank exchange, labor and delay. The Chairman knows what she has on hand without having to write to the State Treasurer. It takes time to write to the Treasurer; she answers, and there goes the postage. The Chairman has tried to write to each Chapter, and when they remit to the State Treasurer, she does not know who has given and who has not. Ten cents is charged by the banks on every check; this does not apply to New York drafts.

Mrs. Harper remitted the full amounts called for by her list, so I presume she paid the exchange out of her own pocket. Your Chairman has done this on many occasions. Some of the Chapters send P. O. money orders, in which case there were no charges for collection.

If the remittances come early, they can be added on the adding machine at the bank, and be absolutely correct. It is hard to be accurate where remittances are made during the session of the Congress. The seats are cramped; some one has to pass the checks, money orders, etc. Sometimes they are dropped on the floor, where it is hard to find anything; people have to stand up, and the buzz of the necessary conversation makes much disorder. One hates to create disorder. Envelopes containing cash have been known to tear and spill their precious contents in the boxes. While the money is safe and goes to the Memorial Continental Hall fund, the Treasurer General does not know by whom it was given, and the donors lose credit for their contributions. Nevertheless, this Chairman, while urging you not to delay, will receive your gifts when it is your pleasure to offer them, and she will do her utmost to have them correctly accredited. She will do it and thank you from her heart.

Our building has been bonded: these bonds all call for interest, and each year the interest must be paid, and some of the bonds should be retired; otherwise, we shall lose our beautiful white marble home. It is beautiful. With all the places of interest in the national capital, this is one of the show places of Washington. This memorial built by women to the patriots of more than a century ago is unparalleled in the annals of history. People hearing of it, go to see it, and seeing it, marvel at its beauty, at its magnitude, at the sentiment which is its foundation, its superstructure, and must be its maintenance.

Daughters of the American Revolution, you are a National Society. The President, the Government recognize you as such. Yours was the one Society of women that was invited to be present at the obsequies over the remains of our peerless Paul Jones.

When a statue to one of the Revolutionary heroes is to be unveiled, invitations and cards for reserved seats are sent by the War Department to your national officers.

Last year in Brunswick your President General said: "Georgia is doing fine State work." She said nothing of your National work.

Last year Georgia gave very little to Memorial Continental Hall. She raised the amount for the Oglethorpe Bust. Already she had paid for her column. Should the bondholders foreclose, what would become of them?

Memorial Continental Hall is a memorial to her Revolutionary soldiers as much as to those of the other States. Every State has a star on the flag. Only the thirteen Colonial have a stripe. Georgia has a stripe. Georgia is the Empire State, and she is an Empire, for within her borders she could sustain an Empire. She is cited as the State of States. Is it for her to keep all of her money at home and sponge on other commonwealths to pay for the roof over her Memorial column, to pay for the roof over her Memorial to her Oglethorpe, to pay for the roof over her Memorial to her Emily Hendree Park, and above all, to pay for the Memorial to her immortal patriots? No! No! Georgia never follows—Georgia leads!

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA CAROLINE BENNING, Chairman.

Report of Historic Sites and Monuments.

Madam Regent, Daughters of the American Revolution:

Many were the deeds of mighty valor done, and noble heroism shown in the "Red Old Hills" of Georgia during the days of the Revolution.

The red old hills of Georgia,
My heart is on them now.
I love them for the living,
The generous, kind and gay,
And for all the dead who slumber
Within their breasts of clay."

Such love as this for State and country must have burned in the hearts of our forefathers, who forsaking home and family, bearing the discomforts and hardships of war through seven long years of struggle and poverty, were true to one purpose—the pursuit of liberty.

"Ne'er troops to such a test were put—Nor man behaved more gallantly."

Though dearly bought, was the price too high? Look around us—progress on every side. We are living in the greatest century of the ages, save one—the first, which gave us the Christ.

"My thoughts go wandering to and fro, Vibrating 'twixt the now and then."

To Fulton as he applied steam to his oars bringing civilization and enlightenment to what was then a wilderness—I feel anew the throb of the world's electric pulse as when it first circled the universe. We have secured the unity of the world by belting the earth with lightning and steam, enriching us with inventions which not only add to our wealth but comfort as well.

Behold, the enlargement of our national domain from ocean to ocean, the breaking of human slavery and the re-affirmation of the Declaration that all men are free.

Our century witnesses an era of education never before seen. The pursuit of knowledge in schools and colleges is no longer a luxury but a necessity.

A spirit of tolerance is abroad in the land, mighty thinkers have convictions and dare to express them.

"Warriors too have left us a name at which the world grew pale to point a moral, or adorn a tale."

During these years of progress and enlightenment, has woman borne her part in the struggle? What does history tell? Oglethorpe with all his love of human kind, could have made little progress in the settlement of the Colony, had he not used Mary Musgrove as interpreter to the Indians. Even the "Lords of Creation" will have to admit that this was one time that a woman's tongue was used to advantage. Remember "Aunt Nancy Hart" as the "Liberty Boys" used to call her—where will we find a nobler, grander example of heroism than that displayed by this fiery red-headed patriot. If time permitted, many other instances might be quoted of woman's service to her State, for "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Shall we Daughters of the American Revolution, with our superior advantages and greater civilization than the years have brought, be excelled in patriotic zeal by these women of earliest times? To us, and to us alone is granted the privilege of commemorating fame's crimson sod, their hallowed dust is our "Ashes of Glory." To us is given the holy task of lighting the patriotic fire in the hearts of our youth, and how better can this be done than by marking our battlefields and historic spots, where our heroes bled and died for the cause of Liberty.

"Then strew his ashes to the wind,
Whose sword or voice has served mankind;
To live in hearts we leave behind, is not to die."

Shall we allow the Ebenezer Church records to remain untranslated and be destroyed? I have a list of battlefields and soldiers' graves that need marking, oh, so badly. Time and space will not let me give them here.

Some may ask, how can these be marked—how can our records be preserved? Twenty-five dollars has already been subscribed for this fund. May much more be contributed, so that every Georgia soldier may repose under a slab of his own native Georgia marble.

"How grand a frame this marble watches o'er—
Their wars behind them, God's great peace before."

May this conference be the greatest in the history of our State. I feel it a real loss not to be with you. In times agone I have tested the hospitality of Savannah and feel assured that each Daughter will be disposed to linger yet awhile and will hear with our sweet Georgia singer, even

"The rushes cry abide—abide—
The ferns and the fondling grass say 'stay.'"

MRS. GEORGE M. BROWN.

The Report of the Oglethorpe Monument Committee.

Madam State Regent, and Members of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, in Conference assembled:

I respectfully submit to you the following report as Chairman of the Oglethorpe Monument Committee in Georgia:

I have been urged by the State Regent and many members of the Chapters, to give a history of the part played by the Chapters in the inception, the long struggle for and final accomplishment of the purpose to build a testimonial in stone and bronze expressing the State's reverence for the exalted services of Oglethorpe.

In doing this, I complete my official work for a cause that I have nursed in my heart for many a long twelvemonth. I have felt it my duty to say in person to you, the final words, however, disinclined I may feel at this time to appear in public. I profoundly believe that I should not permit this inclination to deter me from performing a patriotic and civic duty, and these State Conferences are not festive occasions and should not be so considered by the Daughters of the American Revolution themselves, nor the public; these are annual meetings of sober, thoughtful women; lovers of "home and country" for the purpose of conserving the memories of our forefathers, for the promoting as far as lies in our power, all good works in the present, and to strengthen the bonds of good fellowship between the Chapters and individual D. A. R.'s. I heartily agree with Elbert Hubbard's homely lines:

"If I knew you and you knew me,
And both of us could plainly see,
I'm sure that we would differ less,
And clasp our hands in friendliness,
If I knew you and you knew me."

Perhaps you have heard the anecdote of Dr. Johnson and Oliver Goldsmith, which tells a world of truth in a few abrupt, quaint words: These distinguished men and close friends were dining at a restaurant, a stranger to both walked into the room; Dr. Johnson remarked very abruptly, "I hate that man." "Who is he?" asked Goldsmith. "I don't know," Ursa Major replied. "Don't know a man and yet hate him?" asked his gentler friend in surprise. "Yes," answered Dr. Johnson, "that is the reason I hate him. If I knew him, I should love him."

And that is one of the primary reasons for our Conferences—that we may know each other, and in that acquaintance love each other and the great society we serve.

The Chapters of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, were the first organized bodies to initiate the agitation of the movement and to begin to accumulate a fund to build a monument to the State's Founder.

In 1891 I organized the Augusta Chapter and became its first Regent. Even in those early days, I strongly urged upon its members the adoption of this great and long delayed memorial work, not only to show the Chapter's "reason to be," but believing that this honorable purpose would solidify the membership and impart a lasting vitality; without a high ideal, clearly defined, as the fundamental stone of the structure, no organization can long retain its beauty of form or hold the admiration of the world about it.

Two years after the founding of the Augusta Chapter, I received a wire from Washington City, sent from the Continental Congress by the Georgia Delegation, announcing that I had been elected State Regent, an office second only in importance to the President General, representing as it does, the dignity of the State in the National organization.

I had not dreamed of the honor, and surely had not raised a finger to secure it; and I may add truthfully, nor any other office with which I have been entrusted.

As soon as I was installed in the Regency, I commenced active work to awaken even greater interest in this monument movement, among the Chapters. With splendid spirit and keen intelligence did the Chapters respond to my suggestion, and never for one moment, during all the years that the fund remained in the keeping of the Chapters, did their enthusiasm lose its sparkle or the energies pledged to this effort, flag. In my State Report issued October 15th, 1894, I made an appeal that the "Daughters" and the "Sons" would combine their patriotic labors and rear a lasting and notable memorial to Oglethorpe. This section of my State report was written quite at length, but I found the expense of printing the report was a little heavier than I felt justified in assuming, as I bore all the expenses of my five years in office as State Regent, so I cut short this appeal to sentiment and give facts as to Chapters, Membership, Rules and Regulations. (I hold a copy of that Report in my hand. It would interest some of you whose names appear on its pages.)

At the time this report was issued, the "Sons of the Revolution" had but recently organized in the State. "The Georgia Society of Colonial Dames" I think, was organized in April, 1895, and the "Dames" have worked in a whole hearted, earnest way to acquire a fund to materially help in the realization of a monument to that "Prince of English gentlemen," who had so unselfishly served us in the founding of the Colony.

At the Atlanta Exposition, I called a Conference of the Chapters in Georgia—the first Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution that was held in any State, and I may add by way of parenthesis and as germane to this meeting, that Georgia was the first State to have a perfected organization of all the Chapters in one body, with a complete corps of officers and a state treasury. Yet I affirm without fear of contradiction, that no Chapters in the Union are more loyal to the National Constitution, or more devoted to the broad work of the General Order.

At that Conference, No. 1, making this Conference No. 13, Mrs. Sage, of Atlanta, was Secretary; Mrs. Dickson, Regent of the Atlanta Chapter, welcomed us to her fair and progressive city; Mrs. F. H. Orme, ex-Chapter Regent of the Atlanta Chapter, greeted us in beautiful and appropriate words. The State Regent spoke to the body on the important labors that lay near at hand to be accomplished.

We were too poor in those early days to have the Minutes of our Conference printed. At that meeting, ways and means were discussed for raising larger sums of money for this monument, which had been adopted as the State work of the Chapters. Within the next year or two, we were again the guests of the Atlanta Chapter. I had then retired from the State Regency, being firmly convinced that rotation in office is good for all organizations. Immediately on my retirement, I was made Chairman of the Oglethorpe Monument Committee, an office I have held until now. At this meeting I endeavored to get a pledge from the Chapters to do no other patriotic work, not even to contribute to our "House Beautiful" Continental Memorial Hall until a tall shaft pointed heavenward with the name of Oglethorpe, (and that magical name alone) on its broad base.

I have here in my hand the Atlanta Constitution's report printed sometime after, of that earnest effort of mine. But far stronger and more eloquent than any words my poor tongue could utter, was the fine sense of appreciation and gratitude and the keen instinct for the "eternal fitness of things" that resides in and glorifies the hearts of the women of Georgia, that caused them then, as it makes them now, respond whenever and wherever duty calls.

When the "Oglethorpe Monument Association" was formed by the uniting of the four Patriotic Societies, "The Daughters of the American Revolution," "The Sons of the Revolution," "The Colonial Dames" and "The Sons of Colonial Wars"—the skies of our hopes grew rosy-red with promise. The goal seemed within our reach after years of struggle; but alas! the association suffered from its birth from a profound inertia!

Your Chairman could not attend the Conference of 1903, but sent a report of progress and urged that the Conference keep its Oglethorpe Monument fund intact and in its own treasury, until the "Oglethorpe Monument Association" developed an unmistakable strength that plainly made for an early realization of our patriotic hope. The Conference, however, ordered the money paid into the treasury of O. M. Association and there it has lain for nearly eight years at 3 per cent. interest. (You will find an account of this action of the Conference of 1903 in the State Minutes.) Finally the subject of building a memorial to the Founder of the Colony of Georgia was brought before the legislature by the delegation from Chatham county, and by hard and persistent effort an appropriation of $15,000 was secured. Rather a meagre sum for a rich and prosperous commonwealth—the Empire State of the South—to devote, after nearly two centuries of delay to recording the services of such a wise and devoted benefactor. When Savannah appropriated an equal amount for the purpose, the monument was assured. However, the women of the patriotic societies, who had kept the movement pulsating with life through the years, were not recognized by the Governor in appointing the Oglethorpe Monument Commission; nor did the Commission advise with the women as to the selection of model, inscription to be used thereon, or time or manner of unveiling.

The Committee appointed by your instruction at Brunswick by the then State Regent, Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, has the honor to report, through its chairman, that the instructions given by you were successful and the inscription changed by the Oglethorpe Monument Commission carried out according to your desire.

There came a time when all the accumulated monies for this purpose were needed by the Commission to pay for the monument, the work of placing and expenses incident to such an undertaking. Your Chairman was appealed to by the O. M. Commission to hand over the fund of the Chapters. Your Chairman was powerless to consent or refuse, for as you know, your fund had been removed from the D. A. R. Treasury, where it not only drew a larger per cent., but had it remained in your keeping, would have given you a stronger voice in the disposition of it. Your Chairman is, however, also vice-president of the O. M. Association, and with the State Regent—a member ex-officio of this Association—have tried to represent your interest. I maintained when asked for co-operation as Chairman of the O. M. Committee to permit the Commission to draw the money from the O. M. Association's Treasury, that this could not be done, without a meeting of the Association, to instruct the Treasurer of the Association, Mr. J. A. G. Carson, to release the money. Finally a meeting of the Association was called for the transfer of the fund. Before making the transfer, the Chairman of the Commission promised that in the unveiling of the Oglethorpe Monument, the patriotic Societies should stand on an equal footing! I have tried in all things to serve you with an eye single to the best interest and dignity of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

At the meeting of the O. M. Association, the President stated that the only question before the meeting, the only topic that could be discussed—was the withdrawal of the fund from the Treasury of the Association and placing it in the hands of the Chairman of the O. M. Commission. This was done by a resolution drawn up by the President in the chair, which was offered by the Secretary and carried by a majority vote of the five members of the Association present.

You have a considerable sum of money in your treasury that was intended as a further contribution to the erection of the Oglethorpe Monument. It is my advice that the amount be not made public, that you do not give it for the monument, as that work is about completed, but devote it to educational purposes. And just here, I shall ask you to give at least a scholarship from that fund to me to pass through the treasury of the State Association for the Education of Georgia Mountaineers, to be devoted to the further development of the Tallulah Falls School, a work undertaken by Georgia women, with a devotion and intelligence that can not be too highly commended.

In the passing of this Committee, permit its Chairman to impress upon you the absolute and uplifting fact, that while the D. A. R.'s in Georgia have reason to be proud of their part in initiating the movement and being the first to struggle to make possible the erection of the Cenotaph that now adorns Chippewa Square, they in conjunction with the Association and members of our beloved Society in the other States, have builded a monument far more imperishable than bronze and marble to womanhood in the high esteem they have won at home and abroad for their intelligence, their earnestness of purpose, their excellent training in the recognized "rules of procedure"—learning thereby and teaching valuable lessons in justice and equity—for their patriotic endeavors which so often eventuated in beauty and usefulness to "home and country," and the strengthening of the ties of good fellowship and universal kinship; but far more than all these, have the Daughters accomplished in the demonstration that has silenced the most cynical and "doubting Thomas," that, while these women have recognized that they owe a public duty as the "other half" of the citizenry of our country, they have remained essentially refined women, and capable home-makers.

As I have told you before, women lose no charm in serving a righteous public cause; we will never forfeit our heritage, we will remain to the end of time, the "World's Old Sweetheart still."

Your Chairman bids you goodbye,

S. B. C. MORGAN.

M. B. BENTON,
Chairman Augusta Chapter.

Report of Committee of Revolutionary Soldiers Graves.

To our State Regent, Mrs. John M. Graham, is due the distinction of bringing to the attention of the D. A. R. of Georgia, the great importance of listing and marking graves of Revolutionary soldiers.

And, while some progress has been made along this line, we do not feel that there is sufficient active interest demonstrated on the part of the D. A. R., as a whole, in the State of Georgia.

Your Committee wish to reiterate and emphasize the fact, brought out in your Chairman's report last year, that graves of these soldiers are becoming obliterated daily. Even in the heart of the City of Athens, when they were cutting a street down a few days ago, they discovered eight graves, whose graves these are, the citizens do not know. Is it not time we bestir ourselves, and give this matter serious attention? If we are ever to accomplish much in this line, we must earnestly work, without delay, as those who could give the information are rapidly passing into the Great Beyond.

There are few Chapters in our State that do not have either within its midst or close proximity, the graves of some Revolutionary Soldiers.

We are glad to be able to report, that a few of the Chapters have responded to the request of your Committee, and have been active in reporting the names and location of graves.

We urge each and every Chapter to give this matter earnest consideration, as it is through us, that the last resting places of these heroes of our Nation's early History may be preserved.

We have at the present time, a list of, approximately, ninety-five names, with the location of their graves—this does not include graves in large cemeteries.

We have had application from the Shadrack Inman Chapter for markers, to be furnished by the Government for the graves of—

Murphee, John, Hephzibah, Ga.	Carswell, John, Hephzibah.
Brack, Benj., Burke County.	Inman, Daniel, Burke County.
	Murphee, Mills, Burke County.

The following names have been sent to the Chairman, which have not heretofore been published:

Gen'l Wm. Lee, Monticello (marked.)	Clond, Ezekiel, Henry Co.
(Methodist Church Cemetery.)	Fitzpatrick, Benj., Morgan Co.
Penn, Wm., Monticello (marked.)	Williams, John Capt., St. Marys
Rhodes, Matthew, Clarksville.	(moved by Gov't. to Washington,
Smith, Wm. "Hellstone," Newnan.	D. C.)
Hames, John, Murray Co.	Brown, John, St. Marys.
Lewis, John Major, Bartow Co.	Smith, Isaac, Monroe.
Hamilton, Jas. Lieut., Columbia Co.	Guest, Moses, Franklin Co.
Carr, Thos., McDuffie Co.	Ware, Jas., Madison.
	Farrar, Thomas, near Carnesville.

The Government will furnish, free of charge, markers for these graves, but let me impress upon the Chapters, the importance of giving proper data, when making application. It is required that you give name, rank, Company N. S. Regiment, State Organization, or vessel, date of death, name of cemetery, city in or near where grave is located.

Proper blanks will be furnished by the Chairman of this Committee upon application.

We have received quite a number of inquiries and had considerable correspondence in a general way, relative to this work.

We desire to impress upon each Chapter and every D. A. R. in our State, that the successful consummation of this work in your locality depends upon your personal efforts.

We herewith append a list of all names and location of graves we have so far secured, and suggest that as a matter of record, it would be well to publish this list in our transactions.

Respectfully submitted,
SOPHIE LEE FOSTER (Mrs. S. W. Foster),
Chairman Committee Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves.

Report of Records Committee Georgia D. A. R.

The chairman of this committee regrets that she must begin with an apology for leaving "undone those things that ought to have been done," but, having been out of Georgia for several months, it has been hard to keep in touch with the Committee. Fortunately our very efficient State Editor is one of us and can show much fine work in regard to old records.

Besides editing, during the Summer, valuable data about more than two dozen Georgia families, she has herself, written an article on Col. Micajah Williamson, which was a needed contribution to Georgia biography, and places him among the great men of Revolutionary days. She has also done all she could to interest each Chapter in its County records.

The Fielding Lewis Chapter in Cobb Co., the Elijah Clarke Chapter in Clarke Co., the Sergeant Jasper Chapter in Jasper Co., and the Committee from all the Chapters in Atlanta on Fulton Co. records, all sent in fine reports, which have been published in the D. A. R. column.

Another member of our Committee has recently enriched Georgia history with an interesting article on Bartow Co., which was published by the Etowah Chapter in Cartersville paper. From this we learn that Major John Lewis is the only Revolutionary Soldier known to have been buried in this County. Why cannot some patriotic D. A. R. in each County write up its early history?

One of our Committee writes from Washington City that she, while Regent of the Stephen Heard Chapter, did some restoration work, (which was sadly needed) on the old papers in the Court House at Elberton, and also located the Graves of two Revolutionary Soldiers, Edward Ware and Samuel Long, which are now under the care of her Chapter, and their services can be found in its minutes.

Your Chairman, in continuation of her County work, spent some time last Spring at old Louisville in Jefferson Co., making an Index to the old Wills there that are fast falling to pieces. As they are the original papers, many of them over one hundred years old, and almost too tender to handle, it is only a question of time, and that short, when their contents will be lost to the State. They should be transcribed in books before it is too late, and we would like to suggest right here, that this Conference send a request to the Commissioners of Jefferson County, that they make an appropriation for this purpose, at the earliest possible time. There are other Counties that need like requests, but it seems more urgent to preserve the records at Louisville, where so many of our leading men have lived.

In Greene County, during this past year, a valuable document has been brought to light and transcribed, by one of our friends and co-workers in Georgia Historical data, Mr. J. A. LeConte of Atlanta. For many years it has been rolled up and carefully preserved by the Clerk of the Court, but, being too tender to handle, its real worth was not known. Investigation proves it to be nothing less than the records of the Court of Land Commissioners appointed by Gov. Sir James Wright to issue the "Ceded Lands" and extending from the summer of 1773 through 1775. It contains the regulations under which lands were to be issued, and a list of all the applications, with the place from which they came, the number in family, with details—wife, number of sons and daughters, and ages of eldest and youngest, number of slaves, description of land &c. About three hundred names are in the list.

Probably every searcher for Georgia records has wondered where the records of this land Court were. Being in a form of a thin book, which was in a roll and had been broken in two, it took time and patience to repair it sufficiently well to make a transcript, but now we have a neat typewritten copy of it awaiting publication in the Joseph Habersham Historical Collections.

Mr. LeConte, Sr., is also doing a beautiful work for Georgia in perfecting our list of Revolutionary Soldiers, by giving each man's record of service so far as it can be found in the old papers in the office of the secretary of the State, or Lottery grants and Pension lists. This we hope to incorporate in a book devoted solely to Georgia Revolutionary Soldiers.

We are happy to say our report on the old Ebenezer Church records at the last Conference has created considerable interest in this subject, and Mrs. Wilson, who has been made custodian of these valuable relics, will tell you what has been done with them.

Respectfully submitted,
Helen M. Prescott, Chairman Records Committee

Patriotic Education.

Your Chairman is delighted to report enthusiastic work on Patriotic education in all of the Chapters the undercurrent of all that the D. A. R. most desires.

What is Patriotic education? 'Tis everything the Daughters of the American Revolution are doing. 'Tis the preservation of its records, so the young may read and see and learn. The lives of the great men who struggled for American independence and how shall they know except they have the records to study from, and too, how shall they be able to study unless they be taught how to read. Establish your records that they may read and know, work for your schools that they may be capable of teaching in the work that you are doing for them. Teach them what your holidays mean. Georgia Day, the fourth of July, instead of being a day of frivolity, let it be one to teach the children why this day of all days was chosen as a national holiday, and of the lives that stood out; for American Independence. Put your Declaration of Independence in every young life, have it written with God's own pen which is conquering self, and as the pages of the life unfold may you read Love the great liberator of all human needs, which gives us the greatest patriotism that the world has ever known and will ever know.

Again, I ask what is true patriotism. 'Tis the unfolding of a life to the greatest good. A life which will so blend with the infinite that it will only know to fight for true liberty that is breaking the shackles of prejudice, bigotry, discord and evil of all kinds that one may see the evil and which is only seen or show us to conquer and the true man of God stands out as a noble creed and every life sublime.

Respectfully submitted,

CAROLINE H. GODFREY.

Berry School Scholarship.

Madam State Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution.

I beg leave to submit the following report:

As Chairman of the Berry School Scholarship Committee, 35 ladies working with me, we have made a small beginning, which we trust has paved the way for a grand success in this noble work.

I wrote each State Regent asking for a list of her Chapter Regents and that she use her influence in her State to interest the Daughters in aiding the Berry School.

Each member of the Committee was sent one or more States and requested to write to every Chapter Regent, asking for a donation from her

Chapter, and I also requested each member to send me a report of what she had done, by the middle of October, in this way we hope to reach every Chapter in the Organization, there are about eight hundred.

One member got up a box of clothing and sent it in the name of the Committee, but that was sent direct to the school.

I have mailed 175 letters and enclosed in each one, circulars about the school, besides making over two hundred copies of typewritten ones. So I hope we have done some advertising which will pay in the future, if we haven't received very much money so far.

Report Historic Program Committee.

It is hardly necessary for this Committee to make a report, as the programs speak for themselves.

We take great pleasure in saying they will be better the coming months of this year, than they have been in the past, as Miss Rutherford, Mrs. Little, Miss Massey, Miss Wooten and Miss Letford, have each promised a number. It will be greatly appreciated if the Secretary will send a notice of the formation of new Chapters, and the address of the Regent. When there is a change of Regents, the Secretary of the Chapter is also requested to report the address of the one newly elected.

If any have failed to receive the programs the past year, it has not been the fault of the Chairman as it was her wish to send each Chapter the program. Whether they used it or not, but for want of information, may sometimes have failed to do so.

Respectfully submitted,
ISABELA R. REDDING, Chairman,
Historic Program Committee.

Report of Committee on Compulsory Education.

My appointment as chairman of the committee on Compulsory Education dates from a letter written to me by the State Regent May 28th. The names of my Committee were furnished me about that time. The bill came up and was lost July 7th. There was very little time between the two dates and I was only able to write six letters. Between July 7th and August 2nd, when the bill came up next, I wrote fifty-four letters and postals, twenty-eight of them being sent to Regents, asking them to get their chapters to write immediately as many letters as possible to the different representatives.

When the bill was lost again, for the want of six votes to make a constitutional majority, I concluded we must spend the winter months endeavoring to influence public opinion on this most vital and important question, with our motto, "a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether." Consequently I divided the names of the 145 County School Commissioners between five members of my committee and wrote them to have each County School Commissioner written to on the subject and, if possible, urged to help every way in their power. I also wished all the clergy of the State communicated with and asked to help the good work along; four of my chapter, members of the committee, promised to see this was done—Mrs. Chestney to write to the Episcopalians; Mrs. Akerman, the Presbyterians; Mrs. Flew Holt, the Methodists; and Mrs. S. C. Moore, the Baptists.

The names of all the prominent newspapers of the small towns and counties have been procured, two hundred in all, and each chapter is expected to be responsible for five or six papers and see that something favorable on Compulsory Education be printed in them four or five times during the winter. This will be easier than appears at first sight, as the large majority of these papers are on record as standing for Compulsory Education and will be only too glad to write something or print what is written on this subject. A number of the papers have been "taken," the rest I shall divide between the Regents.

I also have had typewritten forty-two copies of the names and addresses of the next legislature and as many as possible were given to the Regents or their representatives in Savannah, the rest I will send (together with the names of the newspapers) to the other Regents. I hope that the Regents will see that each legislator receives one letter from some member in her Chapter during the winter, i. e., each legislator receive one letter from each Chapter before April 1st. Our campaign should be over by then if we have conscientiously done our duty and not selfishly preferred our own comfort and ease.

Though there looks to be much to do, we have four months to do it in, if we do to-day "what our hands find to do." It is impossible for one person or one dozen persons to do this work. I beg of you, do not let any slipshod carelessness interfere with your doing your best in the sight of "the one all perfect, who whether man fails in his work or succeeds, builds slowly, solemnly up, the infinite purpose of years. We are day laborers all, early or late, or first or last at the gate in the vineyard wall." May I request that each Regent read this report at one of her Chapter meetings, so every Daughter may understand what we are struggling to do and be better prepared to help.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MALLORY H. TAYLOR.

Report of the Child Labor Committee.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

Your State Committee upon Child Labor has the pleasure of reporting the enactment by the recent Legislature of a very important bill in the interest of Georgia children. This bill, presented by Hon. Hooper Alexander, of DeKalb County, declares that "no minor under sixteen years of age shall be employed in the delivery of messages by any concern or person engaged in the messenger business or in the general work of the messenger service, between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m." and that "persons violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." The importance of this bill for the protection of the morals of our working boys can be readily understood. Two other bills deserving approval by those having the interest of Georgia children at heart did not reach a final reading on account of the heavy pressure of legislative work. One of these provided for an increased age limit, the other for the appointment of a commissioner of labor, whose duties would include factory inspection and a stricter enforcement of the present child labor laws. Perhaps both, but certainly the last named bill will be presented to the next legislature, and it is hoped that every D. A. R. in Georgia will use her influence for its enactment into a law, thus making more effective the present statutes controlling child labor.

We are not yet prepared to say definitely what other bills of this character will be brought before the next legislature, but it is our desire, by united effort, to eventually see our great commonwealth leading all other Southern States in the enactment of laws providing for reliable birth registration; a 14-year minimum age limit for employment; prohibition of night work; exclusion of children from occupations exposing to physical or moral danger; requirement of adequate certificates; for authoritative factory inspection, and an eight hour work day for children under sixteen years of age. By such considerate conservation of the human resources of our State we would not only secure the highest good to this present generation of Georgia children, but fullest strength and vigor to their posterity.

With a hope that every effort for the attainment of these objects may enlist your most earnest co-operation, this report is respectfully submitted.

HALLIE M. A. ROUNSAVILLE, Chairman.

Report of Conservation Committee.

In 1908 the National Board of the Daughters of the American Revolution took up the cause of Conservation in every State throughout the Union and a vigorous campaign has been waged in behalf of the conservation of our natural resources. The Georgia State Regent realizing the need of a systematic study to find what particular branch of work should be carried on in Georgia, this year appointed a Committee on Conservation. This committee has been unable to meet together, so its work has been transacted in writing, and consists largely of hopes and plans, instead of doings. We hold that the conservation of the vitality and efficiency of the American people is a problem of the first magnitude, demanding the fullest and most intelligent attention of our law-making bodies. It is of far greater importance than the conservation of the material resources of our national wealth, great as they are. Human life is worth more than plant life, child life is worth more than animal life. Our great water powers and forests are not to be placed in the same estimate of values as the health of our people. It is the purpose of our national government to conserve animal life, and plant life through a great department, but there is no department concerning human life. The conservation of the health of a people of a nation is of equal or more importance than the conservation of material resources, and it should be placed on an equal footing at least. Finally eugenics or hygiene for future generations should be studied and gradually put in practice. Care of humanity by scientific effort to check prevalent diseases. Systematic instruction of mothers as to the proper care of infants and children. The most valuable asset of any nation is the child life of that land and any movement or method that is directed towards the preservation, protection, or betterment of child life is one form of conservation that should most appeal to us, this involves compulsory education and child labor laws.

Thos. Marshall says, "If the Daughters of the American Revolution will seriously urge a stricter training and a more careful oversight by all mothers of their daughters, there will be less cause for complaint about the white slave traffic, and to no other subject do I believe could the organization give itself with a greater degree of usefulness or expect a larger reward."

We believe one of the best aids the Daughters of the American Revolution can lend to conservation work is by a campaign of education conducted each month as a feature of chapter work. I would recommend that this be made a part of every monthly program.

MRS. A. O. HARPER, Chairman.

Report of Committee of Real Daughters.

We speak of the unique members of the world's population, that rapidly diminishing and never to be augmented, group, the Real Daughters of the American Revolution. The wonder is that a single woman survives whose fathers took part in that struggle as the surrender of Yorktown occurred 129 years ago. The interest and romance that center around them will soon cease or be embodied in history.

There recently died in our State, at Marietta, a Real Daughter, Mrs. Cleveland. Her membership was in South Carolina Chapter, since her daughter was a member there. We have searched far and wide everywhere we heard of an old woman. For several years two Confederate veterans helped me in this search, Dr. North and Major Thomas, going miles out of their way to investigate. Several imagined they had claims but we found in all only three whose claims were valid. The pretenses were not malicious, but from the vagaries often incident to old age, and ignorance of the ancestry of our country. It was surprising to know that some persons knew no difference between the Revolutionary War and the war of 1812. However, we located three, but their history has been written before. Mrs. Peel and I went together to present to Mrs. Helfner, of Atlanta, the spoon given these Real Daughters. At first she seemed a little dazed at the honor but was delighted with the golden gift. She was 92 years old and all her faculties alert but her hearing. Her hair was abundant and her teeth good. She was quite a reader and kept up with the events of the day, besides searching the Scriptures. Within two years death claimed her. Mrs. Carlton was of our county, and when we sent a young girl from our town to carry the spoon, she enjoyed greatly the committee from Senoia, who went to do her honor at the presentation, and was so delighted she went next day among her neighbors to show her golden trophy. Three years later she fell asleep.

Another Real Daughter in our county was Mrs. Stoy, a remarkable woman in many ways. She liked the spoon as a little girl would a doll, and treasured it above all the spoons that had been collected in all the years in her household. After she had become acquainted with it, so to speak, her family planned a presentation ceremony at which she sat in state the center of family and friends. With flowers and songs, with pretty speech, her own little great granddaughter and the great granddaughter of a friend of her early womanhood, presented the spoon and she was as pleased as a belle at a ball. Her faculties were wonderfully preserved, her hearing being good and her "second sight" having come to her. She could read and do fine embroidery and other handwork without glasses. At 95, she too fell asleep.

All three of these dear old ladies were members of the Joseph Haber-sham Chapter of Atlanta. Indeed, the Joseph Habersham must be the banner Chapter regarding Real Daughters, in the United States. In 1902 there were 29 of these aged women on the roll of this Chapter.

There are now in the United States, 217 Real Daughters. To Georgia belongs the honor of the first Real Daughter, Mrs. Mary Hammond Washington, of Macon. This daughter organized and was Regent of a Chapter in Macon. For some time New York claimed the honor of the first Real Daughter, and so it stood unquestioned till 1908, when a National Committee investigated and found that the New York claimant, Mrs. Ogden Doremus, held National No. 374, while that of Mrs. Mary Hammond Washington was 81. Happily, this settles to whom the honor belongs.

Should not Georgia raise a stone, a modest stone, to these women? Many of them were pioneers to this, the youngest of the thirteen States, and early after that was almost an unbroken wilderness except a strip on the coast. When the last link is broken that binds us to that wonderful past, perhaps the younger women will honor themselves by keeping in remembrance the women who suffered toil and hardships to bring about our marvelous civilization.

Report of Mrs. S. M. Dean, Chairman Magazine Committee for 1910.

As chairman of the "American Monthly," our official organ for the Daughters of the American Revolution, I beg to submit the following report.

There are now sixty-two subscribers, four Regents, one Chapter member, 15 new subscribers for the present year. Our State Historian, Mrs. J. L. Walker, of Waycross, made a most valuable contribution of Georgia history, in an article which appeared in the October number. From a standpoint of loyalty every Daughter should be a subscriber, and as to the merits of the magazine, each number speaks for itself. I hope every Daughter present at this Conference will take a subscribing interest in this most interesting journal.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. S. M. DEAN, Chairman.

Patriotic Song Report.

Your Committee on Patriotic Song, urges a more general use of Dr. Orme's "Song of the Revolution," which is both beautiful and appropriate, and can be secured by application to any member of this Committee. Letters on this subject have been sent to State Chapters, and your Chairman of Patriotic Song Committee desires to emphasize the importance of the use of patriotic airs at all meetings, both State and local, and respectfully submits the same.

MRS. R. H. DRAKE, Chairman,
Regent Pulaski Chapter, Griffin, Ga.

Report of Bloody Marsh Committee.

Vice-President General, Madame Regent, Daughters of the American Revolution:

The Bloody Marsh Committee have had but a short time to work.

We have sent to the senators and representatives the following resolutions and appeal:

Resolutions Offered by Mrs. J. H. Redding at the Eleventh Annual Conference of the Georgia Chapters of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, Brunswick, November 13, 1909.

Be it resolved by this Conference that some memorial be erected to commemorate the Battle of Bloody Marsh. Not all great conquests are won by an arbitrament of arms, but an overruling Providence has directed that the strife of ages should end in three great battles, a thousand years intervening between each conflict.

When Alexander the Great met the Persians at the Battle of Arbela, he forever settled the destiny of Europe in that mighty struggle. This ancient empire that once menaced all the kingdoms of the earth was forever crushed in that victory, 331 years before Christ. Greek power took root and the Greek language and civilization of Greece was planted from the shores of the Aegean to the banks of the Indus, from the Caspian to the Nile.

Anno Domini 732, Charles Martel at the Battle of Tours rescued Britain and Gaul from the civil and religious yoke of the Koran. This victory over the Saracens gave a decisive check to Arab conquest in Western Europe, rescued Christianity from Islam and preserved the germs of modern civilization.

We stand to-day near where the third great conquest in the world's history was won. In July, 1742, our peerless Oglethorpe met the Spaniards at the Battle of Bloody Marsh. Spain never rallied from this defeat, and North America was won for Anglo-Saxon civilization and religious liberty.

Fully as great in its influence over the destiny of man was the Battle of Bloody Marsh as the battles of Arbela and Tours had been.

Therefore, be it resolved by this Conference, That our State Regent appoint a committee to confer with the senators and representatives of Georgia, and ask them to unite their appeal with ours to secure an appropriation from the National Government to commemorate this victory.

These resolutions were voted and carried.

At an Executive Board meeting in Marietta, September 20, 1910, Mrs. John M. Graham, State Regent, appointed the following committee:

Mrs. J. H. Redding, Waycross, Chairman; Mrs. W. H. DeVoe and Mrs. Boling Whitfield, Brunswick.

To each of our Senators and Representatives we have sent this appeal:

The enclosed resolutions adopted by the Georgia Division of the Daughters of the American Revolution will explain our appeal.

To secure from our national government an appropriation great enough to preserve this spot from the inroads of the sea, and to commemorate the Battle of Bloody Marsh, we come with confidence to you. We believe that you will use your best efforts and that they will be crowned with success.

The men who made possible this Republic, left footprints on the sands of time. It is our privilege to perpetuate the principles for which they gave their lives. They sailed in frail ships across the great deep, willing to meet savages and the wild beasts of the forests, to make for themselves homes in the wilderness, with consciences unfettered and freedom to worship God.

Spain, by discovery and conquest, had possession of parts of South America, Mexico, Florida and the islands of the sea, and with thirty-six ships and 5,000 men met Oglethorpe at Bloody Marsh. With three ships and 800 men our peerless hero won the victory from which that great nation never rallied.

To teach the youth of our land the heroic efforts of the past is our greatest work. A memorial of this achievement will impress thousands who will never read the record in the pages of history.

And so we come to you, believing that your heart throbs in sympathy with ours and that you wish the world to know that it was in Georgia that North America was won for Anglo-Saxon civilization and religious liberty.

(Mrs. J. H.) ISABELLA R. REDDING, Waycross.

(Mrs. W. H.) LUCY DILLON DeVOE, Brunswick.

(Mrs. Bolling) ELLA GILLAM WHITFIELD, Brunswick.

These papers were mailed November 18. This effort will be followed by renewed appeals, and our committee will go to Washington, if necessary, to secure the interest of our government in commemorating one of the greatest achievements in American history. Not until the work is accomplished, will we cease to strive for this end.

Respectfully submitted,
ISABELLA R. REDDING,

Chairman Bloody Marsh Committee.

Resolution of Thanks.

Seldom has there been an occasion fraught with greater significance than this; never a meeting of the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution so imbued with the very history which is largely the author of their being.

Seldom has it been possible for the past and present to become so enfolded, so welded and blended, that in a few short days we live in the old and the new.

The lavish hospitality which Savannah has extended takes us back to the South of a half century ago, while at the same time history,—the history of Georgia for nearly two hundred years back,—has been brought to us with the freshness of to-day, in the commemoration of the life of a man whom Georgia has great cause to honor. The very name of "Oglethorpe" has been almost the watchword of the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution.

Rarely has any State organization been honored as this one, having been invited to come to this beautiful Southern city at a time when her homes were open wide to many guests, but truly the hospitality of the old South has never been shown more perfectly than to the visiting D. A. R.

Savannah—with her quaint old homes; her moss covered trees; her tropical plants and foliage, and, in many respects, her customs, is the synonym for all that still remains of the exquisite traditions of a day almost past.

Some writer has said that "Romance, like the red man, has been driven from place to place, from clime to clime, but at last it has found its true resting place in the South." We believe that place is Savannah, for truly we are steeped not only in her history, her wealth, and her progress, but we could not for an instant be less enamored of her charms.

The cordial greeting of the distinguished Mayor, the Honorable Mr. Tiedeman, and the happy words of welcome from the Regents of the local Chapters, Mrs. J. M. Bryan and Mrs. W. A. Winburn, spoke to us of the open door and the hearty hand clasp.

The invocation of the Rev. William Dakin, in this beautiful place of worship, the Lawton Memorial, breathed a blessing over the noble aspirations of a noble band of women, and the songs of patriotism under the Chairmanship of Miss Colding and Miss Cosens, and sung so beautifully by Misses Chisholm, Haines and Claghorne, renewed our inspirations.

We are indebted to the President and members of the Savannah Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, and to the Regent and members of the Savannah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for two well appointed luncheons served in the attractive rooms of the Huntington Club.

The elaborate reception given by the Regent and hostess Chapter, Lillian McIntosh, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Granger, was a pleasant interlude in the proceedings of a busy day and brought together in a delightful manner the hostesses and visitors.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Randolph Anderson, chairman of the Oglethorpe Monument Commission, for courtesies extended upon the occasion of the unveiling.

And to the charming pages who have been present at our meetings and assisted us so ably, Misses Gertrude McLaws, Anna Bell, Pansy Boyd, Mary J. Pritchard, Louise Kelly, Sarah Moise, Henrietta Seabrock, Mai Thiot, Pauline Wilson and Ruth Begmer we extend our sincere thanks.

And last but not least—the Press! Truly the hand which wields the pen is mightier than the sword! To the Morning News and Savannah Press, the Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution of the 13th Conference, wish to express their sincere appreciation for the just and able manner in which the proceedings of this convention have been reported.

The memories of this conference, with the many attendant incidents and courtesies, will linger long, and the fascination and charm of the place and people will not soon be forgotten.

Therefore be it resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this conference; that a copy be tendered the press of Savannah and be included in all authorized published reports of the proceedings of this conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. OSCAR T. PEEPLES, Chairman.

Memorial Resolutions.

With bowed heads, with a silence which betokens genuine sorrow for the absent Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia who have passed into the sleep which knows no waking; and with deepest sympathy for those left bereaved, the Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia, as fellow workers, share in this loss, and, in loving testimony of which, we your Committee on Memorials, beg leave to submit the following report:

During the past year the Atlanta Chapter has sustained an irreparable loss in the death of Mrs. Robert Emory Park and Mrs. W. S. Everett. According to the custom of this Chapter, flowers were sent and suitable resolutions adopted. The entire chapter attended the funeral of Mrs. Park in a body.

The Mary Hammond Washington Chapter of Macon has lost Mrs. Mary Ross Banks. Mrs. Banks was one of the oldest members of the national body. She resided in Washington City. An incident of interest to Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution is that the last ballot cast in the last election during the continental congress in April was cast by Mrs. Banks for Georgia's Vice-President General. She had left her work just long enough to do this last loyal act for her beloved State.

From the Thronateeska Chapter of Albany, Mrs. Jennie Nesbit Tickner, the able and efficient recording secretary. The chapter passed resolutions and appropriately expressed its appreciation of the life and its sense of loss in the death of this most estimable woman.

The Joseph Habersham Chapter of Atlanta suffered the loss of Miss Margaret Calhoun and Mrs. W. A. Hemphill. According to custom this Chapter sent flowers and passed suitable resolutions.

The Lyman Hall Chapter of Waycross lost by death Mrs. Susie Fates Knight. The Chapter sent flowers on the occasion of her funeral and passed resolutions expressive of esteem, sympathy and regret.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. OSCAR T. PEEPLES, Chairman.

Beautiful Tribute to Mrs. R. E. Park.

One of the most interesting features of the State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution held in Savannah this week was the beautiful memorial address to Mrs. Robert Emory Park, which was made at the Wednesday night session by Mrs. James A. Rounsaville of Rome.

Mrs. Rounsaville prefaced her address by saying:

"It is indeed appropriate that this memorial service, our tribute of love and remembrance to one we honor for humanitarian endeavor and patriotic achievement, should be held in this historic city, where noble impulse and patriotism are stimulated by environment and the very air we breathe is fragrant with the incense of offerings laid upon the altar of liberty and constitutional government.

"It is also well that our words of loving commemoration should be spoken on this day, which marks the fulfillment of her dream, the culmination of all efforts for the erection of a monument to the great founder of this great commonwealth, in which she, too, labored as did he—'not for themselves, but for others,' to quote in liberal translation our founder's motto, 'Non sibi sed aliis.'

"But peculiarly appropriate it is that we meet for this purpose today in the memorial hall in which but eight short years since as our honored State Regent Mrs. Robert Emory Park presided for the last time over a Georgia conference of Daughters of the American Revolution, a conference memorable for reports of work accomplished and other work inaugurated under her inspiring leadership.

"Here it was that she exclaimed in appreciation of Savannah and the hospitality and charm of her people, 'It is good to be here. If we do not build three tabernacles, like the worthies of old, the memory of this goodly time will tabernacle in our hearts for many a day.'

"And referring to Oglethorpe's wisdom in selection of site and plans, for this city it is interesting to-day to remember that she quoted, 'If you would behold the founder's monument look about you'

Then in an earnest plea it would be well for us to heed, she said: "I beg you, Daughters of the American Revolution, to rekindle your patriotism amid these inspiring scenes and renew your vow of devotion to Georgia and her history. There is much work before you, even if we confined our efforts to this city and this historic portion of the State. You should mark the spot where Joseph Habersham arrested the royal Governor General Wright, the headquarters of General Lachlan McIntosh, which was the house where the first general assembly of Georgia met (the original house on Oglethorpe avenue next to the corner of Drayton street is still intact), the old powder magazine from which the patriots took the powder, a portion of which was fired at the red coats at the Battle of Bunker Hill;

Yamacraw Bluff and the forts which defended Savannah; old Midway Church, in whose church yard many revolutionary soldiers are buried, and Sunbury on the Medway river, the most interesting of the dead towns of Georgia. I forbear to enumerate further, but I urge you, as soon as the opportunity comes, to erect a monument on the public square at Louisville, the old capital, to commemorate the most dramatic act in the history of Georgia, viz.: The burning of the fraudulent Yazoo bonds.

Have an object and pursue it. Let no difficulties daunt you, rather learn:

"The high stern featured beauty
Of plain devotedness to duty."

Dear Daughters of Georgia, let each one of us take these words as a message unto ourselves and remember that though we may build her honor monuments of marble or of bronze, no memorial could be to her more grateful than the perpetuation of the patriotic work in behalf of our country and our people to which she gave so large a part of her life.

And I refer here not alone to her work as a Daughter of the American Revolution, for her labors were both patriotic and altruistic; not limited by the narrow bounds of one field of endeavor, but reaching out to the benefit of all humanity coming within the scope of her influence and activities. Whether as a Daughter of the American Revolution, a Daughter of the Confederacy, a member of the Ladies' Memorial Association, or a Federated Club woman—everywhere we find her among the leaders for the uplift of humanity, the objects of each of these associations being so related to each other that we can hardly say where her efforts for one began and the other ceased, since all were so merged in her desire for the general good.

Mrs. Rounsaville then gave a resume of the life of Mrs. Park, referring to the fact that although she became so true and loyal a daughter of Georgia she was born in Alabama, and there received her early education, one of her instructors, a distinguished educator of his time, having said that "her mind was not only the most brilliant he had known in his years of teaching experience, but markedly the most balanced and most rounded." Reference was then made to Mrs. Parks' residence in Macon and Atlanta, to her potency as a factor in the intellectual, social, religious and general uplift life of these cities and of the State; to her recognition as a leader in thought and activity, not only within the State, but in the general association of United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Federation of Women's Clubs and the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, she having so long and brilliantly represented and illustrated Georgia in the latter association, first as State Agent and then as vice-president-general of the National Society.

Mrs. Rounsaville then quoted the words she had used in nominating Mrs. Park for the last high office during the continental congress of 1906, when Mrs. Park was elected by the largest vote ever yet cast for any officer of the National Society and received an ovation unprecedented in its annals, a very general sentiment developing afterwards, and many urgent requests being made that she allow her name to be presented as a candidate for the office of president-general at the next election, with almost positive assurance of an overwhelming majority in her favor. That she would not consent to stand for this office under such circumstances but evidenced the fact that despite all her great gifts and broad interests, her public life and abilities, the "duty-loves" were first and greatest; she could only accept the honor of the president-general's office at the expense of home neglect and protracted absences from her honored husband, whose duties as State Treasurer confined him closely in Georgia. Therefore, she put aside the great public honor and kept intact the greater private joy, which could be most appreciated by those friends who had known the hospitality of that home and its beneficent influence.

Concluding, Mrs. Rounsaville pointed out the fact that as the beloved friend had labored in her various fields of endeavor she had herself been touched into new life and lifted up even in proportion to the earnestness and sincerity of her efforts for others, thus furnishing encouragement and inspiration for those who yet remain, who "Shall take patience, labor to their heart and hand,

From her hand and her heart and her brave cheer,
And God's grace fructify through them to all."

CHAPTER REPORTS

Thronateeska Chapter, Albany.

Madam Regent, the Officers and Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution in attendance upon the 13th Annual Conference:

I bring you greetings from the Thronateeska Chapter on this notable occasion, and the evidence I have to present is only that of substantial growth and continued interest. Though we organized a little more than a year ago, our enrollment shows a membership of fourteen and numbers of papers in Washington for verification. We lost one loved and valued member in the early New Year.

A diligent search has been made for things historic in this county, but we have met with no success, so our work has been along lines of patriotic education.

A donation was recently sent to the Martha Berry School. Interest in Miss Berry's school never lags, but instead her beautiful work among the mountain youths of Georgia elicits our special sympathy and admiration. The members were pleased to donate a similar amount to the memorial to the late Mrs. Robert E. Park, and in this small way help to honor a noble woman's memory. A contribution was also sent to Continental Hall.

A gold medal was offered by the Chapter to the pupil of the higher grades of the Grammar School writing the best essay on General Francis Marion, and we were warmly thanked by the Superintendent for what he termed a valuable lesson for youthful minds.

Early Georgia history has been a part of the program at each meeting and has proved most instructive, and the social half hour has been a most delightful feature.

Washington's Birthday was observed in a most beautiful and fitting way. An entertainment which was appropriate to the occasion being given by Miss Rosa Woolfolk, the Historian and Secretary of the Chapter.

Civic improvement will be a part of the year's work, and we have already made a small beginning.

At the first fall meeting the officers of the Chapter were all re-elected, and with increasing interest on the part of the members, and a number of applications pending, I anticipate a splendid showing at next year's convention.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. J. W. WALTERS, Regent.

Council of Safety Chapter, Americus.

Council of Safety Chapter Sends Cordial Greeting to the Convention, and begs to report as follows:

The first undertaking, after the Convention of last year, was work in a charity bazaar given by associated organizations of the City, from which this Chapter realized the sum of $77.50.

In January we gave the Chapter's annual cotillion, from which we received a substantial sum to be used in our library work, an outline of which was given the Convention in our last annual report.

On Washington's Birthday the Chapter was entertained beautifully at a luncheon by the Regent, and an interesting, patriotic program was carried out.

We have given $10 to Miss Berry's School, donated $5.00 to assisting in entertainment of the State Press Association; added a few new books to our library, and had several valuable books donated.

The Civic League branch of the Chapter is now preparing to make a playground of what is known as Rees Park, for the benefit of the children of the city generally, and those in adjacent schools particularly.

Our Historical Programmes for this year have been particularly interesting, and have reflected much credit on the able Historian of the Chapter.

We have at present 25 members to report, and several papers to pass upon.

In the week preceding Christmas, we will open a cafe, and fancy work sale, from which we anticipate flattering proceeds.

MRS. HOWELL B. SIMMONS, Regent.

Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens.

The year has passed quickly and pleasantly for our Chapter. Monthly meetings have been held—except during the summer months—with interesting programs, followed by a social half hour over the tea cups.

Our time has not all been spent at play, however, for we have been hard at work trying to raise the Perpetual Scholarship fund for the State Normal School, a work undertaken by us last year. For this purpose we have given several entertainments. In December we held a bazaar which was a financial success. We also gave a play, a card party, and a recital, which were not only delightful social features, but from each of which we realized splendid sums to be added to our "nest egg" in the Bank.

While we have been bending our energies to this one definite purpose, we have not been unmindful of our other obligations, towards which we have contributed the following amounts:

State Normal School Beneficiary	$50.00
Annual High School Prizes	7.00
Oglethorpe Bust	5.00
Meadow Garden	1.00
Francis Scott Key Home	3.00

We also contributed to the portrait of Mrs. Donald McLain, which was placed in Memorial Continental Hall.

It was a great pleasure to have our beloved State Regent, Mrs. John M. Graham, with us during the recent Conference of the Woman's Club, where she so ably represented the Daughters of the American Revolution.

MRS. J. Y. CARITHERS, Regent.

Atlanta Chapter, Atlanta.

Madam Regent, Officers and Members of the Thirteenth Annual Conference, Georgia D. A. R.:

The Atlanta Chapter, the oldest and largest in the State, sends its most gracious greetings.

It is gratifying to tell you that the Chapter House, which is opposite the Driving Club and Piedmont Park, is under construction. The corner stone will be laid on December 17th by the Masons under the leadership of the Right Worshipful Grand Master of Georgia, George M. Napier.

To secure funds and a suitable plan which would stand as a monument to the heroic men of the Revolution, has occupied thought, time and energy. The structural completion of our Chapter House is in the near future. The interior decoration which will add so much to its beauty and interest of the Auditorium will be left to the coming years and new administration.

We have held the usual Board and Chapter Meetings, and during the summer, we have had several call meetings, in order to perfect plans for our Chapter House. I can not speak too highly of the Board of Managers, and the Building and Ways and Means Committees.

February 2nd, George Washington's birthday was fittingly observed at the lovely home of Mrs. John McCaslin. Proceeds of this tea were divided between the Oglethorpe Bust in Continental Hall and the Building Fund.

April 15th, our Ninetenth Birthday was celebrated with the Regent. An appropriate program was rendered. The candles on our Birthday Cake were extinguished, with a good wish, by the older members of the Chapter.

June 14th, Flag Day, was observed at the residence of the Vice Regent, Mrs. George M. Hope.

On the Fourth of July, the Atlanta Chapter made the suggestion that the several Chapters unite and hold a patriotic meeting at St. Phillip's Cathedral. To Bishop Nelson, the Clergy of the Episcopal Church and the Vested Choir are we indebted for a most beautiful and impressive service. We are now planning to enlist our young citizens in having an appropriate service on July 4th. No work will bring better results on the patriotic lines of our organization than to enlist our boys in the celebration of a saner Fourth, and the reading of the Declaration of Independence. In this I ask all of our Georgia Chapters to join us.

Mrs. S. W. Foster, Chairman of the Revolutionary graves and her Committee, are doing their utmost to secure all the information that can be had in order to mark these graves.

The most important and interesting paper on historic work, was that "Naming the Counties," by our gifted chairman, Miss Katherine B. Massey. Copies have been sent to all the Regents and five hundred copies were distributed to the County Schools by Prof. Brittain, State School Commissioner.

For education we have sent to the Berry School, twenty-five dollars. We also have a scholarship in Washington Seminary; also in this school, a gold medal for the best essay on a woman of the Revolution. For this medal twenty-one papers were submitted to the Committee showing much study and research. This school, as many of you know, was dear to our beloved member, Mrs. Robert E. Park, who was at one time Principal.

The membership of the Atlanta Chapter is Two Hundred and Thirty-two. Our Chapter has lost, by death, two members who were beloved by us all, Mrs. R. E. Park and Mrs. W. S. Everett.

With all good wishes for the continual growth and united work on the historical and patriotic lines for which the Daughters of the American Revolution was organized, I am, very respectfully,

MRS. JOSEPH H. MORGAN,
Regent Atlanta Chapter D. A. R.

Joseph Habersham Chapter, Atlanta.

Madam Vice-President General, Madam State Regent, and Daughters of the American Revolution in Conference Assembled.

We send greetings and best wishes for another year, and therewith beg leave to submit the following report:

Our year's work has been one of continued interest, and shows great progress along every line of activity for which the organization stands.

Volume III of "Historical Collections" has been published and data collected for two more volumes. We have spent $1,064.50 on this last volume of the work.

The Chapter has grown in numbers, having reached, during the current year, a total membership of Two Hundred and Eighteen. This large accession to membership of Joseph Habersham Chapter is due to no little extent to the fact that during this year the Sarah McIntosh Chapter has coalesced with us. We were glad to welcome the membership of this Chapter into ours and were pleased to have them come to us in a body.

Death has claimed two of our members, Mrs. W. A. Hemphill and Miss Margaret Calhoun. Both of these ladies were devoted members of our Chapter and have contributed greatly to its upbuilding and support. They have been sadly missed by us and their loss to the organization will be distinctly felt in the future.

The work accomplished by the Board of Managers, of which Mrs. Henry Bernard Scott is chairman, as well as that accomplished by all Committees, has been most satisfactory. The Educational Committee has done splendid work, for which it is entitled to special commendation, having obtained five scholarships—one a continuous scholarship of twelve years at Marist College, an excellent school located in the city of Atlanta; another at The Southern Shorthand and Business University, through the kindness of Mr. A. C. Briscoe and Mr. Arnold, who are at the head of that institution. In addition to this, the Chapter has a fund with which it is its purpose to provide two scholarships at the school at Rabun Gap and another at the Martha Berry School. The scholarships last mentioned have not been definitely provided for, but the arrangements will probably be made within a very short time. The Chapter still maintains the "Annual Trophies" at the High School in Atlanta. During the past year the subject was "Legends and Romances of Georgia before the Revolution." The Year Book compiled and submitted by the Year Book Committee is very full and most attractive. We have subscribed towards the placing of a bust of the first real daughter, Mrs. Mary Hammond Washington, of Macon, Georgia, in Memorial Continental Hall, the sum of $15.00, and another sum of $5.00 for a memorial to Mrs. Robert Emory Park, in Continental Hall. Marist College has recently given three scholarships to this Chapter.

Georgia Day and Chapter's Birthday were most appropriately celebrated on the Twelfth of February at the home of Mrs. William Lawson Peel, by the presentation of Historical tableaux. Flag Day was celebrated in June with a reception at the Piedmont Driving Club, to our present Regent and the other officers of the Chapter. All of the Chapters of the D. A. R. of the City of Atlanta united in celebrating at the Cathedral the Anniversary of the birth of our Nation. Bishop C. K. Nelson, chaplain of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, conducted the services in a most fitting and impressive manner.

In addition to all the other work being done by the Chapter, it has decided to build a home which shall stand as a temple to Patriotism. All the members of our Chapter are earnestly devoting their energies to the accomplishment of this great work. Under the auspices of the Chapter, a restaurant was recently conducted in the interest of this work, which netted more than a thousand dollars. The Chapter acknowledges its obligations to many of the ladies who are not members of the D. A. R. for their generous assistance in making this enterprise a success.

During the year the Chapter has had the good fortune to entertain several distinguished guests, among others, Mrs. Mary V. E. Cabell, Vice-President General of the National Organization and one of its founders. The Chapter itself has been entertained at three delightful receptions during the year.

Taking it all in all, the membership of the Chapter is much encouraged to further efforts as a result of its successes in all it has undertaken during the current year. The Chapter wishes to emphasize and impress upon this conference the importance of prosecuting with greater vigor, if possible, the work undertaken from time to time by the various Chapters throughout the State looking to the preservation of the historic records covering the Revolutionary period, which now exists within the State and which, unless cared for and placed in some enduring form, will likely be lost to posterity. This is one of the great works which the D. A. R. should undertake and carry forward with unremitting zeal, since this is one of the chief purposes which justify the existence of the organization, and the one which is more likely to enlist the active sympathy and interest of the general public.

All of which is very respectfully submitted,

MRS. SPENCER R. ATKINSON, Regent

Piedmont Continental Chapter, Atlanta.

The Piedmont Chapter is most happy to be one of the many to greet with enthusiasm our State Regent, and the 13th State Conference, also to come to this fair City of Savannah; duly appreciating her charming hospitality, and the pleasure of being present at this gathering of loyal daughters.

We have held nine meetings this year, and at each one the programs of study, as compiled by our able chairman, Mrs. Redding, have proven most beneficial and instructive.

We have placed on the walls of the Library of our State Capitol a bronze tablet, costing $100.00, to the memory of Junia McKinley, our beloved founder, and Honorary State Regent. On that occasion the tablet was presented by Mrs. L. D. Lowe, our able ex-regent. Governor Joseph E. Brown received it for the State in appropriate terms; Dean Pise, of St. Philip's Cathedral, made the invocation, and spoke of Miss McKinley's deep and fervent Christian character; and Mrs. William L. Peel, Honorary State Regent, a life-time friend, in deep, and touching terms, told of the delightful optimism, loving spirit, and loyal friendship, of her who passed on to her reward August 14 1907. Hon. Hugh Washington, of Macon, made a most beautiful address on this occasion.

Washington's birthday was celebrated at the handsome home of Mrs. W. E. Austin, decorated with flags, evergreens, and flowers. In the library a contest for the best drawing of Washington's face was held. The dining-room was decorated with the national colors, and the menu was very elaborate.

The Piedmont Chapter joined with the Atlanta and Habersham Chapters in celebrating the glorious fourth in a service long to be remembered for religious fervor and patriotic zeal, and the fine address delivered by that grand and good prelate, Bishop Cleland Kinloch Nelson, was a treat to all who heard it.

By a happy coincidence, the Cathedral, the scene of the celebration—being the Bishop's Church—is also my Church home, so I felt just a wee bit honored.

To the Berry School $25.00 was contributed; $9.00 to the Oglethorpe Bust, $2.00 to the Historic Old Meadow Garden.

To the Carnegie Library, where we have a valuable collection, we again contributed our Lineage Books, making them accessible to the public for reference, and the librarian tell us that our section of the Library is greatly sought after, and it surprises him to see how many people are interested in Lineage.

Our present work is the placing of a tablet at Indian Springs to commemorate the treaty by which all of the Lands of the Creek and Cherokee tribes were ceded to the State of Georgia. I wonder that the State has not placed a tablet, as she was the beneficiary of this act of Gen. McIntosh, who said, by signing, that his life would be the forfeit, as 100 braves had pledged to kill him. However we are doing this for the State and posterity, and haven't petitioned the Legislature for a single dollar.

We have contributed $5.00, through Col. Hugh Washington, to the bust of his mother, to be placed in the C. M. Hall, a charter-member of the N. Society, and our first real Daughter.

Towards the Emily Park Memorial we are thoroughly en rapport. Her memory is like a benediction to us. From the Chapter we pledge $5.00.

With the exception of the contribution to the Berry School we have adhered strictly to our work as a Historical Society, and in the report I have just sent to the Smithsonian Institute, to be embodied in that report, I hope there will be found something worthy of record.

We have contributed $5.00 worth of books on Colonial and Revolutionary subjects to the Pryor Street School Library, the Principal of that school, Miss Noland, being a member of our Chapter, the books are assured of constant circulation among her pupils.

The Piedmont Chapter now turns its face to a New Year with pride for its past, pleasure in its present, and hope of success for its future.

MRS. WM. H. YEANDLE, Regent.

Augusta Chapter, Augusta.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

Our Chapter has held eight meetings since my last report. Too many of our members are absent during the summer months to attempt to call them together. There are at present eighty-two names on our roll. Although we have gained new members, they are off-set by an unusual number of transfers and withdrawals. We sent two delegates to the National Congress in Washington last April. Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan was one of them, and we were most fortunate in being so ably represented, for her many years experience in that yearly Council, her knowledge of parliamentary law and natural ability as a speaker, added greatly to the lustre of our Chapter. In connection with her position as our delegate, she has given a gavel of historic association to Meadow Garden, which will be presented to our Chapter during this present Conference.

We are indebted to Mrs. H. G. Jeffries for a very full and exhaustive catalogue, compiled by her, of all the objects, large and small, in Meadow Garden, with names of donors even to the books in the library. To some are attached dates together with a short history of the article. It was published at some little expense, which we hope to defray by sale of same, during the winter, when the house is open to visitors.

Our delegates, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Plumb, will be pleased to give these catalogues to anyone applying for them. They contain really interesting reading matter, and should stimulate an interest in the place to those overlooking them; so I recommend them to one and all of you.

The Treasurer reports $88.24 spent on Meadow Garden this year.

At the Brunswick Conference, Mrs. Fleming, our delegate, brought back the cheering intelligence that $62.00 had been pledged to Meadow Garden for the ensuing year, which is just up. On the strength of this, we had some long-needed work done. We greatly thank those Chapters who have contributed to this sum to the extent of $40.00. We only know the names of three—The Piedmont Continental, The Elijah Clarke, and The Savannah Chapter. $32.00 was sent through the State Treasurer without names of contributing Chapters. We regret this, for we would like to acknowledge their generosity. We thank them very much, although, as yet unknown to us. Our outgo this year is quite in excess of our income. Now that the Oglethorpe monument is finished, for which we have so long and zealously worked, and our column of Memorial Hall paid for, I hope the needs of the Mt. Vernon of Georgia will appeal to you all. You must certainly understand why our contributions to outside calls are necessarily small, when such demands are made on our treasury for keeping up the old "Signer's" home.

We have given $10.00 to the Berry School; $10.00 for Mrs. Parks' memorial; $4.00 to a "real daughter," and $5.00 offered for prize essay to school children.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE H. CUMMING,

Regent Augusta Chapter.

Brunswick Chapter, Brunswick, Ga.

Since having the pleasure of entertaining the State Conference last Fall, we have added four new members to our small body of earnest workers, and more are waiting to be admitted, and when the New Year dawns, we hope to welcome a number of other daughters.

Our Chapter meets as near the fifteenth of the month as possible, from October to June, with the ever patriotic thought before us, encouraging schools, responding to the calls of the Mountaineers, pledging ourselves to give fifty dollars for a scholarship for a girl at the Martha Berry School.

We will contribute to the Continental Hall the memorial to Mrs. Robert E. Park, besides having a growing fund for our Chapter House.

Georgia Day was appropriately observed at the home of the Regent, while Washington's Birthday was celebrated with a tea in a most charming manner by our Vice-Regent, Mrs. Krauss.

Such celebrations "introduce the sages and heroes of ages past to the notice and emulation of succeeding times." They are at once testimonials of our gratitude and schools of virtue for our children."

We have given two theatricals from which we realized an encouraging amount. We will give a concert of home talent and later, at the Oglethorpe Hotel, an old time Christmas Dance, using our National colors in decoration, and 'neath the mistletoe and holly, young feet will dance the Minuet and Virginia Reel.

The annals of time record "no previous example of a nation's attaining maturity and expanding into greatness with the rapidity and to the degree which had characterized the United States as a whole," and within the immediate past our own Section of Georgia in particular, which had many historic spots to preserve, especially to our able worker, Mrs. Redding, we are lending our warm support in the long cherished hope of marking "Bloody Marsh."

This accomplished, it will be our pleasure to assist in preserving from the ravages of time and oblivion other places dear to the lovers of our country and to be cherished by our organization forever.

Respectfully submitted,

ELLA G. WHITFIELD, Regent

The Tomochichi Chapter, Clarkesville.

The Tomochichi Chapter has fifteen members. Two of these have come to us by transfer this year. Notwithstanding the membership of fifteen, we have only five or six members who can attend our meetings during the coming winter. All of the others are either permanently or temporarily away, scattered from Pennsylvania to Alabama. This fact has caused us to postpone the election of officers until several ladies who are now working up this record can come in.

We expect, however, to keep up our meetings and carry out our regular program.

During the past year we have had very delightful meetings. We used the program arranged by the State Committee supplemented by papers and selections along the same subjects. As our home is in the mountains and a summer resort, we kept up our meetings through the summer with different programs, and thus we had the pleasure of entertaining a number of visiting Daughters at these gatherings. In July we had a "President's Meeting," and in August a most interesting "Georgia Indian" meeting. In June, Mrs. Logan Bleckly delightfully entertained the Chapter at her beautiful summer home in Clayton, where we had a "protracted meeting" having been left by the afternoon train. We remained over until the next day. While there we visited the Logan E. Bleckley Memorial School grounds and saw the substantial foundation of the building which through the efforts and generosity of Mrs. Bleckley is being erected in Clayton.

We have met all of our financial obligations. Our first contribution as a Chapter was to the Oglethorpe bust in Continental Hall. We are arranging to get markers for the Revolutionary soldiers' graves in Habersham and adjoining mountain counties. This is to be our especial work for the coming year.

ADDIE BASS, Regent.

Etowah Chapter, Cartersville.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

A year ago, when the Etowah Chapter sent a report to this body, it was with a feeling of newness and strangeness. Although we felt that we had done some good work for a Chapter, only a few months old, there was the lack of unity with the State body, which no doubt every young Chapter experiences.

This year the feeling is very different. We are beginning to recognize the fact that we are among kindred spirits. We are most happy to know that we are one of you, and as such, ready to do our part in the work of this organization.

I believe one reason that we now feel so thoroughly identified with the State body is that, during the past year a special effort has been made to familiarize the Chapter with the work and aims of both State and National bodies. Many of our programs have been entirely devoted to this feature, and if our Chapter had done nothing else during the first year, I would feel that it had not been wasted, if a complete and perfect sympathy in, and understanding of, the work of the State and National organizations had been brought about.

But much else has been accomplished.

A prize of five dollars was again awarded at commencement to the student in the public schools writing the best essay on a Revolutionary subject. The subject this year was "Georgia's Early Part in the Revolution."

We intend to confine our subjects to Georgia for several years. The prize next year will be awarded on the 22nd of February and the contest will include the schools of the county, as well as those of the town, as heretofore, thereby causing a more general interest.

Georgia Day was observed with a literary program on the 12th of last February at the public schools, under the Chairmanship of one of our members.

During the year, one member has transferred to Charlotte, N. C., and two new members have been added, making a complete list of thirty-four; five of these living in other cities and States, and five having country homes. Monthly meetings averaging about twenty in attendance, have been held at the homes of the members. Five Dollars was sent last spring to the fund for the bust of Oglethorpe and liberal responses have been made to local calls. During the State Convention of the U. D. C. held in Cartersville, in October, the Chapter presented Miss Baxter, president of the U. D. C., with a very handsome bunch of chrysanthemums.

One of the most important things undertaken this year, if not the most important, was the decision to give a copy of the Declaration of Independence to each one of Bartow County's schools, fifty in number. After much trouble in finding out where to obtain these copies, we finally ordered and received them in the late spring, just about the time the schools were closing. A few have been presented, however, and these visits of a few interested D. A. R. to the far distant county schools, will we trust do much to stimulate the study of history, and be helpful in many other ways to our county school children.

We had the pleasure of a visit from our State Regent, twice during the year. In July Mrs. Graham came for the day officially, as the guest of the local regent. A special meeting of the Chapter was held during the afternoon and our Regent impressed all who met her with her enthusiasm in her work, and charmed us with her delightful talk. In October, Mrs. Graham was one of the distinguished guests of the Bartow Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, at the U. D. C. Convention and was the guest of honor at a number of social functions.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. OSCAR T. PEEPLES,

Regent Etowah Chapter.

Button Gwinnett Chapter, Columbus.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

The Button Gwinnett Chapter sends cordial greetings and is glad to report a successful year.

We have had a full attendance and interesting programs at all the regular monthly meetings.

Four new members have been received during the year.

We have contributed to the Berry School and to the Oglethorpe Bust.

Our principal work for this year is a scholarship to the Industrial School given to one of the girls of the Orphans' Home. Both of these institutions being located here.

We are also making an effort to mark the grave of a Revolutionary Soldier which we discovered near Cleola, Ga.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY L. L. CURTIS, Regent.

George Walton Chapter, Columbus, Ga.

George Walton Chapter sends greetings to the officers and delegates of the thirteenth State Conference.

The George Walton Chapter has fifteen members, dropped three and gained one during the past year, two papers for membership were sent to Washington in May, but have not been returned. Several other ladies are making out papers to join in the near future.

We have regular monthly meetings and use the programs so kindly sent by Mrs. Redding. The Regent attended the National Congress in Washington and while there gave $5.00 to the Oglethorpe bust, $2.00 to the present to Mrs. Donald McLean, and small amounts to several other causes.

The Chapter also gave $10.00 to the Berry School.

The Regent as a member of the Berry School committee wrote and sent off 62 letters and 62 pamphlets to the Regents in Iowa in the interest of the Berry School.

We hope to have a larger membership and a better report by the next State Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. H. HARDAWAY, Regent.

Oglethorpe Chapter, Columbus.

Madam Regent and Members of the Convention:

Oglethorpe Chapter is in excellent condition. We have 53 members. There are no deaths and no transfers to record. There has been one resignation, Mrs. Henry Benning Crawford because of her removal to Brazil.

Last year we gave $15.00 to the Lewksbury Mission for dinner-carriers in this city, $15.00 to Continental Hall and $15.00 to the Martha Berry School. This year we have decided to leave the donations to the discretion of the delegates to this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY B. SLADE, Regent.

Stephen Heard Chapter, Elberton.

The Stephen Heard Chapter of the D. A. R.'s sends greetings to her sister Chapters of Georgia.

We have labored under disadvantages during our past year's work. On account of recent sorrows among our members, the meetings have not been as interesting. Out of 18 members only 8 have met with us. These few, imbued with enthusiasm and energy, kept in touch with the work accomplished by her sister Chapters and responded to every patriotic cause.

The Berry School has experienced a helping hand among us, and we feel beautifully blessed whenever we think of Miss Berry and her noble work. She is an inspiration to us.

It is true, we have been handicapped in our work, but the New Year promises great things.

Respectfully,
EDNA ARNOLD COPELAND, Regent.

Pulaski Chapter, Griffin.

The past year has been pleasant and profitable to the members of the Pulaski Chapter. Eight meetings have been held with a large percentage of the thirty-one members present and the questions on Georgia History prepared by Mrs. Redding of Waycross, have made these meetings unusually interesting and instructive.

On Feb. 12, our Regent used the questions which were answered by the names of counties, and entertained the Chapter and the Daughters of the Confederacy delightfully. On February 22nd, we gave a Washington Tea at the home of one of the members, which brought in a nice little sum for our Chapter House, for which we are still striving. We hope to begin on it soon, and when finished, we want the State Conference to meet with us.

The present officers of the Chapter are: Regent, Mrs. R. H. Drake; Vice-Regent, Mrs. T. R. Mills; Secretary, Mrs. Ernest Carlisle; Treasurer, Mrs. A. G. Martin; Registrar, Mrs. Wm. Marland.

During the year we have contributed $10.00 to Miss Berry's School and $5.00 to the Oglethorpe Bust Fund, besides smaller amounts to other causes.

We were sorry to make note of the death of our real Daughter, Mrs. Maria Redding. We always enjoyed so much the privilege of assisting her.

With best wishes for a pleasant and successful conference,

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs.) ROSELYNE REID CARLISLE,
Secretary Pulaski Chapter, Griffin.

Governor Treutlen Chapter, Fort Valley.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

"Governor Treutlen" Chapter sends greetings, and regrets that she can not be represented at the Conference. Our Chapter has held regular monthly meetings, at which appropriate historical programs have been rendered. Have observed Flag Day and Independence day with suitable exercises. Our October meeting was a memorial service to our lamented co-laborer and leader, Mrs. Emily Hendree Park. We have pledged ourselves to contribute to the Memorial to be erected to her memory in Memorial Continental Hall. We contributed $5.00 to the Berry School; $1.00 to Meadow Garden; subscribed to the American Monthly Magazine. Owing to illness in the family of the Regent, the Chapter has not been as active as it would have been, under other circumstances. We hope for new members and more active efforts, next year. Our list of members at present is seventeen (17) and several are awaiting their papers from Washington.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ANNIE C. W. HARRIS, Regent.

Shadrach Inman Chapter, Hephzibah.

Since the death of our beloved and able Registrar, Miss Harriet Eliza Carswell which occurred February 12, 1909, and who was such a power and inspiration, our little band has felt to a great degree her loss. Not alone as one who occupied a high place in the leading circle of our town, but her loss to our Chapter cannot be estimated, hence irreparable. However, we have gained courage in the thought that the Shadrach Inman Chapter was her inspiration, and we are taking up the work where she laid it down, striving ever to follow in her footsteps and doing the things that she would have us do for the good and furtherance of her beloved work.

We are taking even greater interest than ever in the many calls that are made upon us, and our regret is that we cannot respond as liberally as we would if our Chapter was stronger.

However, we have made a contribution of $10.00 to the Berry School, also $10.00 to Continental Hall, and a subscription to the American Monthly. Five Dollars of this amount was proceeds of an ice cream sale.

We are very much interested in locating graves of Revolutionary soldiers. We have made application for markers to be placed at the graves of six of these soldiers, who are as follows: Daniel Inman, Edmund Murphy, Leut. John Carswell, John Murphree, Mills Murphree, Benjamin Brack, The Shadrach Inman Chapter will mark these graves as soon as the markers arrive. We are now trying to locate Historical places, and hope to report something interesting on this line. Our Chapter numbers seventeen members.

The name of Mrs. Maggie Byrne Walker of Savannah, Ga., having recently been added to our list.

At this writing, our per capita dues are being forwarded.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. VIRGINIA INMAN DAVIS, Regent.

ANNA GORDON PALMER, Secretary.

Mary Hammond Washington Chapter, Macon.

Madam Regent and D. A. R.'s in Conference assembled:

The Mary Hammond Washington Chapter has just closed a somewhat uneventful year. We have been trying the experiment of meeting in a rented Chapter room, and while our meetings have been interesting and fairly well attended, they have not been as social nor the attendance so good as when we met at private houses. We have not yet decided whether the Chapter room will be continued but will probably do so at our January meeting.

On Washington's birthday we invited the Nathaniel Macon Chapter to meet with us and the occasion was a most enjoyable one, as we had special papers and a musical program, and at our other meetings whenever time permitted the historical papers on the subject of the Women of the Revolution have been continued.

Our active membership is seventy-two, one beloved member, Mrs. Mary Ross Banks, of Washington, D. C., having been lost by death. Two new members have been enrolled during the past year and the papers of another are now in Washington.

We have pledged and paid twenty-five dollars to the Berry School, this being the only outlay we have been able to afford on account of the expense of renting and maintaining our Chapter room.

Our Secretary, Mrs. Mallory Taylor, has been chairman of the committee on compulsory education, conducting a whirlwind campaign in favor of the passage of the bill and has through the Ministers in the various towns, brought it before the public in a decided and practical way that augurs most favorably for its passage at the next session of the Legislature.

MRS. WM. LEE ELLIS, Delegate

Nathaniel Macon Chapter, Macon.

The report of the Nathaniel Macon Chapter is very much shorter this year than it should be or ever has been, and its members acknowledge this fact with regret. In the first place, we are sorry not to have a delegate to represent us at the present convention, but for various reasons it was utterly impossible to find one who could attend. The Regent has been ill for some time and because of this, the Chapter has not as yet reorganized for the winter. It is our desire, however, to have a word at the convention, even though it must be in "black and white."

The past year has been a very quiet year and Nathaniel Macon feels that in many respects she has not done her duty. Our meetings have been held every month as usual, and well attended, and our members seem loyal and willing. Recently, we were made very proud by the addition of twelve new names to our list. The Chapter was represented by one delegate at the National Convention. Several months ago, an election of officers was held, and ended as follows:

The Regent, Mrs. Birdsey, was re-elected. Vice-Regent, Mrs. J. M. Neel; Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Pope; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Charles Stone; Recording Secretary, Miss Lillian Estes; Registrar, Mrs. Duncan Brown.

The debts of the Chapter have all been paid and several dollars left in bank to start the new year on. The members are not at all satisfied with the reports and is very much disappointed that its chair is vacant during the convention, but we send the promise of a better work for the next year, with more members and a brighter outlook. This promise should be easily accomplished.

THE SECRETARY.

Henry Walton Chapter, Madison.

To the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution assembled at Savannah, Ga.; the Henry Walton Chapter of Madison, Ga., sends greetings:

Considering the extreme youthfulness of our Chapter, very little connectional work has, as yet, been done.

On October, the eleventh, 1909, the State Regent, Mrs. Carolyn Hardee Godfrey, met with the thirteen prospectives to discuss the plans for the organization of a Chapter to be formed at this place.

On March, the twenty-second, 1910, she officially organized the "Henry Walton" Chapter with the following officers:

Mrs. W. Fletcher Manley, Regent; Mrs. Kittie Reid Fitzpatrick, Vice-Regent; Mrs. Paul M. Atkinson, Recording Secretary; Miss Mary Walton Trammell, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Thomas H. Holland, Treasurer; Miss Bessie Walton, Registrar; Mrs. Lee Trammell, Historian.

Since that date, regular meetings have been held. With several additions, to the roster, already, there are seven applications for membership under consideration.

We have contributed Five Dollars to the Oglethorpe Bust Fund. At our November meeting, new officers were elected. Now, with a growing membership and plenteous enthusiasm, we hope to be able to accomplish good local and connectional work during the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. KITTIE REID FITZPATRICK, Regent.

MISS RICHMOND WALTON, Corresponding Secretary.

Fielding Lewis Chapter, Marietta.

Fielding Lewis Chapter has had a pleasant and profitable year. The program arranged by an efficient "Year Book" Committee was carried out with much interest. Our new year book has just been issued in an attractive form, and contains an excellent program for this year's work. We continue our plan of devoting five meetings of the year to business and four to a literary program, each followed by a social half hour and refreshments.

Georgia Day the Chapter presented a trophy in the shape of a stick pin to the High School pupil who gave the best answers to ten questions on Georgia history. Flag Day was observed with appropriate exercises. The $50.00 promised yearly to the Berry School has been paid, as have also $25 to the National Endowment Fund for the same school. We have also contributed to the Oglethorpe Bust Fund and to other causes that have been presented. Our Chapter has been honored by having the State Regent and Corresponding Secretary chosen from our number.

Report submitted by

ASENATH TOWERS, Regent.

Stephens Hopkins Chapter, Marshallville.

Stephens Hopkins Chapter, Marshallville, Ga., sends greetings and begs to submit the following report:

The past year has been one of progress and interest. Monthly meetings have been held at the homes of the different members, all well attended. This past year we have departed from the regular routine of historic research, the programme being varied by each hostess—each one proved to be replete with interest and instruction. Of the work of our chapter:

$7.50 has been contributed to the Martha Berry School; $5 to the Civic Park in our own town; $1 to Meadow Garden. A prize was given in the High School for the best essay written on "Georgia's Part in the Revolution."

This year we have issued our first year book—programs for the entire year being outlined. The subject for study is "The Lives of the Foreigners Who Aided in Establishing American Independence." Georgia Day was fittingly observed.

Our roll shows a membership of 21 with four papers to be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Mims S. Ware, Regent.

Mrs. F. J. Frederick,
Cor. Sec.

Nancy Hart Chapter, Milledgeville.

The Nancy Hart Chapter extends greeting, and is gratified to report a very satisfactory year.

We have endeavored to attain to the real object of the organization, and have accordingly, assembled together regularly, conducting the usual routine of business; fulfilling obligations monetary and otherwise, to causes especially under the patronage of the Daughters of the Revolution; studied history, delving particular into that relating to our own section; inculcated patriotism; and withal have enjoyed a delightful social side.

To our membership numbering seventeen have been added two, one being a transfer from a St. Louis Chapter, and three other eligible applicants now have papers to be filled out.

During August, the Chapter participated in an interesting ceremonial, the marking with a stone secured by the Chapter, of the grave of Maj. Jacob Gumm, a soldier and officer of the Revolution, at the old family burial ground eight miles from Milledgeville. A number of decendants were present, but the oldest living, a son of the Major and a man ninety-eight years of age, Jacob Gumm, Jr. was prevented by reason of his enfeebled physical condition, tho' he retains his mental activities and was intensely interested in the event. The graves of other revolutionary soldiers, unhonored and un-sung, have been located, and the Chapter will also secure stones for these.

It has undertaken the work of marking with bronze tablets, two historic buildings situated in our town; the old capital, the erection of which was begun in 1804; and the governor's mansion. A nucleus for this fund was provided by contributions received at a Silver Tea recently given for that purpose, tho' it also afforded an afternoon of delightful entertainment.

During the year the Chapter has contributed $10.00 to the Janet Montgomery Chapter of Rockville, Md. for preserving Hungerford Tavern of historical association; $5.00 for placing in Continental Hall bust to Oglethorpe; $5.00 to the Emily Park Memorial; and through the efforts of Mrs. Scott, a member of the Berry School Committee, a box of boy's clothing, in excellent condition, for the school.

Frances W. Perkins, Secretary.

Mrs. Julius A. Horne, Regent.

November, 1910.

Sergeant Jasper Chapter, Monticello.

Sergeant Jasper Chapter, the Baby chapter of the last Conference, being then but one week old and unnamed, was formally organized February 22, 1910, and christened Sergeant Jasper in honor the gallant hero for whom our county is named.

Our Chapter shows eighteen organizing members, fifteen of whom were new and three by transfer. We have four prospective members whose papers have not yet been passed upon.

Owing to the cessation of meetings during the summer, only five regular meetings have been held. In March we were honored by a visit from the State Regent, Mrs. Godfrey, whose beautiful address filled us with renewed encouragement and enthusiasm.

The eighty-sixth anniversary of our real Daughter, Mrs. Martha Penn Rodgers, was appropriately remembered, a handsome bouquet of carnations and ferns being ordered for the occasion.

Our application blanks have been secured in a neat loose leaf binding, and our Charter nicely framed. Other expenditures depleted our limited treasury fund which was somewhat replenished by a Recital in October.

Ten dollars has been sent to the Berry School Scholarship fund, and our interest in other causes which is deep and earnest will be shown in a financial way as readily as we can.

Altogether we feel we have passed the toddling age and hope to keep step with our progressive sister chapters.

Maud Clark Penn,
Regent.

Archibald Bulloch, Montezuma.

The Archibald Bulloch Chapter, D. A. R., sends most cordial greetings:

We have transferred one member and gained two, making a total membership at present, fifteen.

The meetings have been very interesting, taking up a study of Revolutionary history. We gave ten dollars to the U. D. C. Chapter on a monument fund. The Chapter gave a gold locket for excellence in English composition to the high school pupils last year, and will offer this again. "Women of the American Revolution" was the subject last year. Misses Mildred McKenzie and Nellie Lowman drew for the prize which was won by Miss Lowman. We expect to entertain Christmas week in honor of a number of applicants who are working on their papers and also will have neighboring Chapters as guests.

Our Chapter has appropriated fifteen dollars for purchasing patriotic pictures to be presented to our school. We will also give liberally to Mrs. Parks' Memorial. Though a small Chapter, we are all interested and are hoping to have a report of more work another year.

MISS PAULINE LEWIS, Secretary.
MRS. OSCAR MCKENZIE, Regent.

Sarah Dickinson Chapter, Newnan.

Madam Regent and Ladies of the Conference:

Our Chapter has sixteen (16) members and papers pending for four (4) others.

Some months ago, we gave a Bazar and with the money realized, have bought a desk and book-case for the section allowed us in the Assembly room of the Carnegie Libarary. We have located the graves of four (4) Revolutionary Soldiers in our County and are negotiating for Stones to mark their resting place.

We have given small sums to various causes.

We have occasional meetings, which are largely of a social nature.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. R. H. Hardaway,

Regent.

Hannah Clarke Chapter, Quitman.

The Hannah Clarke Chapter sends greetings to the Daughters of the American Revolution in Conference assembled.

We are glad to report the past year as one of pleasant and active work.

Chapter and board meetings have been held regularly, and have been well attended.

We observed Washington's birthday with a Colonial Tea.

April the eighteenth, the third birthday of Hannah Clarke, was celebrated by an entertainment at the home of the Regent. A history of the Chapter was read by the Historian, Mrs. Davidson.

Flag Day was appropriately observed, and Georgia Day was celebrated in a delightful manner, with the Chapter as visitors, by the High School.

The Declaration of Independence has been framed, and given to the Quitman School, and an unabridged dictionary has been presented to the school library.

A medal has been offered to the ninth and tenth grades of the High School, for the best essay on the "Women of the Revolution." This medal will be awarded at the Commencement exercises in June.

Our Charter has been framed and hung in the public library.

For education we have contributed $50.00 to Miss Berry's School.

During the year we have liberally responded to the various calls made on our treasury.

An entertainment, in which many of the young people of Quitman assisted, was given in the spring, and a substantial fund added to our bank account.

A candy sale was held during the County Fair in October, and sixty dollars was the net proceeds.

The Hannah Clarke Chapter has been an enthusiastic worker for Civic improvement and has accomplished much for the sanitation and beauty of Quitman. The Year-Book Committee, realizing that in order to lead others, we must first inform ourselves, has arranged the entire program for the coming year along civic lines.

Wishing for the Convention a harmonious and profitable meeting, and for each chapter of our cause a successful year,

Respectfully submitted,

MISS NONNIE McCALL, Regent.

MRS. JOHN TOWNSEND, Secretary.

Xavier Chapter, Rome.

Madam State Regent, Officers and Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution:

Xavier Chapter sends greetings and begs to submit the following report.

The work of our Chapter has progressed very satisfactorily the past year. Five members have been added, making a total of forty members, and several papers are being prepared at the present time.

Financially as well as socially and intellectually, our year has been successful and we have been able to meet our obligations promptly, including our two scholarships to the Berry School, and leave a neat sum in the treasury for the coming year.

Last February we presented the Vanderbilt Glee Club and cleared one hundred dollars. This was a delightful occasion socially as we had the pleasure of entertaining the young men at a reception in the afternoon. The young ladies tendered them a dance immediately after the concert in the evening.

Our monthly meetings have been very enjoyable and we have taken great pleasure in using the programs prepared by Mrs. Redding to whom we wish to express our gratitude for same.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERTA C. TURNER, Recording Secretary.

Lachlan McIntosh Chapter, Savannah.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the 13th Annual State Conference:

The Lachlan McIntosh Chapter begs to submit the following brief report.

We have had our usual number of monthly meetings and have added three new members to our roll, making the membership 36. We had the pleasure of having our Sister Chapter, the Savannah Chapter, at a little informal tea in the early spring. We also had a very successful play for the benefit of our Chapter's bank account. We have one and all been looking forward for a year to the coming of the State Conference and now that you are here we are delighted to have you and hope you will enjoy us as much as we are going to enjoy you. At our October meeting, a committee was selected, composed of the Regent, Mrs. Bryan and Miss Margaret Cosens, to frame resolutions in memory of Mrs. Robert Emory Park and they have handed in the following:

"Passed to the Great Beyond, in God's appointed time, Emily Hendrick Park.

"Mourned and missed—for her noble deeds, and untiring interest, and devotion in uplifting mankind in all stations of life;

"Mourned and missed throughout the organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for her strong clear judgment, and universal justice;

"Mourned and missed, for her loving words of encouragement, and for her wise unselfish adjustment of all questions, and all differences.

"Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter, D. A. R., spread this memorial upon its minutes, to a dear friend, a wise counselor, and a splendid woman, Mrs. Robert Emory Park.

"And the Reaper stood with his scythe in hand,
Where the grain was ripe on the border land,
And the rays were aslant, from the setting sun—
As He gathered the harvest of deeds 'well done.'

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. BRYAN, Regent.

Savannah Chapter. Savannah.

Madam Regent, Officers and Daughters of the American Revolution:

Savannah Chapter has a membership of 57.

Number gained last year, 5. Resignations, 5. Transfers, 1.

We have held regular meetings each month and closed the year's work in May with an afternoon tea, to which were invited the members of the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter.

We have tried various and sundry plans for increasing our treasury and I am happy to state that the Chapter is in better financial condition than ever before in its history. The members are enthusiastic and earnest and it is hoped that at no distant day we may see erected and unveiled a memorial to the Revolutionary dead in Colonial Park. The Chapter is working hard and faithfully to that end.

Our contributions for the year have been small, owing to this work, and our only regret is that we hadn't more to give.

Contributions:

Meadow Garden	$ 5.00
Scholarship Miss Berry's School	50.00
To the $1,000 scholarship Miss Berry's School	10.00
Flag Staff at Meadow Garden	1.00
Bust of Oglethorpe	5.00

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. CRANE, Treasurer.

Jonathan Bryan Chapter, Waycross.

Vice-President General, Madam Regent, Daughters of the American Revolution:

The Jonathan Bryan Chapter sends greetings to the Conference assembled at Savannah. Our Chapter meetings have been delightful, both socially and for historic study.

The election of Miss Benning was a joy to us, and we hope Georgia will always be represented on our National Board. We feel keenly our bereavement in the departure of dear Mrs. Park, and trust that a marble bust of her, Georgia's great woman, will be placed in Continental Memorial Hall, for which she worked so faithfully. Our Chapter has sent $10.00 for this fund to our State Treasurer.

One of our members, Mrs. McGowan, lost her mother last June, and we gave $5.00 for a floral offering. Also gave $3.00 additional on last year's subscription of $5.00 for Oglethorpe's bust.

For Meadow Garden	$2.00
Continental Hall	2.00
State dues	3.00

and have appropriated $5.00 for Bunn Bell School, essay on patriotic subject, making an expenditure of $30.00 for this year. We have twenty-one members, one has a life membership.

Together with our Woman's Club of Waycross, we expect to work the coming year for school libraries for our county schools.

Respectfully submitted,

ISABELLA R. REDDING, Regent.

ANNIE S. LAMBDIN.

Lyman Hall Chapter, Waycross.

Madam Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

The Lyman Hall Chapter sends greetings to the Twelfth Annual Conference, Georgia D. A. R.'s.

The past year has been a prosperous, and in most respects, a very happy year with us. Our only sadness has been the loss by death of one of our members, Mrs. A. M. Knight.

Several new members have been added to our Chapter, and quite a number are getting their papers ready. Our Chapter has, during the past year, contributed liberally to several worthy causes, and is especially proud of having made the first contribution to the Confederate monument erected by the U. D. C.'s.

Last fall the Chapter observed Arbor Day, and with appropriate ceremonies, planted a tree in the Quarterman Street School yard. This year a tree is planted at Howe street School. The members of the Chapter are looking forward with much pleasure to the interesting course of study planned for this year. Mr. Pound will give us the benefit of his recent travels abroad in a series of talks, on which occasion each member is allowed to invite a friend to be present. At the October meeting the same officers were re-elected, with Mrs. Robert Odum to succeed Miss Rachel Crook, as Treasurer. The Chapter regrets that Miss Crook has moved away from Waycross, although she is still a member of our Chapter.

Mrs. Walker, our Historian, has made our meetings more interesting by giving us the benefit of her extensive historical researches. Our Chapter has been complimented by having Mrs. Walker appointed State Historian.

The Misses Blackshear very kindly entertained the Chapter in December last, and the members greatly enjoyed examining the valuable Revolutionary and Colonial relics inherited by them from their distinguished ancestors.

With best wishes for a very prosperous year, this report is most respectfully submitted.

LUCY M. POUND, Regent.

WILLIE RABUN BECK, Sec.

Kettle Creek Chapter, Washington.

Madam State Regent:

In sending the report of the Kettle Creek Chapter I feel that we have accomplished nothing. The monument we hoped for is not yet in sight. The bill has not passed. We celebrated the 14th of February which is the anniversary of the Battle of Kettle Creek, with a patriotic concert, and realized a nice sum. We wish the public schools to celebrate the date above mentioned every year, so the children of Wilkes County will be familiar with the facts recorded in history, concerning revolutionary days. Almost every member of our Chapter has undergone suffering and sorrow during the past year, so little has been done in a social way.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE M. LANE, Regent.
