TO THE D. A. R.

KEEP THE FAITH

(Air, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean")

O, our national organization,
A band of the fair and true,
We pledge thee thy daughter's devotion,
Our love and allegiance renew.
May the name that we cherished stand ever,
As new members we add to thy roll,
For service and duty forever,
To country, a beautiful scroll.

CHORUS:

Keep faith with the brave and the true,
"Carry on" in the work that's to do
Let "over the top" be our motto,
Our standard, the Red, White, and Blue.

O, the Star-Spangled Banner we cherish,
And the D. A. R. takes this stand:
We pledge that its glory ne'er perish,
Nor its beauty grow dim in the land;

Our grandsires fought to defend it
In the days of its perilous youth.
We daughters will ever protect it,
Its folds of the bright living truth.

The fires of the fierce revolution,
Where thunders were heard 'round the world,
Kindled thoughts of our great Constitution,
And Liberty's flag was unfurled;
Our ancestors fought for our freedom
And Liberty's torch held on high;
We hold up the torch that they left us
And bear it aloft to the sky.

—By ELIZABETH DUNCAN LANIER.

Adopted as a state D. A. R. song, April, 1919.

Prayer—Mrs. T. E. Blackshear, state chaplain.

Adjournment.

THE FLAG SALUTE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice to all.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

—Authorized Version.

ADDRESSES

WELCOME ADDRESS

Mrs. Henry S. Redding, regent of Jonathan Bryan chapter, on behalf of the D. A. R. of Waycross.

THE WASHINGTON BI-CENTENNIAL

Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent, Georgia D. A. R.

Madam Hostess regents, distinguished guests, Daughters of the American Revolution, fellow citizens:

For a year we have looked forward to coming to Waycross. It is my happy privilege to be your guest on this brilliant occasion—one feels as if they had stepped from the busy rush of modern life back into the Colonial period of our National History—surrounded as we are by beautiful women, wearing costumes suggestive of the Washington Inaugural ball. This is our tribute to the Bi-centennial.

February 22, 1932, was the 200th anniversary of the birth of General George Washington; "first in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen." He stands forth not only in his official life, but in his personal character as a citizen, the outstanding international as well as national figure of his time, an example for posterity. As a soldier he achieved victory for the cause of independence against great odds, and in spite of his personal leadership and determination, independence could hardly have been achieved.

The purpose of this nation-wide celebration, is to bring about a revival of devotion to country among the American people, with a renewed appreciation of what George Washington stands for in our national life. To do this it is necessary to stir the patriotic impulses of every man, woman and child living under the protection of the Republic and to make manifest this devotion and appreciation in every school, home, patriotic, civic organization, and group of citizens.

George Washington's exalted character and achievements, his unsurpassed service in the cause of liberty and American independence, and the recognition due to his illustrious memory by the Nation which he founded, impelled the Congress of the United States by joint resolution to authorize a measure for the participation of the United States in the preparation and completion of plans for the comprehensive observance of that great historic event, the Bi-centennial of the birth of George Washington which takes place within the period of special observance from February 22nd to Thanksgiving Day of this year. The president of the United States is the head of the United States commission, with Congressman Sol Bloom, associate director.

One of the first important matters to be carried forward was in securing the cooperation of the executives of the various states so that State commissions could be appointed to become the local agencies for state activities. In 1930, Governor Hardman of Georgia, appointed a Georgia commission to arouse interest throughout the state in making preparations for this important event in the history of our country. The personnel of the Georgia commission is: Mrs. Bun Wylie, chairman, State regent of Georgia

D. A. R.; Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, past vice-president general, Athens; Mrs. Herbert Franklin, past State regent, Tennille; Mrs. John W. Daniel, vice-regent, Savannah; Hon. W. M. Francis, State president, S. A. R., Atlanta; Dr. J. L. Beeson, past State president S. A. R., Milledgeville; Hon. Walter F. George, U. S. senator; Hon. W. W. Larsen, U. S. Congressman; Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president, Oglethorpe university, Atlanta; Judge James Maddox, American Legion, Rome—this appointment was confirmed by Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr.

It early became apparent that one of the most important of all phases of this celebration is in connection with the schools of our nation. Especial interest has always attached to the opportunities that exist for reaching millions of school children and instructing them in the historical significance of George Washington's services to his country and the spiritual value of his example as a citizen and an American. One of the early features favorably considered is the nation-wide essay contest, and similar contests in oratory and graphic arts. Pageants, plays, programs and other features have been prepared for the use of the schools. An effort has been made to have a flag and picture of George Washington for every school room. Arrangements have been made to introduce into school books, and the curricula of the public schools for 1932, special historical studies of a patriotic character. There will be obtainable George Washington posters, maps showing his travels and places where he was identified with incidents of historical interest. The tree planting programs are encouraged so that there will be a George Washington tree in every school and home yard and public square. In school buildings encouragement has been given to patriotic decorations, pictures and inspirational objects as part of the school equipment. Similar cooperation is asked of every patriotic, civic, educational, fraternal, and religious organization in the United States. There will be available as a part of the general program a great moving picture that will depict the life and activities of George Washington. The ministers of the country are requested to preach special patriotic sermons and prominent men and women are organizing speaking campaigns for all kinds of meetings, as well as in the use of the radio.

Special efforts are being made to collect the music of the Colonial and Revolutionary period, and some of the most famous American composers have written memorial music in honor of George Washington. Colorful dress patterns and styles of the Revolutionary period have been revived; also patriotic menus in homes and public places. Makers of calendars, cards, and general printing, also feature this period.

The spirit of the celebration should not be based upon material manifestation of patriotic fervor alone—but that the event be more in the nature of a revival of appreciation throughout the whole United States, of Washington's spiritual and intellectual achievements. The manifestations should come from the hearts of the people.

The essential thought is that it be truly American, participated in by all the people, particularly in their own homes and communities. While certain activities will center in the Nation's capitol during this celebration year, it will not be for the city of Washington any more than for any other city or town.

Among the beautiful Washington memorials, are: Washington monument, the great Memorial bridge across the Potomac, the Mount Vernon boulevard, one of the most inspiring thoroughfares in the world—extending from Washington, D. C. to Mt. Vernon, the home of Washington, where every building, stone and ancient tree seem to breathe a spirit of veneration for the name of Washington; Memorial parkway, the area including the ancient Potomac canal, which George Washington planned and supervised in construction; the restoration of Wakefield in Virginia, Washington's birthplace.

In addition to the governmental activities, it is proposed to have a Fine Arts exposition where pictures of the colonial and early constitutional period are on display; the publication of an authentic edition of all of his writings that have been preserved, the perpetuation of his entire intellectual life, this set of volumes will be on the shelves of all the public and private libraries.

From the inception of the plan to honor the memory of George Washington upon the 200th anniversary of his birth, it was recognized that the cooperation of the women of America would be indispensable, and of particular assistance in reaching the homes, schools, churches, patriotic organizations, and groups of citizens generally.

Daughters of the American Revolution, as your State regent, I call you to service, in promoting the observance of this great patriotic celebration—for it was General George Washington who led our forces to victory at Yorktown, in the war of the American Revolution. Citizens of Georgia, this opportunity is one which must not be lost or passed by, an occasion for the education of our nation in the sound political, civic, and patriotic principles which will lift it to a higher moral plane and mean the most possible to the American people.

It is particularly fitting that we, Daughters of the American Revolution, direct descendants of the men and women who knew Washington, who fought for him and with him to establish a great nation, should have a share in commemorating his achievements—and demonstrating the fundamental principles of liberty, truth, justice and honor which he represents. Let us be thankful that he has lived and that he has given to us the highest and noblest example of American citizenship. And let us be especially grateful that we have this sacred memory, which, spanning time calls us together in sincere fellowship and brotherly love on the 200th anniversary of his birth, 133 years after his death. No founder of a nation in all history is so honored.

"To add Light to the brightness of the sun or glory to the name of Washington is impossible! Let none attempt it! In solemn awe we pronounce the name—and in its deathless splendor leave it shining on through the ages!"

OFFICERS' REPORTS

ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE REGENT

Mrs. Bun Wylie, State Regent

March 1931-March 1932

Madam Vice-Regent, and members of Thirty-fourth State conference, D. A. R.:

The time has again arrived when we take the backward look and review the activities of the Georgia Society D. A. R. Our two years of patriotic service together are closing and to the state regent, life has a broader vision, a deeper purpose, a sweeter fragrance from your personal friendship and hearty cooperation along all lines of our work.

The State conference in Macon closed a year of splendid achievement in Georgia for the D. A. R. The Hostess chapter, Mary Hammond Washington, Mrs. T. E. Ryals, regent, assisted by the Nathaniel Macon chapter, Mrs. L. C. Rader, regent, extended the most cordial, delightful Southern hospitality. Every moment was a joy combined with pleasure and the important business of the conference.

After State conference, preparations for Continental congress claimed my time, as reports had to be written and sent to different national officers and national chairmen.

Early in April was the guest of the Henry Walton chapter, Madison, Miss Kitty Newton, regent, on the occasion of the unveiling of a granite shaft marking the site of an old Revolutionary Inn. The State auditor, Mrs. Harold Nicholson, shared honors with the State regent; she is a member of this chapter. We were entertained at a luncheon by the Misses Butler at their beautiful colonial home, also a reception followed the unveiling, at the home of Mrs. Leonard Wallace.

On April 16, your State regent went up to Washington, D. C., to attend the preliminary meetings and National board before congress, which opened Monday, April 20. The State regents met with the president general on the 17th and the board was held Saturday, April 18. Congress convened Monday morning with the usual beautiful processional and Monday evening was conspicuous for its brilliancy and humor, as Vice-President Curtis addressed the congress and Will Rogers gave one of his inimitable talks. The 40th Continental congress was splendid, inspiring and enjoyable. Fine reports were given from all departments, supplemented by the most outstanding speakers available in Washington. The president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, dispatched the business with dignity and promptness. The election of Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney for vice-president general was a signal honor to Georgia. Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge made a brilliant nominating speech, seconded by Mrs. Moulton, of Connecticut. Georgia's candidate fed the ticket.

State regents' evening was a beautiful occasion—a processional of State regents carrying lovely flowers, and pages holding State flags. Three minutes was the time limit for reports. Your State regent wishes to express to you her pleasurable pride in presenting your record of accomplishment to the National society. Only your unfailing loyalty in rendering 100 per cent service, made possible this creditable report from Georgia. The Georgia banquet at the Willard hotel Tuesday evening was a brilliant occasion. Mrs. Will J. Vereen, Moultrie, was the charming hostess. A handsome invitation to attend unveiling of U. S. Nancy Hart monument was presented to President Hoover at the White House by Mrs. G. H. Norris, regent, John Benson chapter, Hartwell, and your State regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie.

At the invitation of the State regent of Tennessee, I represented the Georgia D. A. R. at the unveiling of the monument to John Sevier in Statuary hall, Washington. The official D. A. R. banquet held at the Willard hotel Saturday evening closed a busy but enjoyable week.

Sunday, April 26, the Georgia bell was dedicated at Valley Forge. This was a beautiful, impressive ceremony. The Georgia bell is named for General Lachlan McIntosh, a Georgian who commanded forces at Valley Forge. The Georgia bell in the Washington memorial at Valley Forge has been paid for by the Georgia D. A. R. ($2,500.00). Mrs. E. B. Coddington, as State chairman, has done splendid work.

Monday, April 28th, I attended the National Board meeting in Washington.

May 14, I was the guest of the Sergeant Jasper chapter, Monticello, Mrs. T. A. Hutchinson, regent, at the unveiling of the Benjamin Harvey Hill marker, and delivered an address. A luncheon at the home of the regent preceded the ceremony.

Your State regent made an address and placed a large wreath on the monument from the D. A. R. of Georgia. On the same day a marker was unveiled at the grave of Benjamin Hawkins by the John Houston chapter and Jeffersonia Hawkins chapter, who sponsored both patriotic occasions.

Your State regent joined with the Atlanta chapter and the Joseph Habersham chapter in celebration of July 4th, making a patriotic address. The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, gave a patriotic program over the radio July 4th, Mrs. Julius Y. Taimadge speaking.

Long, famous Georgia surgeon who first discovered anesthesia. On this occasion I gave a patriotic address.

The Sergeant Newton chapter, Covington, entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Trox Bankston and a reception following the meeting at the home of the regent, Mrs. Travis, in honor of the State regent. Addresses on both occasions were made by the State regent.

The marking of the Nancy Hart highway has been completed by the Georgia D. A. R.—eleven handsome granite markers have been placed on the highway. Three markers were placed this year, one each at Thomson, Louisville, and Glenwood, which completes the Memorial to Nancy Hart, and the Georgia D. A. R. consider this a wonderful privilege to honor in this way one of the most famous women of Revolutionary times.

On September 17th, the unveiling of a handsome granite marker by the Thomson chapter, Mrs. Clyde Hunt, regent, was an interesting occasion. Your State regent made the principal address. Newton. After the exercises a reception was given in honor of the State regent by the city officials at the Jefferson hotel.

On the 18th of September, your State regent, speaking before a large and enthusiastic audience, presented to the town of Glenwood a handsome granite marker. The appreciation of the citizens of Glenwood was expressed in the large number present and the order of Mayor C. M. Jordan that all places of business be closed during the hour of the exercises. Mayor and Mrs. Jordan entertained the official party at a luncheon, and Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Colson entertained at dinner and a reception in the evening. The beginning of this work was due to the efforts of our former State regent, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, together with the cooperation of our official State chairman, Mrs. J. L. Massey. Mrs. Thos. Mell and Mrs. Harold Nicholson accompanied the State regent on this tour and participated in the programs.

The State Executive Board met in Gainesville on October 14th, the guests of the Col. Wm. Candler chapter, Mrs. J. E. Palmour, regent. The fine reports of state officers and state chairmen, of plans for the work of the year were most inspiring. Mrs. Max Land presented the resolution, which was unanimously adopted, that the "D. A. R. Ottley, Jr., to fly to Washington as their guest, and many other courtesies which space and time will not admit.

There are 98 chapters in the State, have been invited to visit 72. In connection with our National Defense work, Mrs. John W. Daniel, chairman, have had public meetings under D. A. R. auspices at which speakers having knowledge of the subject, emphasized the need of outlawing the Communist movement. The American Legion Auxiliary and Georgia D. A. R. sponsored a State National Defense conference in Atlanta March 14-15. Georgia was the first State to call a conference.

Volume IV of the Historical collection of Georgia chapters D. A. R., is ready for distribution. This volume contains certified Bible records and old wills. These valuable books, four volumes, are well bound and are sold at $5.00 per copy. The index to Volume I, compiled in 1930, by Mrs. J. C. Gentry, state chairman, Lucy Cook Peel Memorial committee, is ready for delivery. Chapters are urged to purchase these valuable books—please take this message to your chapter. Let me pay a tribute to Mrs. Gentry and her splendid committee who have rendered to the State D. A. R. a valuable service.

Mrs. Robt. Travis offered a prize of $5.00 for the best essay by a high school student on "An Unmarked Revolutionary Spot in Georgia." Won by Celia Travis, Savannah High school student, subject, "Mulberry Grove."

Mrs. J. M. Simmons, Bainbridge, chairman of Gift scholarships, offered a prize of $10.00 in gold to chapters securing the largest number of Gift scholarships. Mrs. Simmons will present prize.

"Sunshine" pledges made at congress last April amounting to $190.00 have been paid, Mrs. T. C. Mell, chairman. The Chapter histories are ready for distribution. Mrs. Sanford Gardner, chairman, has been untiring in her efforts to compile and have published these chapter records. Mrs. A. H. Brenner, regent, Augusta chapter, has rendered valuable assistance. This work was started in the regency of Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney; although there was much to be done, it has been completed during the present administration.

Mrs. Russell Magna, librarian general, National Society D. A. R., requested the sum of $400.00 for indexing Georgia records in the D. A. R. library, Washington, D. C. This is most important work. Georgia has met this obligation; $400.00 has been paid this year; $100.00 was paid in last year. In report of national chairman of Ellis Island, was delighted to find Georgia chapters had sent 10 boxes of material which could be used in Detention rooms, where aliens are taught. State chairman, Mrs. L. A. Jordan, has full report.

There is a rapidly growing interest in the library service of the Merchant Marine. They have distributed large numbers of our D. A. R. manuals on board ships, as about 40 per cent of the crew are foreigners; 600 books have been sent from Georgia, Mrs. Irving Thomas, chairman.

Letters of appreciation have been received from the Library of Congress for the portrait of Button Gwinnette, one of Georgia's signers of the Declaration of Independence, and index to Volume I which your state regent presented to the Congressional library from the Georgia D. A. R. last April while at Continental Congress. The portraits of Lyman Hall and Button Gwinnette were presented by the state regent from the Georgia Daughters to Continental Congress in April. Nothing presented from Georgia was more appreciated. Also presented a book of the McCall-Tidwell family by Mrs. Howard McCall.

Seventy-eight markers, monuments and tablets have been placed and unveiled. One hundred thirty-six Revolutionary Soldier's graves and 14 graves of daughters of Revolutionary soldiers have been located and many marked.

Our D. A. R. Nancy Hart memorial, Forest Park, is being beautified and kept up with the maintenance fund which was one of the honor roll requirements. The Department of Education, M. L. Duggan, state superintendent of schools, urges the D. A. R. chapters over the state to form classes for illiterate adults. Mrs. W. M. Shurling has splendid report.

The four D. A. R. Student Loan funds, having been completed, we now have $20,000 invested in loans to Georgia boys and girls. These are revolving loans, constantly benefitting new students. This does not include gift scholarships and educational loan funds for local schools and colleges, which amounted to $22,000 more, thus giving Georgia D. A. R. Educational Loan funds amounting to about $42,000. Georgia leads all other states in loan funds and patriotic education. In making contributions to Mountain schools, the chapters have remembered Tammasee, S. C., and Kate Duncan Smith, Grant, Ala., our own D. A. R. schools.

The Gov. David Emanuel chapter has created "The Marion Sibley Wylie Student Loan fund," in the Swainsboro High school, honoring their state regent who organized this chapter. I wish to express my grateful appreciation.

Mrs. Harrison Hightower has aroused interest in Better Films, giving intelligent information about picture production, especially reviews of new films. She has served on national committee.

Georgia won the medal last year for conservation and thrift. Mrs. T. O. Tabor, Jr., chairman. Again this year we have planted thousands of trees—memorial trees to Washington.

Our D. A. R. magazine must be supported by our membership or it will die. Mrs. Tom Wood, state chairman.

Mrs. Robt. Travis, chairman, Preservation of Historic Spots, has sent in a fine report which I want her to have the pleasure of giving.

Radio, the coming medium of publicity, has been much used during the past year throughout Georgia. Mrs. Lucius McConnell, chairman, reports 20 programs have been given.

Elijah Clarke chapter had a splendid radio program on Constitution day, which Mrs. Dudley dedicated to Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, and Mrs. M. R. Redwine. Savannah chapter gave Bicentennial program over radio about Sulgrave Manor. Augusta chapter gave a splendid radio program. Governor David Emanuel chapter gave radio program from Savannah. Joseph Habersham chapter, Mrs. Geo. Niles, regent, spoke over radio on the subject "Why Join D. A. R." Atlanta chapter, Mrs. T. C. Mell, regent, gave a "Georgia Day" program over the radio.

We owe a debt of gratitude to the press for their valuable assistance to the Georgia D. A. R. The Atlanta Constitution has given us a column in their Sunday paper; Mrs. Stewart Colley, state editor.

Mrs. B. A. Tyler, chairman of County Histories, reports 12 histories published by D. A. R., and more than a dozen are now compiling and will be ready this year.

Historical programs were dedicated this year to Washington Bicentennial. Mrs. Max Land, chairman, gave us a very splendid program which was carried out all over the state. Mrs. James Logan, chairman, presents the state with an album of historic postcards, which will be placed in the D. A. R. collection of the Georgia archives, Atlanta. We are greatly indebted to Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, who has set aside a room in the archives for the preservation and exhibit of D. A. R. relics and records. Georgia's patriotic shrine, Meadow Garden, is a place of antique beauty, kept in perfect condition by Mrs. Sanford Gardner and the Augusta chapter.

Patriotic Education, Mrs. Mell Knox, chairman, has been especially stressed in Georgia—now leading all other states in contributions. The total amount given this year is $24,338.76.

Medals and prizes amounting to $843.71 have been given by chapters.

Two C. A. R. societies organized.

Georgia has two "Real Daughters"—Miss Sarah Pool and Mrs. Mary Pool Newsom.

Patriotic songs, Mrs. W. H. Flanders, chairman, have been featured this Bicentennial year and special programs arranged by the chapters.

Splendid chapter reports have been sent in, considering financial conditions.

Chapters have observed all patriotic days. Twenty-five historical and literary reciprocity papers have been sent in.

Two splendid new chapters have been organized: the Adam Brinson, Swainsboro, Mrs. Irwin Brannen, regent, Pulaski; and the Governor David Emanuel chapter, Emanuel county, Mrs. W. H. Flanders, regent, Swainsboro; Mrs. W. L. Brannen has been appointed organizing regent at Metter, and Mrs. W. H. King, at Woodland.

Chapters are urged to hold election of officers in May and report same to state recording secretary at once, that regent's name may occur in directory of chapters in proceedings.

Our hearts are saddened by the passing of six of our beloved members who have rendered service to the D. A. R., both state and national: Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, Savannah, past vice-president general; Mrs. T. C. Parker, past state regent, Macon; Mrs. Lula Kendall Rogers, Tennille; Mrs. R. P. Brooks, Forsyth; Mrs. Price Charters, Gainesville; and Mrs. J. M. High, Atlanta.

Our flag is the symbol of freedom, liberty and justice for mankind, ever reminding us of the need of constant vigilance lest its stars become dim or its stripes fade. A liberal use of our emblem is a challenge to those who oppose our government; Mrs. John M. Slaton, chairman. Two hundred Flag codes distributed and 5,000 flags given in schools.

The 41st Continental congress convenes in Washington, D. C., the evening of April 18, 1932, closing Saturday evening with the banquet. Tuesday evening, April 19, the Georgia banquet will take place in the main dining room of the Willard hotel. Mrs. Ober D. Warthen, Vidalia, is state chairman and hostess. Tickets can be secured from Mrs. Warthen. Cotton Colonial costumes will be featured at President General reception, honoring Washington Bicentennial.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation of the splendid year books sent out by the chapters. They followed out the Bicentennial program.

Have issued messages through the press, state letter in September, Christmas message, and in January sent out state letter with credential blanks, conference and congress material. Have written hundreds of letters, telegrams, phone messages.

Enroute to Waycross was the honor guest of the John Benning chapter, Moultrie, Mrs. W. J. Vereen, regent, at a beautiful reception at the home of Mrs. W. C. Vereen. Mrs. John M. Slaton shared honors with the state regent.

Let us realize those serious questions upon which our national life with its American ideals depend. Our great organization, Daughters of the American Revolution, with a concerted effort must defend our principles against those insidious invasions which threaten us today.

Let us remember that great achievements were never along lines of least resistance—to solve momentous problems requires indomitable perseverance. As I say good-bye to you, my beloved Daughters, my heart is sad at parting, but filled with love and gratitude for your loyalty and inspiration during the past two years we have worked together. Forward! is the watchword. I bid you keep faith with the past as you perform the duties of the present.

Yours to serve,

MARIAN SIBLEY WYLIE,
(MRS. BUN WYLIE, State Regent).

STATE FIRST VICE-REGENT

Mrs. Mell Knox

There have been no executive duties to the office of state vice-regent, but many social pleasures for which I am profoundly thankful and it would have been a delight to have accepted every invitation so kindly extended.

Many and cordial have been the expressions of interest sent me, within the past year, and to Georgia daughters I take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation for these messages, my thanks for your many courtesies of the past, and my assurance of continued activity in our beloved D. A. R. society.

STATE SECOND VICE-REGENT

Mrs. John W. Daniel

Madam State Regent, distinguished guests and members in Conference assembled:

Your state 2nd vice-regent brings you greetings.

While the duties of this office are not great yet one finds much pleasure in them. Our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, not being present at the Southern Divisional congress held in Charleston, the responsibility of extending the invitation to the congress to meet in Georgia 1932, fell to me. This invitation was extended as a result of the vote of the conference held in Macon.

As Kentucky and Arkansas had also extended most cordial invitations to have the congress meet in their respective states, our president general, Mrs. Hobart, thought it wise to let it be decided upon by ballot. Seven states votes as follows: Two for Kentucky, one for Arkansas, and four for Georgia. Mrs. Hobart announced that Georgia's invitation was accepted.

It was my privilege to share honors with our state regent at a beautiful luncheon given by the John Laurens chapter of Dublin, to the members of the U. D. C. convention.

The visit of "Old Ironsides" to Savannah in December was a notable occasion. At the request of our state regent I presented flowers to Captain Gulliver in the name of the Georgia Daughters of American Revolution, which were duly acknowledged by the Captain to our state regent.

It has been an honor, as well as a very great privilege, to have served you as state second vice-regent.

RECORDING SECRETARY

Mrs. W. E. Mann

It has been my pleasure as your recording secretary to attend the Board meeting in Gainesville. Also get out the proceedings for 1931, after approval of the Press committee. I wish to thank all the officers and committees who helped in making this splendid report.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

Madam regent, madam vice-president, general daughters, with such a competent and interested regent as ours, there is very little for a corresponding secretary to say, except that the duties of her office have been fulfilled. It has been lovely to work with Mrs. Wylie, she has done so much of my work. I think she just loves to help people, never too busy or tired. We were most fortunate in having her for our state regent during these strenuous times, as she has been most economical and saved the state many, many dollars. We have used last year's cards as you all know; by a little scratching and a little ink eradicator wonders have been done; the money saved has helped in most important work. Mrs. Wylie has made many visits to the chapters in the state and given so many interesting talks, she has represented the D. A. R. so wonderfully, we have been honored by the many courtesies shown her. I give three cheers for Mrs. Wylie, our beloved state regent, "May she live long and be happy."

STATE AUDITOR

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

Your state auditor concurs in the report of Mr. Albert S. Rowland, certified public accountant, Athens, Georgia, who thoroughly audited the books of the state treasurer, finding them in perfect order.

STATE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. John S. Adams

As we come to the close of another D. A. R. year and realize that special indexing has been taken care of by the Honor Roll requirement nothing but the Doxology can express our united feelings. As the interest and understanding of the library grows the members realize that we have an index system that places the library in the foremost rank in the country in this particular field of endeavor.

It was considered unwise to put too great a strain on the finances of the chapters this year and I asked that they investigate their own public libraries and schools, establish lending libraries in outlying communities, give aid to public and county school children when books were needed. The result has been most gratifying as the following report will show. We have not contributed to as many of the endorsed schools as we have previously done but chapters have done a splendid work at home. Many chapters have contributed to a Book fund that some of the books needed for Constitution Hall library might be purchased.

In closing Mrs. Magna wishes me to tell the Georgia Daughters of her appreciation for your courtesies, cooperation, and splendid generosity, and I acknowledge with deep appreciation your generous response to my many and urgent calls.

STATE CHAPLAIN

Mrs. Thos. E. Blackshear

This year your State chaplain waited till February before writing the chapter regents, hoping thereby to obtain a complete report. I stressed the fact that I wished Georgia to have a 100 per cent report to send to the chaplain general.

Seventy-five chapters responded quite promptly but whereas the number reporting is much larger than last year, my report falls 25 per cent short of the desired goal. I trust my successor may be able to obtain responses from all next year.

Of the chapters heard from most of them reported chapter chaplains, several local ministers serving in that capacity and one reported devotionals led by the regent.

The Council of Safety chapter reported they had had the same chaplain for twenty-three years, viz: Mrs. Littlejohn. The Stone Castle, Throneateska, and Hawkinsville chapters reported they had had chaplains since organization of the chapters.

After thirteen years service in the state D. A. R. of Georgia it is a real grief to sever my connection with the many fine women with whom I have so long been associated. When I moved to Florida the fall after my election, I felt it my duty to resign as your chaplain but the fact that the board refused to consider my resignation was a great comfort to me.

I have served you these last two years to the best of my ability and although there is regret in my heart that I have been remiss in my duties there also abides there a lasting love for the Georgia D. A. R. and even a faint hope that I may someday attend another State conference. With this hope I most fervently pray, "The Lord watch between thee and me while we are absent the one from the other."

STATE HISTORIAN

Mrs. J. L. Beeson

It is great to be D. A. R. state historian in this George Washington Bi-centennial year. Think of the beautiful chapter year books dedicated to the memory of George Washington, our country's greatest statesman and leader; think of the D. A. R. George Washington programs put on in the chapter meetings and in rural and city schools; think of the George Washington parties and teas when the guests dressed in beautiful Colonial costumes; think of the living pictures accurately copied from celebrated paintings; think of the trees that have been planted in memory of George Washington; think of the shop windows exhibits that have been made to arouse interest in historic things; think of the George Washington plays and pageants that have been produced; and be glad that in the pageant writing contest, put on by the National D. A. R. Society, Georgia won two medals offered by the George Washington Bi-centennial commission.

One medal, third honor, was won by Miss Mattie Thomas, of Dawson, Georgia, and one, fourth honor, was won by Dr. Amanda Johnson, of the Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Georgia. The latter pageant was produced with great brilliancy on two consecutive evenings, the combined audiences numbering 2,500 people.

Your historian asks you to consider with her report, the reports of six state chairmen whose work is allied to hers. They are: Mrs. Eli H. Thomas, Mrs. John D. Davidson, Mrs. Robert A.

Travis, Miss Virginia Harden, Mrs. B. A. Tyler, and Mrs. J. H. Pledger; then know that each one of them has said in her heart, with Edward Everett Hale:

"I am but one,
But I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But I can do something;
What I can do, I ought to do,
And what I ought to do,
God helping me, I will do."

In the publication of the chapter histories by Mrs. Sanford Gardner, your historian rejoices as much as if the work were hers.

Oglethorpe Memorial Garden

The $200.00 Oglethorpe university marker, your historian reported last year, but the unveiling on March 31 on the ninety-fourth anniversary of the founding of the university; the beautiful letter of thanks received from Reverend James Thomas, stated clerk of the Augusta Presbytery; and the Oglethorpe Memorial garden, come this year as the marker's aftermath.

The site of the marker with historic Thalian hall still standing was beautiful from the first, but Mrs. H. D. Allen conceived the idea of a memorial garden as a background for the marker. She was aided in her plan by Mrs. Harry Stewart of Macon, Georgia. It is she who has the honor of evolving from the great and small foundation stones of old Oglethorpe university which could not be used in the marker itself, a large rock-garden with its waterfall, its pool, and its myriad plants and flowers. Mr. J. Yarbrough lent his skill to Mrs. Stewart's plans. The electric light cable was placed underground, plantings of large and beautiful shrubs were made, and one would think to see it that someone there possessed Aladdin's lamp and had given it a vigorous rub. So add to the Oglethorpe marker the Oglethorpe Memorial garden, which honors not only Sidney Lanier, Georgia's greatest poet, but also 72 Presbyterian ministers and 317 men who graduated here.

Historical Findings

Many fascinating experiences in historical work have come to your historian. She can truly say:

"Who hath a book
Has friends at hand
And gold and gear
At his command."

"His kingdom is
His inglenook,
All this is his
Who hath a book."

In an old leather-bound history, with title page missing, was found the military service of Principal Chief Pathkiller, Cherokee Indian, colonel in the War of 1812.

The secretary of the Librarian at the Congressional library in Washington, D. C., wrote that the history was that of John H. Eaton, secretary of war, under Andrew Jackson and added this fascinating bit: "Chapters I-V were written by Major John Reid, an eye witness of the events related therein."

A searcher through the files of the Cherokee Phoenix in the Congressional library found that Pathkiller's Cherokee name was Nung na hee ah dah hee.

This information was given by your historian to Mrs. C. R. Reeves, president of the Woman's club at Calhoun, Georgia, and she has obtained a Government headstone.

Pathkiller was Colonel in the regiment of Col. Gideon Morgan, Jr., in the War of 1812.

In an old book also, was found the Revolutionary service of Andrew Torrance, whose name was found on no roster, state or national.

From an old newspaper of 1830 was traced the Revolutionary service of Francis Ward, whose name was on no roster, state or national. The Quartermaster General has had both names placed on the Revolutionary roster in the War department. There were found many Georgia soldiers of whose service the War department had no record.

Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves

Your historian has found this year the graves of 22 Revolutionary soldiers and the graves of nine soldiers of 1812.

She has marked, this year, with Government headstones, the graves of 20 Revolutionary soldiers and the graves of four soldiers of 1812.

These graves of Revolutionary soldiers, added to the number which the chapter regents will report make a grand total of 51 Revolutionary graves discovered, and 35 Revolutionary graves marked.

The chapter regents report also the discovery of 17 graves of Daughters of the Revolution. Verification slips have been received for all markers, except three.

Besides an old book, a friend is of greatest value. Miss Louisa M. Wright, Ordinary of the court, Louisville, Georgia, heads the list with the discovery of 12 graves of Revolutionary soldiers near Louisville, Ga., the old capitol of the state. Miss Wright, herself will receive the headstones, and descendants of the old heroes will set them up. The names of Revolutionary soldiers in Miss Wright's list are:

John Gamble, Roger Lawson, Robert Patterson, William Lyons, John Powell, Josiah Powell, Hugh Alexander, John Patterson, William Patterson, Seth Pierce, Col. Littleberry Bostick, Col. Ambrose Wright.

The Revolutionary soldiers' graves found by your historian are those of:

James Amos, Corp. John Baxter, Capt. John Hart, Ephraim Ivey, William McGhee, Henry Pool, Andrew Torrance, Francis Ward, Jeremiah Warren, James Youngblood.

The graves of soldiers of 1812 are those of:

Sergeant William Bivins, Amos F. Byington, David Greer, Corp. Wyatt Harper, Capt. Charles Hicks, Capt. David McNair, John B. Moran, Tilman Snead, William Sykes.

Your historian tells with pride of the finding of the grave of John Hart, son of Georgia's invincible daughter and heroine, Nancy Hart, and of the grave of William Bostwick, soldier of 1812, whose widow is still living, and of the grave of Henry Pool, father of Georgia's two real daughters, who intend to be present at the unveiling of the Government marker at the grave of their Revolutionary father. Your historian gave one grave of a soldier of 1812, that of John Moran, to Mrs. Lucius McConnell, president of Daughters of 1812, for her to mark.

One of the graves found is that of Charles Hicks, soldier of 1812, distinguished Principal Chief of the Cherokee nation, United States interpreter for many years, Moravian Christian Convert, and a lesser edition, only, of the Apostle Paul, in his Christian ministry.

In connection with the marking of his grave, and the restoration of the Chief McNair cemetery, your historian refers with pride to the receipt of a beautiful letter of thanks from Reverend Edmund Schwarze, Ph.D., of Salem, North Carolina. Dr. Schwarze is the author of one of the most interesting Georgia books, "History of the Moravian Missions Among Southern Indian Tribes."

In this book references are made to Captain David McNair, another Cherokee chieftain. The War department at Washington, D. C., supplied the military record. Your historian now has the privilege of marking the grave of this soldier of 1812, who, after the Georgia Guard had driven the missionary and the teacher away from the Moravian school at Spring Place, took them to his beautiful home just across the line in Tennessee and there, at his own expense, maintained the missionary and the school itself for three years. It was to David McNair's home that John Howard Payne went in 1835, after his thirteen day's imprisonment at Spring Place, Georgia.

Old Marriage Licenses Not Recorded

Your historian publishes in this report thirteen marriage licenses which are not recorded in any court house. They are copied from the original papers now in the Baldwin county court house, which records were taken over from the Court of ordinary at the old Hillsboro court house, near Eatonton, Georgia, this being Baldwin county's first court house.

The minutes of the Court of ordinary at Hillsboro begin with the year 1807.

The first court at Milledgeville met Monday, January 4, 1808. All of these marriage licenses are for the year 1806. They are:

George Cavenah and Catherine Miles, November 9, 1806. Philip Cook, J. P.; A. M. Devereaux, J. I. C.

Samuel M. Mordecai and Caroline Louise Westmire, Nov. 12, 1806. A. M. Devereaux, J. I. C.; Fred Freeman, C. C. O.

Allen Hudson (Hancock county) and Miss Rebecca Boswell, Aug. 13, 1806. Peter Flournoy, J. P.; Fred Freeman, C. C. O.

James Langley and Elizabeth Bandy, Nov. 11, 1806. Simon Holt, J. P.; Fred Freeman C. C. O.

Sampson Wilder (Wilkes county) and Jenny Jones, Dec. 21, 1806; Francis Flournoy.

Waid Hill and Martha (Patsy) Lane, Dec. 24, 1806. Francis Flournoy.

Jabez Roberts and Hetty Thompson, Nov. 16, 1806. Ben Tarver, J. I. C.

William Bowdown and Martha Smith, Dec. 4, 1806. Simon, J. P.

Ralph Sawyer and Elizabeth Fort, Dec. 23, 1806. John Miles, J. P.

Historical Articles

Your historian has had the pleasure of writing historical articles about the old capitol at Milledgeville, about Capt. Charles Hicks, Cherokee chieftain, of the War of 1812, about Pathkiller, Principal Chief of the Cherokees, and about old Oglethorpe university.

She had the historical feature on the programs at the following marker-unveilings; at Monticello at the marker for Benjamin Harvey Hill; at Spring Place at the marker of the Moravian mission; at Milledgeville at the marker for Oglethorpe university; in Wilkinson county, at the Richard Whitaker headstone.

She had the pleasure of accepting invitations to speak before the Atlanta chapter D. A. R. on Constitution Day, and before the Major Samuel Elbert chapter, D. A. R., on Georgia day.

She was entertained in Atlanta at a beautiful tea at the Druid Hills Golf club by Miss Ruth Blair of the State department of archives and history. She here pays tribute to Miss Blair for her valiant aid and many courtesies.

Records of Life in the South

Through your historian there has been presented to the Historical museum of the Georgia State College for Women, two old church books of 1833. Both books contain the entire white membership of the churches and the entire membership of the slaves—the latter far outnumbering the former. In the book reporting the church conferences, if a slave offended, he was received back into the full fellowship of the church, when he repented of his sin. His master even, had to acknowledge his sin and repent of it, before he was received back into full fellowship. One prominent member promised "not again to transact his business at a gander-pulling." These old records of life in the South should be preserved diligently, for even in this year, 1932, the South, listening in, is told by a prominent Chicago radio announcer of negro spirituals, that the slaves when they worshipped, had to steal away into the woods from their masters.

Before referring to the last piece of historical work, your historian would call attention to the 16 historical suggestions of Mrs. Flora Myers Gillentine, historian general, N. S. D. A. R. This year Georgia can answer "Yes" to all but three of them.

While giving to each regent and to each chairman the privilege of reporting her very own work, your historian will for a moment, pattern after the society editor of the old Macon News who headed her column "The Nosegay," with this motto:

"We bring you a nosegay of culled flowers
Only the thread that ties them is ours."

—Montaigne.

In answer to the question of the historian general, N. S. D. A. R., "What unusual historical accomplishment has occurred in your State," your historian took your own rare flowers and tied them with her own thread!

Six of these rare blossoms were these:

(1). The erection of a monument by the United States government to Nancy Hart, Georgia heroine of the Revolution, through the efforts of Congressman Charles H. Brand, who said at the unveiling that the suggestion came from D. A. R. women;

(2). "Locating the grant of land which the State of Georgia gave to Count D'Estaing;"

(3). "All shop windows in town were decorated in honor of the George Washington Bi-centennial;"

(4). "We planted a child of the old Washington elm at Cambridge in remembrance of Washington;"

(5). "We had all school children make their own George Washington scrap books";

(6). The D. A. R. cooperated with every rural school of the county in Georgia Day and George Washington programs.

FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURES OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS' NAMES

And lastly, patterning after Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, who, in her book, "Revolutionary Soldiers' Receipts for Bounty Grants," 1828, published their fac-simile signatures, your historian from old and crumbling land papers and court house records, has collected seventy-nine autographs of Revolutionary soldiers, and publishes them here, before many of them crumble into nothingness. For five others, she gives credit to Miss Blair. These names are each marked by an asterisk.

For many names your historian is indebted to Miss Louisa M. Wright, Ordinary of the Court, Jefferson county, Georgia, and she obtained many from the Court house of Baldwin county. Some came from old land papers of Mr. H. J. Cline, some from the James Gilmore papers owned by Mrs. Fanny Gilmore, some from the William Scoggin papers owned by Mrs. Allen Stiles, and some from the James Hall papers owned by Mr. Frank Wiley.

STATE CONSULTING REGISTRAR

Mrs. Jerry Alva Davis

Your state consulting registrar has enjoyed every minute of her work during the past two years, and it has been her privilege to assist quite a number of people in tracing their lineage back to Revolutionary ancestors, among the number, a little girl who wanted to join the Children of the American Revolution.

Every person in the State of Georgia who has asked assistance of your registrar, has been assisted in so far as she was able to render assistance.

She has kept a record of the Georgia members N. S. D. A. R., that were sent to her, and she regrets that all of the chapter registrars have not turned in a list of their members, their national numbers and their ancestors.

Every invitation extended your registrar during her term of office has been most appreciated, and she leaves you grateful for the joy that has been her's in serving you.

Statistical report:

The following constitutes the books and pamphlets belonging to the office of the State Consulting registrar:

Sixty-four volumes of the Lineage books; 2 Index volumes; 1 copy of Georgia Historical Collections; 1 copy of the reprint of the Land Lottery of 1827; 1 copy of Notable Southern Families by Zella Armstrong, Vol. III; 7 numbers of the Camp Family, Bulletin 1 to 7, inclusive; 1 volume of Rosters of Georgia Chapters; some unassorted papers of family records; a quantity of blanks for filing with the chapter registrars the lineage of descendants of chapter members and others; 1 book Proceedings of the Georgia D. A. R. 1930; 1 book Proceedings of the Georgia D. A. R. 1931; some supplemental records sent by Mrs. John L. Faver, of LaGrange, Ga.; and quite a number of the year books of the Georgia chapters N. S. D. A. R.

STATE EDITOR

Mrs. Stewart Colley

It was indeed a privilege to serve you, Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, as your state editor. My duties were regular but pleasant. Each chapter through their regent has been most gracious in their cooperation and desire to help, and this sincere interest was, at all times, an inspiration to us.

The splendid work of our great organization is very near to the heart of your State editor, and we believe that there is no work in the entire membership which more thoroughly familiarizes you with this work than the work of the State editor.

Mrs. Bessie Stafford, of the Atlanta Constitution, was at all times most courteous and vitally interested in the news value of every report.

FORTY-FIRST CONTINENTAL CONGRESS

Mrs. Bun Wylie, State Regent

The opening session of Continental congress Monday evening, April 18, 8:30 o'clock, was a brilliant occasion. The grand procession of the national officers, escorted by the pages, with state flags; the forty-eight State boxes filled with beautifully gowned women, and the entire hall packed to its utmost capacity, was an inspiring, patriotic scene long to be remembered. The forty-first Continental Congress was called to order by the president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, who, after the invocation by Dr. Z. B. Phillips, chaplain U. S. Senate, Salute to the Flag; the American's Creed and our National Anthem; introduced the speakers of the evening. After greetings from the District of Columbia by Commissioner D. A. Davidson, the vice-president of the United States, Charles Curtis, addressed the congress; this was followed by a group of lovely songs, sung by our Georgia boy, James Melton.

America's gratitude to her friends of 1776: Ambassadors of France, Germany, Poland and Minister of the Netherlands. More beautiful music by James Melton, and addresses by Hon. Simeon D. Fess and Commissioner Charles Moore.

Tuesday was Patriot's Day. Mrs. Herbert Hoover was our guest of honor and brought greetings from the White House, for both herself and the president of the United States.

Reports of the president general and national officers were most interesting.

Tuesday afternoon was given over to State meetings. The Georgia State meeting was held in the Michigan room, Memorial Continental hall, with a large attendance of 38. After the meeting, the delegation had their State picture made on the east portico of Memorial Continental hall, grouped around the "Georgia column," which is our pride, as Georgia contributed this to the building of Memorial Continental hall.

At 6:30 Tuesday evening the Georgia banquet took place in the Crystal dining room at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Ober D. Warthen was the charming Georgia hostess and it was one of the most beautiful State dinners we have ever had at Continental congress. The state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, had the pleasure of sending to Mrs. Russell Magna, the prospective president general, a basket of lovely flowers, from the Georgia D. A. R. The same evening at 8:30 o'clock was the reception of the president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart. The national officers, members D. A. R. and guests were in Colonial costume in honor of the Washington Bicentennial. The same evening at ten o'clock the pages were given a ball at the Willard hotel.

Wednesday morning reports and resolutions followed with a wonderful address by Hon. Arthur M. Free, U. S. representative from California, on National Defense.

The chaplain general presided at the Memorial service at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon. Tributes were paid to ex-vice-presidents general by Mrs. Howard McCall; among them she paid a beautiful tribute to our beloved Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, who was charter member, state regent, and vice-president general.

A beautiful tribute was paid Mrs. T. C. Parker, ex-state regent, and Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent, placed the flowers in the wreath for both departed members.

Wednesday afternoon a pilgrimage was made to Arlington to place a wreath on the grave of the Unknown soldier. From Arlington ton, we journeyed to Mt. Vernon to place wreaths on the tombs of George and Martha Washington. On leaving Mt. Vernon, we stopped at the south entrance to plant and dedicate thirteen cedar trees, in honor of George Washington—each of the 13 original colonies. It was with much pride, your state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, placed the Georgia dirt (which I carried from Georgia) around the Georgia trees and dedicated it in honor of George Washington from the Georgia D. A. R. From Mt. Vernon we attended the reception at George Washington Masonic National Memorial, Alexandria, Va.

Wednesday evening we had nominations of national officers.

Thursday was "State Regents evening"—a beautiful processional of the 48 state regents all wearing lovely gowns and carrying beautiful flowers. I am sure you would have been pleased with your state regent as she made your splendid Georgia report, which you had made possible by your fine constructive work. I thank you for giving me this privilege.

The tellers reported the result of the election, which took place Thursday. The names of the new national officers will be found on page 5.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Hoover received the members of the congress at the White House at 5 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon the newly elected national officers and state regents were confirmed. Then came in processional which was very beautiful—the retiring state regent and the newly elected state regent—on the platform, they stood opposite each other, coming forward at the call of the president general and placing the ribbon over the shoulder of the new regent. It was my happy privilege to place my ribbon on Mrs. Julian McCurry, our new state regent, and wish great success in her administration.

Congress closed Saturday evening with a wonderful banquet in the Willard hotel. Georgia had a voting strength of 37—with 10 alternates; seven pages, the state regent and Georgia delegation had many courtesies shown them. Your state regent, Mrs. Wylie, was the guest of the Eastern airport on their largest plane, the Curtis King, to Washington.

The hearts of the Georgia delegation were saddened by the death of our Senator, William J. Harris, which occurred during congress.

The Georgia delegation voted to give the new state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, a library table in Constitution hall, $250.00. Two Georgia girls, Miss Mattie Thomas, Dawson, and Miss Amanda Johnson, Milledgeville, won Bi-centennial medals. Miss Cecilia Travis won state medal for best essay on Historic Spots, and Milton Richardson, university contest, for best oratorical contest.

The Georgia box is our pride and much used by our members. Let me thank you again for the splendid demonstration of friendship and love you gave me at the State conference in Waycross, which enabled your state regent to represent you at congress; for the lovely flowers sent me and all the sweet, friendly courtesies you have extended me as your state regent. After all "Living is but loving and loving is but to serve."

AMERICAN'S CREED DAY

Mrs. Young Harris Yarbrough

Never has there been a time when the principles, incorporated in the American's Creed, should be stressed as now, under conditions existing in our country. Our nation will endure only, when so long as our people adhere to the principles upon which our government was founded.

April 3rd, having been designated by National congress as American's Creed day, has been appropriately observed by most of our chapters.

Elijah Clarke chapter reported a radio program planned; Sergeant Newton chapter the distribution of copies of the American's Creed; Augusta and Nancy Hart chapters included the American's Creed in their yearbooks. Others reporting observance of the day are as follows: Lamar-LaFayette, Barnesville; Oglethorpe, Columbus; John Laurens, Dublin; Col. Wm. Candler, Gainesville; Gov. David Emanuel, Swainsboro; John Clarke, Social Circle; James Pittman, Commerce; Gov. John Milledge, Dalton; Nathaniel Macon, Macon; Atlanta, Atlanta; Stephen Heard, Elberton; Nancy Hart, Milledgeville.

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE LIBRARY

Mrs. Irving Thomas

As chairman of the American Merchant Marine Library association for the Georgia Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, I beg to report a larger number of books sent than during the previous years. The Joseph Habersham chapter, Atlanta, sent one hundred and forty-seven books and reports more to follow. Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, always a banner chapter, reports having sent eighty splendid books most of them being new books of fiction, travel and history. "The very best collection of books we have ever sent" is the way the regent describes them. The Governor David Emanuel chapter has sent twenty-five fine selected books, among the books sent by this chapter is a set of "The New Cabinet Cyclopaedia." The fiction for the most part were selected novels of the "Book of the Month Club."

The Adam Brinson chapter sent a check representing five cents for each member of the chapter. This check was used to buy books.

Some books have been sent direct to New Orleans, but the chapters have failed to notify the chairman and it is impossible to give credit for same. Books may be sent direct to Dock Boars Tool House, Poydras Street and River, New Orleans, La. But notify your chairman.

ARMISTICE DAY

Mrs. C. A. Rudolph

Armistice day in 1931 was fittingly observed by chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution throughout Georgia. Many gratifying reports have been received by this chairman of the interest manifested and of the active cooperation on the part of other patriotic organizations in bringing this day in 1931 to the attention of the public as the anniversary of that day in 1918 when all nations lay down arms and there was peace.

Special notice should be called to the observance of the day by John Benson chapter, Hartwell, which your chairman had the pleasure of attending. A memorial to Nancy Hart, famous Revolutionary heroine, was unveiled with most impressive ceremonies.

Activities and programs by the chapters over the state were of high standard and the Daughters of the American Revolution have been commended by word and press for the patriotic manner in which this day was observed.

BEAUTIFICATION OF HIGHWAYS

Mrs. Clyde Forrest Hunt

I deeply appreciate the honor of being appointed, by Mrs. Bun Wylie, our state regent, to fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. R. P. Brooks, our beloved and efficient chairman of Beautifying National Highways.

During the few months which remained I have endeavored to carry forward the work so carefully planned by Mrs. Brooks.

The first official work of your chairman was a letter to every chapter regent urging the planting of trees and shrubs on highways. A letter was sent to Mrs. Colly, state editor, who was very prompt in having it appear in the D. A. R. column of the Atlanta Constitution.

It was a delightful privilege to attend the Executive Board meeting at Gainesville in October.

Your chairman has solicited the cooperation of other organizations, and they have been very responsive. The chapters have been working hard and many of them have made wonderful reports.

The other members of this committee, Mrs. J. C. Collier, Mrs. T. E. Ryles, Mrs. J. C. Comer, Mrs. McArthur Jones, Mrs. John Adams, and Mrs. Eli Calloway have cooperated beautifully. All of this has made the work of your chairman a pleasure and enables her to make the following report:

Planted on highways: 688 trees (pine and pecan); 2,343 dogwood and red beech; 1,041 evergreen shrubs; 30 magnolias; 50 miscellaneous; 10 holly; total, 4,142 trees and shrubs.

One mile dogwood and crepe myrtle; 1 mile Japanese cherries; 1 mile dogwood, crepe myrtle and other shrubs; 1 mile trees and shrubs; 9 3/4 miles trees and shrubs; total, 13 3/4 miles trees and shrubs.

Two embankments planted with roses; overpass planted with roses; roses and honeysuckle planted on shoulders of highway by several chapters. I wish that I could mention individually the work of chapters, but time limit forbids. Lamar-LaFayette chapter, Barnesville, Mrs. J. C. Collier, regent, must have honorable mention for their marvelous work in beautifying the highways of Lamar county. I want to thank the chapter regents and every D. A. R. for their splendid cooperation with our committee.

"Let me plant a tree by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by,
The men who are good, the men who are bad
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the slacker's seat,
While others carry the load
Let me plant a tree, with shrubs and flowers
To help beautify the road."

BETTER FILMS

Mrs. W. H. Hightower

In spite of the depression, or perhaps because of it, people still flock to our moving picture shows, and we feel that our responsibility for showing really good pictures is greater than ever, and are pleased to report that the work goes on splendidly.

Of the ninety-eight chapters eighty-three have regularly appointed Better Films chairmen, and fifteen regents serve in this capacity. Seventy-five chapters have reported to the state chairman.

It has been our pleasure to serve on the National Theatre Review committee for Georgia, and with the cooperation of chapter chairmen, were able to send in a very creditable report.

We wish to thank our state regent, our national chairman, and vice-chairman for their kind advice and generous support.

We wish to thank each loyal chapter chairman and regent who carries on the work of the Better Films committee; we are sure that it has been worthwhile, and will bear its fruit, not only in the ever increasing demand for higher class entertainment, but in the lives of our children, the sons and daughters of our illustrious past, the citizens of tomorrow.

BLANCHE McFARLIN GAFFNEY TROPHY

Mrs. T. D. Powers

Realizing the importance of raising the educational standard of our state inspired Mrs. Bun Wylie to create a chairmanship, which would in its very nature more actively and sympathetically motivate plans toward this end. This constructive and worthy project proved to be the opportunity for the Blanche McFarlan Gaffney trophy to be offered as a prize to the chapter doing best work in the eradication of illiteracy. It was not our fine and often difficult task to decide which chapter had done the best work, but it was Mrs. W. M. Shurling who names the Brunswick chapter as the winner, and it is my happy privilege and very great pleasure to award to you this coveted prize. May this achievement and the possession of this beautiful trophy throughout the coming year prove a stimulus to even higher endeavor.

In my hearty congratulations to the members of your chapter, I vision Brunswick by the sea, your wealth of history and archaeology, your sky and sea, your marsh and wonderful oaks shot through with gorgeous sunsets, rosy dawns, soft moonlights making shadows which fall on "sweet ferns and fawns." Thus enchanted our master poet, Sidney Lanier, out of it all saw God, admired nature and loved man anew. Into literature he wrote a poem of matchless beauty on "The Marshes of Glynn." "A shaft of light" united earth with heaven as he watched and wrote:

"The slant yellow beam down the wood-aisle doth seem Like a lane into heaven that leads from a dream."

In the making of your history the emerald marsh one day turned crimson. For always it has been through the blood of patriots freedom has been won.

With my hearty congratulations I deliver into your keeping this beautiful trophy with the love of her who offered it, and with the hearty good wishes of every Daughter of the American Revolution of Georgia.

CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Mrs. C. E. Pittman

It has been with great pleasure and interest that I have served as your State Chairman of Children of the American Revolution. It has been most gratifying that more interest is taken year after year by the chapters. We are beginning to realize the importance of the childrens' organization of the C. A. R.

Below is a list of organized chapters of Children of the American Revolution:

Lady Elizabeth Oglethorpe, Atlanta; Dolly Madison, Atlanta; Col. Henry Lee, Savannah; LaGrange chapter, LaGrange; Col. Benjamin Hawkins, Macon; Cherokee chapter, Dalton; Benjamin Fitzpatrick, Madison; Robert Sallette, Decatur.

Winona chapter, organized the afternoon before the state conference, March 29, 1932, Waycross, with 10 members. Mrs. P. N. Harley, organizing president; Miss Carol Harley, president.

Those under formation are as follows: Athens, Ashburn, Americus, Columbus, Barnesville, Eatonton, Grantville, Perry, Social Circle, Dublin, and Jeffersonville.

I have written two articles for daily paper; fifteen postals, and twenty letters.

CONSERVATION AND THRIFT

Mrs. T. O. Tabor

It is with great pride that I report that Georgia won a medal for outstanding work in Conservation and Thrift last year, given by the national chairman at National D. A. R. conference in Washington in April, 1931.

There has been greater interest shown this year by Georgia D. A. R. in conservation and preservation of forests, wild life, running streams and human conservation than ever before. We realize that a policy that safeguards while it encourages the intelligent use of our natural resources, with least waste and abuse, assures us a prosperous nation. So, we have determined to be more thrifty and frugal in the use of our natural resources and to be more aggressive in the development of our food and timber supplies as well as in reforestation.

Many chapters have done extensive work in Soldier Relief work, Red Cross, Child Welfare and aiding Boy and Girl Scouts. The best work along this line was done by the Atlanta chapter, Atlanta, and Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens.

Every D. A. R. chapter in Georgia has celebrated in some way the Bi-centennial of George Washington's birth. A great number of chapters planted memorial trees on highways, parks, avenues, and had impressive ceremonies and programs to commemorate this great occasion. Please register trees planted in memory of George Washington with the American Tree association, Washington, D. C., so that Georgia D. A. R. may receive due credit. The three D. A. R. chapters in Columbus planted trees and had an elaborate historical pageant. The two chapters in Atlanta cooperated with other organizations and had impressive ceremonies at the State capitol, Atlanta, with Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent D. A. R., and chairman of Georgia comission of George Washington Bicentennial celebration, in charge of ceremonies. The three Savannah chapters, the Waynesboro chapter and the two Augusta chapters are celebrating the Bicentennial with pageants and plan to make a pilgrimage in May over the route which George Washington traveled on his tour of the south from Savannah to Augusta. These chapters are erecting markers at the home where he spent the night and where he was met by Georgia notables near Augusta.

This year the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia planted 22,561 trees, 19,997 shrubs, 40,828 bulbs, and the total expenditure for Conservation and Thrift has been $5,314. The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, deserves special mention for their splendid work and wonderful report.

The Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park has been much improved this year. All underbrush and unnecessary trees have been cleared. A road is being built from the main road through the forest to the place where Nancy Hart's log cabin stood. At the entrance of the road two large old field stone pillars, with pink granite insets marking the place, have been erected. A picture of the entrance will be sent to the national chairman of Memorial Continental hall and to state scrap book. Total expenditure on Forest Park has been $65.00. This committee wishes to express their appreciation to:

The Georgia Granite corporation, Elberton; Mr. Oge Smith, Elbert county road commissioner; Prof. F. M. Young and boys of Nancy Hart school; Mr. Dave Downer and T. F. Kelley, for their generosity and splendid help in improving the Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park. I wish to thank the following chapters for contributions for improving the D. A. R. Forest Park: Thronateeska, Richard Dale, Council of Safety, Elijah Clarke, Atlanta, Joseph Habersham, Augusta, Bainbridge, Lamar-LaFayette, Brunswick, Cairo, Button Gwinnett, George Walton, Oglethorpe, James Pittman, James McIntosh, Fort Early, Sergeant Newton, John Milledge, Stone Castle, Baron DeKalb, John Laurens, William Few, Samuel Reid, Stephen Heard, David Emanuel, Governor Treutlen, Fort Valley, William Candler, Arthur Fort, Oliver Morton, Hawkinsville, William McIntosh, William Marsh, LaGrange, Mary Hammond Washington, Henry Walton, Stephen Hopkins, Nancy Hart, Mathew Talbott, Sergeant Jasper, Oconee, Sarah Dickinson, Hawthorn Trail, Daniel Stewart, Hannah Clarke, Jared Irwin, Savannah, John Clarke, Hancock, Briar Creek, Barnard Trail, Ochlocknee, James Jackson, and Vidalia.

CONSTITUTION AND MAGNA CHARTA DAY

Mrs. Julius T. Dudley

" . . . This government, the offspring of our own choice, uninfluenced and unawed, adopted upon full investigation and mature deliberation, completely free in its principles, in the distribution of its powers, uniting security with energy . . . has a just claim to your confidence and your support."—From George Washington's Farewell Address.

Is there any nation, state or society however small in membership, or insignificant in plan and objective that can survive for any length of time without a charter—without a constitution? Do we not neglect in many ways the duty we owe our nation—upholding after understanding its laws; do we not neglect oftener to see that the younger members of our clubs and other organized groups, understand and uphold our magnificent constitution? It must be perpetuated because of our active support. Calvin Coolidge warns us that should our constitution fall into disrespect or disrepute our organized government would come to an untimely end! Correctly interpreted, and through guided study forcibly impressed upon the minds and hearts of the youth in our colleges and universities, it has a great and mighty influence upon their lives as useful citizens. We, as older members of all organized groups, should encourage the observance of this "Constitution and Magna Charta Day," September 17th; and finally encourage our diligent teachers in all schools to influence the younger generation to know it, understand it, and actively support it.

As chairman, may I thank Mrs. Kirby-Smith Anderson, of Madison, and Mrs. G. Walker Jordan, of Hawkinsville, for their splendid suggestions, and the regents of the following chapters who reported some impressive observance of the day:

Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, radio program; Augusta chapter, Augusta, reading and discussion of "George Washington's Letter to LaFayette on the Constitution;" also Oglethorpe chapter, Columbus; Stone Castle chapter, Dawson; Nancy Hart chapter, Milledgeville; Thronateeska chapter, Albany; Etowah chapter, Cartersville; Brunswick chapter, Brunswick; Adam Brinson chapter, Summit; Atlanta chapter, Atlanta; Lamar-LaFayette chapter, Barnesville; Stephen Heard chapter, Elberton; George Walton chapter, Columbus; Fort Early chapter, Cordele; Savannah chapter, Savannah; Com. Richard Dale chapter, Albany; John Laurens chapter, Dublin; LaGrange chapter, LaGrange; Joseph Habersham chapter, Atlanta; Fielding Lewis chapter, Marietta; Oothcaloga chapter, Adairsville; John Benson chapter, Hartwell; Gov. John Milledge chapter, Dalton; Gov. David Emanuel chapter, Swainsboro; Roanoke chapter, Omaha; Altamaha chapter, Jesup; James Pittman chapter, Commerce.

COUNTY HISTORIES

Mrs. B. A. Tyler

Your chairman of the committee on the compilation of county histories for the celebration of Georgia's Bi-centennial has a very incomplete report, but in view of the well-known depression and the fact that there is still almost a whole year allowed by the act of the legislature requiring each county to arrange for the publication of these important documents, perhaps it is as complete as could be expected.

Fifteen counties of the state already have histories finished and published, some of them in response to the act referred to above and many of them compiled some years ago. Fifteen chapters have reported to me that the histories of their counties are now being compiled, in most cases by the chapter, but in any case with the chapter cooperating in the work. Your chairman sincerely hopes that the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible so as to be complete by Georgia day in 1933, and that in case it is absolutely impossible to publish the history at this time, that three typed copies will be made, of which one shall be sent to the State historian of Georgia, Miss Ruth Blair, one given to the County ordinary for preservation among the county archives and the third kept by the chapter which may be able to publish at some future time.

CONFERENCE PROPERTIES

Mrs. H. S. Redding

Properties in good condition and ready to be shipped to Atlanta.

COOPERATION BETWEEN D. A. R. AND S. A. R.

Mrs. Edward Jones

As chairman of the committee on Cooperation between D. A. R. and S. A. R., I take pleasure in reporting splendid cooperation between these two organizations throughout the state. It was gratifying to receive reports from a number of the chapters.

The Hawkinsville chapter presented two citizenship (S. A. R.) medals through the public schools this year. The Baron DeKalb chapter, Decatur, presented three similar medals. The following chapters each report the presentation of one such medal: Henry Walton chapter, Madison; William Few chapter, Eastman; Samuel Reid chapter, Eatonton; Nancy Hart chapter, Milledgeville.

CORRECT USE OF FLAG

Mrs. John M. Slaton

I have sent to each of the 98 regents copies of Flag lessons for the year, prepared by the national chairman of Correct Use of the Flag committee, Mrs. Charles Brand.

Many of our chapters are now using these lessons, with much interest and enthusiasm, and some have carried them into their local schools. Some have placed copies of the Flag Code in schools. Your committee on Correct Use of the Flag would be glad to report that every city and county school displayed a Code, hung by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Most of our chapters observe Flag day, June 14th, and Independence day, July 4th, as well as Washington's birthday with patriotic exercises and music; and a majority of the chapters use the Salute to the Flag at every monthly meeting. As state chairman of Correct Use of the Flag, I presented to the Georgia D. A. R. a silk Georgia flag in honor of our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie.

D. A. R. MAGAZINE

Mrs. J. Thomas Wood

As chairman of this committee I regret that I must report a slight decrease in the number of subscribers to the D. A. R. Magazine. We have only 235 subscribers and last year we had 245. In view of the fact that there is a loss in the total number of subscribers, the national chairman says, "I should not feel discouraged over the ten decrease."

I am disappointed, however, that so few regents sent me a report. To the seventeen chapters reporting to me, I wish to express my thanks. They are: Elijah Clarke, Atlanta, John Houston, Lamar-LaFayette, James Pittman, Sergeant Newton, Governor John Milledge, John Laurens, Samuel Reid, John Benson, Roanoke, Gov.

Jared Irwin, Adams Brinson, Savannah, Bonaventure, Jonathan Bryan, Altamaha, Gov. David Emanuel.

The silver loving cup offered by Mrs. John Perdue for the largest number of new subscriptions will be awarded to the Gov. David Emanuel chapter. This chapter is less than a year old and credit for winning this cup is due to the Magazine chairman, Mrs. T. H. Swinson.

EDUCATIONAL LOAN FUNDS

Mrs. Morgan Roby Redwine

Your chairman is pleased to report that the interest shown by the various chapters in establishing and maintaining loan scholarships has been most gratifying. Eleven new chapter loan funds have been started this year, and many old funds have been augmented. A healthy increase of $1,443.18 over last year's report attests to the interest in this very valuable phase of D. A. R. work.

Chapter loan funds are as follows:

Elijah Clarke	$1388.61	Maj. Gen. Samuel Elbert	125.00
Hannah Clarke	589.90	Nathaniel Abney	205.00

DIVISIONAL CONFERENCE

Mrs. W. J. Vereen

The Southern Divisional conference met in Charleston, S. C., October 23-24, by invitation of the South Carolina D. A. R. state society, Mrs. J. C. Coulter, state regent. Georgia was represented by twelve members.

D. A. R. STUDENT LOAN FUND

Mrs. Barnett Solomon

The 1932 combined report of the Georgia D. A. R. Student Loan funds speaks for itself. No organization in the state has done more to preserve and raise the standards of citizenship. By assisting students to enter college who would otherwise be unable to do so we are procuring for them a wider horizon, a freer release of vital energies, a deeper understanding of mankind. It is our hope that they will return to their homes and communities as leaders, ever striving toward elevation and betterment for themselves and their neighbors.

ELLIS ISLAND

Mrs. L. A. Jordan

It has been a pleasant privilege to serve the Daughters of the American Revolution. My annual letter was mailed in October, requesting that each chapter, in addition to the three cents per capita, send a box of material to Ellis Island to carry on the very splendid work being done there. Sixty-three chapters have contributed, $89.20; 7 boxes sent, valued at $28.34.

FANNY TRAMMELL MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

Mrs. H. L. Jarvis, Chairman

As chairman of the Fanny Trammell Memorial Loan fund, I beg to say that after the six years of hard work done by your former chairman, Mrs. W. E. Mann, I found the fund in such excellent condition that I have had very little to do the past year.

Mrs. Mann has made wise selections and has good substantial notes to back all loans which has made the work easy and pleasant for the present chairman. I wish to submit the following report for the past year:

Balance on hand, 1931	$ 398.79

FLAG DAY

Mrs. J. L. Mims

The observance of Flag day, the birthday of our Nation's Flag, had its usual response by our Georgia D. A. R. chapters, with fitting programs participated in by members.

As your state chairman, I sent an article to the state editor for publication on our official page in the Atlanta Constitution, stressing the importance of Flag day.

Communications were mailed to every chapter, asking that as the birthday of our flag would fall this year on Sunday, that chapters observe the day by having sacred programs in the churches, to give thanks for our country and to honor its flag.

Thirty-two chapters reported the observance of the day and many complied with the request of the chairman and held appropriate services in the churches. These programs were most inspiring and many were outstanding.

In many instances, Boy and Girl Scouts, American Legions, schools, or patriotic and civic organizations generally were asked to cooperate with chapters.

This is a time when every American patriot should look gratefully upon the flag that has carried the people through dark days and bright days. The Stars and Stripes, during its glorious history, has floated cheerfully, in times of distress, as it has with pride in days of happiness. Let me urge you, chapter regents, to see that the Flag is lifted high on June 14, 1932, our Nation's Flag day.

GEORGIA BANQUET AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mrs. Ober D. Warthen

The Georgia banquet at the New Willard hotel, Washington, D. C., Tuesday evening, April 19th, was the main social occasion held by the Georgia delegation at the Forty-first Continental congress. Thirty-nine were present.

The honor guests were Mrs. Blanche Fay Gaffney, vice-president general; Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent; Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent-elect; Mrs. Howard McCall, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, and Mrs. Moulton, of Rhode Island.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Walter Scott Coleman

The 200th anniversary of the birthday of George Washington has brought to the nation vividly the services and achievements of the Father of our country. The members of the Georgia D. A. R. have responded nobly in recognition of this historical epoch in the annals of our country. Everywhere this celebration was fittingly observed by patriotic Americans in conjunction with the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The sixty-eight chapters are recorded as their response was received. This service was a privilege and I wish to express appreciation to our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and my committee for their cooperation in making this celebration a success.

GEORGIA DAY

Mrs. A. R. Colcord

One of the most gratifying and progressive manifestations of the celebration of Georgia day since its beginning in 1909, is the fact that not only our state but other states are becoming better acquainted with the true background of Georgia.

Let us look back two hundred years when Oglethorpe left Europe and faced the wilds of a new country to seek a colony whose chief thought was the interest of the individual—his happiness, security and prosperity.

We wish that time would permit us to give the names of the many Georgians who have, since that day, made history for our state.

Oglethorpe builded well and if we are to uphold the principles of our forefathers our citizens must continue in their high ideals of unselfish patriotism which is our heritage. We must hand on the torch to the next generation as it came to us, undimmed.

Your chairman has urged the observance of Georgia day through fitting exercises and programs and has received such pleasing reports from many chapters.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

Mrs. John Lee Davidson

With a feeling of gratitude to the chapters and individuals whose cooperation has made it possible, my last report is herewith submitted:

No doubt our state genealogist, whose work takes the place of this committee, will get better results. Her office deserve the financial and moral support of the State D. A. R. and the chapters, for there is no more important and far-reaching work before us than the preservation of the priceless records of Georgia, and making them available to an interested public.

Names of testators, First Book of Wills, 1826 to 1866, Taliaferro county, Georgia. Index to Will and Returns in Book "A," 1829 to 1838, Coweta county, Georgia, with names of wives, executors, administrators, guardians, etc. Abstracted and contributed by your chairman.

They have been forwarded to the librarian general for display in Constitution Hall library.

GIFT SCHOLARSHIPS

Mrs John M. Simmons

The one thing most vital to the youth of our land, whose opportunity of an education has been taken away on account of conditions, is to render aid in their tuition and other educational expenses. If ever there was a time when our boys and girls need the help of this department it is now.

The chapters making donations to this cause are performing an invaluable service in their assistance to our youth.

Our work is purely voluntary and the cordial, prompt and efficient cooperation of our chapters in replying to letters sent them has been greatly appreciated. Letters were sent to every chapter regent in the state.

Many reported clothing, board, music, and books; others were not able to make gifts this year. Some, I regret to say, did not reply. Please give amount and number of scholarships when making reports, and do not report loans to Gift Scholarship chairman.

Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclin'd."

GIRL HOME MAKERS

Mrs. C. E. Felton

It is indeed a distinct pleasure to report on a work so dear to my heart—that of Girl Home Makers. Despite the fact that there is much ground to be covered because of the similarity of most work pertaining to domestic science. Still there have been many splendid reports. I have written about 109 letters and have received about 30 reports.

The loving cup goes to the Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens; their interest, efforts and splendid results leading all other chapters.

It has been a pleasure to serve as your state chairman with the splendid cooperation and advice of our beloved state regent and higher officials of Girl Home Makers committee. May such an opportunity come again my way that my innate enthusiasm and love of patriotic ideals find again such outlet of expression.

HELEN ROGERS FRANKLIN TROPHY

Mrs. Henry McCalla

As chairman of the Helen Rogers Franklin Trophy committee, I have received and carefully examined all reports sent in by the various state chapters.

In view of the splendid work done and excellent showing made, it has been exceedingly difficult for us to select the most outstanding of these marvelous reports and determine just which chapter is entitled to the decision. In reaching a final decision, my mind would vacillate from report to report.

However, guided wholly by the requirements and regulations heretofore fixed in awarding this beautiful trophy, after a most careful examination of the various reports and the able assistance rendered by my co-workers on this committee, to whom I desire to extend my sincere appreciations before closing this report, the Helen Rogers Franklin Trophy for general excellence for the years 1931-32 is awarded to the Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens. Honorable mention to the Governor Emanuel chapter, Emanuel county, a very close second choice.

HISTORICAL AND LITERARY RECIPROCTY

Mrs. G. G. Riley

A tremendous amount of work has been carried on since last spring. The papers in the files are being carefully examined, and the method of listing them is being revised preparatory to issuing the new catalogue. To complete this work successfully, it will be necessary to close the Lending bureau from May 1 to September 1, 1932. In order to inconvenience the chapters using the files as little as possible, it has been arranged that they may secure during the month of April the papers to be used during the summer months, and return them as soon as used, or not later than September first, without additional charge. The number of papers taken by any one chapter shall not exceed six, nor include more than two upon the same subject.

The National Executive committee has voted that beginning September 1, 1932, the present minimum charge of 5c per paper be increased to a flat rate of 25c per paper for each and every thirty (30) days, or fraction thereof, that it is in the possession of the borrowing chapter. Save time by ordering papers direct from Memorial Continental hall, Washington, D. C., and return all papers borrowed promptly.

This year we were unable to supply the demand for the ever popular papers about "Old Colonial Customs, Days and Times," even though thirty-five additional copies of the best papers on this subject were made.

To the following chapters, who by their time and work have made this a successful year and have thus increased the usefulness of this committee, we give our sincere thanks and good wishes for these interesting papers:

Stephen Heard chapter: Development of the Pioneer Woman—Miss Alpha Rogers.

Hawkinsville chapter: The American Flag—Address by Rev. J. L. Baggott, pastor First Baptist church; Story of an Old House—Carolyn Tarver (Mrs. Walker Jordan).

William Candler chapter: History of Wm. Candler chapter.

Atlanta chapter: Samuel Elbert, the Georgian at Yorktown—Mrs. J. Harrold Nicholson, state D. A. R. auditor.

Dorothy Walton (my own chapter): The Pilgrim Mothers; Romance of Burial Hill—Mrs. Alton Readick; Romance of Benjamin Franklin—Mrs. Sin Roberts.

Vidalia chapter: The High Point of Washington, the Capitol of the U. S. of America—Miss Marie Peterson; The Reception of Young America in Old Europe.

Bonaventure chapter: George Washington, Man of Action in Military and Civic Life—Mrs. J. Walden Heath.

Savannah chapter: The Constitution of the United States—Mrs. Roy Chalker; The Approaching Bi-Centennial of Washington's Birth and its Significance—Mrs. Thos. Purse; The Home Making of George and Martha Washington—Mrs. W. N. Cornell; George Washington the Man of Action in Military and Civic Life—Laura W. Frazier; Washington City, the Dream City of George Washington, Alexandria and Valley Forge—Mrs. J. M. McBride.

John Benson chapter: The Yorktown Campaign and its Effect on American and World History.

These papers were sent to N. S. D. A. R. headquarters to compete for national medal.

Henry Walton chapter: Yorktown—Mrs. E. H. George.

Papers from the following chapters were too late to report for this year's work:

Governor David Emanuel chapter, Hartwell and second report of Savannah chapter. These will be turned over to the next chairman. All papers must be in hands of state chairman March 1st.

HISTORICAL PROGRAMS

Mrs. Max E. Land

Your chairman of Historical Programs arranged programs to be used by those chapters desiring a guide and these were published and mailed to each chapter regent in the state early last summer.

Approximately three-fourths of the chapters in the Georgia society used the program, either as a whole or in part, as best suited their chapter plans. The response to this work has been most gratifying and your chairman wishes here to acknowledge with appreciation the many letters and year books which she received.

Following are the ten monthly programs as outlined:

HISTORIC RESEARCH AND PRESERVATION OF RECORDS

Mrs. Eli Thomas

The Georgia D. A. R. collection of Family Bible records is like a snowball rolling downhill after a snow storm, it increases in volume the further it goes. This special collection began in 1927 and the report is larger each year. This report is nearly double the last, 593 Bible records having been received against 300 last year, these came from only 23 chapters. Besides the Bible records, 3,393 tombstone records were sent from 158 cemeteries. A wonderful list, and a valuable one, as the graves of many Revolutionary soldiers are recorded, the Augusta chapter having a list of 15 graves, and one of a soldier of the War of 1812, and the payroll of a company in the Revolutionary War containing 52 names.

The chapter sending the largest number of Family Bible records and thereby winning the Bashinski silver vase is the John Benson chapter of Hartwell, with 154; a splendid record. Honorable mention goes to the Elijah Clarke chapter of Athens, 102; and the Bainbridge chapter, 100, for the fine work.

The John Benson chapter sent 154 family Bible records as follows:

HISTORIC POST CARDS

Mrs. James L. Logan

The following chapters contributed post cards this year: Bonaventure chapter, six historic post cards; Brunswick chapter, seven historic post cards; Hawkinsville chapter, two historic post cards; Nancy Hart chapter, one marker on sight of old Oglethorpe university unveiled, March 31, 1931, on the ninety-fourth anniversary of founding; Savannah chapter, 10 post cards of historic interest; Joseph Habersham chapter, two cards of historic interest, and two snapshots of marker of Revolutionary soldier, Lewis Flemister. The unveiling exercises were conducted by the Joseph Habersham chapter; Elijah Clarke chapter, 14 cards; Stephen Heard chapter, 26 post cards to the chair of history in the Nancy Hart Memorial school in that county; Atlanta chapter, 1 card—United States Frigate Constitution—Old Ironsides, in Georgia waters in Savannah. Total for the year, 80 cards received. Several chapters reported great interest in collecting cards for their own chapter's use. A State History Post Card book is being completed, a resolution was sent to the state with the request that we loan this book to the Rhodes Memorial, Georgia history of archives in Atlanta for safe-keeping. Conference passed the resolution. Miss Blair, state historian, graciously accepted the book. The D. A. R. will find the archives of great historical interest when visiting Atlanta.

IMMIGRANT'S MANUAL

Mrs. R. M. McMaster

In the past year your chairman sent a letter to each chapter in the state requesting a chapter chairman for Immigrant's Manual, ten cents per member, and the personal touch with the stranger within your own gate. Have replied to all letters and requests and have sent out two hundred copies of the manual.

In a recent article published in Washington, D. C., we are told that the Immigration bureau announced that 46,217 more aliens left the United States than arrived in 1931. Immigrants entering totaled 43,353, and there were 89,570 leaving. During the year immigrants decreased 75.9 per cent in comparison with 1931. The decrease from Europe was 91,783 or 78 per cent; from Canada, 31,877 or 77.1 per cent; from Mexico, 4,234 or 66.4 per cent, and from all other countries 9,004 or 60.3 per cent. Yet with this decrease we still have the immigrant at our doors and plenty of work to do, so let's keep it ever before us.

Have requested each chapter to report to me if they had paid their per capita, and also all local work accomplished. I feel sure that more has been done than has been reported. These are the ones who have made the report:

Barnesville	$ 2.70	Dalton	6.40
Americus	5.40	Atlanta	20.00
Eatonton	2.60	Elberton	5.90
Sandersville	2.80	Social Circle	3.90

Columbus (Oglethorpe)	7.90	Hawkinsville	5.50
Covington	4.80	Macon (Nathaniel)	8.90
Gainesville	5.30	Roanoke	1.00
Vidalia	2.60
Athens	8.40	Total	$120.60

INDIAN WELFARE AND CITIZENSHIP

Mrs. Lena Felker Lewis

We realize that the chairmanship of Indian Welfare and Citizenship has meant more to your state chairman than to anyone else, as it has resulted in considerable study and research on her part. However, from the responses to a letter asking that each chapter in Georgia devote one program, or at least a part of a program, to the study of this "First American," reveal that our women are becoming interested in this picturesque people.

A number of chapters report programs on the history, legends, music, etc., of the American Indian.

We recommend that during the coming years our Georgia D. A. R. endeavor to secure full information concerning those tribes who once lived in our own state—their habits, exodus, etc. We trust that together with the D. A. R. of other states we use our every effort to erase that darkest of all blots on the history of our nation—the treatment of the original owners of the land from which they were driven. Our present government will render all possible aid in this laudable undertaking. While we are doing this, let us also include a study of the Indian in our monthly programs.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Mrs. Albert Tidwell

At the state convention held in Macon a year ago, the committee on International Relations was merged with another state committee, thus simplifying this work, and for that reason I have a very short report this year.

So great is the scope for study on international problems, I urged the chapters to be diligent in keeping this most vital subject before the people. Talks and papers or short pageants have been reported by twenty-three (23) chapters. May our interest never grow lax for no more important problems face our country today than those of relations to other nations.

KENMORE GARDENS

Mrs. J. V. H. Rucker

As chairman of Kenmore Gardens, I take pleasure in submitting the following report:

I have made very little effort to push Kenmore Gardens this year other than to urge the chapters to make as large a contribution as possible to this worthy cause. I feel like many others, that the tract of land, which represented an expenditure of $2,000 was more than the chapters could pay in a reasonable length of time, and that as the honoree, Mrs. Emily White Fleming, was far advanced in years, she would probably never realize the fulfillment of the honor conferred upon her by the Georgia Society in appreciation of her efforts in behalf of Kenmore. In accordance, therefore, with the keen interest which I bear the cause, I propose at the state conference to introduce a recommendation whereby the obligations will be greatly reduced, and put it in a per capita basis, finishing it up this year. I trust this will pass and by April, 1933, the plot of land will be purchased and the tablet placed to Mrs. Fleming. The landscaping and restoration of the stone wall is being done by the Garden Club of Virginia. The chapters contributing, 67; total amount, $96.20.

LaFAYETTE DAY

Mrs. M. J. Guyton

"Aname that shall live through all coming time, Unbounded by country, by language or clime."

Various chapters observed on September 6th the 174th anniversary of LaFayette's birth. The LaFayette Day National committee have announced that plans have been made for observance on September 6th of the co-inciding anniversaries of LaFayette and the Battle of the Marne. The tribute will be nationwide following a custom begun in 1916 where several hundred New York citizens, members of the first LaFayette-Marne Day committee held exercises in the city hall with the French Ambassador as speaker. The committee has issued a call to patriotic bodies and citizens throughout the country to display on that day the tri-color of France which LaFayette designed, with the Stars and Stripes under which he fought in the Continental army.

Special mention should be made of exercises held by the three Columbus chapters, the Ellijah Clarke chapter, and the Atlanta chapter. The Lamar-LaFayette chapter at Barnesville, erected a granite marker on the site where LaFayette stopped in 1825.

It should be of interest to the D. A. R. that a young French girl, a kinswoman of LaFayette, is trying to organize a society under the name of "The Companions of LaFayette," composed of the descendants of the men who left France some one hundred and fifty years ago to fight under Marquis de LaFayette for American Independence. Sometime ago the French Minister of War compiled a complete list of the men of all ranks who formed the expeditionary corps that sailed for America to fight with LaFayette. This list includes some 40,000 names. This young girl is tracing the descendants of these 40,000 in order to enroll them in "The Companions of LaFayette." Membership is conditional on the production of some official document proving that the ancestor actually did service in America. The object is to honor the memory of LaFayette's expeditionary corps and at the same time to work for closer and ever friendlier relations between France and the United States. It is very fitting that we set aside the September meeting in memory of this noble friend to America.

LEGISLATION

Mrs. Charles Akerman

That the Georgia State constitution needs to be rebuilt, I believe we all know.

Georgia use and Georgia growth have caused 109 constitutional amendments or patches.

Mr. Justice Hines says: "These amendments have converted the Constitution into a legal conundrum which no court can solve."

We are told by all of our best thinkers that if Georgia is to hold her place in the progressive march of states of the United States, she must have a new constitution.

With this imperative need in mind, the Institute of Public Affairs at the University of Georgia has studied thoroughly and at length this matter with the result that they have submitted a proposed Constitution of Georgia, intended to stimulate the thinking people to a discussion of Constitutional needs.

Lack of executive power in the constitution is at present a serious drawback to administration. Again, restriction and limitation imposed upon the legislature by the present constitution retards and prohibits its proper functioning.

The state judicial system is completely recast.

Matters of draft, public debt and taxation are clarified, giving the legislature more power, at the same time safeguarding state funds to prevent waste of public moneys.

The proposed constitution is not perfect perhaps, but it goes a long way toward being a more intelligent and workable constitution in the present daylight of Georgia needs.

I bring this matter before you as one of profound importance, and beg you to study along these lines, organize constitutional study groups, bringing speakers who may aid you in understanding these problems. Be ready to make intelligent answer when called on in social life or at the polls. We women who are mothers of Georgia must have a care for Georgia and for our sons and daughters of Georgia in making fit a state in which to live and grow.

Again, never was the demand so imperative for wise national legislation. I give you a hurried resume of the bills of vital importance now before the United State senate, which the National Society D. A. R. urge you to get from your congressmen and senators to read, to digest and to write or wire your representatives about.

These bills are set out in the following numbers as they are known in Washington:

No. 1. House bill 8549—which makes it a crime to advocate or promote the overthrow of the government of the United States by any means or for any purpose.

No. 2. House bill 1967—strengthening immigration laws to prevent admission of Communists into the United States, and providing for the immediate deportation of all alien Communists.

No. 3. Enforcement of the provisions of the Tariff Act of 1930, Sec. 307, effective January 1, 1932, prohibiting the importation of goods produced or manufactured in whole or in part by forced labor.

No. 4. Senate bill No. 37—To prohibit the importation of any article or merchandise from the Union of Soviet Socialistic Republics.

The purpose of these measures is to make effective some of the recommendations of the committee on Investigation of Communist propaganda of the 71st congress.

We urge your support of the following bills:

H. J. Res. 216. Introduced by Representative Jenkins of Ohio.

J. J. Res. 277. Introduced by Representative John W. Moore of Kentucky. Senate Joint Resolution 83, introduced by Senator Harris of Georgia.

No. 5. Senate 51 to authorize the building up of the U. S. Navy to the strength permitted by the Washington and London Naval Treaty.

We also ask support of H. R. 8230, introduced by Representative Carl Vinson of Georgia, which is identical in purpose with Senate Bill 51.

This proposed legislation is of the greatest importance. As Chairman of Legislation, I am urged to make this strong appeal in the hope that at this crucial moment we may prove ourselves Daughters worthy of the name. Remember, every letter or telegram to your representative in Congress recalls to him his personal responsibility to you.

LINEAGE BOOKS AND ROSTERS

Mrs. John D. Faver

The Richard Dale chapter of Albany, compiled a complete roster of its members.

The Lamar-LaFayette chapter of Barnesville, brought its roster up-to-date by the addition of data concerning its new members.

Both of the above have been filed with Mrs. Davis, our state consulting registrar.

The John Milledge chapter of Dalton, reports lineage books placed in Davis Memorial library, valued at $30.00; $3.00 spent for binding lineage papers; and additional genealogical books valued at $15.00.

The John Laurens chapter has established a genealogical library known as the D. A. R. Book unit at the Dublin Carnegie library, consisting of 64 books acquired by gifts and purchase; $34.00 has been spent on lineage books this year.

Other chapters report that their failures to purchase books are due to financial conditions and not to any lack of interest.

LUCY COOK PEEL MEMORIAL

Mrs. J. C. Gentry

The writer of these lines recalls that the chairman had partially prepared a report of the work of the committee for the year ending with March last but is unable just now to find it.

After completing the work of publishing an Index for Volume I of 1926, and disposing of a very satisfactory number of the books through correspondence and personal work, the chairman, with the valuable assistance cheerfully given by members of the committee and many others, began the task of compiling, copying, editing, and proofreading Volume 4, Old Bible Records and Land Lotteries. While this was a labor of love it required long hours of tedious labor for weeks and months, but with the aid of the printers and drafting the services of her homefolks, was completed in time to be shown at the thirty-fourth conference in March. To those who have never been called upon to do work of this kind, it is hard to realize what it means in the way of draining the physical and mental strength of the one who undertakes it. But when the work brings so much of joy to the chairman, as in this instance, it was but fair to let her have it.

The records as to the finances having been placed with the new chairman that part of the report must necessarily be omitted. It may be said that plans had been made for disposing of as many of these books as the depressing times would permit.

(As many of you know Mrs. Gentry passed to her eternal reward on April 22, 1932. In her passing the D. A. R. lost one of its most enthusiastic and intelligent workers—one who never failed to cheerfully respond to any call for advancing the best interests of the association).

MARKING OLD TRAILS

Miss Virginia Hardin

The chairman had the privilege of attending the marking of the site of an old inn on the trail from Augusta to west Georgia and thence to New Orleans, by the Henry Walton chapter, D. A. R. Misses Bessie and Daisy Butler entertained Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Mell Knox, Mrs. Harold Nicholson, Mrs. Thomas Mell, Mrs. W. F. Dykes, Miss Virginia Hardin, Mrs. Thomas, and others, at a delicious luncheon that day. This chapter captured our prize for the first to notify the state chairman of a marking.

The pleasure was mine to attend the marking near Marietta of the Hightower Path. This was done by the Fielding Lewis chapter. I also attended the unveiling of a marker by the John Milledge chapter, at the old Indian Mission at Spring Place. The members of the Gov. Milledge chapter entertained us. Mrs. W. E. Mann was a royal hostess. The chapter led by Mrs. Bert Tyler, gave us a luncheon. I was also present at the unveiling of a marker by the State Press association (the marker given by the U. S. government) at New Echota, the last capitol of the Cherokee nation east of the Mississippi river.

The state chairman Old Trails of Alabama, wishes to join us in marking the places where our soldiers (Jackson especially) crossed the river dividing our states, the Chattahoochee.

I hope that the new chairman and committee may be able to do much more than we have been able to do.

MEADOW GARDEN

Mrs. Sanford Gardner

I regret that my report for Meadow Garden is so limited. The chapters in the state have been so absorbed in other interests and obligations, that Meadow Garden has almost been forgotten. This historic house is owned by the National Society, and the deeds are deposited in the D. A. R. vaults in Washington, D. C. Therefore, the upkeep and interest should not be confined to any one locality, but it should be statewide. So we want you, dear daughters, to consider this shrine as one of Georgia's depositories for the collection of Revolutionary relics.

The following is a list of those who have been so kind as to contribute the past year:

Elijah Clarke chapter	$ 1.00	Maj. Gen. Sam'l Elbert chapter	1.00
Savannah chapter	3.00	Dorothy Walton chapter	2.00
Cov. John Milledge chapter.....	2.00	Button Gwinnett chapter	5.00
Oglethorpe chapter	2.00	Contribution in bank	2.00

The outstanding gift for the past year, was the beautiful silver loving cup, left by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, in her will, as a legacy to Meadow Garden. It was presented to her by the Georgia Society D. A. R. as a testimonial of their appreciation of her wonderful work in the state. It has been placed in a glass case at Meadow Garden, and with it is the ribbon worn by her when she was state regent of Georgia. Mrs. Morgan was the organizer and first regent of the Augusta chapter. The latter part of her life was spent in Savannah, but she always remained a member of the Augusta chapter. The graces bestowed many gifts upon Mrs. Morgan, her mentality and leadership were recognized not only in Georgia but in Continental hall in Washington. "She had the art of making every one better pleased with themselves, and a wit that never forgets to be kind."

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS

Mrs. Howell Simmons

The chapters throughout the state were urged to cooperate with the Georgia Anti-Tuberculosis association in the sale of seals. The chapters have very generally lent their support to this work, either taking over the sale of seals or assisting such other organizations in their communities as have heretofore handled the sales.

Various chapters have sent boxes to patients in hospitals and otherwise assisted in the work.

The work of the Daughters of the American Revolution has been growing and the general interest in this subject has been increasing from year to year. The work is so important, and there remains so much yet to be done that our chapters will find a fruitful field in this work for years to come.

MEMORIAL CONTINENTAL HALL

Mrs. G. Walker Jordan

As state chairman for Memorial Continental hall I have the honor to report, that, the chairman has cooperated with the State librarian in the interest of the library.

Many letters have been written to secure requested volumes, and contributions have been solicited for the state librarian's fund for the purchase of needed reference books.

Four Bible records have been sent the state librarian.

NANCY HART HIGHWAY

Mrs. J. L. Massey

Three markers were unveiled during the past year, one each at Thomson, Louisville, Glenwood, thus completing the marking of the Nancy Hart highway. (See state regent's report).

NATIONAL DEFENSE

Mrs. John W. Daniel

Your state chairman of National Defense submits the following report:

Never in the history of our country has this phase of the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution been of greater importance and every chapter must do its part to carry on this work.

The sum of 15 cents per capita asked of the chapters enables the national committee to procure information and to distribute literature to combat the insidious propaganda of the Communist, which is being broadcast throughout this country.

Each month the national committee sends to every chapter this literature and I trust a program on National Defense has been given at each meeting.

In response to cards sent to the chapters, 35 contributed 15 cents per capita, 14 reported National Defense programs. Others may have contributed, but did not report to the state chairman.

During the conference of last year copies of the report of the Fish committee on the investigation of Communistic propaganda were distributed to the delegates. As a result of this investigation there are certain bills pending in Congress which we are requested by our national chairman, Mrs. Sherman Walker, to take action on at this conference.

Total amount by treasurer, $407.70.

OLD IRONSIDES

Mrs. W. B. Daniels

Since congress relieved us of raising funds for the restoration of Old Ironsides there has been very little to do but watch and wait but our dreams were realized when the old frigate Constitution sailed again into Georgia waters after a lapse of 135 years. It was in fact a homecoming for the old battleship for the state of Georgia takes a natural pride and satisfaction in realizing that from the live oak timbers of her seaboard the original keel was made. During the visit of the Constitution at Savannah and Brunswick the ship and her officers were showered with attention and many beautiful flowers sent them. While at these two ports Old Ironsides, the most celebrated of all American sailing ships, was visited by thousands of patriotic men, women and children and it is a source of deep regret that every loyal citizen did not have this privilege.

Now that the restoration of Old Ironsides is completed it behooves us, Daughters of the American Revolution, to lend our efforts toward equipping it with articles of the period of 1812, such as flint-lock muskets, pistols, and navigation instruments, etc. Let me urge you to delve into your attics for these articles and report your findings to your State chairman of Old Ironsides.

ORGANIZING CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin

On May 26th, 1931, the Governor David Emanuel chapter was organized at Swainsboro, and it was my happy privilege to be there and assist our state regent in forming this new chapter. The patriotism and enthusiasm manifested by the large number assembled on this occasion was refreshing. The papers of twenty members had been passed. Officers were installed with Mrs. Mattie Moring Mitchell Flanders as regent and the chapter began work at once. Our state regent can tell you how it warmed our hearts to see these young women (for most of them are young) so eager to serve our country in any possible manner. Their enthusiasm has never waned and occasional visits from the members bring such fine reports of educational work, of historical work, of tireless activity in all D. A. R. enterprises, that it is a great joy to know that we have such a splendid band of D. A. R. workers in our ranks. The chapter has grown since that time, new members have been added, and they are constantly reaching out for new fields of endeavor. Only ten months old, if the chapter continues to grow and persevere it will indeed be the banner chapter of the state.

PARLIAMENTARIAN

Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge

It has been my pleasure to serve as Parliamentarian at the state conference in Waycross and at the State Board meeting in Gainesville. Various matters have been submitted to me, and I have answered each question conscientiously and to the best of my ability, according to Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, and the State By-Laws.

The following amendments to the By-Laws were submitted and adopted at the conference in March, 1932:

For the purpose of amending the By-Laws of the State conference so that four new officers shall be added to the roster of the state officers, to correspond with the roster of national officers and take the place of certain state committees now in force, the Parliamentarian and chairman of Rules submits the following proposed amendments to the chapters, for consideration, sixty days prior to conference (as stipulated in Article XI of our By-Laws).

The proposed amendment to Article III, Section I, shall read:

Section I. Officers of the conference shall be the state regent, state first vice-regent, a state second vice-regent, a chaplain, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, a treasurer, auditor, a consulting organizing secretary, a consulting registrar, a genealogist, historian, librarian, reporter to Smithsonian institute, curator, editor, and assistant editor.

The remainder of Article III, Section I, shall remain as it now stands.

The proposed amendment to Article IV calls for the addition of four sections, 11, 12, 13, 14.

Section II shall read as follows:

The consulting organizing secretary shall assist the state regent in the organization of chapters. (This office shall be substituted for the present state organizing chairman).

Section 12 shall read:

The state genealogist shall, when requested, assist members in genealogical research, collect and bind all available material, and place in Constitution Hall library for the use of the registrar general, members of our society and the general public. (This office shall take the place of the present state committee on genealogical research).

Section 13 shall read:

The reporter to the Smithsonian institute shall make yearly reports to the reporter general of the Smithsonian institute, under the direction of the state regent.

Section 14 shall read:

The state curator shall report to the curator general, and collect Revolutionary relics for Memorial Continental Hall museum. (This office shall be substituted for the present state committee on Revolutionary Relics for Memorial Continental hall).

PATRIOTIC EDUCATION

Mrs. Mell Knox

Congratulations to you, Georgia Daughters! The report this year is splendid. Our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, with her inspiring addresses and untiring enthusiasm, is in large part responsible that in these past twelve months we have done such good work. The report follows:

Flags, codes and pledges	$ 282.50
Literature, pamphlets, etc.	638.80
Citizenship training	1,009.00
Among foreign born	341.38
Total Americanization	$ 2,271.68
D. A. R. Magazines in schools, etc.	92.00
Prizes (65 chapters)	927.01
Kate Duncan Smith (boxes and cash)	$ 30.50
Tamassee (boxes and cash)	122.50
Montevado (cash)	1.00
Total endorsed schools	$ 154.00
Framed pictures, schools, libraries and Art museum	$ 1,025.60
Memorials	5,810.94
Loans, local schools, gift scholarships	13,882.08
Bi-centennial	213.75
Total Patriotic Education	$24,377.06

Seventy-three chapters replied to the questionnaire and two of them, Atlanta chapter, Mrs. Lucius McConnell, chairman, and Savannah chapter, Mrs. C. Buford Smith, chairman, did some work under every heading. The John Benning chapter, Moultrie, with forty-six members, gave the largest per capita amount, a little over $56.00. The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, came second.

In addition to the approximate $5.00 per capita contribution to Patriotic Education, much effort has been placed along all patriotic lines, and Georgia Daughters are answering the call of that "precious duty—to educate for patriotism."

PATRIOTIC LECTURES

Mrs. Oscar McKenzie

Of the Patriotic Lectures reported, more than eighty per cent have been on splendid programs celebrating the Bi-centennial of the birth of the Father of our Country!

As many leading magazines have featured Washington's Life and Home—his social and religious views, as well as his political, military, and patriotic activities, good material for these programs was easily available. Several chapters reported costumed playlets and pantomime, picturing events in the life of Washington, along with a lecture. Other popular subjects were: Columbus, Oglethorpe, John Wesley, Betty Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Betsy Ross and Molly Pitcher.

Anniversary and commemorative dates were featured. The work has been gratifying, but not as well reported as desired.

In these days of unrest, when our minds and health turn in grateful recognition and appreciation to our first President and his service to our country, as we celebrate his 200th birthday, let us resolve to stem the high ideals of "love of flag" and "love of country," voiced in splendid Patriotic Lectures.

Thanks for your fine cooperation and best wishes for a more successful happy new year.

PATRIOTIC SONGS

Mrs. W. H. Flanders

Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, it has been a pleasure to serve you as state chairman of Patriotic songs. You have so enthusiastically cooperated with my committee in furthering patriotic zeal through the use of patriotic songs, that it is with pride I offer my report to you.

Sixty-five chapters have reported active work with Patriotic Songs. Chapters sing and study patriotic songs in their meetings.

The Benjamin Hawkins chapter has offered three prizes in the public schools valued at $7.50 to the grades singing patriotic songs best.

The James Pittman chapter has offered two prizes valued at $3.00 to the grades singing "America" best in the local school.

Edmund Burke chapter reports that one of their members has written a patriotic song, "Georgia Empire State."

I notice with interest, that many chapters are using the bi-centennial music.

May we as loyal daughters, continue to promote a greater patriotism throughout our nation, by the use of our patriotic songs.

PREPAREDNESS

Mrs. Logan Carson Rader

One of the phases of the work of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, in which I have been especially interested for the past few years, is that of preparedness, together with National Defense.

As chairman of the Preparedness committee and as chairman of a committee from the Parent-Teacher association of Lanier High for Boys, I have had the opportunity this year of writing to several of our senators and congressmen in regard to the effort to abolish the R. O. T. C. in the colleges and high schools of our country, and urging them to use their influence in having the Nato ask the Board of Education of Chatham county to change Dr. Muzzey's history that was being taught in this county.

Your chairman attended the Divisional Congress of D. A. R. that was held in Charleston, S. C., and had the pleasure of talking with the president general about the work of this committee.

Your chairman had the pleasure of being on a committee to welcome Mrs. Herbert Hoover on her visit to Savannah in February, 1931, and took members of her party for a ride. She also was the official hostess from the U. S. D. 1812 to the U. S. Frigate Constitution, when it visited Savannah in December, 1931. Her husband, the president of the Sons of the Revolution in Georgia, assisted both times with the reception and entertainment of the guests. A large reception was given to the officers of the Constitution and the state president of the U. S. D. 1812, our own Mrs. Lucius McConnell, of Atlanta, by Gen. and Mrs. Travis, and Major and Mrs. Douglas I. Weart, U. S. A.

Your chairman has assisted in planting three Washington trees and planted about two hundred shrubs and flowers at "Avalon."

The Stephen Heard chapter of Elberton, reports that they are expecting to mark with the money given to them by the state last year, the site of the home of Nancy Hart. The chapter has located and applied for markers for the graves of four Revolutionary soldiers: Dionysious Oliver, Thos. Carter, Turner Christian, and Thos. Adams.

The Sergeant Newton chapter, at Covington, has saved $25.00 toward marking an "Old Inn" on stagecoach road to Augusta and Milledgeville and the brick store next door, where the first Superior Court in Newton county was held.

The Vidalia chapter unveiled a marker at the grave of Solomon Youmans, R. S., at Collins, and have located the grave of Henry Joyce, R. S., near Glenwood. He died March 11, 1826, in the 71st year of his life. Tombstone states that he was a Revolutionary soldier. The chapter wishes to mark the Black-shear trail where it crosses the Oconee River at Bell's Ferry.

The Governor David Emanuel chapter at Swainsboro wish to mark the Old Sunbury Trail which passes through the town.

The Lamar-LaFayette chapter at Barnesville report marking with a bronze tablet a house where LaFayette stopped on his journey through Lamar county in 1825. The state assisted with this marker. The grave of John Jenkins, Revolutionary soldier, in Lamar county was marked. The chapter located the "Old Alabama Road" and stage stand in Lamar county.

The John Houston and Jeffersonia Hawkins chapters have much to be proud of in honoring the memory of Col. Benjamin Hawkins. The two chapters, with the assistance of the state D. A. R., unveiled a pedestal over Colonel Hawkin's grave at the "Old Agency" near Roberta at 10:30 A. M., on June 6th, 1931, and then at 11:30 A. M., they assisted in the exercises in Roberta at the unveiling of a monument erected by the United States government to "Commemorate the Life and Public Service of Colonel Benjamin Hawkins." Captain R. T. Edwards, U. S. A., who had assisted in the building of the big monument, supervised the unveiling of the marker over the grave. Little Walter Carr, of Roberta, and Mary Carr Westmoreland, of Brunswick, assisted by two cadets, unveiled the tablet. The children were descendants of Col. Hawkins. Mrs. E. T. Nottingham, regent of the John Houston chapter, and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, regent of the Jeffersonia Hawkins chapter at Roberta, placed wreaths on the gravestone, and a squad of cadets from the Robert E. Lee Institute, at Thomaston, fired three volleys over the century-old grave. A military band from Fort McPherson furnished music at the monument at Roberta. Among the descendants of Col. Hawkins present were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Carr, Roberta; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Badger, LaGrange; Mrs. Torrance Traynor, Milledgeville; Mrs. Mark Mote, Columbus; Wm. Johnston Andrews, official representative of North Carolina, of Raleigh, and two daughters, Misses Jane Virginia Andrews and Martha Hawkins Andrews; Mrs. B. F. Walker, former regent of the Jeffersonia Hawkins chapter, introduced Representative Sam Rutherford, who was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent of Georgia D. A. R., made an address of congratulation upon the completion of the monuments. Senator Walter F. George made the principal address of the day, closing with these words: "Benjamin Hawkins sleeps on the bluff overlooking the Flint, today his last resting place has been marked by an appropriate tablet. Let us hope that the marker may be preserved and renewed by patriotic men and loyal women as long as the waters of the Flint flow down to the sea."

The Hawkinsville chapter at Hawkinsville, report locating two forts of 1812, Fort Mitchell and Fort Green. Two other forts not definitely located. Two trees planted, one to George Washington and one to Woodrow Wilson. Two lay member graves and one of a daughter of a Revolutionary soldier were located.

The Adam Brinson chapter at Swainsboro, unveiled a marker at the grave of Jonathan Coleman, Revolutionary soldier, at Barkcamp church in Burke county, on December 29th, 1931. About three hundred of his descendants were present. This grave was located by Mrs. Jessie Coleman Black, historian of the chapter, and a great-granddaughter of Jonathan Coleman and his wife, Milly Pittman, who were charter members of this church, organized in 1788. The program arranged by Mrs. Black and presided over by the regent, Mrs. I. A. Brannen, was as follows: D. A. R. song by chapter members; invocation by Rev. R. D. Hodges; talk by the regent; "Coleman History," by Mrs. Ada Smith; Star Spangled Banner, by choir; Rev. Hodges introduced Col. Ivey W. Roundtree, of Swainsboro, who made the principal address: solo, "America" by Allan Roundtree. Little Misses Mary Alyce Hodges and Evelyn Snellgrove unveiled the marker. Taps were sounded by Miss Annette Coleman. Lucile Coleman was the color bearer. Flowers were placed on the grave by seven great-great-granddaughters of Jonathan Coleman: the Misses Clara Belle Durden, Carolyn Walsh, Sarah Flanders, Bertha Coleman, the two lovely daughters of Hon. Frank Brown of Lyons, and little Miss Dorothy Griffin of Douglas. This is the second marker unveiled by the Adam Brinson chapter this year. The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman of Atlanta; Mrs. Thos. H. Buttrill of Jackson; Mrs. Robt. Garbutt of Vidalia; Dr. and Mrs. Louis Brown; Mr. Frank Brown and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Mosely of Lyons.

One of the most interesting dedications this year was the shaft at Hartwell, in honor of Nancy Hart, Revolutionary War heroine, on November 11th, 1931. A parade of 700 school children, members of the American Legion, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, led from the city to the monument on the site of Nancy Hart's home. Mrs. G. H. Norris, regent of the John Benson chapter, D. A. R., presided over the exercises. The following program was rendered: Firing of salute, by National Guard of Georgia; scripture by Dr. S. H. Bennett; invocation by Rev. Frank E. Jenkins; Salute of the Flag, led by Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, ex-vice-president general, National Society, D. A. R.; song, "America," led by band; greetings, by Mayor J. C. Jenkins; Brigadier General George H. Estes, commanding general of the 31st Division, U. S. A., represented the Secretary of War, and gave a short address; Congressman Charles H. Brand gave a talk and the presentation of the memorial was made by Captain Richard T. Edwards, U. S. A.; unveiling of memorial by Dr. Juanita H. Floyd, great-great-granddaughter of Nancy Hart; acceptance of memorial by D. A. R.—Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent of Georgia, and by Hart county, the acceptance was made by Fred S. White, chairman of County Board of Commissioners. Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr., made the principal address, and the exercises closed with the benediction by the Rev. R. E. Telford. Music was furnished by the United States Army band from Fort McPherson.

The Elizabeth Marlow chapter at Monticello, has been trying to locate the graves of 41 Revolutionary soldiers buried in the county. They marked two graves last year and have discovered the grave of General David Andrews, of South Carolina, in a wilderness of trees and bushes, about one mile from the Ocmulgee River in Henry county. It has a stone monument, not in good shape. The chapter wishes assistance to mark an old stage coach line that passed through Monticello and Shady Dale, where the old Inn, built of logs stood.

The Henry Walton chapter, Madison, unveiled a marker at the site of the "Old Inn" at Madison, in April, 1931. The State D. A. R. assisted.

The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, have located the grant of 20,000 acres of land, in four separate tracts of land of 5,000 acres each, to the Count D'Estaing, our gallant French ally in the Revolutionary war. The chapter asks assistance from the state in marking this grant of land. These grants were located in the counties of Jackson and Clarke, in part on the Danielsville-Athens road. The chapter has located the Locada Indian trail. According to Dr. Wilson, author of the "Early History of Jackson County, Georgia," "The Locada Trail was nearly identical with the Athens-Clarkesville road. It went to Tallulah Falls. Just a few miles this side of Clarkesville, it forked, one branch extending northwest led into the noted Nacoochee country. The other branch led on through Clarkesville, Turnerville, and the Tallulah country. The Cherokees claimed territory as far south as the Tishmauga, and the Upper Creeks as far north and east as the Locada Trail.

The grave of Philip Ryan, Revolutionary soldier, has been marked by the Elijah Clarke chapter. He was from Henry county, Virginia, ancestor of Mrs. M. R. Redwine, National number 141,844. Philip Ryan's grave is located in the old Ryan family cemetery four miles from Athens, on what was known as the old Ryan place, later known as the William Lumpkin place.

2. Antoine Poullain, Lieutenant in Capt. Menard's company, Continental Troops, (Canadian Volunteers). Buried in Washington, Ga., on what is known as the old Sims place (formerly the Poullain place). We have ordered a marker for this grave, and have asked the Kettle Creek chapter to join with us in honoring this hero. Ancestor of Mrs. S. J. Cartledge, Nat. No. 249,207.

The Elijah Clarke chapter also reports that all markers are kept in excellent condition. The grounds around the markers are beautifully planted.

That the chapter has proof of all records of historic spots and graves of Revolutionary soldiers and daughters, and that the graves of all Revolutionary soldiers are decorated with a flag on Memorial day.

The Elijah Clarke chapter has done excellent work this year and requests the State D. A. R. to assist them in marking a Revolutionary spot in Athens. Request dated October 15, 1931. Mrs. M. R. Redwine, regent.

The Brunswick chapter, request help from the State D. A. R. to mark the old "Post Road," the route of the mail carrier before the day of the railroads. Mrs. E. T. Whitley, regent.

On April 29th, 1931, the Atlanta chapter, Atlanta, unveiled a bronze tablet mounted on granite and inscribed with the historical account of the origin of "Peachtree," as a name for Atlanta's principal thoroughfare, and presented it to Fulton county. The ceremonies took place on the grounds of the E. Rivers school, where the marker is located, at the junction of Peachtree and Peachtree Battle avenue. The following program was rendered: Invocation by Dr. Ellis K. Fuller, pastor of the First Baptist church; Salute to the Flag, led by Mrs. Forrest M. Barfield; Mrs. Eli A. Thomas, regent of the chapter, introduced by Miss Virginia Hardin, chairman of Preservation of Historic Spots in the Atlanta chapter, delivered an address. Mrs. Thomas presided at the ceremony which Miss Hardin arranged. Mrs. Thomas introduced Governor Hardman, who made the principal address. The marker was unveiled by the great-granddaughter of Col. L. P. Grant, who drew the plans for the battle in defense of Atlanta, and who also donated Grant Park to the city, little Miss Carvel Grant Burke. Miss Burke was attired in the white wig and costume of a Colonial Dame. The inscription on the marker was as follows: "Peachtree Road and Peachtree Creek took their names from the Indian place called 'The Standing Peach Tree,' located near where the creek flows into Chattahoochee river on ground long disputed between Cherokee and Creek Indians. Disturbances created there during the Revolutionary war caused the Governor of Georgia to send a secret emissary to that place before August 1, 1782. During the War of 1812, Lieutenant George R. Gilmer, later Governor of Georgia, erected and occupied a fort on Standing Peachtree bluff. Between 1830 and 1840 Standing Peachtree became a noted frontier crossing place, trading point, stage coach stop and post-office. There Johnson's forces crossed July 9, 1864, and began the defense of Atlanta, in the War Between the States.

Mrs. Thomas presented the chapter members who had assisted in obtaining marker. They included: Miss Hardin, Mrs. R. E. Andoe, Mrs. John M. Slaton, and Mrs. W. H. Hill. Hon. J. A. Wells, superintendent of Fulton County schools, formally accepted the marker on behalf of the school system and for Fulton county. After a talk by Hon. E. M. Mitchell, the exercises closed with the benediction by Rev. Eli A. Thomas.

The Atlanta chapter, assisted by the Thomson chapter, dedicated a marker to Basil Neal, R. S. His grave is in Neal burying ground 15 miles from Thomson. The chapter has also applied for a marker for the grave of David Dickson, a Revolutionary soldier, buried near Jonesboro.

Mrs. J. L. Beeson, of Milledgeville, our state historian, placed a marker on old "Oglethorpe University," near Milledgeville, on March 31, 1931; cost $200.00. Mrs. Beeson and her husband, the head of the Sons of the American Revolution in Georgia, restored the Chief McNair's cemetery just across the Georgia line in Tennessee a few years ago. Mrs. McNair was a member of the Moravian Mission at Spring Place and Mrs. McNair's home was near the site of the last marker erected by the Dalton chapter.

The Altamaha chapter, Jesup, reports that the grave of Richard Bennett, R. S., near Jesup, has been located, and the grave of Charles Smith, near Gardi, R. S., has a government marker (Wayne county). The chapter sent a list of the historic spots in Wayne county.

The marker was unveiled by the great-great-grandsons of Mr. Joel E. Morris, who 100 years ago purchased the farm which is traversed by the famous trail.

COLLECTION AND COMPILATION OF STATE PROCEEDINGS

Mrs. O. T. Peebles

The Proceedings of the State D. A. R. are brought up-to-date every two years, as it requires two year books to make the correct sized volume. The Yearbook of 1932, when published, will compete the entire file under my chairmanship. The volumes are in the Department of Archives and History of the State of Georgia. They are attractively bound and are a valuable asset to Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution.

RADIO

Mrs. Lucius McConnell

The possibilities of the use of the radio in the work of our society is as unlimited as the waves that carry the radio messages.

It is gratifying to know that the Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution has become conscious of these possibilities for during the past year the programs were broadcast as follows: The Joseph Habersham chapter, one program; Elijah Clarke chapter, four; Atlanta chapter, two; Augusta chapter, two; John Benson chapter, one; Fielding Lewis chapter, one; Savannah chapter, one; Governor David Emanuel chapter, one; State chairman radio committee, one; Dolly Madison chapter C. A. R., one; making a total of fifteen programs.

The Sergeant Newton chapter sponsored a radio program in the public schools of Covington, and the Briar Creek chapter placed a radio in the public school of Sylvania.

While the broadcast of the programs is the heart of radio work, it is of equal importance that chapter regents and members encourage a large radio audience to listen to D. A. R. programs, stating the ideas and activities of our society, and presenting the outstanding musicians and orators in our state in celebration of patriotic days.

Fifty chapters have reported cooperating with the work of the Radio committee as follows:

Thronateeska, Commodore Richard Dale, Elijah Clarke, Atlanta, Joseph Habersham, Augusta, Bainbridge, Lamar-LaFayette, Brunswick, Camilla Tomochichi, George Walton, Oglethorpe, James Pittman, Sergeant Newton, Benjamin Hawkins, Governor John Milledge, Stone Castle, Dorothy Walton, John Laurens, Stephen Heard, Nathaniel Abney, James Monroe, Governor Treutlen, Colonel Wm. Candler, Arthur Fort, Pulaski, John Benson, Hawkinsville, William McIntosh, Altamaha, LaGrange, Roanoke, Henry Walton, Fielding Lewis, Sergeant Jasper, Hawthorn Trail, General Daniel Stewart, Gov. Jared Irwin, Savannah, John Clarke, Hancock, Adam Brinson, Briar Creek, Thomson, Toccoa, Gen. James Jackson, Lyman Hall, Edmund Burke, Governor David Emanuel.

REAL DAUGHTERS

Mrs. W. C. Vereen

Georgia claims two of the seven Real Daughters in the United States, Mrs. Mary Pool Newsom and Miss Sarah Pool, Gibson, Ga. These daughters are remembered by D. A. R. all over the United States with cards and gifts.

REVOLUTIONARY RELICS FOR MEMORIAL CONTINENTAL HALL

Mrs. J. R. Jordan

Your chairman of Revolutionary Relics for Memorial Continental hall wishes to submit the following report:

The works of Horace, translated into English verse, to which are added a number of original poems by a native American. Printed by Eleazer Oswald, dedicated to his excellency George Washington, Esq. Each section of the book is addressed to some prominent person, among them, Benjamin Franklin, Esq.; Nicholas Vandyke, governor of Delaware; and Marquis de LaFayette. Each poem is dated, the early ones were written in Philadelphia, 1767.

This valuable book was presented by Mrs. A. H. Brenner, regent of the Augusta chapter. She tells me that this old book has for many years been among her father's possessions.

REVISION OF BY-LAWS

Mrs. Howard H. McCall

According to Article XI of the By-Laws, a notice, signed by the state regent and your chairman, was given to the chapters, that all amendments to the By-Laws must be sent to the state chairman sixty days prior to the State conference.

Amendments (see below) were sent in, signed by Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, parliamentarian and chairman of rules. These amendments were sent to the State editor and published in the official department of the Atlanta Constitution. These amendments were for the purpose of changing the By-Laws in order to create four new state offices, viz.—a consulting organizing secretary, a genealogist, a reporter to the Smithsonian institute, and a curator.

The proposed amendments were as follows:

To change Article III, Section I, to read:

Officers of the State conference shall be the state regent, state first vice-regent, a second vice-regent, a chaplain, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a treasurer, an auditor, a consulting organizing secretary, a consulting registrar, a genealogist, a historian, a librarian, a reporter to Smithsonian institute, a curator, an editor, and an assistant editor.

The remainder of Article III, Section 1, shall remain as it now reads.

To change Article IV by adding four new Sections, 11, 12, 13, 14. Section 11 shall read as follows:

The consulting organizing secretary shall assist the state regent in the organization of chapters. (This office shall be substituted for the present state organizing chairman).

Section 12. The genealogist shall, when requested, assist members in genealogical research, collect and bind all available material, and place this in Constitution Hall library for the use of the registrar general, members of the society and the general public.

This amendment when read at State conference was amended to include—She shall also give a copy of all records to the state chairman of the Lucy Cook Peel Memorial committee. The genealogist shall serve as state chairman of Genealogical Research committee.

Section 13, shall read:

Section 14 shall read:

The curator shall report to the curator general and collect Revolutionary relics for Memorial Continental Hall museum. (This office will be substituted for the state committee on Revolutionary Relics for Memorial Continental hall).

These amendments, as adopted at the state conference, will be included in the By-Laws to be published in the Proceedings of the Thirty-fourth State conference. (See By-Laws).

SCRAP BOOK

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

"Of the works of the mind, history is the record." In this brief sentence Emerson defines history. There are many interesting ways in which records of history are kept. One of the most fascinating and delightful methods is the scrap book record.

Historians no longer attempt to write world histories. Each historian chooses his own epoch, or century and his own subject, and spends his life mastering such traces of it as he can find. The D. A. R. have their own epoch to preserve in history, and to keep alive in song and story. This epoch is one of the most outstanding in world history, a time in which a country found itself, fought for and gained its independence, and raised its flag, our own Stars and Stripes, over a "home of the free and land of the brave."

The keeping of a scrap book has greatly aided our organization in collecting articles, legends, and pictures of Revolutionary times, and accounts of the activities of the D. A. R. Many chapters have helped in this collection for our state scrap book, and have themselves been active in making chapter scrap books. I would like to take this opportunity of thanking all the chapters for their splendid cooperation, and to further encourage them in the scrap book work.

The following are among the most important subjects of articles, reports, and pictures which have been collected and are the high lights of material added to the scrap book the past year:

"The Celebration of the Battle of Yorktown, in Virginia, Oct. 1931."

"Celebration of Bi-Centennial."

"Report of officers on Marking Sites."

"Nancy Hart Highway Markers."

"Monument to Nancy Hart (unveiling in Hartwell, Ga.)"

"Marking of Benjamin Hawkins' Grave, and Erection of a Statue to him in Roberta, Ga."

"Old Ironsides visit to Georgia."

"Report on conferences."

"Visits to chapters with our State regents."

By request the Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, brought their chapter scrap book to the conference as an example of how a chapter scrap book should be kept. It contained most interesting data and will be a helpful guide to other chapters.

Letters have been sent to all chapter regents, urging them to look well to this work for it is indeed a privilege to have a part in the collecting and preserving of historic data.

For five years it has been my honor to be chairman of the Scrap Book committee. They have been five very instructive and interesting years. I have watched with pride the growth and development of the work, and every page of the scrap book has been an inspiration to me, knowing that it will grow more valuable with the passing of time.

Upon completion of the present scrap book, I recommend that it be placed in the Rhodes Memorial building in Atlanta, where space has been provided by our state for the safekeeping of all important papers and documents having to do with colonial and ante bellum times.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE REPUBLIC

Mrs. Julian J. Jones

It is a pleasure to have a part in such worthwhile endeavor. A thorough investigation of this activity will surely convince anyone of its merits and place in the lives of our young people.

I quote from the President of the United States: 'Forty-five million children stir the nation. The preservation and enlargement of child life has thus become the official business of our government.'

The children of today are indeed the citizens of tomorrow, and ideas which they are now embracing will form their characters and will sway the policies of our nation in future years.

Very few chapters in Georgia have any definite work to report. One chapter, Gov. David Emanuel, Swainsboro, has organized a club, Nancy Hart, membership 21, and holding two meetings per month.

Regents and chapter chairmen, you will find the faithful public school teachers ready to help. Boys and girls of this age enjoy organizations. I have hand books giving explicit directions for organizing and conducting this most constructive form of patriotic work. Please bear in mind that we must reach the little children, those younger than most organizations try to interest—for our country is depending upon them to carry on.

STATE EDITOR'S AWARD

Mrs. William Banks

Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, won the State Editor's award. Honorable mention goes to Stephen Heard chapter, Elberton, and John Laurens chapter, Dublin.

STATE REGENT'S AWARD

Mrs. Moreland Speer

The State Regent's award was won by the Adam Brinson chapter, Swainsboro. Waycross chapter, Waycross, received honorable mention.

SULGRAVE MANOR

Mrs. R. H. Roux

As state chairman of Sulgrave Manor, it gives me great pleasure to submit the following report:

In October, the 98 chapters in Georgia were written requesting that they give Sulgrave Manor a prominent part on one of their monthly programs. I regret to say that only 26 chapters responded, they were:

Col. John McIntosh chapter.....	Conyers
Henry Walton chapter.....	Madison
Council of Safety chapter.....	Americus
Dorothy Walton chapter.....	Dawson

Gen. Treutlen chapter	Fort Valley
The Lamar-LaFayette chapter.....	Barnesville
The John Laurens chapter.....	Dublin
Lyman Hall chapter.....	Waycross
The William Marsh chapter.....	LaFayette
Bonaventure chapter.....	Savannah
Lachlan McIntosh chapter.....	Savannah
Savannah chapter.....	Savannah
Maj. Gen. Samuel Elbert chapter.....	Tennille
Atlanta chapter.....	Atlanta
Jonathan Bryan chapter.....	Waycross
Col. Wm. Candler chapter.....	Gainesville
Hawkinsville chapter.....	Hawkinsville
Nathaniel Abney chapter.....	Fitzgerald
Elijah Clarke chapter.....	Athens
John Clarke chapter.....	Social Circle
Governor David Emanuel chapter.....	Swainsboro
John Benson chapter.....	Hartwell
Fort Early chapter.....	Cordele
Roanoke chapter.....	Omaha
The James Monroe chapter.....	Forsyth
Hawthorne Trail chapter.....	Pelham

If there are any other I did not receive their names. The Savannah chapter broadcast a very beautiful Washington's program on the 22nd of February.

It is a keen disappointment that this Bi-centennial year of George Washington, that more chapters were not interested to have Sulgrave Manor have a part on their program at least once during the year.

Sulgrave Manor, the home of George Washington's ancestors in England, is one of America's new possessions. It was purchased in 1914 by a group of English people, under the auspices of the British Peace Centenary committee and presented by them to the people of the United States in celebration of a century of peace between the two nations. Out of this has grown an international fellowship—Sulgrave Institution—the purpose of which is “to foster friendship and prevent misunderstanding between the American and British people, and to promote peaceful intercourse among nations.”

Sulgrave Manor, which was purchased by Lawrence Washington from Henry VIII at the partition of monastery estates in 1539, stands quite off the beaten track at the far end of the quaint, old time Sulgrave, a village in the Southwestern part of Northamptonshire, not far from Banbury Cross.

House Beautiful says of it:

“The Manor house is a poem itself, a place of delicate charm quite apart from its weightier significance as the ancestral home of President Washington.”

Sulgrave Manor is the only spot in England, with the exception of the American embassy, where the Stars and Stripes are flown.

It was in June, 1921, when Sulgrave Manor was opened after its partial restoration and furnishing, that the Lord Bishop of Petersburg said in the course of his dedication sermon:

“We are met today to dedicate this old Manor house to the mighty cause of Anglo-American friendship.”

“But there is more to be dedicated than this, we must dedicate ourselves and pray that all who visit this home of peace today and in the coming years may be drawn to the great adventure for the uplift of the world.”

TEXT BOOKS

Miss Evelyn Cockrell

Cooperation with State Superintendent of Schools in selection of text books. A resolution was passed at conference in Waycross protesting against some of the statements in Muzzy's History.

THOMAS JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

Mrs. Ed A. Caldwell

I am glad to report that the interest in the Thomas Jefferson Memorial and the annual celebration of his birth by the chapters of the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution is growing. This is shown by the larger number of reports this year from chapters telling of the many splendid and constructive programs that have been presented in the chapters and schools. I have aided a number of chapters by helping to furnish data on the life of Jefferson, and with facts about the purchase of Monticello as a national shrine.

I hope to hear from every chapter next year, giving me a report of their educational work on this great subject.

TIME AND PLACE

Mrs. Chas. F. Rice

As state chairman of Time and Place it gives me pleasure to report two invitations for State conference. One to Atlanta in 1933 and the other to Thomasville in 1934. Both of these invitations were accepted. An invitation from the Fielding Lewis chapter, D. A. R., in Marietta, for the State Board meeting in October was also accepted.

TRANSPORTATION

Mrs. B. C. Ward

Rates and schedules were obtained for transportation to the State Board meeting in Gainesville in October; the Southern Divisional conference in Charleston in October; the State conference in Waycross, and the National Congress in Washington.

VALDOSTA LOAN FUND

Mrs. Di Ingram

Since conference last year this fund has assisted nineteen young women in college. Making a total of seventy-two since it originated.

The local committee keeps in touch with the young women loaned this fund by having them visit some of the chapter meetings and occasionally having some social affair.

Some of the girls have become quite distinguished in their work since graduation. One, especially, deserving some mention is Cleo Mansfield, who is in the art department of the Atlanta Constitution, and doing very efficient work.

The financial report follows:

Balance on hand March, 1931.....	$5,417.16
Balance on hand March, 1932.....	5,558.78

The balance on hand in March of this year includes all money now loaned to students. The increase in balance of $141.62 is due to interest paid since last March.

WAKEFIELD

Mrs. I. Bashinski

Part of the celebration marking the 200th anniversary of George Washington was the completion of his birthplace at Wakefield.

The task of preserving Wakefield, in Virginia, was a patriotic duty which should appeal to the imagination of all Americans. The house in which our first president was born was destroyed by fire in the evening of Christmas, 1780. It never was restored, and gradually during the next hundred years the surface ruins almost disappeared.

So the matter drifted, with no organized interest for the preservation of the Wakefield estate developing until 1923, when the Wakefield National Memorial association was organized and incorporated to save the birthplace of George Washington for posterity, just as Mount Vernon was saved by the untiring efforts of a group of public-spirited American women.

So unselfish and patriotic were the efforts of the association in preserving Wakefield from spoilation, and so worthy the project, that Congress, in January, 1930, established the George Washington Birthplace National monument at Wakefield, and authorized the National Park service of the Department of the Interior to cooperate with the Wakefield National Memorial association in the restoration of the old estate, both buildings and grounds. Funds to assist in the work, including the cost of moving the government monument from the birthplace, were appropriated to be expended by the National Park service.

The restoration of Wakefield has not been a haphazard or a simple undertaking, but a serious historical matter, conducted in a serious manner. Though it is not possible to build a complete duplicate of the house, it has been tried, through the medium of research, to construct as nearly as possible the kind of house that was there 200 years ago.

Mr. Charles Moore, of the Wakefield National Memorial association, writes your chairman that the re-construction is virtually complete, but the association is going on with the work of adding to the house and grounds. All bills have been paid and no further expenses will be incurred beyond the amount of the funds available. The date of turning Wakefield over to the government has not yet been fixed.

Now, your chairman, has reached the goal of her ambition and comes to the last mile post in the journey. There steals over me a feeling of sadness of the love I have for the work as I lay down this obligation. The office has been an honor to me and one I greatly appreciate.

WELFARE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Mrs. J. E. Davidson

With so much hard times and so many people unemployed, it is but natural that all our chapters have done quite a lot of relief work over the state. Many reports cooperation with community welfare organizations, or with churches, or the Y. M. C. A., as covering their activities. The "Penny Meal" plan has been carried out in some localities.

Some chapters report that their members, individually, have done much but that they as chapters have done nothing. The smaller communities have not had the crying need which was felt in the more populous cities, therefore have not done the volume of work, but deserve great credit for all that they have accomplished.

Many regents have reported the sale of Christmas seals and a full Red Cross membership. The Henry Walton chapter at Madison sponsored improved sanitary conditions and a better water system in the school buildings, beside furnishing milk for undernourished children. Several other chapters report furnishing lunches for the schools, for the underfed children.

At Hartwell, physical examinations and treatments for school children were furnished, and much work done at the county home and among negroes.

John Laurens chapter sent 183 books to Tomassee and helped the needy at home.

The "Empty Stocking fund" is another method which many used as a means of helping those whose needs were evident.

In addition to participating in the Community Chest, Oglethorpe chapter, at Columbus, gave three scholarships to the local schools.

At Dawson, Stonecastle chapter took part in local work, besides preparing 58 Christmas baskets. Button Gwinnett chapter made new print dresses, shirts, and trousers to the value of $75.00 besides doing other work. Stephen Heard chapter, Elberton, have $100.00 book shower to a county high school.

The Tubercular hospital at Alto was helped by some of the chapters.

Elijah Clarke chapter, at Athens, has always been outstanding in her work along this line, both as to money expended and as to personal service, furnishing clothes, food, and medical examination and treatment, and in many ways holding out a helping hand.

Governor Treutlen chapter, (here at home) cared all summer for a sick child, furnishing it the needed milk and advising with a physician as to its care, and our regent gave this child her own time and care frequently, helping the mother with clothes, and otherwise. This besides contributing to local Welfare association, helping keep children in school, etc.

A very gracious letter from one dear lady shows a lot of work in a lot of ways. Constant personal service on the part of the regent, and so many of her members, teaching music gratis, and serving and giving. However, she voices a question which has presented itself to many of us at times, as to whether in so carefully reporting all these things which we do, we fail to remember that we should not "let the right hand know what the left hand doeth." Her letter breathes a spirit of prayer that our work be blessed of Him Who doeth all things well.

WOODROW WILSON DAY

Mrs. C. D. Shelnutt

Again, I am glad to greet you as chairman of Woodrow Wilson Day, although not quite so many responded this year as last in commemorating the event of his birth in December. I am sure that it has not been a lack of interest, but that the bicentennial celebration has overshadowed this illustrious character for the time being and that Woodrow Wilson still thrills the heart of Americans with his achievements, who count it a privilege to have lived in his time and to have known him.

Wilson, as an outstanding statesman, ranks as one of America's greatest men and his greatness will loom higher and higher as we comprehend with time the contributions he made to the countries of Europe in settling difficulties that resulted from the conflict during the World War. His advocacy of peaceful relations with other nations stands as a monument to his memory in spite of the opposition engendered by his enemies and year by year shafts of marble and tablets of bronze are being erected as an expression of his growing popularity in America—as well as in European countries. May we hold steadfast in our purpose to honor Woodrow Wilson for his unselfish and patriotic service to his countrymen.

Two medals given in schools for student making highest average in American History. Gave $5.00 to Empty Stocking fund. It is with deep regret I report the passing, March 29, 1931, of our beloved Historian and former chapter regent, Mrs. Thad Wise. All honor roll requirements met.

KNOX-CONWAY CHAPTER, ASHBURN

Miss Mamie Vinson, Regent

Our membership is nineteen, no new members for the year. We have a most active chapter of interested members with the entire membership, of those living in Turner county, present at each meeting.

Each meeting is opened with singing of patriotic songs, Salute to the Flag, and devotional led by our chaplain.

Most attractive year books in the form of trees, tied with red, white and blue ribbon, with pictures of George Washington thereon, were dedicated to George Washington. Our course of study has been on the important epochs in the life of Washington.

The chapter has planted three trees and twelve shrubs on the highway. Chapter members have planted eleven trees and eighty-nine pieces of shrubbery.

We have three subscribers to the D. A. R. Magazine. Two Revolutionary soldiers' graves have been marked. Two real daughters' graves have been located. We arranged a window display on Washington's birthday, using a sand table arrangement of Mount Vernon with figures in vari-colored dresses on the lawn.

The Bi-centennial celebration was formally opened with a large reception on February 20th, with the chapter members in colonial costume. Living pictures of the days of Washington were most artistically presented. We have a scrap book with quite a bit of interesting material therein.

We have given as a prize a picture of George Washington to the Ashburn Public school. We have also presented the school with a picture of George Washington, to be used in Study hall. The chapter assisted in the sale of Red Cross seals. We remembered the two real daughters at Christmas. Work is still in progress on the County history as quite an additional bit of data has been secured.

We have celebrated the Bi-centennial by means of Washington programs, prizes, window decorations, distribution of literature, and tree plantings. Our year book contains an outline of our programs devoted to the study of Washington's life, and our scrap book is replete with clippings pertaining to George Washington and the Bi-centennial.

Our conservation and thrift work has amounted to $1,648.11, including the serving of 120 meals to needy school children, cash contributions to underprivileged school children, Red Cross work, and conservation of natural resources. One reforestation project has been undertaken, with success.

ATLANTA CHAPTER, ATLANTA

Mrs. Thomas C. Mell, Regent

It is my pleasure to record some of the activities of the Atlanta chapter for the past year:

Our membership numbers 390. The meetings have been well attended. Interesting and instructive programs have been arranged for all patriotic anniversaries with addresses by most able speakers. Splendid papers on the Washington Bi-centennial have been given. A social hour followed each meeting. The chapter is honored by the membership of the state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, also chairman Georgia Commission Washington Bi-centennial.

Two markers for Revolutionary soldiers' graves have been placed. On December 27, 1931, a marker was dedicated to Basil Neal. The Thomson chapter was invited to join with us in these exercises. A marker was unveiled on May first to David Dickson, buried near Jonesboro. The grave of Daniel Clower has been located near Lawrenceville and a permit for a marker applied for.

Our Martha Washington luncheon, a brilliant social affair, was a great success. Mrs. Bun Wylie, State regent; Mrs. Julian McCurry, State regent-elect; Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, past vice-president general, and many of our State officers were guests of honor.

March the fourth the Atlanta chapter entertained at a large reception in honor of Mrs. Henry Joy, National President, Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, and past vice-president general D. A. R., to which all Colonial and Revolutionary Societies were invited.

JOSEPH HABERSHAM CHAPTER, ATLANTA

Mrs. Geo. M. Niles, Regent

The time has now arrived to render an accounting of my stewardship of the Joseph Habersham chapter.

We have had a happy and harmonious year, and our fellowship with the Atlanta chapter has been a privilege and a joy. Then, too, we have had in our midst the State regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, with her wonderful charm and personality to guide and assist us.

All designated patriotic days have been observed with splendid historical programs. July the fourth was a gala occasion, as we had the State regent, the Atlanta chapter, and other patriotic organizations to participate in the program.

February the twelfth, our thirty-second birthday, also Georgia day, was another happy celebration.

During the last year, a large number of trees and shrubs have been planted by chapter members. Two trees were planted and dedicated to George and Martha Washington with interesting exercises.

We cooperated in the Bi-centennial celebration of Washington's birthday, and also had the pleasure of assisting in the first State National Defense convention.

One hundred and twelve books have been sent to the Marine library. Hospital No. 48 is visited regularly by our members.

A radio program was given by the regent on "Why Become a Member of the D. A. R.?"

An annual event is our Georgia Products dinner. The speaker,

Dr. Theodore Jack, of Emory university, stressed the fact that children were our most valuable Georgia products.

Our gift scholarships are valued at $670.00. Three medals are given through our chapter, one to the most efficient student in the R. O. T. C. at Georgia Tech; one to the Woodberry School for Girls, and one to the Bainbridge High school.

Ten new magazine subscriptions have been reported, and 10 old ones.

Mrs. W. F. Dykes, one of our charming and beloved members, is State corresponding secretary. Just before the State conference the regent entertained the Board of management of the chapter at a breakfast at the Biltmore hotel.

One hundred and fifty pounds of clothing were sent to farmer's families, also contributions of money, clothing, and food to the needy in our city.

A number of Smith-Hughes Vocational classes have been sponsored by the chapter.

Invaluable work has been done by a member of our chapter in arranging, editing, and publishing a state historical volume for the Lucy Cook Peel Memorial. We are basking in her reflected glory for we shared our dear daughter with the state to do this work. Our members are all most loyal and helpful.

Nine Bible and six tombstone records were reported. Death has claimed four of our members: Mrs. J. C. Hunter, Mrs. C. G. Beck, Mrs. Martin Meyers, and Miss Mary Battle.

Depression has, also, depleted our membership, however, eight new members have been admitted, making a total of three hundred and fifty-nine now enrolled.

Mrs. W. H. Kiser entertained the chapter at her home on November the thirteenth, in memory of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. William Lawson Peel, the founder of the chapter. The chapter was such a large part of her mother's life, that it was a gracious and beautiful gesture to have the chapter with her on that occasion.

AUGUSTA CHAPTER, AUGUSTA

Mrs. August H. Brenner, Regent

In Augusta's celebration of the Bi-centennial our chapter has assumed a position of trust and honor. As August was the State capitol when visited by President Washington in May, 1791, the chapter has urged that the Bi-centennial calls for a united expression of homage and patriotism.

Last year's program closed with a Flag day address at Meadow Garden and the usual Flag festival in recognition of July 4th.

August was spent preparing the year books, printed in blue, on buff, with a cut of the Houdon bust on cover. Papers and addresses were carefully assigned.

The November program was dedicated to our State regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, accompanied by Mrs. H. Nicholson, State auditor, and Mrs. Charles Rice, of Atlanta. Mrs. Wylie was our guest from November 12th to 14th. She spoke to our Executive board and others, at a luncheon and delivered the Armistice day address, following a reception at Meadow Garden, on the afternoon of November 13th. That evening she was a guest of honor at a banquet given by our citizens to the Polish Ambassador, and other distinguished persons, present to unveil a monument to Dr. Paul Fitzsimmon Eve. Dr. Eve, a native Augustan and surgeon of the Georgia Medical college, had served as a surgeon in the Polish struggle for independence, 1830-1831. In celebration of the 100th anniversary the Polish Medical and Dental Associations of America were doing him this honor. On Saturday morning Mrs. Wylie, and other D. A. R. representatives, occupied seats on the platform at the unveiling and were given recognition. We deem our State regent's visit the high point in a successful year.

February has been a busy month in a most active year. A brilliant card party was given at the Bon Air-Vanderbilt hotel on February 4th, netting $127.00. On Saturday, February 20th, the Flag festival cleared in thank offerings from those decorated, $94.36. As a result the chapter has ordered a large bronze tablet to bear the Washington bust, D. A. R. insignia, and a suitable inscription, to be placed on a granite marker six feet in height, which will mark the spot where President Washington was met on Wednesday, May 18, 1791, by Governor Edward Telfair, Judge George Walton, Major General John Twiggs, and other distinguished citizens. On Wednesday, May 18, 1932, this marker will be unveiled. Governor Russell has been invited to be present.

Washington's birthday was also celebrated by two radio programs. At 9:15 p. m., February 19th; and at the same hour on the 22nd. The regent introduced the speakers: Mr. Brainerd Currie, college sophomore orator, who won third place at the University Bi-centennial contest, and Mrs. Frederick Smith, our vice-regent. Groups of songs were rendered by Mrs. M. M. MacFerrin.

On Sunday, the 21st the chapter attended service at historic St. Paul's church.

On Monday, the 22nd, a wonderful program was put on at Meadow Garden, where Mrs. Sanford Gardner received at the annual George Washington tea. The program closed with a gigantic living flag, given in tableau by members of the Junior League. Local charities, and services at Veteran's hospital, Home for Defective children, etc., as well as efforts in behalf of Red Cross, Christmas seals, etc., have been carried on. The usual gifts to National and State work have been given, including per capita amounts to Forest Park, and Indexing Georgia records. Only $190.00 has been spent by the chapter on Meadow Garden to date; but extensive repairs will be made.

We have lost two members by death—Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, and Mrs. J. L. Robertson.

One new member has been received, two by transfer, and four applications are pending. Membership, 133.

ELIZABETH WASHINGTON CHAPTER, AUGUSTA

Mrs. W. I. Wilson, Regent

Membership, 49—two papers in Washington. All meetings are opened with prayer led by chaplain, and our D. A. R. ritual, with Flag always present. Our historian reads some choice selection at each meeting and several scrap books have been filled with valuable genealogical clippings.

Committees visit hospitals and assist with all local routine work. Christmas offerings. Seals, Red Cross, Armistice day and Memorial day.

Our Real grand-daughter, with her store of real knowledge, is an inspiration and pleasure to us. She has presented to the chapter a beautiful hand-made quilt—every stitch made by herself, and she is also filling a scrap book. In sympathy with our Bi-centennial and in compliance with its mandates we are planting flowers and planting trees. But our principle achievement is the placing of a handsome marker on Washington street. This modest monolith is of finest grade Georgia granite—bearing tribute to the “Father of his country,” who was the guest of our city in 1791. Our efforts having been centered upon this memorial, whose valuation totals three hundred dollars, our gifts in other directions were of necessity restricted.

To the anti-Tuberculosis fund, $5.00; clothing, hats, etc., to family of six, value, $20.00; books for needy children, $7.00; flowers, $12.00; general expenses, $6.00; marker, $300.00.

Our meetings are held in homes of members and are well attended. We have made a comprehensive study of the life of George Washington, and celebrated February 22nd by planting a Cherry Laurel tree on the school grounds and participating in a program in the school auditorium. We have cooperated with the school authorities in observing other patriotic days.

About one thousand trees and shrubs have been planted by the members of the chapter, and we assisted the Garden club with the Annual Flower show.

We are fortunate in having the State chairman of Gift Scholarships a member of our chapter, and it gives us great pleasure to report $236.50 in gifts.

In honor of the Bi-centennial, George Washington's birthday was observed by the ringing of bells of the city, and an address on his life delivered by Rev. A. J. Warner. Our year books were dedicated to Washington and the subject of study for the year was his life. Also a Washington tree was planted.

We have two subscribers to D. A. R. Magazine, the chapter being one of them.

Two prizes have been given this year: one for the best average in the study of American history and for the best average in Home Making pursuits.

Eight Bible records and tombstone records were sent to State chairman.

In Highway Beautification, we cooperated with the Garden club and other clubs in the planting of the highway from Barnesville to the Spalding county line—a distance of 9.241 miles. In this planting, 522 altheas, 169 pecan trees, 113 pine trees, and 50 Cherokee roses were used.

We were given the privilege of cooperating with the Georgia Industrial college in their forestry program. Thirty-five acres are being devoted to this new work; it is progressing nicely.

The chapter's outstanding work for the year has been the marking of the house where LaFayette stopped in 1825 while enroute from Milledgeville, Ga., to Montgomery, Ala. A check for $50.00 from the Georgia Daughters assisted us in financing this. Our State regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, honored us by her presence at this time, and unveiled and dedicated the marker. Mrs. Wylie and Mrs. Nicholson were entertained with a luncheon by the chapter while here.

The grave of Vines Collier, located on the old Collier plantation, (now owned by Mr. E. T. Howard), in Oglethorpe county, near Lexington, has been marked this year.

In addition to this, we have paid the sum of $22.00 for scholarships. From the sales of our County History we kept solvent and even have in the treasury a tidy sum.

Our chapter has encouraged the teaching of our County history in the schools where it has aroused considerable interest. We have also taught Flag lessons whenever opportunity presented. We joined with the local chapter of the American Legion in the Bi-centennial celebration. We are continuing our task of marking the historic spots of the county and have unveiled one marker. Some of the members of our chapter have collected much rare data on Georgia history. Among that collected by the regent are Folsom's "Heroes and Martyrs of Georgia," extracts from the manuscript of John Stuart, David Taitt, Thomas Brown, Alexander McGillivray, Timothy Barnard, David Holmes, and other British agents operating in Georgia during the Revolution.

Resident members of the chapter have done much toward beautifying their lawns and sidewalks by planting a large number of trees and shrub plants. Interest seems to be increasing and we hope to have a larger membership before another State conference.

WILLIAM MARSH CHAPTER, LaFAYETTE

Mrs. Thomas W. Lee, Regent

The William Marsh chapter submits the following report:

We have a membership of thirty-nine members, seventeen or whom are non-resident. We lost one member by death this year, Mrs. E. A. Leonard, our chairman of National Defense.

The Bi-centennial programs have been used at all meetings. Special days were observed as planned. Qualified speakers have been asked to take part in presenting the various topics. National Defense was given first place on the March program.

The chapter planted a George Washington Elm tree in February, on the grounds of our John B. Gordon Hall, assisted by the Woman's club and the U. D. C.'s, who are joint owners of this historic building, erected in 1835 as an "Academy." When it was abandoned as a school several years ago, the town authorities presented it to these organizations. It has been restored and the grounds beautified along Colonial plans, so that it is one of the most typical ante-bellum places in this part of the state.

At the exercises at the tree planting the school children took part on the program, giving patriotic songs, and our chapter poet, Mrs. Caroline Arnold read an original poem on "Trees."

Two medals have been offered in the schools for the best work in American history. The chapter has been active in the work of the Red Cross. In our county one of our members is secretary of the organization. We also participated in selling and buying Tuberculosis seals. Our very efficient historian is collaborating with others in compiling a history of Walker county.

Georgia day was sponsored by our chairman in all the county schools. At the September meeting the regent presented the chapter a flag and standard, in memory of her ancestor for whom the chapter was named, to be used at the meetings. Our chairman, on Proper Use of the Flag, was named custodian.

Our chairman of the George Washington Memorial Plates, has sold forty-two of these beautiful plates and is still taking orders.

The members take their duty as citizens seriously and vote in the elections. Our vice-regent, Miss Sara Hackney, has just been named in the primary as Superintendent of County Schools.

We have met all the requirements for the honor roll for the year. We are planning a patriotic open meeting on Flag day, June 14, at the John B. Gordon hall.

LaGRANGE CHAPTER, LaGRANGE

Mrs. H. R. Slack, Regent

Chapter has met all honor roll requirements. In our programs we carried out the general outline for the year. Beginning in September we had an instructive program on "The Constitution;" reading extracts from an old leather bound work on the Constitution which was owned by the regent's grandfather in early part of 19th century. Papers on LaFayette and on display were pieces of china with picture of his home, "LaGrange" on platter and plates and his medallion on the cups. This also handed down from regent's great-grandmother. This china made in honor of LaFayette's visit to the United States.

In November Dr. McCain, of Agnes Scott, gave a wonderful lecture on the Revolution and Surrender at Yorktown. Joined with the American Legion in observing Armistice day, November 11th.

Held another public program in January, when Mr. H. Lovejoy, president of the Georgia Bar association, gave a talk at high school on "The Dangers of Communism."

Prizes were given to students on Good Citizenship, History, and Kenmore. Also looked up graves of mothers and daughters of Soldiers of the Revolution. We have in LaGrange a grand-daughter of a Revolutionary soldier. Planted oak in city park and appropriated money for the marker. We are to have a lecture on Conservation and Thrift soon by Dr. Chas. Herty.

ROANOKE CHAPTER, LUMPKIN

Mrs. William A. Fitzgerald, Regent

The most outstanding work of Roanoke chapter for the year 1931-32 has been the placing of a bronze tablet at Roanoke on August 6, 1931, the place from which the chapter takes its name. Roanoke is in Stewart county on the Chattahoochee river, and consists of nothing more than the site of an old cemetery. The town was burned by the Indians in 1836 and never rebuilt.

We have nineteen members and one associate member. Have had four resignations and two new members during the year.

Roanoke chapter has enjoyed the programs made out by the State Program committee, dedicated to George Washington. The chapter sponsored programs on Washington in different parts of the county on February 22nd, and also put on a county-wide essay contest on Washington for the 7th grade pupils, offering prizes for same. The county historian has been aided in every way possible.

One government marker for the grave of Jacob Green, Revolutionary soldier, buried in Hopewell cemetery, near Gadsden, Ala., has been obtained. We have one subscribed to the D. A. R. Magazine. Besides paying State and National dues we have contributed the following: Immigrant's Manual, $1.00; Ellis Island, 52c; Indexing Records in Constitution Hall library, $1.00; Publication of Chapter Histories, $1.00; Marking Historic Spots, $2.00; Marking Roanoke, $65.00; other objects, $15.00.

MARY HAMMOND WASHINGTON CHAPTER, MACON

Mrs. Henry F. Martin, Regent

Your hostess chapter of 1931 brings greetings to every Georgia Daughter, and is happy to report a delightful year of work and fellowship:

Following the theme of study, "Intelligent Patriotism," as outlined in our Year Book, prepared by Mrs. Charles Akerman, we have been privileged to hear eminent speakers present subjects of great importance. Prayer, patriotic songs, and artistic music have added much to every program. Our members have given loyal support in attendance, interest and cooperation in every undertaking. The chapter has endeavored to support, as far as possible, every object fostered by the State and National Society. We have an enrollment of 136, five new names being added during the year; five transfers given, two papers pending.

Because of an interest had by the two Macon regents, with the Superintendent of Bibb County schools, the 150th anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown was observed in our public schools.

On November 11th, with Mrs. Edward Ryals as chairman, the chapter unveiled a Real Daughter marker, at the grave of Mary Ann Hammond Washington, a charter member of the National Society D. A. R., organizer and first regent of the chapter which bears her name. We had five decorated cars in the Armistice day parade.

Adopting the suggestion of the State Board, that each chapter make some charitable contribution, we had a worthy part, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Harrold, in making "Macon Bundle Day" a success.

With Mrs. Davenport Guerry, as chairman, a Japanese Holly tree was planted on the lawn of the Washington Memorial library, as a tribute to George Washington.

In January the chapter had the honor of entertaining our State librarian, Mrs. John S. Adams, and Mrs. Blount Freeman, regent of John Laurens chapter of Dublin.

The 200th birthdays of Georgia and George Washington were fittingly observed in February.

Benjamin Hawkins Society C. A. R. is in excellent condition under Mrs. Broadus Willingham, Jr.

With especial pride and gratitude we present the following report: Mrs. James H. Porter, chairman of Education, reports Twenty-six scholarships, totaling $4,931.35 (due entirely to the generosity of the chairman). "The Eugenia Small Steed Cup" for the best essay on Early American History awarded to Josephine Peacock, of A. L. Miller High school.

Mrs. Charles Akerman, chairman; Mrs. Ross Bowdre, assistant chairman, of the Genealogical and Historical department, maintained by this chapter at the Washington Memorial library, report: Twenty-four volumes added to the department at a cost of $120.50, and a number of outstanding genealogical works now under inspection. The Book fund at present is $121.35. This department, which has grown to be a most important and valuable collection, is being extensively used by, not only Macon residents, but many visitors from surrounding states.

Believing that historical facts can be taught, more impressively through visual education, to our children, Mrs. John A. Selden, chairman of Better Films, is emphasizing all patriotic and historic days with appropriate films or prologues, at the Saturday morning matinee. These performances, which are enthusiastically supported in Macon, are receiving both State and National recognition.

NATHANIEL MACON CHAPTER, MACON

Mrs. Logan Carson Rader, Regent

During the past year the Nathaniel Macon chapter's program has centered around the observance of the Bi-centennial of the birth of George Washington. Each month different phases of Washington's life have been studied with addresses given by outstanding speakers of Macon. The meetings have been well attended and much interest manifested. Splendid musical programs and delightful social hours with gracious hostesses have been an enjoyable part of our year's program.

Since last conference the stone foundation of Old Fort Hawkins has been completed. We have been unable to make further progress in the building program, as it has been difficult to raise funds on account of economic conditions. The regent has asked for government aid through the senators and congressmen of Georgia. Hon. Samuel Rutherford, a few weeks before his death wrote that an item had been included in the estimates submitted to the Bureau of the Budget, for inclusion in the next annual appropriation bill for the War department, to cover the cost of making an investigation as to the restoration of Old Fort Hawkins. "If the appropriation bill carries this recommendation, he stated, an investigation will be made soon after June 30, 1932." We are asking Congressman Mobley to follow this up, with the hope that an appropriation will be made before congress adjourns. We are not discouraged because we realize that under normal conditions it is a great undertaking, and in these days of stress it is a much greater one.

The annual awards of five dollars in gold to the senior in Lanier High School for Boys exemplifying the highest qualities of Good Citizenship was awarded to Mr. Robert Hudson. There was a tie for the award of $5.00 in gold to the senior in Miller High School for Girls, making the highest average in American History, and $2.50 in gold was awarded to Miss Mary Ellen Moore, and $2.50 in gold to Miss Margaret Stubbs. Both students had been outstanding in their classes in American History.

In February a tree was planted on the grounds of Old Fort Hawkins in honor of George Washington, under whose appointment Col. Benjamin Hawkins, a personal friend of our first president, served this section as Commissioner to the Indians.

The display at the Bibb County Flower show, by the Mary Hammond Washington and Nathaniel Macon D. A. R. chapters and the Benjamin Hawkins chapter of the C. A. R., featuring a Colonial room with portraits of George and Martha Washington, and two children in Colonial costume, received much favorable comment and was awarded the blue ribbon. A picture of the display was sent to the Atlanta Constitution.

Eighty-seven members are enrolled, one new member admitted during the year. The chapter was saddened by the passing in November of one of our most beloved members, Mrs. Susie Derry Parker. Mrs. Parker was ex-state regent, a charter member and second regent of the Nathaniel Macon chapter. Last year while she was a guest in Macon at the State conference she gave $100.00 to the chapter to be used as a scholarship fund. The chapter voted to name this fund "The Susie Derry Parker Scholarship Fund," and it will be loaned to deserving girls attending Wesleyan college, Mrs. Parker's Alma Mater and the college where her father taught for a number of years.

Several patriotic days have been observed, and American's Creed day was observed at the April meeting. The regent has accepted a place on the committee appointed by Mayor Toole for the city-wide observance of the Washington Bi-centennial.

Mrs. Charles Cork, treasurer, reports that all State and National obligations have been met.

HENRY WALTON CHAPTER, MADISON

Miss Kittie Newton, Regent

The Henry Walton chapter, with a membership of 35, reports a successful and interesting year's work. Meetings have been held regularly and all historical anniversaries have been observed. The Washington Bi-centennial has been observed throughout the year with special study, public programs and social affairs. On February 22nd, we publicly placed a large copy of the Stuart portrait of Washington in the local club house.

An attractive marker was unveiled on an old Indian Trail on the site of an old stagecoach in early in April, whereby we won the award offered by Miss Virginia Hardin for marking old trails. Our State regent and a large number of state officers and chairmen were present.

Special work for better sanitation in one of the school buildings was successfully carried through. Our chapter sponsored the planting of dogwood and crepe myrtle trees in the town, giving wide publicity to the movement over a period of months, with the result of having a large number of these trees planted by the citizens and 150 planted by the D. A. R. alone. Also an avenue of trees was planted along a new highway and 85 shrubs were planted in the city park.

We have sponsored a milk fund for undernourished children in the schools, giving a specified amount each month. We awarded the S. A. R. Citizenship medal, a Citizenship medal for girls and the D. A. R. History medal. We have sent two historical papers to Washington for filing, and have located four Revolutionary soldiers' graves.

All honor roll requirements have been met. Many Bible records were sent to Mrs. J. C. Gentry for the Lucy Cook Peel memorial.

FIELDING LEWIS CHAPTER, MARIETTA

Mrs. Jno. T. Dorsey, Regent

It is a pleasure to report the work of the Fielding Lewis chapter. The outstanding accomplishment of the chapter for the past year was the marking, on October 18th, of the famous old Hightower Indian Trail near Marietta. This marker is valued at $250.00. Invitations were sent to all State officers, nearby chapters, and many prominent people of the state.

Another work was helping with the Parish House kitchen, which was opened for three months to take care of the undernourished children of the unemployed, and the poor people generally during the hard winter months. Members helped prepare, cook and serve the food; contributed liberally of both food and money; and the chapter, including individual members, to this end gave $100.00.

Sunday, February 21st, the chapter attended the special services at St. James Episcopal Church, honoring Washington; and on the 22nd of February we honored Mrs. C. M. Crosby, our organizing regent, who is a great-great-grand niece of General Washington, and the great-great-granddaughter of Fielding Lewis and Betty Washington Lewis, with a large reception, two hundred guests being entertained during the afternoon. At this reception priceless relics of George Washington's family were displayed. These relics are the property of Mrs. Crosby.

We offered three prizes of $5.00 each to the Junior High school pupils in history. Eleven meetings have been held observing all historic and patriotic days. All meetings were opened with prayer, followed by Salute to the Flag and the American Creed. Patriotic songs were used in our programs, and encouraged in schools. All meetings announced in local papers.

Better Films chairman appointed.

During the summer an attractive year book was compiled and dedicated to Mrs. Crosby, the founder of the chapter. This included 10 programs on the life of George Washington. A copy was sent to each member and to all of the State officers.

We have raised a loan scholarship of $185.00, $170.00 of it having been loaned to a student in his first year at the University of Georgia.

We have given 20 copies of the Declaration of Independence and Constitution to schools.

We have offered prizes in each grammar grade in school for best scrapbook of George Washington, prizes to be given at the close of the Bi-centennial celebration.

Three trees have been planted by the chapter, honoring Washington.

Sponsored a radio program over WSB the night of February 22nd, honoring Mrs. C. M. Crosby.

Located and applied for marker for one Revolutionary soldier's grave. This soldier will be moved and re-interred in National cemetery in Marietta, with appropriate ceremonies, as soon as marker arrives.

We had three representatives to attend the first state conference on National defense, which was held in Atlanta March 15, 1932.

It is a privilege to report the work done by the John Benning chapter at the close of an active and harmonious year. The support of the officers, chairmen, and individual members has been most gratifying.

Our greatest undertaking was the erection of an appropriate marker on the Thigpen Trail. A tea was given in honor of our State Regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and State Chairman of Flags, Mrs. John M. Slaton, at which time eight school boys and girls, dressed in colonial costumes, entertained the guests with "The Dance of the Minuet." The following days were observed: Georgia day, Flag day, Washington's birthday, Armistice day, and National Defense. Four copies each of Washington's Prayer, Constitution of United States, and Lincoln's Gettysburg address were presented to the school. Two medals valued at $10.00 were given for the best historical essay, the subject of which was "The Greatest Dawn in American History." Two trees were planted on the high school grounds in honor of George Washington's birth with appropriate and impressive ceremony.

Mrs. L. G. Cox, chairman of Patriotic Education, has done a wonderful work in the schools. A Citizenship program was put on at the North Moultrie school and the pupils presented the pageant, "The Good American." The Junior High pupils gave a wonderful George Washington program. Lessons on the flags have been taught.

BONAVENTURE CHAPTER, SAVANNAH

Mrs. Paul P. Boggs, Regent

The Bonaventure chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, wishes to submit the following report for the past year:

The chapter has a membership of 36, with four applications pending. We have about 30 per cent non-resident members, scattered from New York to Florida, but, nevertheless, we are together in the spirit of our work.

Our achievements have been hindered to some extent during the past year, due to serious illness and deaths in the homes of several of our members. Our chapter sustained a great loss in the sudden death of one of our beloved members, Mrs. C. P. Brannen. We are planning to place a marker at her grave in the near future.

Regular meetings have been held in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A., on the third Friday of each month, opened with a prayer, followed by the Flag Salute, and two verses of America. These meetings have been well attended, with a spirit of harmony and cooperation among the members.

Patriotic days and all historical anniversaries have been observed. A delightful card party was given at the Savannah hotel in November, the regent being chairman.

Patriotic Education has been emphasized. A prize, given by the regent, has been offered to the student in high school making the highest average in American history. A large U. S. Flag was presented to Montgomery Street Elementary school. Appropriate exercises participated in by the children were held in the yard. The flag was presented by the regent of the chapter, Mrs. P. P. Boggs, and accepted by the principal of the school.

Seventy-five copies of the Constitution, Declaration of Independence, and Americanism, have been distributed during the year. A copy of each was framed by the chapter and placed in the Girls Reserves' room at the Y. W. C. A. A large portrait of George Washington, which was obtained from Congressman Parker, was framed and placed with the other documents. Two copies each of the Constitution, Declaration of Independence and Americanism, were given to 35th Street Junior High school. These have been framed and a set of each placed in the history and civics rooms. Thirty copies of each of these documents were presented to the newly made citizens during the Naturalization exercises on last February 11th. Several of our members attended these exercises. Mrs. George U. Beach, our treasurer, made an inspiring talk and read a beautiful original poem, "It's Your Land and My Land."

In our programs during the year, we have taken up the study of the life of George Washington, whose 200th anniversary we are celebrating this year. Some splendid papers have been written on this subject and copies sent to Historical and Literary Reciprocity chairman. At our February meeting, a playlet on George Washington was given by members of the expression class of one of our members. The children were dressed in Colonial costume and the play was greatly enjoyed by all present. At this meeting, a tree which was planted in the court yard of the Y. W. C. A. in memory of George Washington, was presented to this organization. In his memory, another tree was planted by the chapter in the yard of Port Wentworth school.

During Mrs. Hoover's visit to Savannah in March, our chapter presented her with a shoulder corsage of pink Talisman roses. The regent was present with the group who greeted Mrs. Hoover on her arrival. A most cordial note of thanks was promptly received from Mrs. Hoover for the lovely flowers given her, and this letter will be placed in the scrap book of our chapter as one of our most treasured possessions. An interesting guest attending our March meeting was Mrs. D. W. Hoxie, from Peace Dale, R. I. She is a member of the Narragansett chapter and gave a short talk on the work of her chapter. We are planning to have a Colonial tea at our April meeting, which is, also, our seventh anniversary.

The chapter has pledged its support to the committee which is planning a pageant to be held on May 12th in celebration of the George Washington Bi-centennial; also to the committee for the State Bi-centennial, April, 1933.

We are cooperating with the other local chapters in erecting a marker on the building located at the northwest corner of State and Barnard streets in Savannah, this being the site on which the Inn stood where George Washington stayed during his visit to Savannah, May 12-15, 1791. This marker will be unveiled during the celebration of George Washington Bi-centennial, May 12, 1932.

Some of the achievements of the chapter are:

Mrs. C. E. Felton, one of our past regents, who is chairman of Girl Home Makers, donated a silver loving cup to the chapter having the best record for the year. Subscribers to D. A. R. Magazine, 6; Historic post cards sent to chairman, 6; National Defense, $5.40; Marking Historic Spots, $2.00; Ellis Island, box, value, $2.50; joint committee on Memorials, $5.00; Indexing Georgia Records in Constitutional Hall Library, $5.40.

The descendants of each pioneer whose name appears on the marker is helping to finance the project. The bronze marker will be embedded in a granite boulder given by a member of the chapter.

At our December meeting it was indeed a happy privilege to read a warranty deed conveying to the chapter two lots in the City of Summit on Federal Route No. 80. This munificent gift coming from our much esteemed and loyal member, Mrs. Mary R. Lane. At the same meeting a D. A. R. pin was presented to the regent by the chapter members. BARNARD TRAIL CHAPTER, SYLVESTER

Mrs. I. H. Mann, Regent

It is a pleasure for me, as regent of Barnard Trail chapter D. A. R., Sylvester, Ga., to report the work of our chapter for 1931-32. Although our report may not show up as well in figures as it has in past years, we feel that the chapter is steadily pushing forward and carrying on splendidly during these trying times of depression and unrest.

We have a total membership of 39, 23 resident members, and 16 non-resident, with an attendance average for the year of 78 per cent. Total receipts for the year, $152.38.

The chapter has eight regular meetings each year, these being held in the homes with members acting as hostesses. Our programs have been most interesting, featuring the life of George Washington, as outlined by the Bi-centennial commission. Accounts of these meetings have been published in the local paper. We have observed all patriotic days by sponsoring special programs in the high school auditorium, also observed "Thrift" and "Forestry" weeks with special programs. On October 19th we had a radio installed in the school auditorium so that the students might listen to the Yorktown Sesquicentennial program and join in the singing of the Star-Spangled Banner. A living Christmas tree on the court house lawn was sponsored by the chapter. Members of the chapter assisted in the local Red Cross drive and cooperated with the P.-T. A. in selling Tuberculosis Christmas seals. One of our members serves as chairman of Child Welfare work in Worth county. One D. A. R. History medal has been given, two Citizenship medals in the high school, one gold coin to girl in economics class. A prize has been offered for essay on Unmarked Revolutionary Spot in Georgia. Perhaps the most outstanding work of our chapter for the past year has been the compiling of the History of Worth County by our members.

The Thomson chapter has added one new member since January 1st, making a total of sixteen.

Our meetings are held monthly in the homes of the members. The programs are historical with patriotic music. All meetings are opened with a devotional. Most of our work this year has been local. The most outstanding work was the placing of a marker on the Nancy Hart highway. The unveiling exercises were held September 17th, when several of the State officers were with us. Mrs. Wylie, State regent, delivered the main address. The State officers and visitors were entertained with a banquet that evening.

In December, we cooperated with the Atlanta chapter in the exercises at the unveiling of a marker, on the grave of a Revolutionary soldier, which is located near Thomson. We had the honor of entertaining Mrs. T. C. Mell and Mrs. Rice, of Atlanta, on this occasion.

Two books costing $2.50 each were given pupils making best marks in Georgia history. Unveiled a marker to Solomon Youmans, Revolutionary soldier, in Tattnall county, five miles from Collins. Assisting the regent in the impressive exercises were his great-great-grandson, W. H. Youmans, and Mrs. Thomas C. Mell, regent, Atlanta chapter. Another grave located bore the following inscription:

"This tablet records the death of Henry Joyce, who departed this life March 11, 1826, in the 71st year of his life.

In early youth he drew his sword in defense of his country and served with reputation in the war of revolution.

He was an upright citizen and exemplary in all the relations of social life.

His disconsolate widow and afflicted children have erected this tablet to his memory in humble hope that he rests in peace in the bosom of his heavenly father."

Through a copy of a letter of Gov. Early we have located the crossing of Blackshear Trail over the Oconee river at Bell's Ferry.

Our monthly programs have been based on the early history of America. Two papers, "Washington, D. C." and "Reception of Young Nation by Older World," were sent to Literary Reciprocity committee.

In February, the Bi-centennial was observed by a Colonial tea, attended by about two hundred guests. Washington's portrait and flags were used in decorations; chapter officers received in Colonial costume, and high school girls in Colonial dress, served as pages and maids. A three-act play of the period was given as program.

In joint exercises with the Woman's club two magnolia trees were dedicated to George Washington. At our request, the ministers in all the churches used Washington's life as the theme for sermons on the 21st of February, and patriotic music was sung.

BURKHALTER CHAPTER, WARRENTON

Mrs. M. L. Felts, Regent

The Burkhalter chapter had a very profitable year, with instructive programs each month. We have a membership of twenty-six, twelve of whom are non-resident. There were two transfers this year. One transferred to William Kenley chapter, Latrobe, Pennsylvania, and one to Mary Hammond Washington chapter, Macon. Our meetings are held in the homes of the members, and they are well attended. We have located the graves of two soldiers of the Revolution, this year and our chapter will have charge of the exercises at the erection of the marker at the grave of Henry Pool, this to be done this year. Henry Pool, has two living daughters, Mrs. Mary Newsome and Miss Sarah Pool, both of whom live near Warrenton. A delightful afternoon was spent by this chapter in the home of these daughters in January of this year. At that time the members of this chapter showered these real daughters with gifts, and at the same time Mrs. Newsome presented to our chapter the New Testament which had belonged to her father, the book being yellowed with age, but well preserved. Pictures were made of these daughters at that time, and copies of them were sent to the State scrap book, and to the chairman of Historic post cards.

Our chapter gave two medals during the year 1932, one to the high school, and one to the elementary school at Warrenton. We also cooperated in the sale of Christmas seals, and have taken one subscription to the D. A. R. Magazine, and have given Flag Codes, and copies of the Constitution to the school, and have complied with all honor roll requirements.

It gives me pleasure to report for Lyman Hall chapter a most pleasant and profitable year. The chapter now has thirty-nine members, having received three new ones during the year, one being by transfer and one by re-instatement.

Ten regular meetings have been held in the homes of the members and at Memorial hall, on the third Wednesday of each month from September through June.

The Washington Bi-centennial programs, as recommended by our State chairman, Mrs. Max E. Land, have been used at the meetings, which are opened with the Salute to the Flag, and prayer by the chapter chaplain. The singing of patriotic songs has also been a feature of the programs. Ten patriotic programs have been prepared, and four patriotic holidays celebrated.

Five dollars in gold was given to the student in each of three schools, making the highest average in United States History and Civil Government, all three prizes having been won by boys.

In May, our chapter cooperated with the Jonathan Bryant chapter, and the Colonial Dames in sponsoring a tea, honoring the officers and guests, who were in attendance upon the State Biennial Council of the Federated Clubs of Georgia, which was being held in Waycross, at that time.

EDMUND BURKE CHAPTER, WAYNESBORO

Mrs. E. T. Agerton, Regent

While we are numerically small, numbering but 22 members, we have been active in all D. A. R. work during the past year. Members have held the meetings in their homes, ten of them, including one held in the Munnerlyn House, where George Washington slept while a visitor in the city May 17-18, 1791. Interesting programs, featuring the Bi-centennial, and opening with the Flag Salute and D. A. R. Creed, and including the study of a Revolutionary woman each month, have marked the meetings of the chapter. Some phase of George Washington's life has been given on each program and Georgia day, Sulgrave Manor day, Armistice day, Flag day, Independence day, LaFayette day and Washington's birthday, each had a part on the program at the proper time in the year. Washington's birthday was observed in the Munnerlyn house when appropriate exercises were held. A large picture of the Father of his Country, flag draped, adorns the room, and patriotic songs, stories and pictures made the early scenes seem very real.

The chapter cooperated with the Ladies Memorial association in planting a George Washington elm on the court house square. Youthful descendants of Revolutionary heroes of Burke county had a part on the program, singing songs, and making speeches.

All honor roll requirements were met by the chapter and prizes offered the students in the Waynesboro High school making the highest average in American history for the year. There were two prizes offered for the sixth grade.

We have a chairman of Patriotic Songs and these songs have been sung in school, in public gatherings and at all meetings. The registrar has sent a typed roster of the members to the chairman, together with the National numbers and names of Revolutionary ancestor. There have been two graves of heroes located in the county during the year, but no effort has been made to mark them. All meetings have been written up in the local paper and special meetings in the Atlanta Journal.

There is one subscriber to the D. A. R. Magazine, the regent, and articles are frequently read from its pages at the meetings. We lost one member by resignation, but gained two new names, and have one paper pending. The new papers have not yet been sent to Washington. We have five resident and seven non-resident members, with an average attendance of nine. We meet on the fourth Tuesday in the month, and have a social feature after the business meeting and historical program. The chapter chairmen are, Patriotic Education, Medals and Prizes, Programs, Americanization, Citizen, Flag, Historic Spots, Research, and Finance.

The chapter plans to mark the Munnerlyn House with a granite boulder and bronze tablet in May, with appropriate unveiling exercises.

CHATTAHOOCHEE CHAPTER, WEST POINT

Miss Florrie Johnson, Regent

Though small in membership, Chattahoochee chapter has had a successful and active year. We have a membership of twenty-one, eighteen resident, and three non-resident members, and the meetings have been held regularly each month in the homes of the members. Each program has been opened with patriotic songs and the American's Creed, and many of the interesting programs have featured Washington and the Bi-centennial. All patriotic days have been fittingly observed and the chairman of Patriotic Education has done an outstanding work in putting on excellent patriotic programs with splendid speakers at the public school auditorium. A prize of $5.00 has been offered to the pupil in high school for general excellence in American history and best scrap book. And the chapter has placed the D. A. R. Magazine in the school library. The members purchased Christmas seals and responded liberally to the Red Cross, and to the Library book shower.

They cooperated with local organizations in sponsoring a Christmas tree for the colored children; also for relief work among the needy. Six Washington calendars were sold and a box was sent to Ellis Island. All State and National dues have been paid. The chapter furnished a tree for the Washington Memorial driveway leading to the school. Conservation and Thrift chairman, urged the planting of trees, and living Christmas trees. Individuals gave liberally of Christmas boxes and bags, and some furnished milk for underfed kindergarteners. Reports were sent to State chairman and the local papers carried accounts of all important meetings.

SUNBURY CHAPTER, WINDER

Miss Annie Thomas, Regent

Sunbury chapter has held regular meetings during the year 1931-32. All flag days have been observed with fitting programs.

Following an annual custom the Confederate Soldiers of Barrow county were entertained at dinner at the Winder hotel on Memorial Day. After this wreaths were placed on the graves of all soldiers in Rose Hill cemetery.

Handsome medals which are offered each year to pupils of the 7th and 11th grades for excellence in History were awarded Cooper Hill (7th grade) and Annie Elder (11th grade).

The grave of John McElhannon, Revolutionary patriot, located in the old McElhannon cemetery 10 miles from Winder, was marked by Sunbury chapter August 26 with appropriate program.

A splendid program given jointly with the American Legion Auxiliary was presented at the school auditorium on Armistice Day.

As a part of our observance of the Washington Bi-centennial a colonial tea was given at the Winder Woman's club building. Officers of all organizations of the town assisted in receiving the guests. Credit for success of this entertainment was due Miss Annie Thomas who served as regent for the latter part of the year.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Mrs. Mell Knox

Webster says "to welcome is to greet with cordiality or courtesy—to receive and entertain hospitality and gladly—to make welcome." You good Daughters and friends of Waycross have done this to the letter and as the sad time of parting draws near, we your guests find so many things for which to say "We thank you."

First of all we thank you that you invited us to your beautiful city and are indebted to the Jonathan Bryan and the Lyman Hall chapters for permitting us to come here. Forethoughts of the Conference have been delightful, and with you, we find our pleasures more in fruition than expectation. You have contemplated our every need. We wish to express our sincere appreciation and grateful commendation for your cordial hospitality, the generous use of your cars, your thoughtful consideration of our every need, your delightful social affairs, your luncheons, buffet suppers and dinner. We rejoice in our hearts to be in Waycross, and are conscious that Southern hospitality is still a reality.

Nowhere has a conference enjoyed the attentive services of sweeter, lovelier and more accommodating pages and we thank these pretty girls, and the dear little C. A. R. for attending, in costume our opening meeting.

We thank the Press for the space freely given to our sessions and wish to assure them we realize the value to our Society of this publicity.

We thank you for the privilege of meeting in this edifice. The greetings brought to us from the Hostess regent, the schools, the women's organizations, and the men's civic clubs were so genuine that our sense of appreciation was sincerely aroused. We thank the musicians for their beautiful soul-stirring part on the program and the ministers for their petitions for divine guidance in our meetings.

Georgia Daughters were honored by the presence of former Gov. John M. Slaton, who gave the brilliant address on the opening session. We pay tribute to him not only because he is one of Georgia's first citizens, but because he is the husband of one of our most beloved and most distinguished members.

The presence of all our honored guests has added distinction to our Conference and we thank you for coming.

Every opportunity to tell our two ex-Vice-Presidents Generals of our love and esteem for them, delights Georgia Daughters and Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Talmadge make us happy being here. Their counsel in our deliberations is always of value.

The old Persian Proverb "Thinking well is wise, planning well, wiser, doing well, wisest and best of all," tells the secret of Mrs. Wylie's efficient and successful state regency. In adding, with each appearance, new laurels to her crown, she has endeared herself to us and has placed our Society in higher esteem with non-members. To you, our dear State regent, all Georgia Daughters are grateful.

As Elijah's mantle fell on Elisha's shoulders, clothing him with the responsibilities of the former's mission, so the mantle of regency falls upon the shoulders of Mrs. Julian McCurry and the duties of that office are entrusted to hands no less strong and heart no less faithful.

To every one who has had a part in preparing for and entertaining this Conference, to every one who has been on the program, to every one who has helped to make possible these splendid reports, we give our thanks.

In solemn accents we say farewell, the password of memory. In days to come when our heart strings are swept by the rush of sweet memories, there will pour a thousand melodies of the joyous, instructive and inspirational thirty-fourth Georgia D. A. R. Conference in Waycross.

FAREWELL ADDRESS MADE TO D. A. R. CONFERENCE BY MRS. T. W. MORRISON

Madam Regents—Officers and members of the Daughters of the American Revolution:

To me has been given the opportunity to say the last word of this Convention—but, before we close, I want to make an earnest appeal to each regent and member of the organization to stress Character Building—stress it in our activities with the youth of our communities, stress it in our Essay contests and stress it in our daily contacts. This slipping away from character ideals has sadly lowered the standards and honor of our people—both nationally and individually. We must bring them back! It is my firm conviction that the women of this organization can do this if they pledge themselves to this cause. Let us restore the high principles of honor and integrity which dominated the men from whom we sprang.

I am told to say good-bye, Auf Wiedersehen, Mizpah and all those friendship laden words of parting. Words are symbolical and it is my delight to assure you that none of these are too colorful to express the emotions which we, of the Waycross D. A. R. feel at your departure. This is not farewell, for we intend to renew the friendships we have formed during this Convention, and we trust that the contacts and memories of the occasion will remain with you until that time.

Information to Members

The following resolution which applies to the nominations of a State regent by chapters appears in the Proceedings of the Twentieth State Conference, 1918.

"Resolved, That it is the judgment of the Executive Board that nominations for State regent should not be made by chapters earlier than three months prior to the meeting of the conference. When so made they shall be furnished to the State editor for publication."

Chapters are requested to hold their elections in May. It is desirable that the reports to conference shall be made by officers whose work covers at least the greater part of the year preceding the conference. Chapter By-Laws must be in accord with National and State By-Laws.

At the opening of the State conference, by unanimous consent, the rights and privileges of delegates can be voted to the State chairman, with this exception, State chairman can not vote in the election of State regent and State vice-regent unless they have been elected delegates by their respective chapters and so registered with the Credential committee. (The election of the State regent and State vice-regent must be confirmed by the Continental Congress).

(See Article X, Section 1 and Section 2, of the National By-Laws).

"Where there is only one candidate for an office and the constitution requires the vote to be by ballot, it is common to authorize the secretary to cast the ballot of the assembly for such and such a person."

If anybody objects, however, it is necessary to ballot the usual way. So when a motion is made to vote unanimous, it fails if anyone objects." Passed 1915.

Each State conference may by a two-thirds vote, adopt such additional rules of order as it may deem advisable for the government of that conference, provided they are not in conflict with the Constitution and By-Laws of the National and State Society.

STATE CONFERENCE

The first State conference was called by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, State regent, and was held at the Atlanta Exposition of 1895. The annual conference began in 1899. In that year a conference for the purpose of effecting a State organization was called by Mrs. Robert Emory Park, State regent, and was held in Atlanta, May 23-24. By-Laws were adopted and State officers elected. The succeeding conferences were numbered from this conference, until the conference of 1909 adopted a motion, offered by Mrs. Mallory Taylor, "that the first State conference in 1895 be recognized, and the next annual conference, instead of being the twelfth, shall be the thirteenth." (Minutes, p. 21). No conference was held in 1911; the time of meetings having been changed from the fall to the first part of the year by the conference in 1910, which adopted a recommendation by the Executive Board (made on the motion of Mrs. P. W. Godfrey) "that the State conference be carried over from November, 1910, to 1912, prior to Congress in 1912;" amended by Miss Ray of Atlanta, "that we have conference in the spring, not to interfere with Lent." The historian general requests "that to insure uniformity and convenience of filing, all records shall be typewritten upon one side of paper, eight and one-half by eleven ($8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$) inches, with one inch margin on left side and bottom. One and one-half inches at top." One copy should be sent to the historian general, one copy to the State historian, and one copy retained in chapter archives.

Georgia Day

The first concerted effort to bring about the annual celebration of the date of the landing of Oglethorpe and his colonists (February 12, 1733) under the name of "Georgia Day," was made by the Joseph Habersham chapter of Atlanta in 1901, and, with the co-operation of the State School Commissioner, soon resulted in its observance in public schools. Credit for these first efforts is due to Miss Nina Hornaday, Georgia Day chairman of the chapter, and Mrs. W. L. Peel, then regent.

In 1904, Mrs. John M. Graham, then regent of the Joseph Habersham chapter, seeing that Mr. Calvin had introduced in the legislature a bill providing for school celebration on certain other anniversaries endeavored to have similar recognition given to Georgia Day, and in this was aided by Miss Hornaday. The result was that the Legislative committee on Education reported a Georgia Day bill as a substitute for Mr. Calvin's bill, but it did not pass. At the next State Conference, Mrs. Graham moved the appointment of a committee to procure legislation on the subject, and she was appointed chairman. A bill presented by her was introduced in the legislature by Hon. Madison Bell, but failed to pass, and at her request was reintroduced in 1909 by Hon. John M. Slaton which provided for observance of the day in the public schedule by exercises consisting of written compositions, readings, recitations, addresses, or other exercises relating to this State and its history and to the lives of distinguished Georgians.

Admission of Women to State University

The action of the State legislature in 1916 in admitting women for post-graduate course at the University of Georgia recalls the active part that Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan has taken in this bill. She was State regent, 1893-1897, and afterwards Vice-President General from Georgia of the N. S. D. A. R.

A resolution asking for the admission of women to the State University was offered at the 1895 State Conference by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, then State regent, and adopted by the Georgia chapters.

The following year it was offered to the Colonial Dames by Mrs. Morgan and adopted. A few years later, Mrs. Robert Emory Park, then president of the Federation of Women's club, cooperated with Mrs. Morgan and adopted the same resolution. Later the State Association for Education of Georgia Mountaineers, Mrs. Morgan, president, adopted the same resolution, making practically a united movement of the organized women in Georgia, with Mrs. Morgan the very efficient and most capable leader.

These petitions were successfully sent to the Board of Trustees and later to the Legislature. This continued work for over twenty years for the admission of women to the State's highest institution of learning, is only one of the many advanced ideas which Mrs. Morgan has led for a number of years.

REPORT OF PRESS COMMITTEE

As your Press chairman, it has been a privilege to again have the pleasure of assembling the Press committee for a "Spend-the-day" in order to edit and compile material for Proceedings for 1931 and 1932, sent to your Press chairman and State Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. E. Mann.

At the meeting of the 1931 Press committee, it was my misfortune to suffer an almost fatal injury while en route to the Woman's club, where I was to entertain the committee at luncheon following the meeting. In my absence Mrs. Howard McCall kindly acted as hostess, and I would fail in appreciation did I not at this time express my grateful thanks to her and the committee who so willingly edited and compiled the 1931 Proceedings during my time of disability.

Relative to the 1932 Proceedings, the Press committee regrets that several reports of State chairmen and chapter regents have not been received up to date of August 1, 1932, when this book goes to press.

The committee has served faithfully and cooperatively in trying to perform all duties assigned.

We wish to thank the state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and every member of the state organization for loyal assistance given your committee.

FLAG CODE ADOPTED AS REVISED AND ENDORSED AT THE SECOND NATIONAL FLAG CONFERENCE, WASHINGTON

May 15, 1924

Proper Manner of Displaying the Flag

There are certain fundamental rules of heraldry which, if understood generally, would indicate the proper method of displaying the Flag. The matter becomes a very simple one if it is kept in mind that the National Flag represents the living country and is itself considered as a living thing. The union of the Flag is the honor point; the right arm is the sword arm, and therefore the point of danger and hence the place of honor.

1. The Flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority. It should be displayed on National and State holidays, and historic and special occasions. The Flag should always be hoisted briskly, and lowered slowly and ceremoniously.

2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags, the Flag of the United States of America should be either on the marching right, i. e., the Flag's own right, or when there is a line of other flags, the Flag of the United States of America may be in front of the center of that line.

3. When displayed with another flag against a wall from cross-staffs, the Flag of the United States of America should be on the right, the Flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

4. When a number of flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs with the Flag of the United States of America, the latter should be at the center or at the highest point of the group.

5. When flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the Flag of the United States of America, the latter should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs the Flag of the United States of America should be hoisted first and lowered last. No such flag or pennant flown in the former position should be placed above, or in the latter position to the right of the Flag of the United States of America, i. e., to the observer's left.

6. When flags of two or more nations are displayed they should be flown from separate staffs of the same height and the flags should be of approximately equal size. (International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace).

7. When the Flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony or front of building, the union of the Flag should go clear to the peak of the staff unless the Flag is at half-staff. (When the Flag is suspended over a sidewalk from a rope, extending from a house to a pole at the edge of the sidewalk, the Flag should be hoisted out from the building toward the pole, union first).

8. When the Flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the Flag's own right i. e., to the observer's left. When displayed in a window it should be left of the observer in the street. When festoons, rosettes or drapings of blue, white and red are desired, bunting should be used, but never the Flag.

9. When the Flag is displayed over the middle of the street, as between buildings, the Flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street, or to the east in a north and south street.

10. When used on a speaker's platform, the Flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. If flown from a staff it should be in the position of honor, at the speaker's right. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk, or to drape over the front of the platform.

11. When used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument, the Flag should form a distinctive feature during the ceremony, but the Flag itself should never be used as the covering for the statue.

12. When flown at half-staff, the Flag should be hoisted to the peak for an instant, then lowered to the half-staff position; but before lowering the Flag for the day it is raised again to the peak. By half-mast is meant hauling down the Flag to one-half the distance between the top and the bottom of the staff. If local conditions require, divergence from this position is permissible. On Memorial day, May 30th, the Flag is displayed at half-staff from sunrise until noon and at full staff from noon until sunset; for the Nation lives and the Flag is the symbol of the living Nation.

13. Flags flown from mixed staffs are placed at half-staff to indicate mourning. When the Flag is displayed on a small staff, as when carried in parade, mourning is indicated by attaching two streamers of black crepe to the spear head, allowing the streamers to fall naturally. Crepe is used on the flag staff only by order of the President.

14. When used to cover a casket, the Flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The Flag should not be lowered into the grave nor allowed to touch the ground. The casket should be carried foot first.

15. When the Flag is displayed in the body of the church it should be from a staff placed in the position of honor at the congregation's right as they face the clergyman. The service flag, the State flag, or other flag should be at the left of the congregation. If in the chancel or on the platform, the Flag of the United States of America should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation and the other flags at his left.

16. When the Flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the National colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our country.

17. As the Flag passes, it is fitting to always recognize it by placing right hand over the heart.

CAUTIONS

1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the Flag of the United States.

2. Do not dip the Flag of the United States of America to any person or any thing. The regimental color, State Flag, organization or institutional flag will render this honor.

3. Do not display the Flag with the union down except as a signal of distress.

4. Do not place any other Flag or pennant above or, if on the same level, to the right of the Flag of the United States of America.

5. Do not let the Flag touch the ground or the floor, or trail in the water.
6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the Flag of the United States of America.
7. Do not use the Flag as drapery in any form whatever. Use bunting of blue, white and red.
8. Do not fasten the Flag in such manner as will permit it to be easily torn.
9. Do not drape the Flag over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle, or of a railroad train or boat. When the Flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis, or clamped to the radiator cap.
10. Do not display the Flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.
11. Do not use the Flag as a covering for a ceiling.
12. Do not carry the Flag flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.
13. Do not use the Flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.
14. Do not put lettering of any kind upon the Flag.
15. Do not use the Flag in any form of advertising nor fasten an advertising sign to a pole from which the Flag is flying.
16. Do not display, use or store the Flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily soiled or damaged.

MINUTES OF STATE OFFICERS' CLUB, D. A. R. OF GEORGIA

The State Officers' Club of the Georgia D. A. R. held its third annual meeting on March 28, 1932, at the Hotel Ware, Waycross.

The dining room, the scene of this meeting which began with a luncheon, was beautifully decorated. The members were seated at tables which formed a square in the center of which huge masses of Easter lilies and ferns were used. The tables had for their decoration quantities of fragrant narcissi and ferns. Marking members' places were lovely little blue pottery vases filled with narcissi, favors for this occasion.

Distinguished guests of the club for the luncheon were the regents of the hostess chapters, Mrs. H. S. Redding and Mrs. H. J. Carswell, and Mrs. John M. Slaton, charter member of the Atlanta chapter.

Mrs. Talmadge, president, welcomed the members in her usual gracious manner. She then called upon each one present to tell how and why they became state officers and under whose administration they served. The distinguished guests were then introduced and each made a happy little speech.

Mrs. Howard McCall paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, of Savannah, past state regent, and vice-president general. Mrs. Charles Akerman paid tribute to another beloved deceased member and past state regent, Mrs. T. C. Parker. The members rose in a silent tribute to these splendid women who had given so much of themselves to the work of the Georgia D. A. R.

After the luncheon and the withdrawal of the guests, the business session began, the president in the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The president then asked that action be taken that "distinguished guests" for club luncheons include the regents of the hostess chapters. Action to this effect was carried by an amendment of Mrs. Land's motion of last meeting.

Mrs. McCall moved that Mrs. John M. Slaton, of Atlanta, charter member of the National Society, be made a member of the State Officers' club. Seconded by Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Wylie and many others. The election was unanimous and Mrs. Slaton was escorted into the room and notified of her election which she accepted in a charming speech of appreciation.

Other club officers reporting were: Mrs. McCall, second vice-president; Mrs. John D. Pope, third vice-president; Mrs. A. L. Wilkins, recording secretary; Mrs. Julian McCurry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herbert Franklin, historian; Mrs. Max Land, treasurer.

All reports accepted as given.

On motion of Mrs. Akerman it was carried that the yearly club luncheons be paid for out of treasury. Mrs. Wilkins moved that the club approve action of the president in paying for luncheon out of club treasury for this year. Carried.

Mrs. John W. Daniel moved that the tributes to Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Parker be spread upon the minutes. Carried. Mrs. McCurry moved that telegrams be sent to members of these bereaved families. Carried.

It was moved that a message of regret because of her absence be sent to Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, vice-president general, and first vice-president of the club. Mrs. Knox offered an amendment to read "telegram." Motion as amended was carried.

Mrs. Talmadge in a concluding speech asked that at the regular luncheon next year each member be prepared to tell of a humorous incident during her tenure of office.

On motion the State Officers' club adjourned.

MRS. JULIUS TALMADGE, President.

MRS. A. L. WILKINS, Recording Secretary.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. SARAH BERRIEN CASEY MORGAN

State Regent, Georgia D. A. R., 1893-1897.

Vice-President General, N. S. D. A. R., 1900-1904.

Chairman of Committee for the Revision of National Constitution and By-Laws, N. S., D. A. R.

By Mrs. Howard H. McCall, Vice-President, Officers' Club

On June 28, 1931, the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution were saddened by the passing of one of its most beloved members, Mrs. Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan, ex-state regent, honorary state regent, and ex-vice-president general, one of the most prominent D. A. R. women, not only in her own state but in the National Society, and a firm believer in organized womanhood.

Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan was an ideal leader and was gifted with a mentality that placed her on a level with the clearest thinkers of the day. Her clear intellect, her good judgment, and her capable pen were always at the service of womanhood. Her work for education along many channels and her patriotic work made her a woman of national prominence. She was active in all good work, having always the betterment of humanity before her, and helping too, to preserve the worthy traditions of the past for the benefit of future generations. Her executive ability, her wonderful and untiring work in our D. A. R. Society, both national and state, and her unselfish work in other organizations constituted her a power in her state and country.

Her wisdom and counsel helped shape the policies of our earlier days, and as long as time shall last the inspiration of her eloquent appeals for education will be felt. It was mainly through her untiring work and unceasing efforts, that women were admitted to the University of Georgia.

She filled the highest offices within the gift of the Georgia D. A. R. As state regent, she carried the Society through those hard years of organization and placed it on the firm basis it holds today. She so ably filled every requirement and later was made honorary state regent.

And when as vice-president general of the National Society, her fine personality was as much felt in that body as in her own state. She was placed on many national committees, especially as chairman of the Committee for the Revision of the National Constitution and By-Laws, her work is still spoken of; she won the amendments to our national constitution to hold state conferences and to elect our state regents at these state conferences.

Three times Mrs. Morgan was urged by countless friends and admirers to be a candidate for the high office of president-general, the first Georgia woman to be so honored. In 1918 she consented, at the numerous requests from her Georgia daughters and others, and allowed her name to be placed in nomination for the office of president-general, and received the unanimous endorsement of her state, and many testimonials of regard from many of the leaders of the National Society. But on account of failing health, she was forced to give up active labor in our Society. Her interest in D. A. R. work never diminished, however, even in the declining years of her life.

In the death of Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, the organization has sustained a heavy loss, and one that brings a deep, personal loss to the many women of the Officers' club and also of our Georgia D. A. R. who have known and loved her as a beloved and faithful leader and a most valuable member of our Society.

The Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution can pay Mrs. Morgan no higher tribute than to carry on the work she loved so well, in appreciation of the far reaching value of her life, devoted to unselfish and beautiful service to others.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. T. C. PARKER, DELIVERED BEFORE THE 'STATE OFFICERS' CLUB, GEORGIA D. A. R.

BY MRS. CHARLES AKERMAN

"Recollection is the only paradise from which we cannot be turned out." Who gave to the world this thought matters not. The sublime truth which it embraces is an ever present joy revealed when friend recalls friend of yesteryear.

Particularly am I impressed with this greatest privilege that is ours through recollection when I remember the person to whom I pay tribute now, Mrs. T. C. Parker (Susie Derry).

By nature and by birth, a gentlewoman; by effort and by faith, a Christian; by talent, education and cultivation, a woman of marked similitude. Sweet, gentle, considerate, loyal, with honesty of purpose and an abounding love for lofty ideals and achievements.

A daughter whom a mother in life or in death should cherish—a daughter whom this great mother, the D. A. R., state and national, does cherish. Hers was a reciprocal attitude. She was everywhere a D. A. R., but first of all came the old home chapter, the Nathaniel Macon. Here she retained her membership and rendered continual service. Her association was so eagerly sought by a chapter of Jacksonville that she became an associate member through an especially created constitutional amendment. For years she was an excellent regent of the Nathaniel Macon chapter, and I need but ask you to open the roster of distinguished state regents of Georgia to find her numbered among those rendering conspicuous, constructive service.

Ah, well may those privileged to know her exclaim:

"As the dew to the blossom,
As the bud to the bee,
As the scent to the rose,
Are the memories of Anne Derry Parker to me."
