TELEGRAMS

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

The Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia in conference assembled in Atlanta, desire to express to our president, Georgia's adopted son, our cooperation and loyal support of his policies.

Georgia State Conference, D. A. R.

Col. Walter Scott.
860 Broadway, New York,
Father of the President General, D. A. R.,
Mrs. Russell William Magna.

History has repeated itself in Georgia. About a century ago, the stars fell, and again last night, the heavens opened and the brightest star, Edith Scott Magna, dropped from the blue.

Her light and brilliance beamed afar,
And said to Georgia D. A. R.,
'Wake, O wake, to life's great duty;
Let thy light shine out in beauty!'

(Signed) Georgia State Conference D. A. R.

The Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution,
Henry Grady Hotel, Convention Hall,
Mrs. Julian McCurry, State Regent.

With profound appreciation and thanks I acknowledge the beautiful telegram regarding the stars which came from the Georgia Daughters and which was like an oasis in the desert. It is most gratifying to know the Daughters are accomplishing such wonderful work and that their light is shining so steadfastly through the temporary darkness. May your state conference of yesterday be the means of bringing results yet undreamed of.

Walter Scott.

KEEP THE FAITH

(Air: "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean")

O, our national organization,
A band of the fair and true,
We pledge thee thy daughters' devotion,
Our love and allegiance renew.
May thy name that we cherish stand ever,
As new members we add to thy roll,
For service and duty forever
To country a beautiful scroll.

CHORUS:

Keep faith with the brave and the true,
"Carry on" in work that's to do,
Let "over the top" be our motto,
Our standard, the Red, White, and Blue.

O, the Star-Spangled Banner we cherish,
And the D. A. R. takes the stand:
We pledge that its glory ne'er perish,
Nor its beauty grow dim in the land;
Our grandsires fought to defend it
In the days of its perilous youth.
We daughters will ever protect it,
Its folds of bright living truth.

The fires of the fierce revolution,
 Where thunders were heard 'round the world,
 Kindled thoughts of our great constitution,
 And Libert's flag was unfurled;
 Our ancestors fought for our freedom
 And Liberty's torch held on high;
 We hold up the torch that they left us
 And bear it aloft to the sky.

By ELIZABETH DUNCAN LANIER,
 John Laurens Chapter.

THE PLEDGE TO THE FLAG

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say, can you see, by dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hail'd at twilight's last gleaming—
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
 And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Give proof, through the night, that our flag was still there,
 O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave,
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

THE AMERICAN CREED

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land where my fathers died,
 Land of the Pilgrim's pride;
 From every mountain side
 Let freedom ring.

Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring thro' all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song;
 Let mortal tongues awake;
 Let all that breathe partake;
 Let rocks their silence break,
 The sound prolong.

My native country thee—
 Land of the noble free,—
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

Our fathers' God to Thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing;
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light,
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God, our King.

Resolutions passed by the Executive Board of the D. A. R., Marietta, Georgia, November 5, 1932.

1. Resolved: The D. A. R. of Georgia expresses its thanks to the Fielding Lewis chapter for its gracious hospitality offered it at the State Board meeting on November 5, 1932.

MRS. JULIAN McCURRY, state regent.

2. Resolved: That the ritual of the D. A. R. of Georgia be changed to conform to the national and substitute "Pledge to the Flag," instead of "Salute to the Flag."

MRS. JOHN M. SLATON,

State chairman, committee on Correct Use of the Flag.

3. Resolved: That the state treasurer send Mrs. F. M. Dick, librarian general, a check for $13.07, the cost of cards and filing of Georgia records in the national library.

MRS. STEWART COLLEY,
State librarian.

4. Resolved: That the treasurer of this society is hereby authorized to transfer all or any part of any shares of stocks, or bonds, or other securities, of any corporation now standing in the name of the Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution and also any shares of stocks, or bonds, or other securities, or any corporation that may be hereafter placed in the name of the Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

MRS. JOHN S. ADAMS,
Recording secretary.

The Resolutions committee moves the adoption of this resolution and recommends that the Executive board ratify the action of the state regent and state treasurer in this particular instance.

5. Whereas, the Edmund Burke chapter marked the Munnerlyn house last May as an expression of honor to George Washington and as this next year is to mark the birthday of our great and glorious state, we feel that it is incumbent upon our organization to commemorate in fitting manner the event; and,

Whereas, the chapter set in motion plans to purchase the Munnerlyn house as a lasting memorial to the Bi-centennial of Georgia, but being few in number, we feel that the task is too gigantic for our accomplishment alone; therefore be it

Resolved: That the Edmund Burke chapter urge the Georgia division of the Daughters of the American Revolution, to aid us in the project by purchasing the Munnerlyn house as a state shrine.

The chapter will then be in position to secure the aid of the City of Waynesboro in the restoration and maintenance of the building. We shall endeavor to rehabilitate the estate and make it somewhat self-sustaining by establishing a circulating library and by running a tea room, perhaps, if there is sufficient warrant for our doing so. We are of the opinion that if the state buys the building, there will be an interest for every chapter within the bounds of the Georgia division, and that each and every one of those chapters will share, with Edmund Burke, the joy of owning the only house within the state of Georgia where George Washington stopped while on his tour of the southern states.

MRS. EDWARD T. AGERTON, regent.
MRS. JESSE J. JOHNSTON, chairman, committee.
MRS. HUGH M. BLOUNT
MRS. WILL T. KNOX

The Resolutions committee recommends that this matter be referred to the state regent, who will appoint a committee to investigate this project in detail and report on same to state conference for action.

6. Resolved: That following request of the national chairman of Approved schools, the chapters of Georgia are asked to send a special Christmas gift of juvenile books to the Kate Duncan Smith school, in Alabama.

MRS. MELL KNOX,
Vice-chairman, Approved schools.

7. Resolved: That a suggestion be made to chapters to spend five minutes of each monthly program in a study of these D. A. R. schools, especially the two strictly D. A. R. schools, the Kate Duncan Smith, Alabama, and Tamassee, which are owned and controlled by state societies. The national society has given permission to stress these two schools.

MRS. MELL KNOX,
Divisional vice-chairman of Approved Schools.

8. Resolved: That the Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution express to the McGregor Printing company of Athens, appreciation for the painstaking interest in the Proceedings for the past several years, and that we award the printing to this company for 1933.

MRS. JULIUS TALMADGE
MRS. FRANCES BROWN CHASE

9. Resolved: That the Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution recommends that all reports for Proceedings be in hands of state recording secretary by May 1.

MRS. FRANCES BROWN CHASE
MRS. W. E. MANN

10. Resolved: That the name of "War Memorial Fund" be corrected in the minutes next year to read, "World War Memorial Loan Fund of D. A. R."

MRS. J. T. DUDLEY, Chairman.

11. The Edmund Burke chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution send greetings.

Some weeks ago the Augusta Chronicle carried an editorial written by Editor Hamilton of Augusta, urging that the original route taken by General George Washington be marked as the official road and that suitable monuments be set up along that highway, and not upon some other road over which he did not travel. The question is asked by Mr. Hamilton whether the new paved road between Waynesboro and Augusta, or the old McBean road, should be designated as the George Washington highway.

Enroute from Savannah to Augusta, on his triumphal tour, George Washington visited Waynesboro, thence to McBean, where he had breakfast and then drove by stage coach into Augusta, the paper states. The Chronicle asks, "Shall the real route traversed by Washington be marked (which is not a state highway), or the new route?"

"Of course," the Chronicle continues, "It would afford little satisfaction to anyone to have a road marked which is not a through road or artery. On the other hand it would not be historically accurate to mark the Peach Orchard route because Washington did not really travel that way."

The Edmund Burke chapter, wishing to be historically accurate, has voted, in a recent meeting, that it wishes to go on record as favoring the original route traversed by Washington and would like to see that road marked as the official George Washington highway.

MRS. ROSA M. McMASTER, Organizing Regent.
MRS. E. T. AGERTON, Regent.

A report was read of a call meeting of a committee appointed by the regent December 15, 1932, to discuss a bond owned by the State society. This discussion was brought to the attention of the Executive Board. On Mrs. McCall's motion that the matter in regard to the bond be left in the hands of the state regent, giving her the power to appoint a committee to assist her in the matter was unanimously agreed upon. Mrs. John W. Daniel, state treasurer, explained the purpose of the bond.

In the discussion it was found that there was an overflow from the Georgia Book Plate fund, it was moved by Mrs. Talmadge, seconded by Mrs. Gaffney, that this $49.35 be applied to the fund of the library table. It was further ordered that the difference of $49.35 and $50.00 be taken from state treasury D. A. R., making the total $50.00.

The regent, Mrs. McCurry, dispensed hospitality here and in the Q section in the gallery designated to Georgia delegates and alternates. Georgia delegates numbered some thirty odd, not including visitors and members from other states, who had claimed Georgia as home in former years.

Complete list of Georgians in attendance at the 42nd Continental Congress will be given by state regent's report. Miss Ruby Singleton, chairman, Georgia's State dinner, given at the Willard Tuesday evening at 6:30, after which was held the president general's reception at 9 p. m. in Continental hall. Mrs. Magna was a most gracious and charming presiding officer and commanded and demanded the respect and attention of each session at which she presided with splendid executive ability and promptly dispatched all business.

A new flag of the United States, very large and beautiful, was unfurled on the opening night of our Congress immediately after the president general passed under it. Stage curtains in heavy woven linen, dim grey and misty colonial blue, scenes of the early formation of our government and the footlights banked in green ferns. At each session, morning, afternoon and night, the two flags, borne by two older pages, were with special ceremony brought in and then retired, all standing with hand on breast and bugle calls and organ playing, "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

National society of D. A. R. presented a banner to the Washington cathedral to be placed in the great choir on Monday afternoon.

Immediately at close of Tuesday morning session the president general accompanied by the Daughters placed an evergreen wreath, palms and black stick magnolia leaves tied with our colors, on the Memorial statue of the N. S. D. A. R. This statue is of white marble, a noble and inspiring piece of sculpture, a young woman with arms extended, eyes lowered, wearing a soft robe touching her feet. Inscription bears these words:

"To the Patriotic Women
Who made possible the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution."

Mary Desha
Ellen Harden Walworth
Eugenia Washington
Mary Lockwood

—Each with date of birth and death in Roman lettering.

Side trips were made to Mt. Vernon and Arlington to place wreaths on the graves of Unknown Soldier at Arlington, and Mary and George Washington at Mt. Vernon, Tuesday afternoon.

Visits were made to home of Betty Washington Lewis, office of President James Monroe, and other shrines, and Annapolis.

Many honors were accorded the officers of the Georgia society, and our state was accorded special mention on several occasions. Georgia won two medals, one on Sons and Daughters of the Republic. She led in Americanization work, and gave $100.00 in honor of Mrs. Magna, toward paying off debt on Constitution hall (amount due, $527,400). Cost of hall was $1,760,000, 6 per cent of note made. April 1, 1932, we took up two notes and paid off some; $12,000 from current fund paid 1932. Current funds realized over rent of hall for various purposes to various high class performances, lectures, etc., sufficient for upkeep and improvement on the building (applause here), and has been means of lowering debt on hall.

A chair was presented in memory of Taft to new Supreme Court building. Additional lights were placed in our building, 648 electric bulbs were placed in 1932. A request was made that only rare gifts and prior to 1930 be placed in the museum.

Mrs. Julian McCurry, Georgia's state regent; Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, and Mrs. Julius Talmadge assisted at this President General's reception. Mrs. McCurry presided at Georgia's State dinner, which was a great success. Splendid service and a delicious menu contributed much to the occasion. The Georgia society of Washington, Capt. T. J. Jackson, president, honored the Georgia delegation and friends with a reception and musical program at the Shoram on Thursday evening at 9 p. m., to long after midnight.

Mrs. McCurry gave a response of welcome that was delightful and greatly applauded. Many besides Georgians were guests. The president general was with us, although it was during the ball before she could arrive. In her bright and happy manner she said after a few words of greetings "On with the dance" and went through a number with Captain Jackson.

The reception at the White House on Friday afternoon, beginning at 3 p. m., lasted hours, due to the mass of people in attendance. The entire lower floors were open to the D. A. R.'s and a glimpse of the stairway in the center of the house with its high wrought iron gates and stairway banked with palms and plants gave a view of the upper floor. Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Magna received in the Blue room and made a charming picture. Mrs. Roosevelt in Eleanor blue and corsage of shell pink roses, Mrs. Magna in D. A. R. blue and vari-colored flowers for corsage.

At our Georgia board meeting in Michigan room, presided over by our regent, Mrs. McCurry, an important item was brought to us—to have a committee appointed to go before the state legislature and have the census of Georgia copied from Washington for the state capitol and thus preserved. Especially is it becoming difficult to secure census of the early years.

Mention was here made of the hand-painted miniature of Oglethorpe to be presented N. S. D. A. R. museum in honor of Mrs. Nicholson.

Key word of the congress was taken from Mrs. Magna's address—"Courage" in thought, word, and deed, vision of our forefathers. . . The women of the world are the makers of history. Dauntless America and right is what the D. A. R. stands for. Be American, take the name that belongs to you. "Tell me what your women are and I will tell you what your men are. . ."

Addresses from noted American women: Hon. Ruth Bryan Owen, and Mrs. Amelia Earhart, and Frances Perkins (See printed program for list of distinguished men).

Gleanings from reports of national officers:

Be patriotically loyal. Sanity, wisdom, harmony, and common sense are values we stand for in this era of depression. Intelligent deliberation. Speak cheerful words and good words of encouragement.

Study programs for chapter use.

"We want our own government and do not wish any other government thrust upon us. Films to insure the prevention and not the overthrow of our government by Communists. Firm stand taken against Russian Communists by entire body of congress."

ADDRESSES

ADDRESS OF STATE REGENT, MRS. JULIAN McCURRY, AT THIRTY-FIFTH STATE CONFERENCE, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Daughters of the American Revolution, this year we are celebrating the bi-centennial year of Georgia's history. Behind us lie two hundred years of growth, achievement, development. Two centuries of triumphant history, the story of magnificent progress, the lives of many men. A great English writer once said that all history was but the biography of great men, of heroes. Consider then, briefly, the men who have made Georgia's history, whose lives have so influenced the state and nation that they have in reality molded our lives today to conform to the pattern of loyalty patriotism, and high ideals that is but the living interpretation of the code of Georgia, Wisdom, Justice, and Moderation.

It would be impossible to tell of all the Georgian heroes who have made our history. Like the unknown soldier of 1918 there are many who have contributed their best to our progress. But we can in some small way add our praises to the well-known and renowned leaders, and know that in praising them we praise their followers, the silent men who gave freely, lived quietly, and are forgotten. For no leader can succeed who has no follower, and no follower ever achieved greatness without a leader.

James Oglethorpe, the first Georgian, we must honor because of his infinite vision. In England he conceived the plan of making a settlement here, not as a mercenary venture to increase his wealth, but to provide a refuge for unfortunates who were completely crushed by the existing conditions in their home country. It was Oglethorpe who established in Georgia the tolerance and justice which has made her beloved for generations. Oglethorpe, then, gave us our first ideals; he endowed us with liberty from oppression, he bestowed upon us the will to build far into the future; he gave us integrity. As he did not conduct his settlement of the state for temporary relief so we dare not take some thought of the future as we live today.

But as surely as the heroes made our history, they were nobly helped by the heroines. Perhaps one of the most outstanding of the early Georgia women was Nancy Hart, whose life was so typical of the physical courage and moral bravery of pioneer women. The episode of her capture of seven redcoats is one of the best-loved history stories of our state. More than that, however, we must admire her for her daring, her loyalty, and her intangible contribution to the success of the American Revolution.

Of our other Revolutionary heroes much has been written. They were typical of the era in Georgia in which we asserted ourselves and gained the independence which astounded the world in the eighteenth century, and has held the respect of the nations for generations.

In the War Between the States, Georgia again asserted herself by contributing to the Confederacy some of the greatest men of the time. Joseph E. Brown, war-time governor of this state during those disastrous days, led our state to contribute financially and in every other way to the Confederate cause, and indicated a loyalty that is praiseworthy.

In the hazardous days of reconstruction, Henry W. Grady, who recognized the power of the press, and Robert Toombs, the fire-brand orator, were among the many who led us back to sanity after the War Between the States.

To pass from the military aspect of our history to one of humanitarianism, we cannot mention any person more heroic than Dr. Crawford W. Long, whose research in anaesthesia aided in making the wonders of modern scientific surgery possible.

The literary contributions of Georgia are no less distinctive. The entire South has produced no more lovable character than "Uncle Remus," created by Joel Chandler Harris, and "Bre'r Rabbit" is universal in his following. He has put the name of Georgia and the negro folk lore of our state into the consciousness of the entire nation.

Among the most famous and best loved poets of this country are Frank L. Stanton and Sydney Lanier. Stanton's lyrics portray the finest sentiments and emotions of the human heart; while his "Mighty Lak a Rose" is one of the most popular and loveliest lullabies that America has produced. Sydney Lanier has immortalized the beauties in the "Marshes of Glynn" and the "Song of the Chattahoochee." We would do well to follow the "Sunrise Poet" in his appreciation of the natural beauties of home state. For as surely as generals lead in war and orators in statesmanship, the poets lead in devotion to beauty and high ideals which is an essential part of the well lived life.

I cannot attempt to eulogize all of our state heroes. It would be an undertaking that would leave few names unlisted in our history. To mention some of our present leaders in the literary realm we look to Mrs. Corra Harris, whose novels have portrayed Georgia womanhood at its best. Among the leaders in the recent World War there was no more outstanding than Miss Moina Michael, nationally known as the "Poppy Lady," whose efforts in war has been succeeded by her achievements in peace. The late Miss Mildred Rutherford has contributed in no small way in literary and historical works. Dan G. Bickers, Georgia's optimistic poet, has in recent years been compared favorably with Edgar Guest in his metrical battle against depression.

With a race of heroes behind you, Daughters of the American Revolution, it is only fitting and proper that you preserve and hold high the standards of your forefathers. Our organization is not for the purpose of revering dead Americans. We cherish the immortal and invincible patriotism which has made of these United States, a nation whose achievement of success has astounded the world.

Georgia, as one of the original units of the United States in 1788 celebrates two centuries of growth, struggle and victory over many difficulties. There is as great an opportunity for every Georgian today as there was in 1788. We must be pioneers in the new civilization that is to be built in our nation just as the first settlers of Georgia were in their new land, for with the change in conditions there must come a change in ourselves. Essentially, however, we dare not vary from the ideals of our ancestors, who have written their code in our seal, and who, in three words, have expressed their civic virtues that we honor as integral parts of our civilization: Wisdom, Justice, and Moderation.

The brilliant address of our president general, Mrs. Russell William Magna, was ordered mimeographed and a copy sent to each chapter regent.

OFFICERS' REPORTS

ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE REGENT

Delivered March 15, 1933, Atlanta, Ga.

After my installation as your state regent at the forty-fifth Continental Congress in Washington on April 23, 1932, my first official duty was to attend the National board meeting on April 24. The president general made the following changes in committees:

"Literary reciprocity" was changed to "Filing and Lending of Historic papers;" "National defense" was changed to "National Defense Embodying Patriotic education," and a new committee on of Revolutionary relics in her locality and send this to the national curator, with a view to the purchase of the same for museums.

After the board meeting, Mrs. Julius Talmadge, ex-vice-president general of Georgia, and your regent went home with the vice-president general of New Jersey. While in New Jersey, they attended several New Jersey chapter meetings, and had the honor to be present at the unveiling of a tablet on Bayonne bridge in commemoration of the crossing of the Kill Van Kull by General Washington en route to New York city, where he was inaugurated first president of the United States.

The first state duty of your regent was an inspiring pilgrimage to Savannah, Waynesboro, and Augusta, made in company with Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Tom Mell, and General and Mrs. R. J. Travis, on May 17 and 18.

In Savannah your regent was entertained by her state treasurer, Mrs. John W. Daniel. The occasion for the visit was the unveiling of a tablet marking the place of Washington's stop in Savannah and after the exercises of unveiling, the Savannah chapters entertained the "pilgrims" with a lovely reception in the home of Mrs. E. J. Oliver.

After the stop in Savannah, they journeyed on to Waynesboro and unveiled the Mumsey House marker, where Washington spent the night on his way to Augusta. Then following Washington's route, after a luncheon given by the Kiwanis club of Waynesboro, they went on to Augusta.

In Augusta, your regent was entertained by Mrs. August H. Brenner, after a beautiful and impressivve program dedicated to commemorate Washington's stay there, and a reception was given at Meadow garden, the historic home of George Walton.

For the next month your regent rested and attended to correspondence and made ready to take the twentieth century revolutionary trail again on June 13 and 14, going first to Albany for the Flag day services, where she was royally entertained at a luncheon given by the Thronateeska and Commodore Richard Dale chapters.

June 14 found her the guest of the Daughters of 1812, whom she greeted in the name of the Georgia society, and gave a short talk on the history of the American flag.

In September she attended the meeting of several state chapters, first of which was the John Benson chapter at Hartwell, where she was the guest of Mrs. B. C. Teasley, and was honored by a beautiful reception at the home of Mrs. Frank Kidd.

Your regent then went to Commerce with her fall message, and was the guest of the James Pittman chapter. A reception followed at the home of Mrs. Hardman.

In Madison, she was entertained by Miss Sue Reid Vason, regent of the Henry Walton chapter, when she went to take her fall greeting to that town. Other guests of honor at the Madison visit were: Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, Mrs. Thomas Mell, and Miss Virginia Hardin.

In Athens, she attended the meeting of the Elijah Clarke chapter at the home of Mrs. A. Rhodes, where she had an inspiring group of women to receive her fall message.

She then joined the pilgrimage sponsored by the U. D. C. to honor the great Confederate leader, Jefferson Davis, by the highway bearing his name, and placed wreaths on the markers at Madison, Covington, and Greensboro, in the name of the Georgia D. A. R.

While in Covington on this pilgrimage she was the guest of past state regent, Mrs. Walton Godfrey, and attended a reception given jointly by the D. A. R. and U. D. C. at the home of Mrs. A. C. Sockwell.

She also gave a radio talk over Station WTFI in Athens on the growth and development of the National society of the D. A. R.

In Athens, also, your state regent attended the district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, bringing greetings from the D. A. R., and presented the Auxiliary president with flowers.

Your state regent departed for the National Board meeting and Kenmore on October 23, with a great deal of enthusiasm for her national duties. While in Washington she had the honor to attend a formal reception given by the District of Columbia D. A. R. in honor of Mrs. William Russell Magna, president general.

The dates of the National congress were announced at this time: Opening memorial service on the afternoon of Easter Sunday, April 16, and the first official session on Monday, April 17.

At the board meeting Mrs. Magna also asked each state to change the phrasing of "Salute to the flag" to "Pledge to the flag," for the word "salute" carries only the final gesture, not the full and beautiful meaning of a renewed pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Frank Madison Dick, national librarian, requests that each state pay for the filing and cost of cards. Georgia's quota is: Cost of filing, $6.67; cost of cards, $6.40; total, $13.07.

Mrs. Magna urges each Daughter to contribute a penny a day to lift the debt from Constitution hall.

The day following the Board meeting, your regent had the pleasure of driving down to Kenmore, the home of General Fielding Lewis, whose home is being enshrined by the Kenmore association. The association served the guests a delightful luncheon, embodying with a spirit of southern hospitality the delights of southern delicacies. The founder and president of the Kenmore association is originally a Georgia woman, and every state D. A. R. would be enthusiastic could she see the marvelous work accomplished in restoring this home so closely associated with Washington's boyhood days.

After the exercises at Kenmore, your regent was taken over the historic spots of Fredericksburg, and actually saw the site of the cherry tree legend, for her guide, Mrs. H. H. Smith, told her that in Washington's day it had been a criminal offense to cut down a fruit tree in Virginia.

The State Board meeting was held at Marietta on November 5.

The Executive board was the guest of the Fielding Lewis chapter at the Marietta Golf club, where all of the distinguished D. A. R. in Georgia were honored with a lovely luncheon. This meeting was a real inspiration to your regent, who wishes to express her appreciation at this time for the splendid co-operation shown her by the board group.

On November 13 your regent had the honor to go to Hartwell and unveil two markers on the graves of Revolutionary soldiers, Angus McCurry, who was an ancestor of her husband, and Dave Carter.

November 15, your regent attended the meeting of the Georgia Bi-centennial committee, to offer the support of the Georgia society to the celebration of this year. Following this meeting, she attended a delightful luncheon given by Mrs. Hilliard in honor of the Atlanta chapter and its regent, Mrs. Cromer.

The Elijah Clarke Clarke chapter gave a beautiful reception in the home of Mrs. Julius Talmadge honoring your regent, while the list of distinguished guests included Miss Virginia Hardin, Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, Mrs. Tom Mell, Miss Frances Brown Chase, Mrs. John M. Slaton, and Mrs. W. F. Dykes.

On December 6 you regent attended a meeting of the D. A. C. in the home of Mrs. John M. Slaton, Atlanta, Ga., bringing greetings to that society from the Georgia D. A. R.

On December 7, she attended a breakfast given at the Woman's club by the Board members who live in Atlanta. While in Atlanta she also was the guest of the Daughters of 1812 at their meeting, at the home of Mrs. Charles Rice.

It was a pleasure to your regent to co-operate with the Georgia Bi-centennial commission, where she attended several meetings in the early part of 1933. She also had the pleasure of co-operating with Miss Ruth Blair, in her endeavor to keep the Department of Archives and History intact.

On February 2, your regent went to Washington for the Spring Board meeting. It is always a pleasure to be in Washington and compare notes with the other state regents, and the comparison always shows to me again the fineness of Georgia.

On Georgia day, in spite of the many alluring invitations, your regent remained in Athens and went to a beautiful pageant which was given by the girls of the College of Education and written by a member of the Elijah Clarke chapter.

On February 15, your regent went to the meeting of the Elijah Clarke Chapter board, which was given in the home of Miss Annie Crawford who served the group a charming luncheon.

Elijah Clarke chapter celebrated Georgia day at the monthly meeting on February 16.

On George Washington's birthday your regent had the pleasure of attending a beautiful tea in the home of Mrs. Weyman Bell in Monroe, given in honor of the president of the Woman's club, president of the U. D. C., and the state regent of D. A. R.

Your regent regrets that she was not able to accept all of the kind and cordial invitations sent her in February, but due to pre-conference activities and duties in Athens, she was forced to decline.

May I take this opportunity to thank each member for the beautiful spirit of loyalty and co-operation shown in the past months, and tell you that your whole-hearted enthusiasm has been and will continue to be her greatest inspiration.

VICE-PRESIDENT GENERAL, NATIONAL DSOCIETY. D. A. R.

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney

John Ruskin says: "After all, the great thought, that it is the crowning virtue of all Art that, however little is left of it by the injuries of time, that little will be lovely."

In making my report at this time I shall not confine to list my engagements strictly as they were met, but I shall prefer to dwell upon a few of the outstanding ones.

"Every attainment is but a camp for the night," and as I journeyed on my way I found "no moment without some duty."

Returning from Congress, wearing the broader ribbon, by virtue of my office, was a joyous home-coming. Receptions, teas, special chapter meetings were arranged to do me honor. The usual order was observed: receiving lines, flowers, decorations, delightful food, distinguished guests, lovely pages, and inspiring addresses made more forceful by the presence of our Georgia State D. A. R. and United States flags.

"It is sweet to know there is an eye that marks our coming, and grows brighter when we come."

Radio addresses were made in cities of Alabama and South Carolina, and quite frequently in the various towns of Georgia.

One of the outstanding accomplishments was my visit to Auburn, Alabama, where I gave an address to a joint audience of D. A. R. and students of Alabama institute; The occasion being the opening ing of the summer school. My subject was, "What Our Flag Means to Our Nation."

Following the exercises a lovely luncheon was given at the home of Mrs. Judd, state regent of Alabama. Many past national officers, state officers, and state chairmen were present.

At the close of this delightful function, Mrs. Allison, Radio chairman, arranged a broadcast at the API studio. I gave a full fifteen minutes address on National Defense.

Some years ago the three local chapters of Columbus erected, in the name of Georgia Daughters American Revolution, a granite boulder, on the historic spot at Fort Benning, commemorating the visit of General LaFayette to Georgia in 1826. It has now become a custom for representatives from these three chapters to visit this spot on September 6, the birthday of this much distinguished French soldier, and do him honor.

On this occasion, Major Maurice D. Welty, of Headquarters staff, represented General King, the commandant. The exercises included the playing of the "Marsellaise," by the 29th Infantry band, the laying of a wreath on the monument, and the playing of the "Star-Spangled Banner."

I next addressed the Charles S. Harrison Post, American Legion Auxiliary, Columbus, using as my subject, "Make the Day American." Inasmuch as I was the president of the auxiliary at the time I found excellent opportunities to stress National Defense and made it, with the work of rehabilitation, my major objectives.

Later, gave a broadcast over WSB, arranged by Mrs. Lucius McConnell, president of the United States Daughters of 1812 society.

Right at this time I wish to again thank all the numerous chapters for their many invitations to join them for patriotic observances, and regret that I could not accept every one.

At this time our newly elected president general,, Mrs. Magna, appointed me as a member of the Constitution Hall Memorial Book committee, with Mrs. Grace Brosseau as national chairman.

Later on, June roses, blue skies, fleece-lined clouds, brought another Flag day, and June 14 found me, at the request of Mrs. Magna, back in Gaffney, S. C., the classic city of the Piedmont, where family associations for many years were made most dear. All plans were completed by the Daniel Morgan chapter, Daughters American Revolution, to unveil a handsome monument at Cowpens Battlefield, Cherokee county. Holding my membership for years in this home chapter made the event of greater importance. Representing our president general, I made the principal address before an audience of 10,000 people. Representatives from the states claiming the brave men who won the American victory, were present, and many able speakers had a part on this immense program. Mrs. Coulter, state regent, of South Carolina, was in full charge, and by many it was judged the most finished unveiling ever witnessed in that part of the country; this was due to Mrs. Coulter's efficiency.

In October I had the great pleasure of being among the honor guests of the Martha Wales Jefferson chapter, D. A. R. of Opelika, Ala. The meeting was held in the attractive home of the chapter regent, Mrs. Denson. I addressed the Daughters covering the subject "Patriotic Education." I began my talk by reading excerpts from "The Tenth Generation," a pamphlet written by the beloved Georgian, Harry Stillwell Edwards. I attempted to show the far-reaching results of education, and to drive home the vital truths of heredity. Stressing that, in ten generations a child receives its gift of good and evil, from 512 couples, mated in marriage, or 1,024 ancestors.

If you have not used this forceful article in your patriotic work, get it as soon as you can, for it holds a message of great importance.

"On to Savannah" was the next pleasure. Mr. E. H. Abrahams, chairman Joint Committee on Memorials of Savannah, invited me to make the address at the unveiling of a memorial to Sergeants William Jasper and John Newton, two Revolutionary patriots. This handsome monument was erected by the United States government. Again I represented the president general.

While in the city I was the guest of our state treasurer, Mrs. John W. Daniel, and many delightful functions were arranged in my honor. Attending the board meeting of the Savannah chapter, the subject of preserving the walls of the Colonial cemetery of that city were discussed. I became extremely interested, and offered some plans, which will at this time be submitted for your approval. I shall trust you to appreciate the importance of having this work begun at an early date.

This being the year for Georgia's bi-centennial celebration, I have already been called upon to make out complete programs for the observance of the various historic days.

I am appointed as one of the Columbus citizens to form plans for our local celebration, the time has been set for the third week of May. Come down to see us.

In closing, I shall leave this thought with you: The time to strive for higher services is TODAY. We cannot live over the past; we cannot project ourselves into the future. The one holds romance, the other hope; where the romantic past meets the future of hope is always the present. It is the moving frontier along which we must all fight the battles of life.

STATE VICE-REGENT

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

Madam State Regent, Georgia Daughters in conference assembled:

It has been my happy privilege for the past year to serve the Georgia Daughters as their state first vice-regent. Both the activities of office and social occasions have been delightful. In November I represented the state regent, as a distinguished guest, at the U. D. C. State convention in Bainbridge. Every honor and courtesy was shown me and lovely flowers, from the Bainbridge chapter, D. A. R., were presented to me by the regent, Mrs. A. B. Conger. I attended the State Executive board which met in Marietta in November, the guest of the Fielding Lewis chapter.

Representing the D. A. R., I attended the unveiling, by the U. D. C., of markers on the Jefferson Davis highway, at Newnan and Fairburn, at the request of the state regent. I was a guest at the American Legion banquet, given in honor of Governor Richard B. Russell. It was again my pleasure to represent the state regent on the Georgia day program, given by the Joseph Habersham chapter, also at the Georgia bi-centennial celebration in Social Circle.

The Baron DeKalb chapter, Decatur, celebrated George Washington's birthday with a colonial tea, at which you vice-regent was an honor guest, wearing colonial costume. I wish to express my appreciation of the lovely flowers presented to me on these various occasions.

With grateful heart for this wonderful opportunity of service, be assured of my continued loyalty and earnest effort in our beloved society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

STATE SECOND VICE-REGENT

Mrs. W. E. Mann

The official duties of the state second vice-regent have been very few but I have always been at the service of the state regent.

Many social invitations have been received and as many accepted as possible.

Presided at the closing session of the state conference in Atlanta.

STATE RECORDING SECRETARY

Mrs. John S. Adams

As your state recording secretary, my first duties were to write the minutes of the State Executive board meeting in Marietta, the Executive board meeting in Atlanta, then record the minutes of the thirty-fifth conference.

The printed Proceedings of this conference would have been forthcoming much sooner if each and every written report had been promptly delivered at the specified time, May 1.

I wish to pay an affectionate tribute to our state regent for her sympathetic understanding, and to Mrs. Mell Knox, Press chairman, who has so generously helped me over the rough places while struggling through the embryonic stages of D. A. R. secretarial work. To the other officers, state chairmen and chapter regents, I wish to thank them for their helpful co-operation during the past year.

STATE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Mrs. Thomas C. Mell

It has been a pleasure to serve as your state corresponding secretary for the past year and I deeply appreciate the kind co-operation of our state regent.

REPORT ON AUDIT FOR THE PERIOD MARCH 16, 1932 TO FEBRUARY 28, 1933

STATE TREASURER

March 9, 1933.

Mrs. John W. Daniel, Treasurer,
Daughters of the American Revolution—In Georgia, Savannah, Georgia.

Dear Madam:

Pursuant to your instructions we have made an audit of the books and records of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia, for the period March 16, 1932 to February 28, 1933.

We submit herewith our report consisting of the following exhibits, together with certain comments in explanation of them and of the scope of our work.

Exhibit A—Condensed statement of receipts, disbursements, and balances for the period March 16, 1932 to February 28, 1933—Reconcilements of bank accounts, February 28, 1933.

Exhibit B—Detailed statement of receipts, disbursements, and balances of Mrs. R. W. McCurry, former state treasurer, for the period March 16, 1932 to June 2, 1932.

Exhibit C—Detailed statement of receipts, disbursements and balances of Mrs. John W. Daniel, state treasurer, for the period April 18, 1932 to February 28, 1933.

Exhibit D—Honor roll, 1933.

It has been necessary to divide the detailed statement of receipts and disbursements of the period March 16, 1932 to February 28, 1933, due to the fact that your former treasurer continued to receive and disburse funds during the period from March 16, 1932 to June 2, 1932; consequently, the balance turned over to Mrs. Daniel, the in-coming treasurer, was different from that shown by your last audit as being on hand at March 16, 1932.

Exhibit B reflects the transactions of Mrs. McCurry for the period indicated in the index above. Our audit of these transactions consisted of tracing all receipts recorded in the cash book into the bank and verifying disbursements made therefrom by an examination of the canceled checks. The balance of $369.12 in the Students Loan fund on June 2, 1932, was remitted direct to Mrs. Barnett Solomon instead of to the in-coming treasurer. This amount, therefore, is not shown as being received by Mrs. Daniel. This transaction was verified by means of a letter from the First National Bank of Madison.

Exhibit C is a statement of the balance taken over by Mrs. John W. Daniel, state treasurer, from Mrs. R. W. McCurry, former state treasurer, the funds received and disbursed by Mrs. Daniel and the balance in bank on February 28, 1933. It will be noted that the dates covered by Exhibits B and C overlap. This is due to the fact that for a short period both of these ladies handled funds. We verified the receipts shown on Exhibit C by reference to the honor roll records, where possible, or to such other data as was available. All receipts of record were traced into the bank. Disbursements were evidenced by canceled checks and in most cases where these disbursements represented expenses, they were supported by receipted invoices properly approved. We proved the accuracy of the bank balance at February 28, 1933, and a reconciliation of the bank account at that date is given in Exhibit A.

You will note that both Exhibits B and C reflect certain transfers between funds. A summary of these transfers is given below:

STATE CONSULTING ORGANIZING SECRETARY

Mrs. Edward Ryals

Mrs. William S. Winn of Guyton, Effingham county, has completed her papers for the N. S. D. A. R. When they are accepted, she will be appointed organizing regent by our state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry. We are indebted to Mrs. Julian C. Lane, of Statesboro, for invaluable assistance in laying the foundations of a new chapter. It is a privilege to cooperate with the state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, Mrs. Winn, and Mrs. Lane in this important new work.

STATE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. Stewart Colley

Madam State Regent and Daughters of the American Revolution:

It has been my pleasant privilege to serve you as your state librarian. The field is wide and most interesting and many and varied are the duties.

The former state librarian, Mrs. John S. Adams, left the work in such splendid condition that it was easy to take hold.

Outstanding work has been done by many chapters, the Savannah chapter, Savannah, deserving special mention. Books were sent to the D. A. R. library in Washington by several Georgia daughters, but the only ones reporting to me were Mrs. Bun Wylie, and the Misses Gaffney, and the Hannah Clarke chapter.

The American Merchant Marine library has been our particular pet with the Kate Duncan Smith library at the school of this name running a close second.

We had a good woman tell us the other day that it was always true that when people were troubled, they always read more than at any other time. Then surely, in the words of the prophet, Behold now is the accepted time for reading.

Mrs. Frank Madison Dick, librarian general, has been most courteous and we have, in so far as it was feasible, carried out her every instruction. I thank you.

STATE HISTORIAN

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

Your state historian has the honor to report the work accomplished by the Georgia D. A. R. during the past fiscal year.

Interest along all lines of historical research is growing, and the hearty co-operation which the chapters have accorded has been most inspiring.

We have been given the wonderful privilege of participating in Georgia's bi-centennial. It is a splendid opportunity for every Georgia D. A. R. to show her love and pride in the history of our beloved state. The observance of this important event began on Georgia day, February 12, 1933, and will continue through Thanksgiving day, of this year.

We have just cause to be proud of our founder, James Edward Oglethorpe, and of the colony he created. Although the last of the English colonies to be settled, Georgia did well her part. May we show the world our appreciation of our wise and noble founder and the brave souls who settled our state.

Mrs. Julian B. McCurry, state regent of the Georgia Society of the D. A. R., will present a miniature of General Oglethorpe to Miss Ruth Blair, state archivist and historian of Georgia, to be preserved in the Rhodes Memorial hall in Atlanta.

It is my privilege to be a member of the Georgia State Bi-centennial committee and I have been requested by Miss Natalie Lincoln to write an article on this subject for the National D. A. R. magazine.

To all Georgia chapters your state historian has sent a special letter urging the observance of the two hundredth anniversary of Georgia's birthday, enclosing a picture of Oglethorpe which she obtained from Oglethorpe university, and this courtesy was much appreciated. Every chapter in the state has had a bi-centennial program with papers and speakers on Georgia history. Ten chapters have celebrated with pageants, and twenty chapters have presented me with splendid year books, dedicated to Oglethorpe. The D. A. R. of Georgia gave $250.00 in order that their name may be placed on the bronze tablet which will be erected in the state capitol as a memorial to Georgia's bi-centennial. Your historian donated $10.00 to this amount.

As your historian, I have written three letters to each chapter regent and included two from the historian general, Mrs. William James Edward Oglethorpe.

Louis Dunne, which, together with her Historical Outline and Questionnaire, were published in the D. A. R. column of the Atlanta Constitution and brought a splendid response from ninety chapters.

All patriotic and historical days have been observed with eminent speakers and interesting programs. Mrs. Max Land, state chairman of Historical Programs and Pageants, issued suggestive monthly programs for the Georgia chapters D. A. R.—general subject study: "The Bi-centennial of the Founding of Georgia, 1773-1933."

Appropriate poems, under the title, "Georgia, Our Queen," have been dedicated to our bi-centennial by Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, and Oglethorpe, a Dreamer," by Mrs. Walker Jordan.

Each chapter reports having observed the George Washington bi-centennial and Georgia's two hundredth birthday.

Mrs. Alfred Murray, state chairman of County Histories, reports: 14 chapters have completed their county histories; 19 chapters have them ready for printers, and 25 chapters are collecting material and assisting in their compilation. Mrs. John Davidson (past state historian) Outline was used by many historians.

Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, informs me that 39 county histories have been placed by the counties and D. A. R. chapters in the Rhodes Memorial hall. Many of these county histories have been published, or published in part, at the expense of the chapters; and some chapter historians have contributed liberally of their private funds as well as their time and labor. This has been the special work of the Georgia chapters during our bi-centennial year.

Among the accomplishments of our Georgia chapters may be mentioned: One hundred memorial trees planted honoring George Washington and James Edward Oglethorpe; Revolutionary relics collected and displayed at colonial teas and quilting parties; colonial floats; prizes awarded to pupils in high schools for the best essays on American and Georgia history; subscriptions to the D. A. R. magazine donated to public libraries; shelves of lineage books kept in libraries by several chapters; American and Georgia flags placed in every school in their respective counties by two chapters; a copy of the American Creed and a picture of Betsy Ross donated by one chapter to each of their county schools.

A contest on the "Most Historic Spot" in Georgia was held in 1929 by the Georgia Society of the D. A. R. It is interesting to remember this bi-centennial year, that "Yamacraw Bluff," where the colony of Georgia was founded, received the greatest number of votes. This spot was marked by the three Savannah chapters and the Georgia D. A. R., 1930.

Numerous historic spots have been marked. The most outstanding of this work was the "Jasper and Newton Memorial," erected by the United States government, on November 11, 1932, at Jasper Springs, near Savannah, to commemorate the brilliant exploits of Sergeant William Jasper and Sergeant John Newton in their rescue of American prisoners from British soldiers. The three Savannah chapters sponsored this memorial and participated in the ceremonies.

The inspiration of the idea to re-enact the journey of General George Washington through Georgia, which occurred in May, 1791, was conceived by Mrs. Robert J. Travis, chairman of Marking of George Washington highway. On May 17, 1932, a tablet was unveiled in Savannah on the site of the Inn at Barnard and State streets. This bronze tablet on a stone boulder marks the spot where Washington stopped on the occasion of his visit to that historic city. The three Savannah chapters united in placing this memorial. The unveiling of another marker on a spot five miles from Augusta, on the old Savannah road, now the George Washington highway, occurred on May 18, and marks the place where General Washington was met en route to Augusta by distinguished officers and other prominent citizens. This marker was erected by Augusta chapter. Following this unveiling, a reception was held at Meadow garden, home of Georga Walton, the Signer. Meadow garden is an historic shrine of the National Society D. A. R. A third marker was unveiled also on May 18, at Waynesboro, at the Munnerlyn house where Washington spent the night while on this journey. The Edmund Burke chapter at Waynesboro erected the marker and is now raising funds to purchase this old house and preserve it as a state shrine of the D. A. R.

The marking of Old Fort Heard in Wilkes county, Georgia, will be the especial work of your state historian, with the co-operation of the Kettle Creek chapter in Washington, Ga. This historic spot in Wilkes county, near the Kettle Creek battleground, is the place to which the state capitol was removed when the British captured and held Augusta, then the seat of our government.

Other markers have been erected commemorating historic places and events, and old trails. The Brunswick chapter won the prize offered by Miss Virginia Hardin, state chairman of Marking Old Trails, for placing a handsome granite boulder with bronze tablet where old Post road crosses the Waycross highway, twenty miles from Brunswick. The post road was used by Indians and Spanish explorers long before the American Revolution and follows the coastal plain. The award was made to the Brunswick chapter owing to the age and importance of this trail.

Mrs. Eli A. Thomas, state chairman of the Committee on Collection and Preservation of Family Bible records, reports as follows: Family Bible records collected, 226; tombstone records, 1,423; wills and abstracts of wills, 103; marriage records, 95; baptismal records, 55; copies of land grants, 3. The Elijah Clarke chapter of Athens won the Bashinski silver vase for the year for sending in the largest number (56) of family Bible records.

Your state historian read a paper on "The Trustees of the Colony of Georgia" at a meeting of the Nancy Hart chapter in Milledgeville; had entire charge of the February meeting of the Sergeant Jasper chapter in Monticello; has presided at three Georgia day programs; has written articles on "July Fourth" and on "February Twelfth, Georgia Day," for the D. A. R. newspaper columns; has given assistance in organizing local bi-centennial committees throughout the state, in obtaining historical data, and in the compilation of the county histories.

Interesting research has been done by your historian in Putnam and Gwinnett counties; she has found old land grants, marriage records and wills in both counties. A valuable old land grant has been given to her by the Sunbury chapter and has been placed in the State Department of Archives.

Other gifts to the Department of Archives during the past year, presented through the Georgia D. A. R., include: A framed map of Georgia prepared and presented by Mrs. Eli Thomas, past state historian, which shows Colonial, Revolutionary, and Indian War periods, forts, battlefields, and treaty spots; the Georgia State Society D. A. R. post card collection of historic spots in Georgia (this collection made by the Georgia D. A. R. at suggestion of Mrs. Eli Thomas and contributed to by the state chairmen, 1911-1932); an old cannon ball (found near old Fort Monroe) presented by the Hawkinsville chapter; a book, "Isaac Taylor Tichenor," with additional typed records comprising wills, biographical sketches and coat of arms, and other notes relating to this family (gift of Mrs. T. C. Whitner); typed records relating to old Virginia families (gift of Mrs. Eli Thomas)—the last two collections presented through Mrs. Mark Cooper Pope, chairman of the Genealogical committee of the Atlanta chapter; Bible records, compiled 1929-1932, presented through Mrs. Eli Thomas, state chairman of Collection and Preservation of Family Bible Records.

Mrs. Albert Tidwell, chairman of Marking of Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves, reported 27 marked and many located. Your historian has assisted in this work. The grave of Henry Pool, father of Miss Sarah Pool and Mrs. Mary Pool Newsom, Georgia's two Real Daughters of the Revolution, was marked last year.

Two rosters of Revolutionary soldiers, from Butts and Morgan counties, have been presented to your historian by Mrs. John E. Lane and Mrs. Kirby Smith Anderson, historians respectively of these counties and their D. A. R. chapters.

A photograph of a Revolutionary Army order to Captain Samuel Reid has been given to Miss Blair and is now in the Department of Archives in Rhodes Memorial hall. The original order is owned by Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson. The D. A. R. chapter in Eatonton is named in honor this Samuel Reid.

The Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park at Elberton, on the grounds of which stood the cabin of the famous Nancy Hart, grows in beauty each year as the contributions of the chapters towards its development are wisely used. A marker to be erected on the exact site of Nancy Hart's home is ready to be placed, as reported by Mrs. T. O. Tabor, chairman of the D. A. R. Forest Park.

Every chapter in the state has been presented during the past year with a copy of "Chapter Histories;" copies have been placed in the state archives, Carnegie library, National D. A. R. library, the Congressional library in Washington, D. C.; and twenty copies were sold by Mrs. A. H. Brenner of Augusta.

This has been a banner year for the study and discovery of valuable Georgia records. Many interesting papers have been written on historical subjects and filed with the state chairman, Mrs. J. L. Beeson. The D. A. R. of Georgia have been leaders in this service to their state, and the amount reported expended in historical work during the past year is over $8,000.

Valuable historical and genealogical research has been reported by the various chapters. Mary Hammond Washington chapter of Macon spent, since last May, $175.00 on books for the historical and genealogical department of the Washington Memorial library in Macon.

Mrs. Robert Travis, chairman of Preservation of Historic Spots, has sent to your historian a list of old Indian trails and stage routes copied from an old Georgia gazette.

Several interesting papers have been given to your historian and will be presented by her to Miss Blair of the Department of Archives and History, viz.: the will of Lewis Davis of Albemarle county, Virginia; "The House of Norris;" "Pioneer Johnsons and Johnson Church in Warren County, Georgia," and "History of Camp Recovery."

The Governor David Emanuel chapter of Swainsboro, the youngest chapter in the state, has done outstanding work in all lines, winning five trophies this year.

Your state historian has charge of the state scrap book which contains many priceless historical clippings—articles and pictures. The state has published the fourth volume of Historical Collections of the Georgia Chapters, N. S. D. A. R.

Fifty chapters have purchased lineage books and Georgia historical records, valued at $560.00.

The Georgia D. A. R. Committee on Patriotic Education, under the supervision of Mrs. Bun Wylie, sponsored forty lectures over radio station WSB pertaining to every phase of "Our Government" from its beginning to the present time. Members of the Georgia Society D. A. R., gave these lectures, your historian giving the one on "The Constitution."

A historical map of Georgia has been drawn by Cornelia Cunningham, noted artist, now of Atlanta, commemorating Georgia's two hundredth birthday and showing all historic places in the state, with names of prominent Georgians, pictures of the various seals and flags, and other interesting data. The state historian gave a copy of this map to the Henry Walton chapter at Madison, with appropriate exercises; and the chapter then donated it to the public school, the historian presiding over the ceremonies.

In April, 1931, the Midway society celebrated their two hundredth anniversary at Old Midway church. "There is no organization in America around which cluster more historic memories and precious traditions." This society is composed of descendants of the group which led the opposition to the King in Georgia and which furnished two of Georgia's three Signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The president general, Mrs. Russell William Magna, has conferred upon your state historian the honor of the appointment as a member of the D. A. R. National Committee on Historical Research. I am deeply grateful for this honor, and for the privilege of serving in this capacity; also for the kindly encouragement and generous co-operation which I have received from every member of our beloved society, the Daughters of the American Revolution. My earnest desire is to co-operate with the historian general in the work she has planned, and yet carry forward our own work here in Georgia. Your state historian wishes to express her warm appreciation to all chapter regents and historians who have made this report possible.

The chapter reports for this year just past are outstanding and reflect the utmost credit upon their officers and members. Most prominent of these splendid reports are the three following, which are here presented in condensed form:

Elijah Clark Chapter, Athens

The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, Ga., has restored the old cemetery, entire, which is adjacent to the campus of the University of Georgia, the first state university in America. In it lie buried people connected with the early history of the university and of the city of Athens.

Broken fragments of marble were assembled, put together with great difficulty, and the old inscriptions then deciphered. Every marker in the cemetery was injured, some broken into as many as eight pieces. All are now restored and the epitaphs can be read. Expense, $791.00; other expenses total $200.00.

In this cemetery was found the grave of one Revolutionary soldier, two widows of Revolutionary soldiers, and several Real Daughters.

The chapter has located the graves of eight Revolutionary soldiers and five Real Daughters. Four have been marked and two other markers ordered.

The chapter has secured proof of location of old Bethlehem academy, at Cherokee Corner in Oglethorpe county, just across the Clarke county line. This is an historic spot where the earliest school for young women flourished during the early part of the 1800's.

Prominent speakers from the university gave lectures on historic subjects at each meeting of the chapter.

The Elijah Clarke chapter copied 53 old Bible records; many old tombstone records, and the abstracts of 97 old wills of Clarke county, valuable in establishing Revolutionary service and in locating soldiers' graves. One Real Daughter was a charter member of the chapter and her grave was marked last year.

The Clarke county history is being written.

Ten dollars in gold was given to the University of Georgia student writing the best historical essay; and $12.00 awarded a student in junior high school for highest standing in American history. Column on Georgia history maintained in local paper.

William McIntosh Chapter, Jackson

The William McIntosh chapter reports the following:

A complete list of Revolutionary soldiers (31) who lived, drew pensions, owned land, or died in Butts county, Georgia. Full information of each man. This list contains names of four Revolutionary soldiers not mentioned in any other roster, namely: Abner Piggott of Wilkes county; Henry Lee of Maryland, died in Butts county; William Jester, born in Scotland, lived in Virginia, died in Butts county; William McCoy of Rockingham county, Virginia, died in prison at Charleston, S. C., his application for land bounty by Abraham Lemon of Butts county in right of his wife who was niece of said William McCoy.

A list of daughters (4) of Revolutionary soldiers in Butts county. Information given of their fathers, their marriages and children.

A list of soldiers (8) in War of 1812 in Butts county, and full information of them.

A list of soldiers (16) in Mexican War from Butts county.

The chapter planted a tree in honor of George Washington, and has given all programs required on Georgia history. A colonial tea was given, with the Virginia reel danced by members and guests.

The historian has written a full and comprehensive history of Butts county, has used her own funds, and the history will be published shortly. She has organized the bi-centennial work in the county—the programs having been assigned to seven schools. She has arranged five pageants. Has compiled the history of Indian Springs for the Forestry department and markers will be erected. Has supplied genealogical data to four members.

Henry Walton Chapter, Madison

The following lists have been compiled by the historian of the Henry Walton chapter, Madison, Georgia, who is in Washington at work on records in the Congressional library.

A complete list of Revolutionary soldiers from Morgan county, copied from the U. S. Pension roll, published in 1820 by the Secretary of War. List gives name, rank, amount received, date enrolled and service.

A list copied from the U. S. Pension roll, published in 1835.

A list of Revolutionary soldiers, Morgan county, copied from 1827 land lottery.

A list of Revolutionary soldiers compiled from L. L. Knight's roster.

A list of Revolutionary soldiers of Morgan county, compiled from Cherokee land lottery.

A list from the Lottery of 1838, of Revolutionary soldiers and widows of soldiers, Morgan county.

A list of Revolutionary soldiers drawing pensions in Morgan county in 1811—ninety-seven names of men and six widows.

In Georgia, Mrs. Anderson has copied a list of the earliest appraisements of property in Morgan county and the earliest files not before given to the D. A. R.,—valuable clues to the early families.

Mrs. Anderson has written the history of Morgan county containing: the early districts, the story of the first comers and heads of families before 1812, a history of the Creek Wars with companies from Morgan county, the early forts and engagements on Morgan county soil, the early churches of the county, early homes, list of members of Congress and state assembly, and list of judges.

As we are celebrating Georgia's bi-centennial this year, it is most appropriate and fitting that the historic places of the state be stressed. In the Proceedings of the Georgia Society D. A. R., 1924-1925, page 89-92, a complete list of "Historic Spots Marked and Preserved by the State Society" was presented by Mrs. Eli Thomas, past state historian of Georgia D. A. R. This list begins with 1898 and continues through March, 1924.

Below follows a list from that time (March, 1924) through March, 1932, compiled by your historian.

On three sides of this shaft are bronze plates commemorating three important events in the history of Georgia: The Federal road, Upatoi Creek, where the "Battle of Hitchie" was fought in 1836 between Creek Indians and Georgia Militia; "Kashita," peace town of the Lower Creek Nation. The marker was erected by the Georgia D. A. R. and the Ogleshorpe, George Walton and Button Gwinnett chapters of Columbus. Mathew Talbot chapter of Monroe has marked with granite the site of the battle of Jack's Creek, fought in 1787. This is on the Athens-Monroe highway.

At the state conference held in Thomaston, April, 1927, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, state regent of Georgia, in her conference address spoke of the heroic deeds of Nancy Hart. She said: "We should never rest satisfied until a great highway traverses our state, named for this heroine of the Revolution. I ask your co-operation in seeing this accomplished." A recommendation by Mrs. Franklin was adopted, stating that the D. A. R. endeavor to have a highway through our state called the Nancy Hart highway, for the Revolutionary heroine. Information was obtained by Mrs. Franklin from the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads that this was the first highway in the United States to be named for a woman. A committee of prominent women was appointed by the state regent, Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, in 1928, with Mrs. J. L. Massey, of Hartwell, chairman, and Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, past state regent, of Tennesse, co-chairman, to mark the Nancy Hart highway. Mrs. Franklin obtained valuable information and gave much aid in marking this highway. The highway from Hartwell to Augusta, via way of Elberton and Washington, was selected as the Nancy Hart highway, as Nancy Hart lived in that section. Handsome markers were erected by the John Bensuson chapter at Hartwell (The exact beginning of the Nancy Hart highway) and by the Stephen Heard chapter at Elberton, in 1928. A marker was placed by the State D. A. R. in Augusta and unveiled with elaborate ceremonies during the state conference there on March 28, 1928. The Highway Board gave permission to extend the Nancy Hart highway from Augusta over Route 15 throughout the state to Florida. An unveiling tour was arranged and in March, 1929, markers were unveiled in Washington, Waynesboro, Sandersville, Tennille, Wrightsville, Dublin, and Waycross. As there was no D. A. R. chapter in Wrightsville, the marker was erected by city and county, through the influence of Mrs. W. M. Shurling. Total, ten markers, 1928, and 1929. Marking the Nancy Hart highway was completed when Mrs. Bun Wylie was state regent. In October, 1931, another unveiling tour was arranged and markers were unveiled at Thomson, Louisville, and Glenwood. Total, thirteen markers on the Nancy Hart highway. Ten erected by State D. A. R. A song, "Jubilee for the Nancy Hart Highway," was written by Mrs. Franklin's mother, Mrs. Lula Kendall Rogers, an active worker in the D. A. R. and U. D. C. until the time of her death in 1931. This Jubilee was sung at ceremonies along the route of the Nancy Hart highway.

Benjamin Hawkins, who was then sole commissioner to the Indians south of the Ohio river. The settlement around Fort Hawkins was called Newtown but as it moved across the Ocmulgee river the name was changed to Macon, in honor of Nathaniel Macon, a close friend of Col. Hawkins. Fort Hawkins was in reality the "cradle of the city of Macon."

Gov. John Milledge chapter of Dalton, reports taking over from the Old Guard of Atlanta, the property in Murray county, where the Old Guard erected a memorial to John Howard Payne. The plot contains a marker calling attention to the fact that the Chief Vann house, built by Chief Vann of the Cherokee Nation in 1790, was located some 200 yards from this spot and was marked by this chapter.

R., December, 1931.

Since the Nancy Hart highway and the George Washington highway have been marked, I want to emphasize the importance of marking the Oglethorpe highway and thus giving honor where honor is due, to Georgia's noble founder, Gen. James Edward Oglethorpe. This is now one of the requirements of our honor roll.

* The annual reports of the state historians are always of great historic value and interest. Sometimes in the past the historians, desiring to give a detailed report of their work in the Proceedings have asked permission to do this at their own personal expense. The present state historian, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, following this precedent was granted this request to have her report printed in full with the picture of Oglethorpe and facsimile of his signature at her personal expense, because the Press committee considered this report of extraordinary historical value, serving as a sequence to Mrs. Thomas' list of 1924.

PRESS COMMITTEE.

STATE CONSULTING REGISTRAR

Mrs. James L. Mims

The office of consulting registrar is a busy, but interesting one.

Early in the summer, the books belonging to the office were delivered to me by my predecessor, Mrs. Alva Davis. Many inquiries, mostly from Georgia but a number from distant states, have been received. It has been my pleasure to be at the service of those seeking information, or trying to establish a line of a Revolutionary ancestor. It was most gratifying when I could be of real service, and always a source of regret when, on account of an unsystematic method of handling the state membership and a lack of reference books, I could not find the desired information.

My serious illness in the fall caused a delay of a few weeks in answering correspondence, but every communication has been answered.

This year a new duty has been assigned to the registrar. At the request of the president general, chapters were asked to send application papers through the state registrar. Notices to this effect were sent to the state editor for publication on official page in the Atlanta Constitution, and to the chapters. Not all papers, but a number, have passed through my hands for verification; and all have been forwarded to Washington.

Many lovely invitations have been extended by the various chapters, which were greatly appreciated.

Several chapters sent rosters; and a record has been kept of our Georgia members, as sent by the registrar general.

An active effort is being made to correlate the work of the state and national registrars. With this end in view, a national registrar's committee was created this year by our president general, of which your state registrar is a member. The committee hopes to work out plans whereby the service of the state registrars will be made more efficient and helpful.

The work this year has been fascinating, but has been greatly handicapped by a lack of reference books. Our file of lineage books is far from complete—there being only 69 volumes of the 130 that have been published. I trust that the time is not far distant when the file of lineage books can be completed, and a more systematic method of handling the membership installed thereby, affording a greater opportunity for service for the registrar, and enabling her to expand membership.

The requirements for membership and the difficulties for verification are constantly increasing. When we pause to reflect that each application accepted, means the recordation of the ancestry of the applicant since the Revolution, in archives as nearly imperishable as ingenuity can devise; in many cases the recognition of a new Revolutionary hero; and in all, the addition of another daughter to add strength to our society; we can go about our patriotic work with a sense of confidence in the value of our labors in preserving, untarnished, the memory and achievements of our forbears.

From my predecessor I received the following books: 69 volumes of lineage books, two index volumes, one copy of Georgia Historical collections, one copy of reprint of Land Lottery of 1827, one copy of notable Southern families, Volume III, by Zella Armstrong; seven leaflets of the Camp family, one volume of rosters of Georgia chapters, some unassorted papers of family records, a quantity of supplemental blanks for lineage of descendants of members, several volumes of state proceedings, and quite a number of chapter year books.

STATE CURATOR

Mrs. John M. Simmons

It is with pride that I bring you my first report as curator of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia. This work is close to my heart and has always seemed to me of vital importance. Surely this is one of the most important departments of our society, as we collect and locate relics which carry the history of the beginning of our country. These relics are of two periods, the Revolutionary, extending to 1800, and the early American Republic to 1830.

This department is capable of unlimited development. Some one has said: "Relics are full of local impressions and transfer the mind back to the scenes before. We thus feel our space of existence enlarged, while we have the pleasure to identify ourselves with the scenes or emotions of our forefathers." This is the reason why relics are earnestly sought and possessed.

Several relics were given the museum, but, on account of limited space, and no duplicates being accepted, unless of special historic interest, our curator general, Miss Hazard, had to decline our cannon ball given by Mrs. W. V. Bell, of the Hawkinsville chapter. This was found near the site of old Fort Moore, which was located in the South Carolina side of the Savannah river.

Mrs. Z. W. Copeland, regent of the Stephen Heard chapter, Elberton, gave a picture of Nancy Hart's grand daughter and saucer belonging to the same grand daughter, Susan Floyd. These will be investigated by the curator general. A cup, wineglass, chelsea plate, and small blue wedgewood meat dish was given by your curator. These have been sent to the curator general subject to her approval.

It seems discouraging when our relics are not accepted, but our museum cannot be crowded with duplicates and we want to be sure that they are authentic. The museum is beautiful and interesting, and we want to make it one of our best authorities on early Americana.

I am going to have a list of our relics typed and placed with our manuscripts in Rhodes Memorial hall, where all may see what a wonderful collection we have.

Many, many historical relics have been brought to light this year. Swords and rapiers, powder horns and cannon balls, samplers and family Bibles with wonderful records of our ancestors. Four post beds and sweetheart sofas, old windsor chairs and lovely Duncan phyfe tables, books and manuscripts, hand woven coverlets and samplers, pewter and glass, rich and colorful silver and jewelry, miniatures and tucking comb, old lace shawls and my ladies silk dresses. Total number of relics reported, 1,163.

I shall only mention a few names whose relics are listed and are now prized by their present owners: James K. Polk, Dolly Madison, Nancy Hart, General John Floyd, General David Blackshear, General John Heard, General Joseph Graham, General Nathaniel Green, Thomas McCall, Governor George M. Troup, Benjamin West, Ramsay, Calloway, Guyton, Janes, Jones, Thomas, Wise, Vann, Sanders, Ragland, Springer, Clarke, Sanborne, Baxley, and others.

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS

Mrs. Henry Storey Redding, State Genealogist, D. A. R.

In the past year I sent a letter to each chapter regent asking for contributions of genealogical data. It is with a feeling of disappointment that I submit my report showing how few chapters responded.

There is urgent need for chapters and individuals to lend their aid in preserving the old records of Georgia. With the knowledge that some counties in the state have ordered the old records destroyed, and janitors have burned them, the D. A. R. of Georgia should hasten, before it is too late, to collect and preserve priceless records which soon will be too fragile to handle that are stored in old cellars and vaults in the court houses in our counties. If the state society cannot support this work financially, the chapters should aid morally in every way to save these records for those who follow after.

Many letters have been received asking for assistance in completing lines, and it has been a pleasure in each instance to offer suggestions and give data when possible.

STATE EDITOR

Mrs. Sidney O. Smith

There is no doubt that there are fifty-two weeks in the year of a state editor's life. My report has been presented to you in this weekly form and thus you have already had an opportunity to be familiar with it. Whatever of arduousness there may have been to the office, however, has been more than compensated for in the state-wide vista I have had through it of our chapters and their work. Surely the life of a community is richer for having located in it an active D. A. R. chapter.

I would like to avail myself of this opportunity to publicly thank Mrs. Stafford and her associates for their continued courtesies in reference to the work.

STATE ASSISTANT EDITOR

Mrs. Logan Carson Rader

The duties of the assistant editor are just what the name implies: to assist the state editor whenever the services are needed.

It has been my privilege and pleasure to serve the Georgia Daughters and Mrs. Smith, state editor, from December 18 through February 19.

I wish to express my appreciation to all state officers, state chairmen, chapter regents and Publicity chairmen who co-operated so splendidly during that time, and to Mrs. Rix Stafford of the Constitution staff for her friendly co-operation and assistance, and to our state regent, Mrs. McCurry, and to Mrs. Smith, for their kind words of encouragement.

Editing the D. A. R. column brings one in very close touch with the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution over the state, and is both interesting and inspiring.

STATE CHAPLAIN

Mrs. Calvin Doster Shelnett

It has been the good fortune of the state chaplain to have an efficient and sympathetic state regent to guide her in the work of her office. At her suggestion, a ritual was prepared and a copy mailed to every chapter in the state and it has been generally used at the regular meetings.

Last May your state chaplain accepted an invitation to attend the unveiling of markers on the George Washington highway, and was on the program for the luncheon hour at Waynesboro, and also led in the flag salute and American Creed in Augusta.

Your chaplain was a guest of the Major General Samuel Elbert chapter in Tennille at their October meeting and made an address on the "Origin of the D. A. R." She has been the recipient of several lovely invitations which she has not been able to accept. She has written many letters of sympathy.

The state chaplain was in attendance at the annual Board meeting held in Marietta in November.

Since last we have assembled in state conference, 46 faithful members have been transferred to the Heavenly Roll. Tributes to the memory of these are on file with their chapters.

The eternal God is thy dwelling place and underneath are the everlasting arms."

COMMITTEE REPORTS

AMERICANISM

Mrs. Walker Jordan

There is but little opportunity for work among foreign born in Georgia. Two chapters aided at naturalization ceremonies in United States court when foreign born became citizens. A naturalized citizen's son was invited to address a chapter.

All chapters reporting (50) have aided in eradicating illiteracy by scholarships, loan funds, medals and prizes, by giving food, clothing, shoes, and textbooks for needy school children. Soup kitchens conducted and milk contributed for undernourished children. Co-operation with teachers, magazines and other literature contributed for school libraries.

Bi-centennial programs, pageants, organization of C. A. R. chapters and Boy Scout troops. One chapter awarded eleven S. A. R. Citizenship medals, giving one to each school in the county. Another chapter invited a S. A. R. to award the Citizenship medal at a public program when a United States Army officer made an address on Americanism. In many other ways patriotism has been stimulated.

A French World War officer died in a Georgia city without funds or friends. His body was about to be buried in a pauper's grave, but D. A. R. and other local patriotic organizations provided honorable burial for him in the city's cemetery.

A chapter boasts of a member now serving in the Georgia legislature. Another chapter subscribed to the D. A. R. magazine for Georgia's two Real Daughters, and another provided music lessons for a student.

This year all chapters reporting seem to have concentrated their efforts on aid for needy school children in their own locality.

Total cost, $12,783.74.

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE LIBRARY

Mrs. M. J. Guyton

Five hundred and thirty-one books, 106 copies of the National Geographic magazine, one year subscription to the magazine, and $5.00 were sent by the Georgia D. A. R. to the American Merchant Marine library at New Orleans. The association pays freight charges. You will note that freight is specified rather than express because the weight of the books make express charges excessive.

The particular need is for good recreational reading, fiction travel, biography, mystery, and western stories; also the National Geographic magazines. Do not send school books.

Surely many chapters have books to spare for the public library of the high seas. In our merchant marine or lightship service are men who would like to read them. American merchant ships on departure carry cases of well selected books. On arrival at distant ports these cases are exchanged by the agents of the American Merchant Marine library; frequently an exchange is made between ships in foreign ports. Thus through a well organized book service men on merchant ships have an opportunity to profitably spend their idle hours on long and tedious voyages. Books are also supplied to lighthouses and coast guard stations. Do not let your books stand idle on your shelves. Contribute to this part of the D. A. R. work by sending a book shower to J. H. Hutton, dispatch agent, American Merchant Marine library, Dock Board Tool house, Poydras street and River, New Orleans. Then notify the state chairman.

APPROVED SCHOOLS

Miss Sue Reid Vason

The approved schools, 17 in number, are performing a noble mission fostering the education of deserving boys and girls, sending them out better educated and equipped to be self-sustained, intelligent and stable citizens.

The work done by the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution is very gratifying to your chairman and as this new field increases and is made known I am sure much will be added.

A questionnaire was sent out applying to approved schools and 57 chapters responded; 37 reported chairmen; 4 gave magazine subscriptions; 9 chapters have discussed approved schools as a topic for chapter meetings, and two had encouraged teaching of the American Creed.

Prizes offered by D. A. R. chapters amounted to nearly $700.00 and scholarships to local schools to approximately $2,000.00.

I was delighted to have so many books sent to the two approved schools in which we are so interested: Kate Duncan Smith, and Tamassee, amounting to $100.00. Miscellaneous gifts, including clothes, books, and charity amounted to $230.00 for local pupils.

At the State Executive Board meeting various chapters voted two scholarships to be given in honor of our state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, at Tammassee and Kate Duncan Smith.

The total amount reported, included under the head of approved schools, is $3,117.00.

By helping to prepare these young people we are bettering citizenship. We of the D. A. R. revere and preserve the records of valiant deeds of our ancestors. Now we are lending our efforts to improve the citizenship of today and tomorrow.

ARMISTICE DAY

Mrs. W. J. Vereen

Extremely interesting reports have been received from the regents of the various D. A. R. chapters in regard to the observance of Armistice day.

Many of the chapters co-operated with the American Legion in their efforts to suitably commemorate this historical day. Other chapters had interesting programs in the schools.

Especial attention should be called to the splendid program put on in Swainsboro by the Governor David Emanuel chapter. Two government markers were unveiled to John Cooper and Mark Smith, two World War veterans.

The reports from the regents were very gratifying and I feel sure the impressive way in which Armistice was observed in the chapters will long be remembered.

BEAUTIFYING HIGHWAYS

Mrs. C. H. Leavy

I acknowledge with thanks the helpful suggestions made by the other members of my committee, which were incorporated in my two messages sent to all chapter regents: one in October, the other in January, and which were published in the Atlanta Constitution.

Two miles along the Jefferson Davis highway, near LaGrange, were planted in native trees and roses; number not given. Numbers of trees, such as crepe myrtles, dogwood, etc., otherwise reported, were 1,812; shrubs, 868; roses, 365.

Many chapters reported memorial trees planted honoring George Washington, Woodrow Wilson, and General James Edward Oglethorpe. The surroundings of numerous D. A. R. markers located on the highways have been beautified with handsome shrubbery and flowers, and crushed stone placed around memorial boulders. Cherokee roses and honeysuckle have been planted on cuts and shoulders of finished roads. One chapter reported planting Cherokee roses on banks of a street over-pass, and on the road to Fort Benning. Most chapters have co-operated with Garden clubs in the work, with elaborate plans for the spring.

Hundreds of oleanders have been planted by south Georgia chapters, and vines and Cherokee roses used on shoulders of completed paving. With the incentive of making the state more attractive for Georgia's bi-centennial celebration, chapters have accomplished wonderful results, using wherever possible native trees and shrubs in their plantings. Unsightly roadside fences have been covered with vines and roses, and even the grounds around court houses, schools and post offices have been included in the beautification work of chapters. Replacing dead trees and shrubs and keeping up the growing things along the roads, have occupied many chapters.

I gladly make acknowledgment to the courteous and helpful co-operation of the State Highway board, Hon. J. W. Barnett, chairman, in particular, who is in entire accord with our beautification plans and efforts, and who assures us further and more substantial co-operation at such time as state highway matters are finally adjusted.

With the active interest of every chapter in the state, and the co-operation of the State Highway board, many miles of finished highways have been made more beautiful and attractive, though the work seems slow and tedious. In closing, I bespeak for my committee the continued helpful interest of all chapters, to the end that Georgia's highways shall be second to none in careful planting, which means lasting beauty.

BETTER FILMS

Mrs. W. H. Hightower

During the past year, the work of the Better Films committee has been greatly handicapped by the delay in receiving the monthly Motion Picture Review. The idea of the joint pre-viewing committee is splendid. It eliminates much duplication of effort in women's organizations; but something must be done about getting this Review into the hands of our chapter chairmen more promptly. Nearly every report says, "The Reviews come too late to be of much practical use." However, the cultural influence of this Review, as presented in chapter meetings and in local papers is inestimable. Today it is as necessary to be familiar with current motion pictures as with plays and books and events, to be well informed.

As in the past, our best work is done in the smaller towns, where we find the theatre managers, newspapers, civic, patriotic and religious organizations, and the general public eager to co-operate with our committee. Here, the D. A. R. committee leads, and others follow. Quite frequently, the chapter chairman is called by the head of some other organization with the query: "Is anything good on your list coming soon? We want to sponsor a picture show;" and one little girl calls a chapter chairman regularly to ask: "Mother says may I go to the picture show today?"

In the larger towns our chapter chairmen serve on the City Better Films committees and do splendid work. Mrs. Selden, of Mary Hammond Washington chapter, Macon, has been in charge of the Saturday junior matinees for years, and her work is nationally recognized.

Of our ninety-six chapters in Georgia, eighty-five have regularly appointed Better Films chairmen. The other eleven regents serve in this capacity, and sixty-seven chapters have reported to the state chairman. This splendid organization is due largely to the fact that one of our state honor roll requirements is "Appoint chapter chairman for Better Films, and report to state chairman."

We wish to thank each chapter chairman and regent for the interest and enthusiasm shown in spite of difficulties. We are especially grateful to our national chairman for her personal attention to our problems, and we are sure, as Mrs. Browning said, "The best is yet to be."

BLANCHE McFARLAND GAFFNEY TROPHY

Mrs. T. D. Power

Reforestation at this time is national in its scope and President Roosevelt has most wisely met the need for such work by giving employment to thousands of jobless men and youths who are beautifying parks, preserving woodlands, reclaiming forests and restoring wasted lands.

Last evening as I listened to chapter reports of hundreds of slash pine trees which have been planted I realized what all of this would mean to the paper industry of Georgia and of how others and yet others would continue to plant these trees. The beautification of parks and highways in the planting of oak, elm, magnolia, bay, dogwood, red buds, bright harbingers of spring, the white ash, called "Grand-sire Graybeard" on account of its long white fringe-like flowers, crepe myrtle, oleanders, palms, and numberless bulbs, I visioned a transformed land of beauty, the very "waste places to blossom like a rose."

Another thought came to me also: that after doing so much fine work, why so many chapters competed for the coveted prize?

It was no arduous task to decide which chapter competing won the trophy. In this contest it is figures which count and it was Button Gwinnett chapter of Columbus which won—more than doubling the numbers of any others reporting.

Now, to Mrs. J. Morgan Murrah, vice-regent of Button Gwinnett, and my chapter also, I take great pleasure, for to me it brings joy also, to deliver to you the Blanche McFarland Gaffney trophy.

May it prove an incentive to your chapter throughout the year unto even higher attainments. With the love of her who offers it and the best wishes from the chairman, I herewith award to your chapter this beautiful trophy. I congratulate you most heartily.

BOOK PLATE FOR GEORGIA BOOKS IN LIBRARY AT CONSTITUTION HALL

Mrs. E. B. Freeman

One of the interesting and appropriate observances of Georgia's Bi-centennial anniversary is the placing of historic book plates in the Georgia books in the library at Constitution hall by the Georgia D. A. R. The state-wide approval and interest in this work is evidenced by the enthusiastic response of the Georgia chapters to the request for contributions, $120.35 being donated while only $81.00 was required, thus leaving a balance in the State D. A. R. treasury of $49.35.

The work of providing a book plate for the Georgia books was begun by Mrs. J. S. Adams during her term of office as state librarian. At this time Mrs. Adams planned the design which, with the addition of the motto and bi-centennial dates, is the design used. Ample funds have been raised, all business details attended to, and the work as a whole has been carried to a successful conclusion by the committee appointed by Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent, for that purpose.

The design for the book plate embodies many phases of early Georgia history. In the upper center appears an inset of a photograph of General James Edward Oglethorpe, the founder of this state; the shield of Oglethorpe is placed in the upper left and is balanced on the right by the great seal of the State of Georgia. On the left of the center inscription, "Ex Libris, D. A. R., Georgia," is placed an Indian figure representing the original inhabitants of our domain; on the right is a reproduction of the Statue of Liberty. The motto, "Amor patriae patrumque," carries the thought of love of country and of our forefathers. Intertwining these and blending them into an interesting whole is a delicate tracery of Georgia's state flower, the Cherokee rose. A few full blown cotton bolls, Georgia's staple crop, also appears in the embellishment of the sketch. The bi-centennial idea is expressed in the dates, 1733-1933.

The J. P. Stevens Engraving company of Atlanta was given the contract for making the book plates. The cost was $75.00 for the plates and $1.00 for each one hundred labels engraved in the original order. Five hundred labels have been sent to Mrs. Frank Madison Dick, librarian general, N. S. D. A. R., and will be placed in the Georgia books by the time Continental Congress convenes in April. In acknowledging the receipt of the book plates, Mrs. Dick wrote me as chairman of the committee: "I wish to express to you and to the Georgia D. A. R. my approval and admiration for the design and beautiful sentiment embodying many phases of Georgia history."

In addition to the five hundred labels sent to National D. A. R. headquarters, I have had a sufficient number made for every chapter in the state to have a copy so that every Georgia D. A. R. may be familiar with the appearance of her state book plate, for it is due to the interest, enthusiasm and generosity of the Georgia chapters that the Georgia book plate, for years a dream, has now become a reality.

COLLECTION AND PRESERVATION OF FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS

By Mrs. Eli A. Thomas

From the number of family Bible records received this year, it is quite evident that the supply is not yet exhausted. There must be some communities not yet touched; these should be searched for. The fine work of the Georgia State D. A. R. of collecting family Bible records for preservation must be continued until all of this valuable genealogical data has been secured and made a permanent record.

This collection contains the following: 226 family Bible records; 1,423 tombstone records; 103 wills; 95 marriage records; 55 baptism records; 3 copies of land grants; 1 deed, and a few family records.

The chapter sending in the largest number of family Bible records, and therefore the winner of the Bashinski silver vase for this year, is the Elijah Clarke chapter of Athens, which also made second place for the two preceding years. Its combined collection is exceptionally fine. Their collection for this year numbered 56 Bible records.

The next largest collection was sent by the Hannah Clarke chapter of Quitman—37 Bible records.

The Bainbridge chapter made third place again with 25 Bible records.

The Elijah Clarke chapter sent 56 family Bible records, as follows:

CONSTITUTION AND MAGNA CHARTA DAY

Mrs. E. C. McDowell

On June 15, 1215, seven hundred and seventeen years ago, occurred the greatest red letter day of human events. It was on that day that King John of England signed the Magna Charta at the historic conference of Runnymede, at the request of the barons who sought relief from royal oppression. Magna Charta came in time to be called and is called today the keystone and liberties of English liberties. As some one has said, it may not have laid down any new principles, but the signing by the unwilling John marks the dividing line between the age of traditional rights and the age of written charter of liberties. It was the true forerunner of the parliament and statutes that came after. It reduced all principles to writings and gave them a vitality and force they did not have before.

Our American forefathers invoked its deathless basic principles when they declared their independence and again when they reared a state on the firm rock of the American Constitution. Human liberty as it is conceived today, and particularly as it is conceived by the Anglo-Saxon race, reverts back to the compact of Runnymede as its source. It is liberty of consciences and liberty of life, civil and religious freedom. Since that distant day it has a nobler spiritual content than it had then, so much nobler that it is fitting that Magna Charta day should be celebrated the third Sunday in June, as hundreds of churches have done.

We may celebrate Magna Charta day Sunday with the same high purpose that moves us when we commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It will not be doing too great an honor to the day to set our flags afloat and to reconsecrate ourselves to the ideals of Magna Charta and to those that have grown out of it through years of travail, suffering and sacrifice.

The document of the Magna Charta is being more and more studied. It seems to develop a greater sense of unity of thought and purpose of the seven nations and of the responsibility for the peace of the world, and by the means of the Magna Charta Study clubs to encourage for the origin and development of our liberties, civil and religious. It strengthens our sense of nationalism by having our children know the difference.

CONSERVATION AND THRIFT

Mrs. Frank A. Dennis

The necessity for practicing personal conservation and thrift has in many instances resulted in squandering natural resources. I am happy to say that the Georgia Society Daughter of the American Revolution have in the past year seen a greater opportunity and patriotically served more nobly in conserving natural resources and in a new phase of work, that of aiding human welfare. Never has the call been more urgent nor the response so gratifying.

Early in the year your chairman sent cards asking each regent to appoint a chapter chairman and make definite plans for the work. Twenty-seven chapters reported chairman and definitely organized activity.

In December each chapter was asked to give personally and through the local press, ask for protection of native plants at the Christmas season. The state press and two farm journals also cooperated by carrying editorials.

A report made out by our national chairman was mimeographed and mailed February 1 to all chapters.

The Georgia Society report sent to national chairman was as follows: Trees planted, 36,162; trees treated, 104; seeds sent to three schools, amounting to $11.00; 1,268 shrubs planted; 3,902 hours (plus) spent in Red Cross and other welfare work; $394,300.00 spent in conservation.

To this is a supplemental report of $1,170.00 which came too late to be added to the report for the national chairman.

Outstanding work was done by the John Benson chapter, Commodore Richard Dale chapter, Governor John Milledge chapter, and Elijah Clarke chapter, and a large sum of cash was reported by John Benning chapter.

Particularly interesting is the work done toward reclaiming a polluted stream by the John Clarke chapter in Social Circle, and restocking of streams with fish, sponsored by the Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens.

All chapters reported individual members participating in some form of welfare work.

Your chairman wishes to impress upon all chapters and all individual Daughters the importance of concentrating our efforts upon work for Constitution hall during the coming year. Our national president, Mrs. Magna, and our state regent, Mrs. McCurry, feel that the reduction of the debt upon Constitution hall is of vital importance at the present time. To this end, we are urged to put forth our best efforts.

At our annual state conference, we adopted the "penny-a-day" plan, which is our national president's idea for raising funds for this important project. According to this plan, it is suggested that each member of the D. A. R. contribute a penny a day (or $3.65 for the year) to Constitution hall. This may be done by individual contribution, by mite box savings, or by the combined efforts of the chapter members. It is especially urged that November 15, which is Mrs. Magna's birthday, be dedicated to Constitution hall. A benefit party, a silver tea, or some form of entertainment by which money may be raised should be given by each chapter on this day. This is being done not only in Georgia, but in every state of the Union, and in every country where a D. A. R. chapter is located. On the evening of that day, Mrs. Magna will broadcast a message to the Daughters. It should be a day of inspiration, of joyful work, and of satisfaction that is always the result of accomplishment.

Georgia has always done her part in every line of duty. She must not fail now.

Your chairman is at your service if she can be of any help. Please feel free to call upon her for suggestions or for assistance of any kind.

CO-OPERATION BETWEEN D. A. R. AND S. A. R.

Mrs. B. A. Tyler

Your chairman is glad to report that quite a gratifying number of chapters have given aid to this important branch of the work, though many of them did not report these activities in time to be reported at the conference. There may be others not yet heard from but those will be reported next year.

Governor John Milledge chapter has given six medals in the local high school and four more are given in Dalton by the local chapter of the Service Star Legion at the urgence of the D. A. R. chapter. Elijah Clarke gives two of the medals in the Junior High school in Athens. Hawkinsville chapter gives two medals in the senior class of the high school in that city, as they have for several years. David Emanuel chapter is giving ten medals in local schools. Baron DeKalb is again offering five medals; Henry Walton of Madison, two, and Nancy Hart of Milledgeville, one. Governor Peter Early chapter of Blakely is offering one medal, and Hannah Clark chapter, Quitman, gave six medals.

In addition to these medals, number thirty-nine, several chapters have assisted in preparing papers for the S. A. R. and the Dorothy Walton chapter reports preparing a paper for an S. A. R. member living in South Carolina.

Your chairman sent out no letter this year, merely preparing the letter which appeared in the Constitution early in the fall, so that she is particularly pleased with the generous response of the chapters to this printed plea. These S. A. R. medals do an incalculable amount of good wherever given and we urge you to consider the giving of two or more next year, either in your high school or in a mill school, if there is one in your community. They cost just one dollar and you will find there is no feature of your work that does more good or brings your chapter better before the public in a way to futher forward the best interest of the organization.

CO-OPERATIVE RELATIONS BETWEEN D. A. R. AND C. A. R.

Mrs. Young Harris Yarbrough

Early in the year I wrote to each of the ninety-six regents in Georgia asking that they devote one meeting during the year to our C. A. R. work. To those not sponsoring C. A. R. societies, I asked for the appointment of one of their members to act as organizing president, her name to be sent to me as state director of the Children of the American Revolution in Georgia, to be confirmed by the National Board of Management in Washington.

I gave the necessary added information for the formation of a C. A. R. society, namely, that:

At least six children, girls and boys under twenty-one years of age, lineal descendants of Revolutionary ancestors are required for a society to be formed.

Entrance fee is $1.00 and annual dues are $1.00. Each society has its junior officers, supervised by the senior president.

Societies should be named for persons, places or events associated with the early history of our country.

Through the organization of societies of the Children of the American Revolution there is an opportunity of great service for the fine women of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Nine chapters have organized and are sponsoring societies of the Children of the American Revolution, as follows:

Atlanta chapter, in Atlanta, is sponsoring the Dolly Madison society; Joseph Habersham chapter, in Atlanta, the Lady Elizabeth Oglethorpe society; Baron DeKalb chapter, in Decatur, the Robert Sallette society. This society entertained the mother chapter with a pageant and colonial tea. LaGrange chapter, in LaGrange, is sponsoring the LaGrange society; Mary Hammond Washington chapter, in Macon, the Benjamin Hawkins society; Henry Walton chapter, in Madison, the Benjamin Fitzpatrick society; Nancy Hart chapter, in Milledgeville, the Sukey Hart society. This chapter gave $5.00 to this society for their charter. Savannah chapter, in Savannah, is sponsoring the Colonel Henry Lee society; Jonathan Bryan chapter, in Wayross, the Winona society. Elijah Clarke chapter, in Athens, will soon complete the organization of the Count D'Estaing society.

Other chapters showing interest are: Augusta, Hawkinsville, Etowah, Lamar-LaFayette, Sergeant Newton, John Benson, and Nathaniel Macon.

COUNTY HISTORIES

Mrs. Alfred Noel Murray

It has been a privilege to serve you, and an opportunity to learn.

Sixty-seven chapters have responded with gratifying reports.

Fourteen chapters report their county histories published.

Nineteen chapters report theirs ready for the printers.

Thirty-four chapters are collecting mateial and hope to finish at some future date.

A few chapters have the entire credit for the work, and other chapters are assisting in many ways.

If you have not sent a typed copy to Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, please do so at once.

The work must go on for it is too important to abandon. I cannot offer any definite plans, for each county and chapter has its own problem.

The mountain climber does not attempt to reach the highest peak in his first effort—the people who keep the world moving in the right direction are pluggers; consistent, persistent, polite plugging will win.

If I had the means I would paint on every milepost along the highway these two words, "GoOn."

In the words of Edmund Burke: "He only deserves to be remembered by posterity who treasures up and preserves the history of his ancestors.

D. A. R. FOREST PARK

Mrs. T. O. Tabor

It has been a pleasure to serve as chairman of the Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park, which is a memorial to Nancy Hart.

This year being the 200th anniversary of the founding of Georgia, all of our loyal citizens are celebrating Georgia's bi-centennial by studying the lives of the heroes and heroines of our great state. There is no greater heroine of the Revolutionary War to be found anywhere than the famous and well-known Nancy Hart of Elbert county, Georgia. Therefore, the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution are proud to own and maintain this D. A. R. Forest Park as a memorial to this noted woman.

This Forest Park is located in Elbert county, twelve miles below Elberton, at the place where Nancy Hart lived and served her country during the Revolutionary War. Many improvements have been made on the Forest Park. Underbrush has been cleared and the road that circles through the grounds has been top soiled. A log cabin similar to Nancy Hart's, is now under construction. I have conferred with the State Forestry department and the State College of Agriculture in regard to beautifying and landscaping, and plans for that work will be made at an early date.

The committee wishes to express their appreciation to all the chapters making contributions to the Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park; $194.80 was contributed.

D. A. R. MAGAZINE

Mrs. Ober D. Warthen

"Accurate knowledge is the basis of correct opinions; the want of it makes the opinions of most people of little value." This statement was made by C. Simmons and alas, is true.

Every D. A. R. wants her opinion on matters pertaining to D. A. R. work to be respected and to be assured of that fact she must have accurate knowledge. The D. A. R. magazine is published for this purpose. It contains "accurate knowledge" of every department of the work, of all the meetings and business transacted by our great national society. It contains records of work done by local chapters and state conferences and every record is a challenge to every other state and local group.

It contains "accurate knowledge" of priceless genealogical data and articles of historic value very useful for information to be used in preparing papers. The policies of the leaders of our beloved organization are found between the covers of this magazine.

The number of subscribers in Georgia has decreased 31 since October 1, 1932. Your chairman, since last September, has sent three direct, personal messages to each of the 96 regents and had one published on the club page. In spite of these urgent appeals Georgia had only 174 subscriptions on March 1—less than an average of two per chapter.

Of the 50 chapters reporting to me—and I want to thank each of them most heartily—Oglethorpe chapter, in Columbus, has sent in the most NEW subscriptions this year and will be awarded the Mrs. John A. Perdue loving cup. Our hostess chapter, the Atlanta, was second. It is hoped that next year there will be keen competition for this beautiful award.

ELLIS ISLAND

Mrs. C. A. Rudolph

The work done at Ellis Island is an important item in the great endeavor of the Daughters of the American Revolution to make our citizens loyal and patriotic.

I have considered it an honor to serve as state chairman of Ellis Island during the past year. Letters were mailed to all chapter regents in the state with the request that boxes be sent in addition to the three cents per capita assessment. My report would be more gratifying had I received replies from all the chapters. Reports received show that 36 chapters have paid $71.63 as their quota and 18 boxes of materials valued at $95.10, have been sent during the year.

EDUCATIONAL FUNDS FOR LOCAL SCHOOL

Mrs. John T. Dorsey

The one thing most vital to the youth of our land, whose opportunity of an education has been taken away on account of conditions, is to render aid in their tuition and other educational expenses. If ever there was a time when our boys and girls need the help of this department, it is now.

The chapters making donations to this cause are performing an invaluable service in their assistance to our youth.

Chapters and donations—

Atlanta, $687.00; Augusta, $25.00; Nathan Abney, $295.00; Brunswick, $500.00; John Benning, $500.00; John Benson, $250.00; Col. Wm. FILING AND LENDING HISTORICAL PAPERS AND PATRIOTIC LECTURES AND LANTERN SLIDES

Mrs. J. L. Beeson

When your chairman read the papers on Georgia history which have been received during the bi-centennial year of our state's birth, she was tempted to exclaim with the rhymster:

"O Georgia,
When I think of thee
There seems to be
A toy balloon
Inside of me.
The thought to me
Is just so sweet
The balloon lifts
Me off my feet."

The 32 papers received, present a panorama of the history of our state.

Those that came too late for this year's catalogue will be sent for next year's list.

The rules have been changed and the chapters are asked to read them with care. They are.

1. All papers must pass through the hands of the state chairman.
2. Papers must be plainly and neatly typed on one side of the paper only. Remember to leave 1½-inch margin at the top of each page.
3. Use white, medium-weight paper, 8x11½ inches.
4. Fasten at the top of the paper. Do not tie or put covers on new papers; it increases postage charges, and all papers are booked when filed.
5. At the top of the first page of each paper, give the name of the writer, chapter and state, and date of writing.
6. We request two copies of each paper—the original and one carbon.
7. Do not send genealogical papers; they belong to another division.
8. Pictures and programs are not accepted. The space is limited.

For borrowing there is a flat rate of 25 cents per paper, which paper must be returned within 30 days, or an extra charge will be made.

The papers may be lent to D. A. R. only.

The following chapters have sent historical papers. They and the titles of the papers are as follows:

BAINBRIDGE CHAPTER

1. The Swiss and Moravian Emigrants and Their Settlement on the Ogeechee River, by Miss Mildred Thomas.
2. The Government of Georgia and the State Seal, by Mrs. Gordon Chason.
3. Georgia as a Part of Florida, by Miss Susie M. Trulock.
4. The Coming of the Salzburghers, by Mrs. L. O. Hooper.

BARNARD TRAIL CHAPTER

1. The Story of the Salzburghers, by Mrs. Rowena Ford.

FLAG DAY

Mrs. Frank Kidd

The Georgia D. A. R. chapters responded beautifully in their programs for the observance of flag day, June 14.

As your state chairman, I had an article published on official page of The Atlanta Constitution. In this communication I urged that Flag day be impressed on chapters as of unusual importance. Reply post cards were sent to the 96 chapters of Georgia asking that Flag day be fittingly observed; 58 chapters responded promptly.

Many chapters reported Boy Scout schools, and other civic organizations, taking part in these exercises. Some reported splendid papers, given at chapter meetings, special talks on correct use of flag, etc. Many reported programs planned for observance of June, 1933.

It is gratifying to note from reports that more children are taking part in these exercises, and we hope the number will be increased in 1934.

FORESTRY

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney

Naturally, my assigned duties fall under the head of conservation and thrift. With such a capable chairman of that work, as I have found Mrs. Frank Dennis to be, and the delightful association of my "running mate," Mrs. T. O. Tabor, chairman for D. A. R. park, my task has been delightful indeed.

In view of the extraordinary economic condition prevailing over the country, we hesitated about the completion of plans to plant and beautify our park.

It is a desire of your three chairmen concerned, that we have some definite planting to greet you upon your visit there next November, but we have decided to postpone this first venture until the early fall.

We also realize this active undertaking is twofold in its developmental progress. Wisdom in planting, and provision for adequate care.

We desire a plan worked out where each chapter may find proper setting for every individual member, by planting and cultivating it with cumulative force of a whole life's endeavor, not by the adopted talent of another.

"That which each can do best none but his Maker can teach him." Learn to do that which expresses nobility of self, and you gain triumph and self esteem.

I am giving you a concrete project that has reached me through Mrs. Kirk of Atlanta. She suggested that we write the Davey Tree Expert company regarding the restoration of one of our Georgia trees. After taking the matter up with proper authorities, I am able to report that this company will be glad to treat and restore to health two ancient oaks of colonial Georgia: one the Oglethorpe oak at Darien, and the Wesley oak, at Savannah. We will get in line and have them reach us at the proper times on their list of D. A. R. trees. Letters regarding this work will be filed, and the work completed as early as possible.

In conclusion, I shall say that the reports sent me covering the chapter activities on Forestry, have been given over to the committee judging the winner of the Blanche McFarland Gaffney trophy, and from the chairman of this committee you will hear the conclusion.

And now a word of greeting to our president general, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Magna, you have made us very happy by coming to us for this occasion. Georgia Daughters appreciate you, love you. Your office of high honor, carries with it great responsibility, and while inspiration and guidance belong to you, the battles must be fought by the comrades in ranks.

Comparison to a manifold puzzle may be made. The act of placing each design in its correct position, is the work of your chapter members, and until every part has found its proper relation and claimed its space, the pattern will remain unfinished.

When you display this designment, at our National Congress, may you be able to show the puzzle as a finished task, with the coloring and beauty of a majestic mosaic.

GEORGIA D. A. R. STUDENT LOAN FUND

Mrs. Howard McCall

It is indeed gratifying to your state chairman to report that Georgia was the first state in the National society to establish a State D. A. R. Loan fund. Your national chairman, Mrs. Walter C. Tobey, confirms this statement, writing that Missouri started the second state fund in 1920. As state regent, your chairman brought the recommendation, endorsed by the State Executive board, in November, 1916, to the state conference, held in Quitman, February 1917, "That a State D. A. R. Loan fund be established." This recommendation was passed unanimously.

The name of this fund was changed to the Student Loan fund when the National society decided, in 1923, to include in their work a Student Loan Fund committee. The name was again changed in 1932 to the May Erwin Talmadge Scholarship fund.

The first donation to this fund was made in 1917 by Mrs. W. C. Voreen in behalf of the John Benning chapter, Moultrie, and the first loan, $150.00, was made to a girl to attend the University of Georgia, the year the University was made co-educational.

Today the student loan work is going steadily forward, and has, through its different branches, become a permanent power in an educational way in Georgia. Sixteen years of experience have only served to strengthen the hope and faith in this splendid work.

The total amount is as follows:

May Erwin Talmadge Scholarship fund	$ 5,499.64
World War Memorial fund	7,555.75
Valdosta Loan fund	5,633.85
Fannie Trammell Memorial fund	5,108.10
Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan Memorial fund	209.10
Total	$24,006.44

The last named was established in 1932 in memory of Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, a charter member of the National society, state regent, and vice-president general from Georgia.

Many of the chapters have local student loan funds; only three reported to your chairman: Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, $1,015.38; Brunswick chapter, Brunswick, $500.00; Governor David Emanuel chapter, Emanuel county, $200.00. (This fund is the Marian Sibley Wylie Student Loan fund, named in honor of the former state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie).

Of this report we are justly proud. Much has been accomplished and the chapters are all interested in the student loan work.

A detailed report will be given by the chairmen of the five committees and will follow this report.

WORLD WAR MEMORIAL LOAN FUND, UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Mrs. Julius T. Dudley

Bonds	$5,500.00
Income (per year)	248.75
Student notes	1,567.00
Total	$7,315.75

Two students are on this fund this year for $120.00 each which will increase the student notes to $1,807.00. This report was secured from the registrar of the University of Georgia on October 31, 1932.

MAY ERWIN TALMADGE SCHOLARSHIP

Mrs. Barnett Solomon

Twenty-three students (twenty girls and three boys) are now using loans amounting to	$3,910.00
Amount in First National bank, Blakely, Ga.....	589.64
Atlanta Laundries bond	1,000.00
	$5,499.64

Five students have used this fund, repaying fully.

Five loans made prior to 1930 are due and are being repaid.

Eighteen students borrowing since 1930 will be out of school this year and next and repayments should begin to come regularly next year.

This branch of the D. A. R. work offers our organization an opportunity for active patriotism. To better prepare twenty-eight citizens of our state is no small service, and one of which we can be justly proud.

VALDOSTA LOAN FUND

Mrs. Di Ingram

Since last conference this fund has been besieged with applications for loans, but due to poor collections only eleven girls are in college this year on this fund. It is not the fault of the girls, as general conditions have made the payments poor. Circumstances that they can not control, such as: failure to find schools or other employment, failure to receive salary from state when teaching, and reduction in salaries and length of school terms. This, of course, is going to cut extremely the number to be helped next year.

It is always the request from these young women that I convey their message of great appreciation and gratitude to the Daughters of the American Revolution, both for the loan and the possibility of realizing their hearts' desire, an education.

The fund now stands:

Balance on hand March, 1932	$5,558.78
Balance on hand March, 1933	5,633.85

This includes all money now loaned to students and the increase in balance from interest over last year of $75.07.

FANNIE TRAMMELL MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

Mrs. H. L. Jarvis, Chairman; Mrs. W. E. Mann, Co-Chairman

Although our collections have not been so good the past year, we have been able to assist more students with smaller loans, and we have thirty-seven on our books against thirty-two last year.

The following is our report for 1932:

Balance on hand, 1932	$ 125.85
Money repaid and interest	670.56
	$ 796.41
Nine loans to students, 1932, and tax	$ 710.20
Balance in bank	86.21
	$ 796.41
The Fannie Trammell Memorial Loan fund, 1932	$5,086.52
Interest in 1932, less 20 cents tax	21.86
	$5,108.38
Total outstanding loans to 37 students	$5,022.17
Balance in bank	86.21

SARAH BERRIEN CASEY MORGAN MEMORIAL FUND

Mrs. J. Thomas Wood

Memory is a marvelous gift, the treasure house where all the goodness and happiness we have ever known is safely stored, never to be tarnished or faded or lost. From this treasure house we brought the memory of Mrs. Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan, who was state regent of the Georgia D. A. R., vice-president general National society, and charter member of the National society. Her interest in D. A. R. work never diminished even in her declining years.

The thirty-fourth conference adopted a resolution to establish a loan fund in honor of Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, the funds to be used in the educational work of the D. A. R. In view of monetary conditions this year the chapters have contributed very well, but I am hoping to have a better report next year. No money has been loaned from this fund so far; the total amount received from fifty-three chapters is $239.90.

GEORGIA ROOM IN ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mrs. John D. Pope, Chairman; Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Co-Chairman

The Georgia room being the main office in the Administration building, is furnished according to requirements.

The last request coming from the head clerk was for a desk chair and cushion. In October the Executive board voted to purchase chair and cushion at the cost of $26.00.

I wish very much that the D. A. R., while in Washington, would visit the Georgia room and see for themselves how satisfactorily the room is furnished.

HELEN ROGERS FRANKLIN TROPHY

Mrs. Jena C. Collier

It has been an inspiration to read the varied activities of the competing chapters, twenty-three in number, the high goals set and the fine work accomplished.

On February 6, I wrote 96 cards to chapter regents, setting forth the requirements for eligibility in competing for the Helen Rogers Franklin trophy which is offered for general excellence and asking for their reports. Two typed notices were also sent to our assistant state editor, Mrs. L. C. Rader. The response was prompt.

The members on my committee were later invited to a luncheon at my home, then to painstakingly and conscientiously examine all chapter reports and judge their respective merits. All were good showing and an earnest desire to further the aims and ideals of our beloved society.

A vote by ballot was taken in order to give each one a free expression of their choice. As two members were unable to attend I mailed the two outstanding reports to them.

May I now thank the members on my committee for their splendid co-operation and help in reaching a decision after long debating.

It is my privilege to announce for my committee that the trophy goes this year to the Governor David Emanuel chapter of Swainsboro, with the Elijah Clarke chapter of Athens a close second. Also, honorable mention goes to the John Benson chapter of Hartwell.

HISTORICAL PROGRAMS

Mrs. Max E. Land

During the past summer historical programs were arranged by your chairman and mailed to each chapter in the state. The response to these programs was gratifying as a majority of the chapters reported that they had used the state programs as a whole or in part as best suited their needs.

Your chairman wishes here to acknowledge, with grateful appreciation, the many letters and well-arranged year books sent to her desk by chapters. Also she wishes to express her regret that it was necessary to formulate the programs before her committee was named, as many chapters requested the programs early in the summer that their year books might be made up before members left on their vacations. Thus your chairman was deprived of the valuable assistance of her splendid committee members.

Mrs. C. E. Pittman

The following chapters contributed post cards this year:

Daniel Morgan, Virginia Lutheran church, Winchester, Va., built 1764; home of Mrs. Bettie Dandridge, daughter of President Zachary Taylor, Virginia; Tillman's toll gate and Sheridan's headquarters, Winchester, Va.

Jackson chapter, six post cards. Three of Indian Springs, three of church and graveyard of first permanent settlement in Virginia, May 13, 1607.

Two post cards sent by state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry. Landing of the maidens at Jamestown in 1619. (One hundred and twenty pounds to be paid by each man for the maiden of his choice); $80.00 in our money. One of Meditation rock, Frederickburg, Va., Mary Washington's favorite spot for reading her Bible.

One unfinished scrap book turned over to me by Mrs. Logan. This is of general historic interest. Will finish this for Rhodes Memorial hall.

I am planning to make a Georgia scrap book this year in commemoration of the Georgia bi-centennial. I wish the chapters to send me as many post cards portraying Georgia's early history as they can get for this scrap book.

IMMIGRANT'S MANUAL

Mrs. R. M. McMaster

Patriotic education is one important division of our work, and we feel that it is the duty of each D. A. R. to carry it on intensively. Classed under this department is the committee on manuals for immigrants, which has as it's duty the distribution of the manual of the United States.

The expense of printing the manual is taken care of by the ten cents per capita tax voted each year by our representatives at Congress. It is extremely important that each State pay it's quota in full, and pay it as early as possible, so that the distribution will not be delayed.

To many D. A. R. members the manual is only a name. Make it real by using it. A single copy costs twenty cents. If bought in quantities it is much cheaper. The contents will be a revelation to many of our members. Every daughter should own a copy. It gives a brief history of the beginning of the United States, the Constitution, history of the flag, and it's correct uses. There are many other topics featured in the manual and you are urged to make a study of it. Each chapter chairman should be given a chance to present the subject of the manual before her chapter and see that each member owns one.

Orders for free copies should be sent to the corresponding secretary general, Memorial Continental hall, Washington, D. C., stating the purpose for which they are desired and the proposed method of distribution. Orders for copies to be purchased should be sent with money to the treasurer general. All chapters are requested to send all orders through the state chairman unless otherwise directed by her. The manual may be obtained in seventeen languages; namely: English, Armenian, Bohemian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Japanese, Lithuanian, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Swedish, and Yiddish.

A charge will be made for all languages as follows: Single copies, 20 cents each; in lots of 25 or more, 15 cents each; in lots of 50 or more, 12 cents each; in lots of 100 or more, 10 cents each.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mrs. James S. Wood

Independence day was celebrated by a goodly number of Georgia chapters, Daughters of the American Revolution. In spite of the many distractions of the present time, to have so many members join in the observance of the old custom of celebrating July 4, shows that the descendants of the early patriots yet are enthused with the spirit that made the day possible.

With best wishes for the continued success of the state regent and the many excellent chapters in the state, I close this short report.

LaFAYETTE DAY

Mrs. Tom Lee

May 26, 1932, our state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, did me the honor of asking me to serve as state chairman of LaFayette day. I replied accepting the office. Then the suggestion was made that the chapters be notified in August so that this observance could be included at the first fall meeting. Accordingly, I prepared and sent the following card to the 97 chapters in the state on August 10:

Dear Madam Regent:

As September 6 is the natal day of LaFayette, I am suggesting, that at the meeting your chapter holds nearest this date, you include appropriate observance of this on your Historic program. After the meeting please notify me, that I may make my report.

In response to these cards I have received 40 replies, reporting various and interesting observance of the day. The three Columbus chapters as their gesture of remembrance, placed a wreath on the tablet erected in honor of General LaFayette at Fort Benning. The other chapters observing the day had on their program outstanding events in the life of General LaFayette, and recalled the historic occasions in which he played a prominent part.

LEGISLATION

Mrs. Charles Akerman

We have before the legislature a bill to designate the highway between Savannah and Augusta as the George Washington highway, this being the route over which he journeyed while on this particular visit to Georgia. The bill is being presented at the suggestion of Mrs. Travis of Savannah. Mr. John J. Jones, representative from Burke county, is promoting it for us.

Many night letters sent out recently to the chapter regents asking them to protest to their respective legislators the removal of the Historical and Genealogical department in Rhodes' Memorial back to the Secretary of State's office. The expense of these letters was borne by Mrs. Peteet, and were signed by your state regent after conference with your state chairman of Legislation.

The following resolutions have been presented to your Resolution committee:

Resolution protesting any form of additional sales tax on necessities.

Resolution opposing American recognition of Russia.

Resolution urging appropriation for adequate army and navy building and equipment.

The legislative council, of which the D. A. R. is an exponent, laid plans prior to the proposed ten-day meeting of the general assembly in the belief that the assembly would adjourn at the expiration of this time, and in this way give time to the study of proposed legislation—take the measures in which each organization was interested before state boards, conventions, etc. In this way an opportunity for intelligent work and an opportunity to educate public opinion to support progressive legislation would have been afforded. However, it was decided to go directly into a sixty-day session. This council then voted to prepare no calendars, realizing all efforts should be centered on emergency legislation. No dues were to be collected this year. To continue the weekly meetings of the council with the view to lending themselves to whatever might seem advisable within their province.

LUCY COOK PEEL MEMORIAL

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

Because of general financial difficulties, this has been a trying year on the Lucy Cook Peel Memorial committee—however, we have striven earnestly to meet the needs of these strenuous days. The recorded activities reveal that much has been accomplished, considering conditions and we can but hope for a more encouraging report in favorable times. Public and state libraries that have been our regular patrons have had their appropriations so heavily cut that many librarians have been unable to purchase books. The publication of Volumn IV, Historical Collection of the Georgia Chapters, U. S. D. A. R., incurred a debt on which we hope to complete payments this year.

We have paid insurance on three sets of books. There are a few editions of Volume I left, which are not insured. The interest in our historical records, seem to extend to remote parts, as books have been sent to China, Los Angeles, California, and Boston, Mass.

Twenty-seven books have been sold to state and public libraries.

Paid Nov 13, 1932	$100.00
Paid Feb., 1933	200.00

Total paid	$300.00
Balance due Stein Bros.	$335.00

I wish to thank the chapters who have paid their quota to Lucy Cook Peel fund and who have purchased books during the past year and urge the daughters throughout the state to increase and stimulate interest in the work of this committee and the sale of these valuable historical Georgia records.

MARKING OLD TRAILS

Madam State Regent:

The ten dollars given by Miss Virginia Hardin, chairman, was won this year by the Brunswick chapter for marking the Old Post road between Brunswick and Waycross. This is one of the oldest trails in the state. The marker was unveiled by two descendants of Revolutionary soldiers, each being over 90 years of age. Other trails have been marked and reported through another committee. Thanking those who have served with me, I am, gratefully your state chairman, Virginia C. Hardin.

MARKING REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS' GRAVES

Mrs. Albert Tidwell

Georgia has been most diligent in marking the resting places of our Revolutionary dead, and the chapters over the state have been prompt in answering my card of inquiry sent to every regent in January. Many chapters write that they are now locating such graves and will have something definite during the next few months. Many have no soldier's graves within their reach. I submit the following report:

Athens—Elijah CClarke chapter: Graves of eight Revolutionary soldiers located: William Ash, John Barnett, David Elder, James Moore, Benjamin Haygood, John Newton, Reuben Ransome, James Luckie. Markers secured for the following graves: John Barnett, Antoine Poullaird, (grave located 1932), Jacob Braselton, (grave located 1931). Markers have been ordered for the following: Benjamin Haygood, Reuben Ransome. Graves of five daughters of Revolutionary soldiers located.

Atlanta—Atlanta chapter: Daniel Clower and Benjamin Brown.

Augusta—Augusta chapter: Marker ordered for grave of Major James Carter.

Barnesville—Lamar-LaFayette chapter—Marker ordered for grave of Austin Dabocey (colored).

Dublin—John Laurens chapter: Markers ordered for graves of Amos Love and Eli Warren.

Elberton—Stephen Heard chapter: Graves of two Revolutionary soldiers located and four government markers placed.

Gainesville—Col. William Candler chapter: Ordered government markers for two Revolutionary soldiers' graves.

Hartwell—John Benson chapter: Augus McCurry, David Carter, and Moses Haynes.

Jackson—William McIntosh chapter: Five Revolutionary soldiers' graves marked in Butts county, fifteen Revolutionary soldiers' graves unknown.

Lumpkin—Roanoke chapter: Government marker on grave of Jacob Green.

Milledgeville—Nancy Hart chapter: Five graves of Revolutionary soldiers located and marked: Patrick Carr, Thomas Peter Carnes, John Maxwell, John Shields, and John Simmons.

Stillmore—Adam Brinson chapter: Phoebe Dillard Durden, daughter Revolutionary soldier, and Wilson Drew.

Swainsboro—Gov. David Emanuel chapter: David Edenfeld and Joseph Sumner. Graves of three "real daughters" located.

MEADOW GARDEN

Mrs. Sanford Gardner

Meadow Garden has felt the depression like everything else.

Our large tourist hotels have been empty, so our income derived from this source, has been materially curtailed, but with economy and good management, we have been enabled to keep the house in the usual good repair, and the well kept hedges are admired by everyone. We have flowers blooming in every month of the year.

In February, I sent out post cards to 95 chapters in the state asking for contributions; 15 chapters responded, giving $20.00.

Meadow garden is an asset to the state, as it belongs to the National society. Every chapter in the state should be interested in the upkeep of this repository for antique relics, it means the history of Georgia.

So much obliged for the interest you have shown by your contributions.

We had a visitor to Meadow garden not long since from Oklahoma City; he asked for a piece of the original wood of which this old home was built. In explanation, he said, he was making an official seal for the Oklahoma state, each star to be made from historic wood coming and representing a state in the Union. We were glad to gratify his wish, and so Georgia is represented by a star made from wood obtained from the home of George Walton, one of the signers from Georgia.

MEDALS AND PRIZES

Mrs. Leonard Wallace

The custom of awarding medals and prizes by the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution continues to be of great benefit to the school children of the state, in that it encourages them to do better work, especially in history, home economics and citizenship. This year 57 chapters have given prizes valued at $714.21.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS

Mrs. W. H. Flanders

My plan for anti-tuberculosis work in our D. A. R. chapters throughout the state was three-fold: first, the holding of clinics with help from the State Health department to ascertain the active cases; second, the raising of funds for our fight against tuberculosis by the sponsoring of Christmas T. B. seal sales; third, the proper expenditure of funds raised.

Ninety chapters have actively co-operated with my program, changing it where necessary to meet the needs of their respective communities.

There is no greater work than service for our fellowman less fortunate than ourselves. May another year find our Georgia daughters contributing to this great work one hundred per cent.

NATIONAL DEFENSE EMBODYING PATRIOTIC EDUCATION

Mrs. Bun Wylie

Historians tell us that one of the chief causes of the American Revolution was taxation without representation. The right of self government was bought with the blood of our forefathers and guaranteed to their posterity by the constitution of the United States. Be prepared to resist both open and subtle war upon our forms of government, our institutions, and all we hold dear. Today new and false doctrines and many isms abound. The skeptic, cynic, and atheist surround us. Lawlessness and crime are rampant. These destructive forces are working today throughout the land to undermine our country. What can be done? Education is the answer! Education in the principles of American citizenship, American ideals, government homes and an abiding faith in God! With this end in view the D. A. R. and S. A. R. have put on a series of patriotic education lectures on the radio, WSB, Atlanta, pertaining to our government, in every phase of its existence, from the beginning to the present time. These lectures were given by many prominent D. A. R. and S. A. R. in our state. Last year there were 15 or more bills before congress in which, as a patriotic organization, we were interested. The most important were: the bill providing for the military and non-military activities of the War department, including the provision for the R. O. T. C. and C. M. T. C., but cut out 2,000 army officers; bill for the building of our navy to London Treaty terms, unless provided for immediately, America will be 135 ships below her allowance, less than Japan; the Dies bill providing for the deportation of alien Communists and Anarchists; bill for permanent restriction of immigration from Western hemisphere; Jeffers bill, declaring it a crime to advocate the overthrow of our government by force and violence—and other bills of national importance.

Your chairman has sent many letters and telegrams to Georgia senators and congressmen urging their support of these bills.

We urge loyal teachers and honest administrators in every school to teach our children. Vote only for those who will uphold American standards. The Americanism committee has done constructive work in intelligent training of immigrants for citizenship, teaching that America is the best place to live in, that they owe this country their true allegiance. This is done through naturalization court and visits. Have cooperated with civic organizations in relief work for those suffering from unemployment. Have sent out cards and letters to chapter regents and chairmen and had them supplied with literature, made patriotic addresses and published letter in D. A. R. column—64 chapter chairmen have responded. National defense is a constructive force affecting all departments of patriotic work, therefore, patriotic education, with its various branches of work, is embodied in this report.

With 15 cents per capita for national defense, 10 cents per capita for Immigrants manual, 3 cents per capita for Ellis Island, together with value of boxes sent gave total of $1,570.91. Patriotic education with its various departments, including: scholarship in local schools and colleges, gift scholarships, medals, prizes, flags, codes, Americanism, lectures, historical records and books, programs, pageants, historic spots, Bi-centennial celebrations, total, $13,112.39. Grand total, $14,682.30.

PARLIAMENTARIAN

Mrs. Julius Talmadge

It has been my pleasure to serve as parliamentarian at the State conference in Atlanta, and at the State board meeting in Marietta. Various matters have been submitted to me, and I have answered each question, according to Roberts' Rules of Order, revised, and the State by-laws.

PATRIOTIC SONGS

Miss Cena J. Whitehead

Fifty-nine chapters sing patriotic songs at their meetings. Thirty-three chapters are encouraging the use of patriotic songs in schools. The Elijah Clarke chapter distributed 200 copies of patriotic songs in the schools, value $20.00.

The Briar Cliff chapter offered a prize in the grammar and high school for the grade giving the best rendition of "The Star-Spangled Banner." The James Pittman chapter offered three prizes in the public schools valued at $4.00, to the grades singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" best.

Col. William Candler chapter had patriotic songs taught in schools for two months.

PRESERVATION OF HISTORIC SPOTS AND MARKING OF GEORGE WASHINGTON HIGHWAY

Mrs. Robert J. Travis

In May, 1932, your chairman planned the reenactment of the visit of President George Washington to Georgia in 1791. The program of unveilings was carried out as planned, but on account of the expense, there was no George Washington and party. In Savannah, the three Savannah chapters unveiled a marker in the Odd Fellows' hall, where the Inn stood at which President Washington stopped while in Savannah.

The unveiling of the tablet was by Miss Ellen Butler and Miss Roberta Boggs, the little daughters of two of the regents, and the band played "Star-Spangled Banner" during the unveiling.

Mrs. Bun Wylie, past state regent and the state chairman for the Washington Bi-Centennial commission; the state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry of Athens; Mrs. Thomas Mell, vice-regent of the Atlanta chapter, were honor guests at a reception given at the home of Mrs. Edgar Oliver on Victory drive, following the unveiling exercises.

Early next morning a committee composed of Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Julian McCurry, Mrs. Thomas Mell, and Gen. and Mrs. Travis, left for Waynesboro and Augusta to take part in the exercises on May 18, 1932.

At Waynesboro the Edmund Burke chapter, D. A. R., held a program at 11 o'clock, in front of the Munnerlyn home, where a large boulder was unveiled with a bronze inscription telling of the visit of George Washington to Waynesboro in 1791.

After the exercises at the Munnerlyn home, a beautiful luncheon was served by the Rotary club in honor of the visitors, and the committee left for Augusta, where the exercises were held on the "Old Savannah road" where George Washington was met on May 18, 1791, by a committee of citizens of Augusta. The exercises were held by the Augusta chapter, D. A. R.

After the unveiling exercises a delightful buffet supper was served the visitors at Meadow garden and a delightful program rendered.

Your chairman attended the dedication of the Jasper and Newton memorial at Jasper Springs on November 11, 1932.

Your chairman was requested to write an article on the historic spots in Chatham County for the Atlanta Constitution that was published on February 19, 1933, in honor of the celebration of the bi-centennial of the founding of Georgia.

The William Marsh chapter at LaFayette, reports that the grave of William Faris, a Revolutionary soldier, has been marked by the chapter and the following places located: The grave of Mary Nicholson Chastain, born Feb. 14, 1791, wife of Rainey Chastain, buried at LaFayette, was the daughter of a Revolutionary soldier; the grave of Mrs. Nancy Middleton Jones, sister of Arthur Middleton, signer of the Declaration of Independence, is buried in the old Rock Spring church cemetery; Fort Cummings, built in 1836, during the Cherokee War was on a hill above Cold Water Spring, in the corporate limits of LaFayette. The site can be located by the trenches. Capt. Samuel Faries' company of Lindsay's regiment, Georgia Mounted militia, consisted of 12 companies and was stationed at Fort Cummings. Information from War Department, 2385861, Adjutant General's office, sent to regent, April 3, 1916. This site was marked by the William Marsh chapter that year, but vandals stole the bronze tablet from the boulder.

A handsome marble marker was unveiled by the Brunswick chapter, D. A. R. on the Old Post Road, on June 15, 1932, to mark the spot where the old road crossed the Waycross-Brunswick highway. This road was an Indian trail and was utilized by Spanish explorers and English settlers. When the colonial authorities decided to establish Fort Barrington, it was built on the Altamaha river, where it crossed the Post Road. Fort Barrington was named for Colonel Josiah Barrington, its commander, whose wife was Sarah Williams, the daughter of Lieutenant Thomas Williams, a cousin of Oglethorpe's. During the Revolutionary War the stage coach and driver were familiar figures along this road. The marker is on the dividing line between the counties of Glynn and Brantley, and is twenty miles from Brunswick. Cost of marker, $171.33.

The Savannah chapter, in Savannah, has undertaken the preservation and care of Colonial cemetery, where many Revolutionary soldiers are buried. Among them are: Major John Berrien, General and Governor Samuel Elbert, and Major General Nathaniel Greene. Button Gwinnett is said to be buried here. He was a merchant of Savannah when he purchased St. Catherine's Island, where his home was located, but he was killed in Savannah in a duel with Lachlan McIntosh.

This year descendants of the Habersham family placed tablets on the graves of Joseph Habersham, lieutenant colonel in the Continental Army; postmaster general under Washington, and a member of the Continental Congress; member of the Society of the Cincinnati, and his wife, Isabella Rae; and on the graves of John Habersham, major in the Continental Army; member of the Continental Congress; member of the Cincinnati; collector of the Port of Savannah, and one of the trustees of the University of Georgia, and his wife, Sarah Camber, in this cemetery. Your chairman recommends that this work be put on the "Honor Roll" of the Georgia D. A. R.

The site of Fort Edward has been located by the Sunbury chapter at Winder.

The Adam Brinson chapter, at Swainsboro, unveiled a marker to the memory of Phoebe Dillard Durden, daughter of Corporal Sampson Dillard, and granddaughter of Captain Thomas Dillard, of Pittsylvania county, Virginia; both Revolutionary soldiers.

The Briar Creek chapter, at Sylvania, marked the grave of Major Lewis Lanier, Revolutionary soldier, in November, 1932. There were 75 members of the family present. Major Lanier was the ancestor of Sidney Lanier, Georgia's beloved poet. The unveiling took place in the old Moore cemetery in Bulloch county. The great-great-great grandchildren of Major Lanier unveiled the marker. Dr. Charles Lanier of Macon, received the marker for the family and Masters Robert Huggins and Chandler Lanier placed flags on the grave. Dr. Fielding Lanier of Sylvania, gave reminiscences of the family, and Corson Hilton, Jr., read a group of Sidney Lanier's poems.

The Atlanta chapter, with Mrs. Thomas A. Ratliffe as chairman, marked the grave of Daniel Clower, September 18, 1932, at Bethesda Methodist church cemetery in Gwinnett county.

The Burkhalter chapter at Warrenton, marked the grave of Henry Pool, Revolutionary soldier, at Old Road cemetery, ten miles from Warrenton, on July 5, 1932. The marker will be unveiled by Miss Sarah Pool, 88 years old, and Mrs. Mary Poole Newsome, 83 years old, daughters of Henry Pool, and two of the remaining seven real daughters in the United States.

LaGrange chapter, at LaGrange, reports that the story of the Indian village of Wehadkee had been presented to them by Mrs. Frank Hutchinson, and the chapter expects to mark this vicinity to commemorate the historical events in the Wehadkee section of Troup county.

The Governor John Milledge chapter, at Dalton, reports that it contributed to the marking of an Indian race track in Dalton.

Revolutionary soldiers buried in Decatur county, and names of wives taken from the list of those entitled to draw in the Land Lottery: Louisa F. Gaines, widow of Revolutionary soldier; Phebe Pate, widow of Revolutionary soldier; Sarah Brock, widow of Revolutionary soldier; Hannah O'Brian, widow of Revolutionary soldier; Ann Clary, widow of Revolutionary soldier.

In the official register of the Land Lottery drawn in 1827, printed in Milledgeville by Grantland and Orme, occur these names: Bridget Collins, widow of Revolutionary soldier, from Hawthorn's district, No. 135; John Cook, Revolutionary soldier, from Hawthorn's, No. 73; George F. Gaines, Revolutionary soldier, from No. 66; Thomas Fane, Revolutionary soldier.

On my return home from conference, March 1932, your chairman found that five chapters had sent in essays to compete for the state prize of $5.00 offered by your chairman for the best essay on an historic spot in Georgia. The essays were sent to Mrs. Bun Wylie, past state regent, and Miss Cecilia Darracott Travis of Savannah, junior high school student, was declared the winner.

OGLETHORPE HIGHWAY

The Oglethorpe highway in Georgia is to follow Route 38, from Midway to Jesup, Waycross, Valdosta, Quitman, Thomasville, Cairo, Bainbridge, to the Alabama line. The Brunswick chapter wishes to have the marking of this highway put on the Honor roll, when the Georgia Washington highway is completed.

The Elijah Clarke chapter, of Athens, have located the site of the old Bethlehem academy, on the Athens-Lexington road. This was a noted female academy which flourished in the early part of the past century. It is located at Cherokee Corner in Oglethorpe county, just over the Clarke county line.

The Elijah Clarke chapter has located the graves of eight Revolutionary soldiers, as follows: William Ash, in Hebron cemetery, Franklin county; John Barnett, at Barnett Shoals, in Oconee county (formerly Clarke county); David Elder, in Elder family cemetery, Oconee county (formerly Clarke county); James Moore, near Crawfordville, family cemetery, Talliaferro county; James Luckie, Cherokee Corner churchyard; Benjamin Haygood, buried at Stroud Cross Road cemetery, Monroe, Ga.; John Newton, Presbyterian churchyard, Lexington, Ga.; Reuben Ransome, old Ransome plantation, on Athens-Lexington road.

We have secured markers for four graves, and have ordered two more.

The Elijah Clarke chapter has located the graves of five daughters of Revolutionary soldiers as follows: Helen Caldwell Finley, daughter of Rev. James Caldwell, Oconee county, Athens, Ga.; Sarah Larrimore, daughter of Jacob Redwine, Old Concord Methodist churchyard, Coweta county; Matilda Phinzy, daughter of Philip Ryan, Old cemetery, Athens, Ga.; Sally Harris, daughter of John Thompson Harris, Harris family cemetery, Walton county.

RESTORATION OF OLD CEMETERY, ATHENS

The Elijah Clarke chapter at Athens, has done a splendid piece of work in the restoration of "Old Cemetery" in Athens. This cemetery was set aside by the trustees of the University of Georgia, when the grounds for the University were laid off, and is the resting place of some of the most illustrious families of the state. It was abandoned about the time of the War Between the States and was in a badly neglected condition.

Your chairman has received a copy of the Congressional Record of the House, stating that Bill 6490, authorizing the erection of a memorial to Brig. Gen. Count Casimir Pulaski at Savannah, Ga., has passed, with an appropriation of $500.00 to carry on the work. Your chairman has written to our congressman, who sent her this copy of the bill, to offer her services in this connection.

COFFEE TRAIL

The Coffee trail leaves the Oglethorpe trail one-half mile west of Futch's Ferry on the Willacochee river, continuing westward through the northern part of Cecil, continuing westward through Cook county, crossing Little river at what is known as the Miller bridge to where it enters Brooks county, continuing westward, crossing the Quitman and Adel highway at R. J. Holland's home and filling station, two miles southwest of Morven, passing on west about fifty feet from where Harold Ogleby now lives, known as the old Bryan place, crossing the Moultrie and Quitman highway, continuing westward about on the south line of the Bryan lot, about one mile further west to an old Indian village, situated on the east bank of Okapilco creek, where quite a number of old Indian relics have been found, continuing westward to the Okapilco church, where General Coffee camped, some of the old timbers were there ten years ago, and may be there still. Continuing westward by the home of Mr. Joel Moore, which is located one-half mile east of where the first county site was located for the county of Brooks, continuing west by old Harmony church, through the town of Barwick where it crosses the Georgia Northern railroad and enters Thomas county. (From court house records in Quitman, Brooks county, Ga., procured from the county surveyor by the historian of the Hannah Clarke chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Carrie D. Tillman).

OGLETHORPE TRAIL

Oglethorpe began this trail at Savannah in the year —, blazing it to Jacksonville, Telfair county, crossing the Alapaha river, one and a half miles west of Willacoochee, from there to Nashville, crossed at Futch's ferry, nine miles southwest of Nashville. The Oglethorpe trail and Coffee trail forked at this ferry. The Coffee trail going southwest crossing the ferry. The Oglethorpe trail swung south and crossed the Willacoochee river again about two miles north of Troupville. He continued south on the east side of the river until he reached Baily's old store, there he crossed again and went on the west side, from there it swung southerly, then crossed the State highway 38 (now called the Oglethorpe highway), about one-half mile west of the highway bridge over the A. C. L. railway, continuing south between Judge Morton's and Capt. Turner's home, crossing the Quitman and Madison highway near Henry Turner's home, on the north side passing 300 feet north of the Randolph Avera home, which is situated one and one-quarter miles south of the Quitman court house, crossing Piscola creek. Westward about one-half mile north of W. D. Long's home, continuing westward to old Groversville, crossing the Aucilla into Thomas county. (From records procured by the historian of the Hannah Clarke chapter, from the records in Quitman, Brooks county, by the county surveyor). Jones, Vol 1, History of Georgia, pages 315, 316, 317, Oglethorpe leaves Savannah, 17 July 1739 for Coweta Town (Columbus, Muscogee county), for treaty with Indians. Oglethorpe probably followed the Chattahoochee river up to Columbus.

During the past year your chairman has written to the chapters in the state asking for contributions toward marking the George Washington highway. A bill has been introduced (prepared by our chairman of Legislation, Mrs. Chas. Akerman of Macon), by Hon. J. J. Jones of Waynesboro, and indorsed by Hon. Shelby Myrick of Chatham county, as follows:

AN ACT TO DESIGNATE AND NAME THE GEORGE WASHINGTON HIGHWAY

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same: That the state maintained highway from Savannah to Sylvania, over State Route 21; from Sylvania to Waynesboro, over State Route 24; and from Waynesboro to Augusta, over State Route 21, be designated and named the Georgia Washington highway.

Section 2. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid: That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

We have a price of $11.00 each for granite markers, three feet high, f. o. b. at Lithonia, with the words "George Washington Highway" on them. Ten such markers, allowing two for each county, would be $110.00. This does not include hauling and installation of markers. We have on hand $89.90 for this work.

The Garden Club of Georgia has a Roadside Beautification committee that is working with other organizations to beautify our highways.

The State Highway department has promised to help us as much as possible with the marking of the George Washington highway.

Your chairman would like to have the insignia of the D. A. R. on the top of the George Washington highway markers, so that it will be known that that organization did the work. This will be an added cost.

PUBLICITY

Mrs. W. E. Mann

More and more do we realize that people usually know of our organization and its work what we ourselves tell.

The publicity committee was formed through the desire to have the public realize that election of officers and social activities are not the principle aim of the organization, but that the real object is work—constructive work—practical patriotism. We want to write into the accounts of our meetings some of the things we stand for and the work we are carrying on in Americanism and education.

In chapter reports sent to newspapers and D. A. R. columns—in our radio programs—accounts of board meetings and the conferences sent to the magazine or bulletin, we tell early and often of the objects of our society.

The knowledge of our work helps to make the society stronger and the individual members proud of their membership in an organization that seeks through the aid of patriotic education to preserve the heritage bequeathed us by the patriots of the Revolution.

RADIO

Mrs. Lucius McConnell

When the Radio committee was formed by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution in 1931, the importance of this branch of service was emphasized by the Georgia Society, as every chapter regent in the state, by virtue of her office, becomes a member of the committee.

It is of importance that every chapter regent appoint a capable Radio chairman. If there is a broadcasting station accessible she may broadcast programs, and give publicity to D. A. R. radio programs. If there is not a station accessible she may give all prominence possible to the radio programs, as it is of equal importance that these programs be received by enthusiastic audiences, as it is that they are broadcast.

During the past year twenty-three programs were broadcast over Radio Station WSB of the Atlanta Journal, by the committee of National Defense Embodying Patriotic education, Mrs. Bun Wylie, state chairman. These programs were in co-operation with the corresponding committee of the Sons of the American Revolution of Georgia. The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, Mrs. Robie Redwine, regent, broadcast twelve programs over Radio Station WHFI. The Savannah chapter, Mrs. Edgar Oliver, regent, broadcast two programs over Radio Station WTOG. These programs presented speakers and musicians

In response to a questionnaire sent to each chapter regent, thirty-seven programs were reported broadcast, and forty-two chapters reported interest in this line of patriotic service.

SCRAP BOOK

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

"If you're feeling bright and happy,
And would help the world along,
You will find within our Scrap Book,
Just the proper marching song.

If for comfort you are longing,
Need the sympathizing tear,
When the clouds grow dark, and darker,
You will find sweet solace here.

Forget your troubles in the Scrap Book
Of our glorious D. A. R.
Read our wonderful achievements,
Help Old Glory float afar."

Our gifted and beloved past-state regent, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, at my request, has written the above poem as an introduction for my scrap book report.

For six years it has been my privilege to be state chairman of the scrap book committee. This book contains your ambitions and aspirations as well as your accomplishments. It has been six years of interesting and happy work, which I have enjoyed. I have felt the touch of your patriotic life, and tied each knot in the chain of memories with tender thoughts and loving hands.

Volume II was completed a year ago and, by unanimous vote of the state conference in Waycross, was placed in the Rhodes Memorial hall in Atlanta, where it is safely preserved with the Archives of Georgia by Miss Ruth Blair, state historian. The new scrap book, Volume III, was purchased last summer and records our activities beginning with the national conference in Washington, D. C., April, 1932.

The following are among the most prominent items:

Pictures and articles of the 41st national conference; Georgia's

Bi-centennial celebration, programs, pageants, and pictures, relating to every phase of Georgia history; the history of Georgia's two real daughters, and of the marking the grave of their father, Henry Pool, a Revolutionary soldier; historic spots in Georgia; facts about the battle of Bloody Marsh; Georgia's war-time heroines; chapter histories and year books; pictures of Gen. James Edward Oglethorpe; marking the old Savannah road and the George Washington highway; photographs of outstanding Georgia D. A. R. and their patriotic messages; activities of the C. A. R.; Ann Cunningham, who saved Mt. Vernon; Georgia's lost republic; America's oldest Christian shrines; short sketches of Georgia historians; Georgia's signer who did not sign; the old White house in Augusta, whose stairway was used as a gallows; trustees of the Georgia colony; history of Camp recovery; Mrs. Max Land's suggestive programs; list of old State roads and Indian trails from an old Georgia Gazette, presented by Mrs. Robert Travis; letter from Herbert Hoover, president of the United States, to Mrs. Bun Wylie acknowledging receipt of the invitation to attend the unveiling of the monument to Nancy Hart. Letter to Mrs. Eli Thomas, from Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, acknowledging receipt of many Bible records. Mrs. A. H. Brenner, regent of the Augusta chapter, and Mrs. John Edward Lane, historian of the William McIntosh chapter, contributed valuable articles and pictures.

Inquiries concerning the compiling of chapter scrap books have been received, helpful suggestions offered. Cards have been mailed each chapter regent urging them to preserve historic data in their scrap books and for the state society. I am pleased to report that three-fourths of the chapters are compiling scrap books.

By request, the Atlanta chapter brought their chapter scrap book, kept by Mrs. Charles F. Rice, to the State conference to show as an example of an ideal scrap book.

Permit me to thank you for the inspiration and help you have given me in compiling this valuable book.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE REPUBLIC

Mrs. James I. Garrard

As your state chairman, I come with an earnest appeal for an awakened interest in this most important patriotic work sponsored by our D. A. R. organization. If we, as the greatest patriotic organization in America do not see the dangers ahead, and do not bend our best efforts towards teaching patriotism to the masses, what can we expect of our future citizens?

Children in the homes of members of patriotic organizations are taught love for one's country, and respect for the flag, even as they learn to pray at their mother's knee, but what of the children who know nothing of what it means to be a constructive patriot and an intelligent citizen? The Sons and Daughters of the Republic clubs answer this question. It's membership is not restricted as to nationality, race or creed for any boy or girl who has reached the age of six may be eligible. The work may be carried along with school duties. Will you not get in touch with your city and county school superintendents, get their interest and support and organize the boys and girls in your communities? Especially do I commend these clubs for rural centers, for around them may be built up a strong community spirit, whose value will be far reaching.

"Patriotism and true loyalty to one's country cannot be taught in a day, in a month, nor in a year. It is only through living these ideals day after day in all the related activities of the school life that we build conduct which develops into real character."

I ask the earnest cooperation of all chapter regents in this most democratic organization for the youth of our land.

It gives me pleasure to report that Georgia is becoming interested in this work. Last year we had: one Sons and Daughters of the Republic club, with a membership of 21. Today, we have 52 clubs with a membership of over 600. These clubs are sponsored by the John Ball chapter, Wilkinson county, and the Gov. David Emanuel chapter, Swainsboro.

In addition to this, many chapters report work with Boy and Girl Scout clubs, and patriotic programs given in the schools.

Fifteen chapters report interest in organizing clubs. Let us heed the great opportunity among the many children at our door, the citizens of tomorrow and teach them to cherish home and country.

STATE EDITOR'S AWARD

Mrs. A. S. Hardy

The State Editor's award was offered by Mrs. Smith to the chapter sending in the best monthly record of its meetings for the year. These reports have appeared from Sunday to Sunday in the D. A. R. columns of the Atlanta Constitution; however, these printed accounts are not the ones that your committee has judged. We have carefully gone over the original manuscripts and from these we have reached our conclusion.

The chapters are to be commended for the splendid stories sent in, and while many have submitted only a few, there are quite a number who have reported nearly, if not quite all, of their meetings. However, there are some things your committee would like to suggest for future consideration.

We have chosen for the first place this year the John Laurens chapter, Dublin; second place, Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens; third place, Hawkinsville chapter, Hawkinsville.

We have mounted the one we considered the best and it is here on the rostrum for those who would care to look it over.

STATE REGENT'S AWARD

Mrs. Frances Brown Chase

TEXTBOOKS

Mrs. Ben J. Tarbutton

Madam Regent and Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution:

The members of the committee have read history and science books used in the public schools. They found them true to our American ideals and principles.

Several chapters reported gifts of books to local libraries and money to buy text books for pupils in need.

One chapter reported that a medal will be given by the D. A. R. to the high school pupil making the highest mark in American history.

I wish to thank those who have cooperated in this work and hope that the above report will furnish helpful suggestions to each chapter for next year.

TIME AND PLACE

Mrs. Charles F. Rice

As chairman of Time and Place, I am gratified to present to you the following report:

The state conference for 1933 met in Atlanta, March 15 to 17, the guest of the Atlanta chapter, Mrs. James D. Cromer, regent.

The State Executive board will meet in Elberton, in October, by invitation of the Stephen Heard Chapter, Miss Edna Rogers, regent.

The two chapters in Albany, the Thronateeska, Mrs. Leo Leader, regent, and the Commodore Richard Dale, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, regent, together extend a cordial invitation to the Georgia Daughters to be their guests at State conference in 1934.

It has been a joy to serve you and in serving you, I feel we have served our country.

THOMAS JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

Mrs. Ed A. Caldwell

The observance of Thomas Jefferson's birthday, April 13, had its usual response by the Georgia D. A. R. Fitting programs were put on in the chapters and in the public schools.

Your chairman sent to the official page in the Atlanta Constitution an article stressing the importance of the day and asking every chapter to cooperate in its celebration.

Many chapters have reported splendid programs—some reporting most inspirational programs held in the public schools.

Let me urge you to continue these programs and please report them to your chairman.

WELFARE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Mrs. Reta Coney

The beautiful and most generous response of our chapters to the ever-present needs of those less fortunate than ourselves, makes it impossible for me, your state chairman of Welfare of Women and Children, to make signal mention of any chapter's work.

At the beginning of our year's work I mailed letters to our chapter regents urging cooperation, and no state chairman, I am impelled to state, could possibly have met with more encouragement than have I.

Each regent has incorporated in her report, submitted at this conference, the achievements of her worthy subjects which is assurance that our Georgia Daughters have labored diligently in our fields, seeking, rather than shirking, outlet for "Service unto Others."

WOODROW WILSON DAY

Mrs. J. W. Oglesby, Jr.

In this time of political and financial chaos, we should realize the debt of gratitude we owe the great patriot and statesman who guided us through the greatest war the world has ever known; in such a way as to reflect glory and honor on our great country.

I consider it a privilege to have been the one to remind our 96 Georgia chapters to celebrate his birthday, the 28th day of December. Regents of 62 chapters sent reports.

ELIJAH CLARKE CHAPTER, ATHENS

Mrs. Morgan Roby Redwine, Regent

Winner of Helen McCall Bashinski trophy, and State Treasurer's award; honorable mention: Helen Rogers Franklin trophy, State Editor's award, State Regent's award.

Elijah Clarke chapter submits the following summary of the year's achievements: Our chapter has an enrollment of 79 members. We have met all honor roll requirements. We have held regular monthly meetings, with enthusiastic attendance. All meetings have been opened with prayer and the pledge to the flag. All patriotic days have been appropriately celebrated, Georgia day having been given special prominence.

We have co-operated with the Georgia bi-centennial celebration in every way possible. One of our members has written a pageant depicting the religious development of our state, which has been presented in our churches and schools. Through our efforts, also, the ministers of our city were urged to observe Georgia day in sermon and prayer. Our attractive year book, containing programs devoted to the study of Georgia history, has been widely distributed as an example of patriotic program. Ten splendid lectures on Georgia have been given at our chapter meetings, and in addition to these we have sponsored a series of eleven radio broadcasts for the purpose of awakening patriotic fervor among the people of our community.

We have co-operated with other patriotic organizations in our city. We honored our state regent with a large and brilliant tea, to which the officers of all other patriotic organizations in the city were invited; we entertained the Colonial Dames upon the occasion of their annual state meeting; we assisted in receiving with the U. D. C.'s at a reception for their state president; members of our chapter were honor guests at the district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary; and two of our members were upon the program of the Flag day celebration of the United Daughters of 1812.

We have featured the flag whenever possible, displaying it at meetings and on patriotic days. We have given flag lectures in our schools, distributed flag literature, published rules of flag etiquette in our local paper, and placed flag codes in all of our colored schools (having placed them in all white schools last year). We placed flags on the graves of all Revolutionary soldiers in our community on Decoration day, and published the names of these heroes among the honored dead.

In conservation and thrift work we have been active. We have planted 66 trees, 568 shrubs, 3,196 plants, 5,466 bulbs, 44 fruit trees, 10 fruit vines, and seed to the amount of $23.00. We have distributed a peck of acorns from the "Tree That Owns Itself" and twenty cuttings from the "Napoleon Willow," two historic trees in Athens. We have stocked four lakes with fish from government hatcheries. We have featured a conservation and thrift program, and have encouraged the conservation of all natural resources. In human conservation, we have responded to every need possible. A committee from our chapter assisted in the Red Cross roll call. Representatives from our chapter made appeals over the radio for the Red Cross, and another committee helped to canvass the city for funds for Red Cross work. We bought $61.00 worth of Red Cross seals for aid in tuberculosis work, made visits and sent magazines and delicacies to the patients in our local T. B. hospital, and contributed $633.00 to local charity.

One of our important accomplishments of the year is the organization of a chapter of the Children of the American Revolution to be named the Athens chapter. We have now pending for confirmation in Washington the papers of a group of lovely children, and are awaiting our charter.

Our educational work has been kept up to the standard of past years. We wish to report one gift scholarship of $359.50 which has enabled a worthy young woman to attend the University of Georgia. Another gift of $10.00 has gone to a high school student. We have also contributed $5.00 to the McCurry scholarship at Kate Duncan Smith school, $5.00 to the McCurry scholarship at Tamassee, and have sent a donation of $1.00 to Mt. Verde school.

We have also added to our loan scholarship fund, having in use in this fund at the present time a total amount of $1,477.99, the finest chapter loan in the National Society.

We have given $22.00 in medals and prizes for the encouragement of study in American history in the University of Georgia and good citizenship in the Junior High school. We have distributed 200 copies of patriotic songs in our local schools. We have furnished and served 81 midday meals to needy school children. We have contributed $5.00 to our municipal playground, and have helped to organize the same. We have also co-operated with the organization of the Boy Scouts in Athens.

We have added a number of early issues of the D. A. R. magazine to our collection of books in the University of Georgia library, and have also brought our magazine files up to date by the addition of the late issues. We have sent a box of juvenile books to Kate Duncan Smith School, and a box of books to the Merchant Marine library. We have completed our second scrap book which is replete with items of interest.

In genealogical research, we have copied and sent to respective chairmen: 53 copies of valuable old Bible records; 1,500 old tombstone records; abstracts of 99 early Clarke county wills.

For Filing and Lending of Historical papers, we have prepared for Mrs. Beeson eight splendid papers upon subjects pertaining to the early history of Georgia and to patriotic themes.

Our work in locating and preserving historic spots is a source of pride. We have located on the Athens-Lexington road the site of the early female academy known as Bethlehem academy, and will mark the same at an early date. Our plans for marking the D'Estaing Grant reported last year, are practically completed.

We have located, after arduous search, the graves of eight Revolutionary heroes: William Ash, David Elder, John Barnett, James Moore, James Luckie, Benjamin Haygood, John Newton, and Reuben Ransome. We have marked four Revolutionary soldiers' graves and have ordered the markers for two others. We have located the graves of five daughters of Revolutionary soldiers: Helen Caldwell Finley, Sarah Redwine Larrimore, Matilda Stewart Phinizy, Angelica Ryan Lampkin, and Sally Thompson Harris.

Our outstanding achievement of the year has been the restoration at a cost of $791.00 of an old cemetery, wherein are buried two Revolutionary soldiers, early professors of the University of Georgia, and pioneer citizens of the community and state. This cemetery is located in the city of Athens opposite the University campus and was set aside by the trustees of the University when the grounds for the institution were laid out. Being abandoned as a cemetery about the year 1865, it had fallen into a condition of dilapidation too horrible to describe. We began collecting funds for this work early in the fall, engaged an expert craftsman to do the repair work, and we are now able to report that the yawning graves, smashed and scattered markers, and crumbled walls are now restored to their former condition and the grounds cleared and beautified. This magnificent accomplishment will stand as a lasting memorial to the loyalty and zeal of Elijah Clarke chapter.

In conclusion: We have met all honor roll requirements. We have also made miscellaneous contributions such as $5.00 to the McCurry table in Constitution hall, and $1.00 to Meadow garden. We have endeavored, as a chapter and as individuals, to live up to the standards of the D. A. R. and by precept and example have promulgated the doctrines of our organization throughout the community in which we live and serve.

ATLANTA CHAPTER, ATLANTA Mrs. James Dawkins Cromer, Regent

It gives me much pleasure to report a busy and profitable year for Atlanta chapter. Of course, interest mainly centered around the coming of the State conference, the celebration of the Washington bi-centennial, and preparation for the observance of the Georgia bi-centennial, yet the regular D. A. R. activities were not neglected.

All meetings have been well attended, with an over-growing interest, enthusiasm and loyalty in the work of the committees, which has stimulated fine reports. All Patriotic and Historical days have been observed with appropriate music, and addresses by eminent speakers. A social hour followed each meeting.

The chapter maintains nine gift scholarships, valued at $1,960.00, which, together with the scholarships at Agnes Scott ($300.00), a loan-scholarship at Wesleyan college ($300.00), and a half-scholarship at North Avenue school ($87.50) make a total of $2,650.50. Nine gold medals were presented for best essays written on "The Georgia Bi-centennial," six in the junior high schools, and one each to Washington seminary, North Avenue school, and Marist college, valued at $90.00.

A box was sent to Ellis Island by Americanization committee, 32 Immigrants' manuals distributed, and naturalization court attended, where 18 foreigners were given citizenship. Value of this work, $250.00. Three Revolutionary soldiers' graves have been marked with interesting ceremonies; 75 books and 27 National Geographic magazines were sent to American Merchant Marine library in New Orleans.

The Red Cross Sewing committee reports 53 workers, 234 hours work and 419 garments made. Ten members, including the regent, spoke over radio, WSB, on the programs put on by the Sons of the American Revolution Patriotic Education committee, on subjects pertinent to "Our Government."

Splendid work was done by the Genealogical Research committee, eight family wills having been found, thirty-two Bible records have been copied and reported by the chairman of this committee. Helpful constructive work has been accomplished amongst the patients at Hospital 48, which is too valuable to be estimated in dollars and cents. The D. A. R. Magazine chairman reported fourteen subscribers, and the Better Films committee has done outstanding work in direct contact with the state and national committees.

National Defense embodying Patriotic Education committee reports patriotic lectures, songs, medals, scholarships, loans and boxes amounting to $2,750.00.

The Dolly Madison Society, C. A. R., is our chapter child of which we are very proud, numbers about 35 members at present.

Chapter meetings are opened with the presentation of our colors and the flag, followed by the pledge to the flag and the recitation in concert of the American's Creed. Our chapter scrap book, kept by Mrs. Charles F. Rice, is "a thing of beauty" as well as intensely interesting.

In November a large cooking school was held under the expert supervision of Mrs. S. R. Dull, a chapter member, which was a great success. This, together with several card parties and luncheons, increased our funds materially. Artistic musical programs have been presented, and the publicity has been ably handled by the chairman, who is ever alert to the interests of the chapter. Fourteen new members were gained during the year.

The outstanding work of the year has been preparation for the State conference, which we had the pleasure of entertaining March 15, 16, and 17, Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent. We were signally honored by the presence of the president general, N. S. D. A. R., Mrs. Russell William Magna, as our guest, and the conference was a brilliant occasion. The delegation from Atlanta chapter were: Mrs. J. D. Cromer, regent; Mrs. Drury Powers, regent's alternate; Mrs. John Wm. Smith, and Mrs. Charles Love.

April 15, the forty-second birthday of the chapter, was appropriately observed at Craigie house with an interesting program and the long established ceremony of the cutting of the birthday cake, the gift of the regent.

The regent, Mrs. Cromer, and two delegates, Mrs. Frances Brown Chase and Miss Virginia Hardin, and an alternate, Mrs. De Los Hill, represented the chapter in April at Continental Congress in Washington, D. C.

The chapter has lost by death, five beloved members: Mrs. Wm. A. Wright, Mrs. J. M. High, Mrs. Herbert Milam, Mrs. Porter King, and Mrs. Wren McGinnis.

The chapter finances are in good condition. Our expenditures to national, state, local and state conference amounted to $2,798.35. In the membership we are proud to have three honorary state regents, and one state officer.

JOSEPH HABERSHAM CHAPTER, ATLANTA

Mrs. James N. Brawner, Regent

In June, 1932, Joseph Habersham chapter, D. A. R., suffered a great loss in the resignation of its regent, Mrs. George M. Niles, due to the death of Dr. Niles. Mrs. James N. Brawner, successor to Mrs. Niles, was elected July 7, 1932.

Through the fine work of Mrs. Walter Scott Askew, chairman, all Patriotic days were observed with special programs of value and interest. Outstanding was that celebrating Georgia day which was held at Memorial hall in February. The special program, arranged by Mrs. Harvie Jordan, included an address by Senator George W. Fetzer of Savannah, and valuable bits of Georgia history presented by Mrs. W. F. Dykes, Mrs. A. R. Colcord, Miss Martha Smith, and Mrs. Jordan, and a delightful program of music arranged by Mrs. A. N. Goodyear, assistant chairman of Music.

In accord with the program outlined by Mrs. Max Land, state historian, the chapter historian, Mrs. Theodore Jack, presented five valuable papers on Georgia history.

Two valuable gifts were made to the chapter: a coin bearing the replica of James Edward Oglethorpe, and an illustrated map of appropriate exercises and the cutting of a birthday cake, presented each year by her daughters, Mrs. Wm. H. Kiser, and Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun.

The chapter has the honor of having provided one state officer, Mrs. W. F. Dykes, first vice-regent, and seven committee chairmen to the state organization.

The memorial services in April, which were beautifully and solemnly conducted by Mrs. John A. Perdue, honored four members who had passed during the year: Miss Louise George, Mrs. F. P. H. Akers, Mrs. Julian Bailey, and Mrs. J. C. Gentry, past regent and state chairman of the Lucy Cook Peel Memorial committee.

The membership of the chapter, while it has suffered materially through unfortunate conditions, is remarkably high in loyalty and interest. The present enrollment is about three hundred.

Three literary scholarships and one each in music and dancing were valuable additions to those previously reported. Plans were completed to again present two silver cups, formerly used by the chapter, to schools of Atlanta presenting the best essays on Georgia history.

A bronze medal, donated and presented by Mrs. C. J. Sheehan in honor of her son, was given to the best drilled in the army R. O. T. C. of Georgia Tech.

The chapter contributed to all projects supported by state and national organizations.

It has been the pleasure and happy privilege of Joseph Habersham members to co-operate with the Atlanta chapter in the observance of the Fourth of July and in the plans for the entertainment of the thirty-fifth State D. A. R. conference, and to enjoy the beneficial and harmonious contacts that such a conference affords.

AUGUSTA CHAPTER, AUGUSTA

Mrs. A. H. Brenner, Regent

As Augusta was visited by President Washington, and settled by General Oglethorpe, the entire city has united to carry out elaborate bi-centennial programs in 1932-1933, in which Augusta chapter, the custodian of Meadow garden, has been prominent in leadership.

The handsome marker, placed four and a half miles from the city, where President Washington was met on May 18, 1792, by Governor Edward Telfair and other state officers and prominent citizens, was unveiled with due ceremony on Wednesday, May 18, 1932. Our state regent, our retiring state regent, and other state officers, were on the program with local descendants of many who welcomed President Washington. Friends from Savannah, and Waynesboro, journeyed over the historic route to participate. Every patriotic organization in the city was invited to be present with colors and flags. The American Legion and the U. S. Veterans Hospital No. 62 furnished bands. The U. S. Arsenal provided the official flag and with the Academy of Richmond County, a guard of honor. The Boy Scouts served as ushers. The unveiling was followed by a buffet supper at Meadow garden.

The active season closed with the Flag festival in celebration of July Fourth, followed by an open air concert at noon, and a patriotic address given by Mr. Cornelius Fleming in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium.

The chapter program for the Georgia bi-centennial was prepared with care. Three officers of the chapter were on the Richmond County Bi-centennial commission. The chamber of commerce had a "cachet" of Meadow garden, the home of George Walton, a signer from Georgia, made to go on letters leaving Augusta on February 14, when the Oglethorpe stamp went on sale. The chapter sent letters bearing the 'cachet' and stamp to the national and state regents and historians. Letters of appreciation were received.

In Georgia's greatest bi-centennial celebration centered in Augusta during the week of February 12, the chapter took an important part. Our secretary, Miss Martha Lester, was active in the three performances of the historic pageant; the historian, Mrs. Ada Ramp Walden, spoke in a large number of schools throughout the county; the officers and members took leading parts in the community luncheon for Augusta women held at the Country club on Thursday the 16th, after opening Meadow garden for addresses, music, and a colonial tea on Tuesday, the 14th. To this special invitations were issued, but on Wednesday, February 22, the public was asked to celebrate Washington's birthday with a beautiful musical program at Meadow garden, arranged by Mrs. Gardner, state chairman. The celebrated Copkinson picture of Martha Washington and her friends, exhibited at the Philadelphia centennial, was hung on the library wall and under it was grouped a living duplicate, with Mrs. W. W. Battey, Jr., as Martha Washington. A handsome gown belonging to a Walton ancestress, was worn by one of the young ladies. Splendid recognition has been given the chapter by the director, Lawton B. Evans, LL.D., and the newspapers.

A copy of "The Memorial History of Augusta," by Charles C. Jones, Jr., LL.D., and Salem Dutcher, published in 1890, has been sent to Memorial Continental hall. Twenty-five dollars was given to furnish books for needy high school girls; prizes, $5.00 each, were awarded to the boy and girl in high school making the best record in American history; other local obligations and charities were met. Full requirement made to the S. B. C. Morgan scholarship, to George Washington highway, to marking historic spots, magazine put in Public library, and gifts sent to a majority of the honor roll items. Two Revolutionary soldiers' graves located and marker ordered for one. Three wills copied for state chairman, also baptisms and marriages performed at St. Paul's church, 1919 to 1937. The chapter was happy to have its lovely young recording secretary act as page at the Continental Congress, 1932. Membership, 126; new members, 6; resignations, 8; dropped, 2; transferred, 3.

BAINBRIDGE CHAPTER, BAINBRIDGE

Mrs. A. B. Conger, Regent

The Bainbridge chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has forty-four members, and has made all points on the honor roll. Have observed all patriotic days, and had hix programs at chapter meetings based on the history of Georgia, including its settlement, development, wars and heroes. We have filed four papers with the Department of Filing and Lending Historical papers. We have co-operated with the public schools in celebrating Washington's birthday and Armistice day.

Our historian has furnished four copies of all testators in the first will book and all marriage bonds in Decatur county between the years 1824 and 1841. She has filed sixty-six tombstone records and twenty-five Bible records. We have requested from our congressman and senator markers for Camp Recovery, where between three and four hundred American patriots died of disease and wounds while fighting under General Jackson in Indian Wars. We have spent $19.00 during this year for historical research in this county, and have added to our library compendium of genealogy Volume I, "An Early History of Wilkes County." It was our pleasure to entertain the State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy with a luncheon when they met in our city. We sponsored the Mercer Glee club, thereby making $26.00 for our chapter. We also gave a swimming party for the benefit of our treasury. We contributed $40.00 through individual members for milk and lunches for undernourished school children, have worked with the Red Cross in the sewing room and assisted in the distribution of clothing and food to the unemployed.

Our expenditures for the year were $210.00 and all bills paid. The conference in Atlanta gave the Bainbridge chapter $35.00 to be used to mark an historical spot in Decatur county.

We hold twelve meetings during the year. Our opening exercises include prayer by the chaplain, the singing of "America," the salute to the flag, and the American's creed. Our programs provided for the observance of seven patriotic days. Distinguished guests have made splendid addresses at our regular meetings for the past eleven months. These have been most interesting and stimulating.

At the beginning of the year, our regent requested that we place major emphasis on patriotic education. To this end, we sponsored an essay contest on George Washington, the Ideal American Citizen. Students of American history from our four county high schools were invited to participate. A silver loving cup was awarded the winner, and historical books were presented to each of the contestants. We plan to make this an annual practice.

To encourage patriotic education among the negro children, Sons and Daughters of the Republic groups have been organized in twenty schools. These clubs have an enrollment of 416 members.

Undoubtedly, the greatest service rendered by our chapter has been in connection with our local Red Cross chapter. In the co-operation which our daughters have given—through our Conservation and Thrift committee—in making the surveys, assisting in roll call, organizing groups for cutting, sewing, and distributing clothing, they have been tireless, and have given most generously of their time and talent.

A scrap book is kept, and a most creditable year book is published.

A contribution of books has been sent to the Berry schools at Rome, and to the Kate Duncan Smith school at Grant, Alabama.

On February 15 the chapter gave a Colonial tea to which all the state officers and the Pulaski chapter of Griffin, and the James Monroe chapter of Forsyth, were invited, besides friends of the members at home. Clippings of the tea were sent the state historian for the scrap book.

On Armistice day the graves of the World War veterans in Butts county were decorated with flags and poppies.

The chapter bought and had planted beautiful flowering shrubs and evergreens around the spacious Indian Springs consolidated school building, a structure just completed on the Indian Springs highway.

A two-year subscription to the D. A. R. magazine was the gift of the chapter to the regent. The copies are passed along so the others may enjoy them.

Members have given unselfishly of their time in the Red Cross work, two of them being on the committee appointed by the Butts county chairman. They also aided in the sale of Christmas seals. Through church societies, members have helped destitute families and orphans.

Our Publicity chairman has reported every regular meeting and all social affairs to the state editor. Through the courtesy of our local editor, "Messages for the Month" sent out by the president general have been used in our home paper. Patriotic songs and the salute to the flag are being taught the pupils in the public schools. We contributed fifteen dollars to the club house fund and fifteen dollars to the memorial fund.

The chapter feels honored, in that, our historian, Mrs. John E. Lane, was appointed as historian for Butts county. Her appointment came a year later than the other appointments in the state for the reason that she had not come from Virginia to Georgia for residence at that time. She has worked untiringly for the past two years for the success of the work, and since she has done this without collaborators, she is allowing the chapter to get credit for it. The Butts county grand jury has recently recommended the publication of the history, which will contain between three hundred and fifty and four hundred pages.

As a member of the American Creed committee, Mrs. Lane has written the twelve chapters in the twelve counties in the district urging the members to stress in the schools the learning of the Creed. Upon request from the State Board of forestry, she has sent historical data concerning Indian Spring. The board hoped to set up markers memorializing historical events on the reservation.

Another honor which has come to the chapter is, that one of our members who resides in Washington, Mrs. Ruby Carmichael Singleton, is state chairman for the Georgia banquet, which is one of the most elaborate social events held in Washington during the national congress.

WILLIAM MARSH CHAPTER, LAFAYETTE

Mrs. Thomas W. Lee, Regent, Chickamauga

The Willam Marsh chapter has a membership of thirty-eight; four being new members, with five applicants for membership whose papers have not yet been returned. We have lost a beloved member and past regent by death, Mrs. W. A. (Eddie Lee Wharton) Enloe. A beautiful memorial service was held in her memory at the September meeting in our John B. Gordon hall. The D. A. R. library, which is kept in this building, has been named by the chapter in Mrs. Enloe's honor, the "Eddie Lee Wharton Enloe Library." She was greatly interested in collecting these books, and kept them in her own home for several years until suitable quarters were provided for them.

At the January meeting our registrar, who is a past regent, presented the chapter with a splendid picture of General George Washington, suitably framed, which will be placed in this historic building, which is our great pride.

In line with the Georgia bi-centennial observance, at the February meeting the regent presented the chapter with a Georgia State flag, and a similar size United States flag with bases, to be used on the desk of the presiding officer at the meetings. We have a large silk flag which is used on special occasions.

We have observed in turn, the days and occasions as designated in the D. A. R. plan of observance.

Flag day was a beautiful occasion at the Gordon hall; the schools and patriotic organizations of the town were asked to participate and the public was invited.

Beginning with September we have adhered to the suggested program for the year, with pleasure and profit. "Know Georgia" is a great slogan.

All meetings have been held at the regular date and time, mostly in the homes of the members.

The regent has been fortunate in not having missed a meeting during the two terms of office she has served.

The chapter offers two medals for the best grade made by a pupil in American history in the schools in LaFayette and Chickamauga. This has greatly stimulated the interest in the study of history in these schools.

Georgia day was sponsored by our chairman, Miss Ruth Sparks, in the county schools and local churches.

Our historian, Mrs. D. W. Stiles, is doing some splendid work in compiling chapter and county history, which will be reported when finished.

Chairmen were appointed for Better films and Approved schools. In our judgment the preview criticism of the pictures as they are released in Hollywood is a real service to the public.

We sent a contribution to the Kate Duncan Smith school and Tamasee, the two schools entirely supported by the D. A. R. We met all honor roll requirements; the treasurer sending the funds away in ample time.

The chapter owns a lot, which we leased this year for a small sum each month which has enabled us to take care of our local obligations.

Our chapter keeps a scrap book. Our treasurer's report shows an expenditure of nearly $60.00, with a balance of $90.00 in the bank.

MARY HAMMOND WASHINGTON CHAPTER, MACON

Mrs. Henry F. Martin, Regent

It is a great joy to report an interested, loyal chapter that has as far as possible, adopted the plans of study and work suggested by the state and national societies. Georgia, America and God have been honored in our programs, history and education have been emphasized, fellowship has been promoted through concern for the welfare for others. With a membership of 124, we met the state honor roll requirements at the beginning of our year's work. "The Historical and Genealogical Department," established and supported by our chapter, at the Washington Memorial library, in Macon, has been made more valuable by the expenditure of $175.00 for rare volumes to add to our collection. This department is rendering splendid service to a large number of patrons.

We feel that 1932-33 has been a most profitable year for our chapter.

NATHANIEL MACON CHAPTER, MACON

Mrs. Logan Carson Rader, Regent

The Nathaniel Macon chapter submits the following report of the activities of the chapter for the year 1932-1933:

Eight historical programs have been planned in observance of Georgia's Bi-centennial, each centering around events of the early history of Georgia. Outstanding speakers of Macon have given informative and interesting addresses and have brought out many facts of our state's early history that are not generally known. The chapter is filing these addresses for future reference.

The year books of the chapter have been dedicated to General James Oglethorpe and it seems that our work during the year has exemplified his motto and that of the Georgia D. A. R.: "Non sibi sed aliis" ("Not for ourselves but for others.") We have this year given to others instead of carrying some of our own plans, that is, we have made no effort to raise funds. The times have been too difficult to ask for money.

The Susie Derry Parker scholarship fund of $100.00 has been offered to a student at Wesleyan Conservatory and $50.00 has been accepted, the other $50.00 will be reserved for some girl who needs funds next year to complete her course.

The annual award of $5.00, offered by the chapter to the senior at Lanier High School for Boys, who is outstanding in qualities of good citizenship was presented on School Night to Joe Jacobs.

The annual award of $5.00 offered for excellency in American history to a senior in Miller High School for Girls, was presented on Recognition day at that institution, to Marian Wilcox.

Five dollars has been contributed by the chapter toward having the name of the Georgia D. A. R. inscribed on the Bi-centennial Patron's tablet in the State capitol. Two dollars and fifty cents of this amount was by individual subscription through the generosity of three members, Mrs. Leonard McManus, Mrs. E. P. Johnston, and Mrs. D. S. Wagnon.

The regent assisted in a pageant of Georgia history arranged by one of the schools, preparing the musical program.

Five dollars was contributed to the Merchant Marine library association. Many members have assisted in Red Cross work and have spent some time in the sewing room.

On Christmas eve $25.00 was distributed in food, fruit, and clothing to needy families of World War veterans by Mrs. Kelly Allen and her committee on Welfare of Women and Children.

"The Key to the Golden Islands" has been presented to the Washington Memorial library, for the Georgia bookshelf. One of the chapter year books has also been placed on this shelf.

Ten dollars was contributed by the chapter toward the silver service presented by the City of Macon to the Dirigible Macon, named in honor of our city.

The Executive board recommended that the dues be temporarily reduced to $2.50 in order that the chapter roster may be maintained during this period of stress.

A photostatic copy of a letter written by Colonel Benjamin Hawkins while commissioner to the Indians, has been framed and will be added to the relics of the chapter; for the present it will be loaned to the Washington Memorial library. We also have framed photographs of Colonel Hawkins and Nathaniel Macon.

A marker will be placed during the summer on the grave of Mrs. T. C. Parker, charter member, honorary regent of the Nathaniel chapter, and 12th state regent of Georgia.

A marker will also be placed on the stone foundation of Old Fort Hawkins.

The chapter is active and alert in every phase of the work of the National Society toward National Defense.

Eighty-four members are on the roll, seven new members admitted during the year, six lost by resignation and transfer, and one by death, a beloved past regent, Mrs. Maude Fisher Sprague, has passed away since last conference.

The rebuilding of Old Fort Hawkins is still progressing, and I hope will be until completed, the major objective of the chapter. On account of the increased depression, work has not progressed to the degree for which we had hoped. It has not passed beyond the completion of the stone foundation, that, a room 10 feet high and 28 feet square, built of the original stones that were in the Fort before it was allowed to fall into decay. This foundation was built at a cost of $1,000.00 to the chapter with the aid of Mayor Toole and the City of Macon. The two upper stories will be completed as soon as the logs can be obtained and when the chapter funds are returned from the closed banks. The plan of the regent is to ask for contributions for these logs, the first room to be called the "Pioneer Room," and in this room will be a bronze tablet on which is inscribed the name of the pioneer citizen, and on a scroll will be written the names of his descendants donating the log in his memory. The third story room would be called the "Citizens Room", the logs for this room being donated by Civic clubs, patriotic or other organizations and schools in the name of some citizen or benefactor they wish to honor. We hope to have a report on these plans for next conference.

The chapter has a chairman of Better Films and we cooperate with the Macon Better Films committee.

The Nathaniel Macon chapter has endeavored at all times to conform to the aims and ideals of the National Society D. A. R. and to carry out these policies in each undertaking. The pledge to the flag, patriotic songs, and the observance of patriotic days are a part of our programs.

The meetings are held at the homes of the members and many delightful social hours have been enjoyed.

Mrs. Charles Cork, treasurer, reports all state and national obligations paid and that many honor roll requirements have been met.

The programs outlined by state chairman have been used, supplemented by able speakers and with patriotic music, flag salute and American Creed, as features of the programs.

On account of the stringency of the times, most of our work has been local. We have been affiliated with the Associated Charities and done much to relieve the distress in our midst.

We have pledged our cooperation with other local organizations to aid in beautifying the Roosevelt highway. Each year, we continue to give a medal to the pupil in high school making the highest yearly average in American history.

Espy and sponsored by Hannah Clark chapter, February 9, free of charge, inviting especially all southwest D. A. R. chapters, the county schools, and the general public. We were disappointed that the state regent could not be with us. A free will offering was taken at the door. Amount, $28.00. Actual cost of production, $25.00. Clippings were sent to the state regent and the historian; also to the Atlanta Journal and the State bi-centennial officers.

We have collected thirty-eight Bible records. We have located and traced the Coffee trail. This was cut and made by General Coffee and his men en route to join General Jackson. Have ap-

GOVERNOR JARED IRWIN CHAPTER, SANDERSVILLE

Miss Mary Louise Evans, Regent

The Governor Jared Irwin chapter, realizing that our country needs a revival of that courageous and unselfish patriotism shown by the founder of Georgia, has dedicated to General James Edward Oglethorpe its year book and has emphasized the bi-centennial theme at each monthly meeting. There have been two special features to our celebration of the bi-centennial: a colonial tea given by Mrs. C. D. Shellnut, retiring regent, in honor of the chapter and the senior class in high school, and a patriotic address given by Mrs. H. M. Franklin, honorary state regent.

We have a membership of twenty-nine. There has been one resignation during the past year, and one membership is pending. We have followed the leadership of our state officers and chairmen. This year we have raised $84.63 from which we have met our obligation to state and national treasuries and have spent $16.75 locally. We have sponsored a picture show, making a nice sum to be used locally.

Patriotic education has been stressed. Several of our members paid the tuition for school children. Our chapter has offered two prizes for the boy and girl making the highest average in American history.

SAVANNAH CHAPTER, SAVANNAH

Mrs. Edgar J. Oliver, Regent

Savannah chapter has 127 members; 20 per cent now resident. During the year has lost three by death, two by transfer, two dropped. Has received eight new members.

Executive board meets on the 10th of each month, and chapter on the 15th. Operates on a budget and has contributed to most honor roll requirements, also to other worthy causes.

In May, 1932, participated with other local chapters in placing a bronze marker on site of inn in which Washington was entertained on his visit to Savannah in 1792, following which the chapters jointly gave a reception at the home of Mrs. Oliver, regent of Savannah chapter, in honor of the state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry; honorary state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and state recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas Mell.

The D. A. R. and S. A. R. presented program at unveiling of the memorial erected by congress to Sergeants Jasper and Newton, on November 11, the principal address being made by Mrs. Gaffney, vice-president general from Georgia, following which the chapters jointly gave a reception in Mrs. Gaffney's honor at U. D. C. Memorial hall. Mrs. Gaffney attended the board meeting of the Savannah chapter.

Many members attended U. S. court when twenty-one foreigners took the oath of allegiance to our government. Flags, identification cards and manuals were distributed by the chairman of Americanism, who made a splendid patriotic address. On this occasion, the first vice-regent on behalf of the chapter presented a beautiful silk American flag to the Federal court.

Twice in February the chapter gave radio broadcasts over WTOG, the regent presenting in the first the aims and purposes of the D. A. R. This was followed by a splendid paper on General Oglethorpe. The next program consisted of a presentation of National defense, and a paper on historical Savannah. Beautiful music was a feature both times.

The chapter has an attractive year book dedicated to the memory of General Oglethorpe, featuring each month some phase of the founding and early history of Georgia. Pledge to the Flag, American's Creed, and list of state and national officers are contained in year book. All meetings are opened with prayer by chaplain, followed by the pledge to the flag.

Has celebrated all patriotic days and reported to state chairman. Accounts of all meetings have been mailed to state editor.

Georgia's real daughters were remembered Valentine and Easter.

Under chapter chairman of Conservation and Thrift, 200 shrubs were planted at Jasper Springs memorial, November 11. On Georgia day, four trees were planted, with delightful exercises in Oglethorpe Square, in commemoration of Georgia's founder, to replace similar trees said by legend to have been planted by Oglethorpe himself. A chapter member planted 500 trees and shrubs at her country home.

Chapter has sent seventy-five books to Merchant Marine library in New Orleans, and twenty books to local Marine hospital.

Has bought for D. A. R. shelf in public library Volume 1, Swiss Immigrants to American Colonies; price $6.00. Also has placed there a copy of the memorial address delivered in Congress in eulogy of Charles G. Edwards, congressman from the First district, the gift of Homer C. Parker, his successor.

Total amount for patriotic education, $330.00.

Chapter members sold Christmas seals one day. Regent chairman for the day.

Three exceptional addresses were delivered, in addition to papers by members, during the year: (1) Rev. Arthur Jackson spoke on the "Coming of the Colors;" (2) Rev. A. C. Linn, the "Coming of the Salzburghers;" (3) Mr. Joseph M. Oliver, on "General Oglethorpe."

On chapter birthday, last April, four honorary regents presented the outstanding achievements of their administrations, making a very interesting program.

The chapter is helping to further in every way possible Georgia's bi-centennial program. On April 27 and 29 it will reproduce, as its episode in the pageant portraying Georgia's history, the reception and ball given for President Monroe when he visited Savannah in 1819, on the occasion of the dedication of the Independent Presbyterian church.

At the February meeting, the Children of the Revolution, under the direction of their president, portrayed in costume some of the famous characters in Georgia history.

The March meeting was held in old Midway church, at Midway, Georgia, with our three Flemington members as hostesses. The subjects being Midway, and some of the famous characters in Georgia history.

BONAVENTURE CHAPTER, SAVANNAH

Miss Marie Reddy, Regent

Bonaventure chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has at present thirty-four members and seven papers are pending.

The chapter co-operated with the local chapters and the joint committee on Marking Historic spots, in the dedication of the Jasper Monument near Savannah.

In our programs this year we are stressing the historical aspect of the Georgia bi-centennial.

Our year book is dedicated to James Edward Oglethorpe, the founder of the Georgia colony, and carries an interesting sketch of this soldier, philanthropist, and founder.

Our year book also contains the salute to the flag and the American's Creed, which are recited at all regular chapter meetings.

Patriotic days have been observed by the chapter with interesting programs. The American's Creed, by the request of the regent, has been used in two schools.

The chapter presented an American flag to the Sacred Heart school. Appropriate exercises marked the presentation.

At the naturalization exercises held in February in the United State court, the chapter presented American flags to the new citizens.

To encourage work in American history in the high school, the regent has offered an award to the high school student who does the most outstanding research work in American history.

In conservation and thrift our members have preserved and canned many fruits and vegetables and the beautiful gardens of many members attest the number of trees and bulbs planted.

An outstanding paper read at the February meeting was "Crown Grants," by Mrs. J. W. Ruth.

Sandpond, a Crown Grant which is one of the few estates in Georgia still in possession of the descendants of the original grant, was particularly interesting to the chapter because Mrs. Ruth is also a descendant of the original owner of Sandpond. The chapter plans a pilgrimage to Sandpond in the near future.

Bonaventure chapter's part in the bi-centennial pageant to be staged in Savannah in April will be a phase of Eighteenth century colonial life. We will portray a church or religious phase.

The first part of the procession shows a part of the Episcopal church service; the second, members walking to church; the third, members riding to church in carriages, and fourth, members riding to church on horseback. Our procession will include over two hundred participants.

To serve one's chapter and incidentally one's state during the celebration of the bi-centennial of the founding of Georgia has been an inspiration and an honor.

C. chapter and had as our guests some of our state officers.

The chapter has observed all patriotic days by sponsoring special public programs. We have observed Thrift and Forestry weeks and celebrated Georgia day with a pageant in the high school auditorium. We sponsored a cachet on letters for the first day sale of the Oglethorpe stamps in Sylvester. At Christmas time we decorated a beautiful living Christmas tree in the public square, assisted in the sale of tuberculosis seals, gave out baskets of food, clothing and toys for the needy and sponsored a union vesper service with Christmas cantata. Clothing, books and hot lunches have been furnished to children who, otherwise, could not have attended school. Another important project during the bi-centennial celebration will be marking a stage stand in Upson county on the old Alabama road. Mrs. Henry Birdsong, chairman of this committee, has secured a site at the McCoy place where the marker will be erected. The first step in celebrating the Georgia bi-centennial was made by the committees on Forestry and Conservation who secured the co-operation of the city council in naming a new street Oglethorpe Way, which will be beautified with dogwood and other flowering trees. Oglethorpe Way is situated between Lee and Gordon streets and intersects Washington avenue near the main entrance of the city park, thereby making every street that touches the park a memorial to a patriotic leader. Mrs. J. E. Mercer, Regent

Two members were added to our roll and one was lost by resignation. Membership at present numbers twenty-eight. Honor roll requirements have been met.

Five dollars in gold was given to a pupil in the senior class in high school for the highest average in American history.

An ex-regent's bar was bought by the chapter and presented to the retiring regent and organizing regent's bar presented to the chapter's organizing regent, Mrs. Ober Warthen.

The monthly programs have been based on the history of Georgia. On February 15 a beautiful pageant depicting the settlement of Georgia was presented.

Members have worked faithfully with other organizations for relief of the needy in this community and in the distribution of Red Cross supplies.

The ruins of old trading post for Indians were definitely located on a bluff overlooking the Altamaha river.

JONATHAN BRYAN CHAPTER, WAYCROSS

Mrs. Henry S. Redding, Regent

Our membership numbers thirty-nine. Two new members have been added, one transferred, one resigned.

Honor roll requirements have been met.

The meetings have been regular and well attended. Interesting and instructive programs have been arranged for all patriotic anniversaries. Splendid papers, on subjects suggested by our state chairman, have been given at each meeting. In February the entire program was given in celebration of Georgia's bi-centennial.

The chapter has contributed to many of the projects endorsed by the national and state societies. Local charities, as well as efforts in behalf of the Red Cross, and sale of Christmas seals, have been carried on. Sixteen dresses were made for the Red Cross. The annual package sale was held in December to aid in filling baskets for the needy at Christmas. Six large baskets were given. Ten dollars was contributed to one of the local grammar schools to aid in providing milk for the undernourished pupils. The N. C. roster of soldiers of the American revolution was purchased for the use of the chapter.

LYMAN HALL CHAPTER, WAYCROSS

Mrs. H. J. Carswell, Regent

Lyman Hall chapter has done some very creditable work. Although the conference held in Waycross concluded the state D. A. R. work for 1932, it was not included in the chapter's report for that year. So, I mention here that the Georgia state conference met in Waycross in March, 1932, and was entertained by the Lyman Hall and the Jonathan Bryan chapters.

This chapter derived great benefit and inspiration from the conference, and the contacts and pleasant associations of this meeting will linger long in our memories.

In May it was our pleasure to entertain at luncheon jointly with the Jonathan Bryan chapter, honoring the delegates to the state convention of Kings Daughters and Sons.

In June the chapter celebrated its silver anniversary. The members of the Jonathan Bryan chapter and the presidents of all our women's organizations were guests. A sketch of the chapter's history was read and members of the chapter presented its regent with a half-dozen beautiful silver goblets. The lovely birthday cake with its twenty-five tiny candles, was another enjoyable feature of the occasion.

The chapter has done the regular routine work of the D. A. R., but its outstanding work for the year has been the financing of a soup kitchen for the underprivileged children of one of our county schools. This consolidated school, just outside of our city, has a large attendance, and 1,100 servings of soup a month have been financed. Many articles of clothing have also been furnished. Because of the very great need most of our extra work for the year has been of this nature.

The Georgia bi-centennial has been the subject of all programs, and the state chaplain's ritual has also been featured.

All monthly meetings are attended by about two-thirds of our local membership.

Total disbursements for the year amount to $313.78.

EDMUND BURKE CHAPTER, WAYNESBORO

Mrs. E. T. Agerton, Regent

The Edmund Burke chapter has had a program every month presided over by the regent. The programs featured the George Washington bi-centennial with the literature sent out by the Sol Bloom committee; the historical programs prepared by Mrs. Max Land, and studies based upon articles culled from the D. A. R. magazine and the daily newspapers bearing up historical facts pertinent to the history of our great country. Our meetings have been interesting and instructive and while the "depression" has been a "compression" of our pocketbooks, we have gained new zeal and inspiration.

We regret to report that that same "depression" has curtailed our membership by five, four of them by withdrawal, and one by transfer. There was no lack of interest manifested, however, the members stating in each case that finances made the move necessary. Members of the chapter took part on programs given by the Margaret Jones chapter, U. D. C.; those given by the Waynesboro High school, and the churches in the city, during the bi-centennial celebrations.

All special days were noted and programs suitable, prepared for the occasion.

The outstanding achievement of the year was the marking of the Munnerlyn house with a handsome granite boulder in May. Among the notables who visited the chapter upon this occasion were Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Thomas Mell, Mrs. Julian McCurry, General and Mrs. Robert J. Travis. General Travis delivered the address. Plans for the purchase of the Munnerlyn house have been formulated and we hope to own the building in the future.

The Georgia bi-centennial was celebrated last month with appropriate exercises and the chapter perfected plans for compiling a history of Burke county. Mrs. Rosa McMaster was named chairman and various committees were appointed to function in collecting data for the work. We plan to do this work by June.

CHATTAHOOCHEE CHAPTER, WEST POINT

Miss Florrie Johnson, Regent

Chattahoochee chapter had a very profitable year, with instructive programs each month on Georgia history. All meetings were held in the homes of the members with good attendance, and a spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm.

The chapter is small, with a membership of only twenty—seventeen are resident, and three non-resident. All meetings are opened with the American's Creed and salute to the flag. We also follow the devotional programs, as outlined for this year. Patriotic days have been appropriately observed, and the D. A. R. magazine placed in the library of the public school.

The chapter has co-operated with other patriotic and civic organizations in all their activities and sponsored patriotic programs at the school auditorium with the pupils taking active part. Patriotic education has been emphasized in our work, and is, perhaps, the outstanding feature of our organization. A prize of $5.00 has been again offered to the pupil in high school attaining the highest average in American history, and doing all the required reading.

The chapter has responded to Red Cross, and all welfare work, and to the free clinic which provides for needy patients.

SUNBURY CHAPTER, WINDER

Mrs. J. H. Pledger, Regent

The roll includes twenty-two members, seven of which are non-resident. A patriotic song, prayer by chaplain, flag pledge, and excerpts from D. A. R. ritual, are used at meetings throughout the year.

The chapter has complied with honor roll requirements. A contribution was made for library table, honoring our state regent.

All designated patriotic days have been observed. Participated jointly with the Legion Auxiliary in public program on Armistice day. With the Auxiliary and the P.-T. A. presented a public program on Georgia day. This was also Tag day, and a substantial sum was realized from the sale of miniature Georgia flags. The regent gave a brief address on Washington at Legion Auxiliary meeting in February.

Good citizenship has been emphasized at all times. The flag code, salute, and history have been published in local paper. United States flags have been given to three new consolidated schools in the county. A large picture of Washington, framed, was given one school. Two medals are given each year in high and junior high for excellence in history. Two cook books are given in domestic science classes. This year the department was given cooking utensils. Also secured two cots to be used in nurses' unit of school.

With local organizations, text books amounting to $52.00 were purchased for the underprivileged children in city schools.

Many boxes of food and clothing were carried to needy homes during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. One member of chapter served as county chairman of Red Cross. Over $40.00 was realized from sale of tuberculosis seals.

The site of Fort Edwards has been located and the chapter anticipates marking same.

A paper on "The American Indians," was sent to the Lending bureau.

The grand jury appointed a chapter member to compile the history of Barrow county. Same will soon be completed.

A scrap book is kept which gives a complete history of the chapter's activities from its organization in 1921 to the present time.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, Courtesy Chairman

Atlanta in the summer is just fine,
Atlanta Spirit is fresh from off the vine.
In rivers flowing free,
It pours for you and me,
More stimulating than the strongest wine!

In fall, Atlanta Spirit starts to foam,
And makes us want to leave our happy home,
When its in full ferment,
We'd give our every cent,
To join the throngs which in Atlanta roam.

Atlanta Spirit in the winter's ripe,
And flows the streets in every water pipe,
And thousands through the walks,
Atlanta Spirit's very self same type!

In spring, the Spirit paints Atlanta red,
It's kick and sparkle goes to every head,
And makes us wish to stay,
Forever and a day,
O girls, doesn't this Atlanta Spirit spread?

Our hearts have thrilled with the very joy of living amidst such bouquets of cordiality and hospitality as have been showered upon us. Words fail to express our gratitude to the Atlanta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for we realize how faithfully and strenuously all members have worked for the success of this conference.

That all the plans of our hostess chapter have been carried out so beautifully is due in a great measure to the personal charm and indefatigable zeal of her regent, Mrs. James Dawkins Cromer. Her committees have indeed been a power behind the throne, and we commend her rare good judgment in the selection of the following chairmen:

Arrangements, Mrs. Thomas Coke Mell; Program, Mrs. Bun

Wylie; Hospitality, Mrs. John M. Slaton; Pages, Mrs. Hal Hentz; Decorations, Mrs. Spencer Stone; Music, Mrs. C. V. LeCraw; Credentials, Mrs. Eli A. Thomas; Senior President Dollie Madison C. A. R., Mrs. Rachel Peeples Rogers; Badges, Mrs. Lucius McConnell; Transportation, Mrs. Moreland Speer; Reception, Mrs. E. R. Kirk; Information, Mrs. George Hillyer.

Could they know what brightness and cheer they have brought into the life of each guest, they might feel, in some measure, repaid for their efforts.

These conferences draw us close together, and exemplify the doctrine, "let us know one another and we will love one another."

With this union in our hearts, we wish to express our grateful appreciation to Mr. DeJarnette and the officials for the use of these splendid rooms in the Henry Grady hotel.

We extend our thanks to Mrs. Spencer Stone, and her associates, who have decorated so beautifully and made the place of our temporary abode a delight to the artistic eye, a joy forever to our memory when we recall the conference.

We are indeed indebted to those who have given us such a cordial welcome, Mrs. James Dawkins Cromer, hostess regent, Atlanta chapter; Mrs. James N. Brawner, regent, Joseph Habersham chapter; Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, womens' organizations; Mr. J. K. Jordan, mens' civic clubs.

We appreciate the extensive welcome of Governor Eugene Talmadge, who has the cares of State upon his shoulders, but has turned over to us the whole State without any cares, and made us feel free to take home any property of the State, the capitol, or any other little keep sake!

Atlanta has certainly turned over to us her Key, the mayor, James L. Key, who, through his secretary, Mr. Arnold, has surrendered not only the great Key to the Gate City, but the latch key, the garage key, the pantry key, in fact, a pocketful of keys! In return, we have surrendered to you the key to our hearts whose treasures are golden thoughts of your brilliant hospitality.

We are greatly indebted to the ministers, Bishop H. J. Mikell, Dr. Ryland Knight, Dr. Davis, who were with us, for no convention is complete without spiritual aid and inspiration.

Words are powerless to express our appreciation to our distinguished president general, Mrs. Russell William Magna, for her presence and her magnificent address on opening evening. Once before, she came to us as chairman of Constitution hall during our State conference in Thomaston, my first conference as your state regent. No one who attended could fail to be impressed with her glowing patriotism, her boundless enthusiasm! Then she wielded her gifted pen and wrote a beautiful poem about Georgia dogwood, as the trees were in full bloom and appealed to her poetic eye. Since that time, she has ever been an inspiration to me, and to all Georgia D. A. R. who met her. She is a living exponent of the verse—

"If so thy feet have reached the heights,
Built upward toward the day,
The torch within thy lifted hand
Lights all the downward way!"

There is among us another officer of the national organization, who follows closely the gleam of that light, and brightens and inspires with her patriotism. We are indebted to the vice-president general, Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, for the inspiration of her presence.

Years ago, there lived in Georgia a blind negro who won fame as a pianist, Blind Tom. He could play anything he heard, and when he finished, he always applauded himself. Now, we will follow his example, and applaud our very own, beginning with our state regent.

We thank our beloved state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, whose personal magnetism wins every man, woman, and child whom she meets. It is said that "cheerfulness keeps up a daylight in the soul" and we have not only six months of daylight, but all-the-year-round daylight when she is with us. She draws us close around as a sister would, and has—

"A heart that will hear no ill of you,
But is ever quick to defend,
A heart that is always true, steel true—
Such is the heart of our friend!"

What would Georgia D. A. R. do without the noble influence and guiding hand of our past vice-presidents general? Mrs. Howard McCall always leads with unerring ability.

We have another past vice-president general, who always inspires us with her delightful charm of manner and her enthusiasm, Mrs. Julius Talmadge.

There are others to whom we are indebted on this occasion for their presence and encouragement, the honorary state regents. In fact, we are simply indispensable, as we form such an effective background. In addition to the vice-presidents general who are also honorary state regents, there is our grandmother (as she terms herself), Mrs. J. A. Rounsaville, who has been a blessing and inspiration during the conference.

There's queenly Gertrude, Mrs. Max Land.

There's Sara the wise, Mrs. Charles Akerman.

There's Marion, the gracious, with heart so true,

Mrs. Bun Yylie,—And I am here too!

We are most grateful to Roy Thackley and his Southerners on opening evening and to all the musicians, who have transported us to realms of happiness which tongue is powerless to express. When skies are clear, music brings infinite joy, but—

"The soul that sings when skies are sad,
When nature in gray garb is clad,
That soul best serves both God and man,
Giving the best that mortal can,
The gift of Happiness!"

In addition to all this "feast of reason and flow of soul," we have been delightfully "wined and dined," according to the old expression, but now we would say instead of wined, we have been "Atlanta Spirited" and dined. We are greatly indebted to the Atlanta chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. James D. Cromer, regent, for the splendid banquet on Wednesday evening; to the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, Mrs. Thomas Coke Mell, president; Daughters of American Colonists, Miss Virginia Hardin, regent; United Daughters of 1812, Mrs. Lucius McConnell, president; Atlanta chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. A. R. Colcord, president; Ladies Memorial Association, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Jr., president, for the beautiful luncheon on Thursday at the Atlanta Womans' club. We are indeed grateful to the Joseph Habersham chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. James E. Brawner, regent, for the delightful buffet supper at Habersham hall on Thursday evening. We would express our great appreciation to the Mens' Civic clubs for the most enjoyable luncheon on Friday, and again, we are under obligations to the Atlanta chapter, D. A. R., for the lovely afternoon tea at "Craigie House," home of the chapter. Atlanta has apparently followed the fashion of ancient Athens, where the chief cook, when directed to prepare a feast, not only inquired the number of guests expected, but also who and what they were, that he might adapt the dishes to their various tastes. Each of us has found just exactly the dishes we most prefer and—

"Serenely full, the epicure would say,
Fate cannot harm me—I have dined today."

The charming courtesies showered upon us throughout the conference prove, as a noted writer has said: "The bread of life is love, the salt of life is work, the sweetness of life is poetry, and the water of life is faith. A true woman is a compend of them all."

Our thanks are due the Pages who have served us so charmingly. They lend brightness and rich color for they have used the anti-depression smile, and cause us to realize that—

"While a smile illumines the eye, and wreathes the lip of beauty,
The task of life must ever be, a pure and pleasant duty."

We wish to express heartiest appreciation to all the newspapers which have given us such delightful publicity. We appreciate sincerely the kindness of the Atlanta Constitution in giving us our own columns where we may broadcast to the world our wonderful accomplishments.

We appreciate the delightful souvenirs, the writing tablets from the McGregor Co.; the cards, flags, and pennants from the Joseph Habersham chapter. We would express appreciation to members of that chapter, Mrs. W. F. Dykes, state vice-regent, who presided so ably on Friday, when the state regent was all, and to Mrs. John A. Perdue, who gave spiritual inspiration during the conference, as well as others who assisted in entertaining the conference.

Personally, I wish to thank Mrs. McCurry for allowing me the privilege of saying: "Thank you" to Atlanta D. A. R. and to all who contributed to our pleasure.

So, believe me today, when I say to each one who has given us such perfect happiness—

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Information to Members

The following resolution which applies to the nominations of a State regent by chapters appears in the Proceedings of the Twentieth State Conference, 1918.

"Resolved, That it is the judgment of the Executive Board that nominations for State regent should not be made by chapters earlier than three months prior to the meeting of the conference. When so made they shall be furnished to the State editor for publication."

Chapters are requested to hold their elections in May. It is desirable that the reports to conference shall be made by officers whose work covers at least the greater part of the year preceding the conference. Chapter By-Laws must be in accord with National and State By-Laws.

At the opening of the State conference, by unanimous consent, the rights and privileges of delegates can be voted to the State chairman, with this exception, State chairman can not vote in the election of State regent and State vice-regent unless they have been elected delegates by their respective chapters and so registered with the Credential committee. (The election of the State regent and State vice-regent must be confirmed by the Continental Congress).

(See Article X, Section 1 and Section 2, of the National By-Laws).

"Where there is only one candidate for an office and the constitution requires the vote to be by ballot, it is common to authorize the secretary to cast the ballot of the assembly for such and such a person."

If anybody objects, however, it is necessary to ballot the usual way. So when a motion is made to vote unanimous, it fails if anyone objects." Passed 1915.

Each State conference may by a two-thirds vote, adopt such additional rules of order as it may deem advisable for the government of that conference, provided they are not in conflict with the Constitution and By-Laws of the National and State Society.

STATE CONFERENCE

The first State conference was called by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, State regent, and was held at the Atlanta Exposition of 1895. The annual conference began in 1899. In that year a conference for the purpose of effecting a State organization was called by Mrs. Robert Emory Park, State regent, and was held in Atlanta, May 23-24. By-Laws were adopted and State officers elected. The succeeding conferences were numbered from this conference, until the conference of 1909 adopted a motion, offered by Mrs. Mallory Taylor, "that the first State conference in 1895 be recognized, and the next annual conference, instead of being the twelfth, shall be the thirteenth." (Minutes, p. 21). No conference was held in 1911; the time of meetings having been changed from the fall to the first part of the year by the conference in 1910, which adopted a recommendation by the Executive Board (made on the motion of Mrs. P. W. Godfrey) "that the State conference be carried over from November, 1910, to 1912, prior to Congress in 1912;" amended by Miss Ray of Atlanta, "that we have conference in the spring, not to interfere with Lent." The full Christian names of chapter officers should be given together with the husband's name or initials, name of chapter, and address of chapter regent.

Notices of death and resignation should be sent to the registrar general. Notices of marriages, transfers, and dropped members should be sent to the treasurer general. Notice of change of address should be sent to the organizing secretary general.

The historian general requests "that to insure uniformity and convenience of filing, all records shall be typewritten upon one side of paper, eight and one-half by eleven ($8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$) inches, with one inch margin on left side and bottom. One and one-half inches at top." One copy should be sent to the historian general, one copy to the State historian, and one copy retained in chapter archives.

Chapter year books should be $5\frac{1}{2} \times 7$ inches, to conform to requests from National secretary, in order that the librarian general can file copies as records. Copies should be sent to her. Year books should be sent to State regent and State recording secretary.

Chapter By-Laws must not conflict with the National and State By-Laws. Chapters are advised to incorporate their By-Laws in the year books.

Georgia Day

The first concerted effort to bring about the annual celebration of the date of the landing of Oglethorpe and his colonists (February 12, 1733) under the name of "Georgia Day," was made by the Joseph Habersham chapter of Atlanta in 1901, and, with the co-operation of the State School commissioner, soon resulted in its observance in public schools. Credit for these first efforts is due to Miss Nina Hornaday, Georgia Day chairman of the chapter, and Mrs. W. L. Peel, then regent.

In 1904, Mrs. John M. Graham, then regent of the Joseph Habersham chapter, seeing that Mr. Calvin had introduced in the legislature a bill providing for school celebration on certain other anniversaries endeavored to have similar recognition given to Georgia day, and in this was aided by Miss Hornaday. The result was that the Legislative committee on Education reported a Georgia day bill as a substitute for Mr. Calvin's bill, but it did not pass. At the next State Conference, Mrs. Graham moved the appointment of a committee to procure legislation on the subject, and she was appointed chairman. A bill presented by her was introduced in the legislature by Hon. Madison Bell, but failed to pass, and at her request was reintroduced in 1909 by Hon. John M. Slaton which provided for observance of the day in the public schedule by exercises consisting of written compositions, readings, recitations, addresses, or other exercises relating to this State and its history and to the lives of distinguished Georgians.

Admission of Women to State University

The action of the State legislature in 1916 in admitting women for post-graduate course at the University of Georgia recalls the active part that Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan has taken in this bill. She was State regent, 1893-1897, and afterwards Vice-President General from Georgia of the N. S. D. A. R.

A resolution asking for the admission of women to the State University was offered at the 1895 State Conference by Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, then State regent, and adopted by the Georgia chapters.

The following year it was offered to the Colonial Dames by Mrs. Morgan and adopted. A few years later, Mrs. Robert Emory Park, then president of the Federation of Women's clubs, co-operated with Mrs. Morgan and adopted the same resolution. Later the State Association for Education of Georgia Mountaineers, Mrs. Morgan, president, adopted the same resolution, making practically a united movement of the organized women in Georgia, with Mrs. Morgan the very efficient and most capable leader.

These petitions were successfully sent to the Board of Trustees and later to the Legislature. This continued work for over twenty years for admission of women to the State's highest institution of learning, is only one of the many advanced ideas which Mrs. Morgan has led for a number of years.

Bookplate for Georgia books in library at Constitution hall, a contribution of the Georgia Society D. A. R. to the Georgia Bi-centennial program.

HISTORY

The work of providing a bookplate for the Georgia books in the library at Constitution hall was begun by Mrs. John S. Adams during her first term of office as state librarian, Georgia D. A. R., 1931-1932. At the time Mrs. Adams planned a design which, with the addition of the motto and Bi-centennial dates, is the sketch used.

In June 1932, Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent, appointed a committee, composed of Mrs. E. B. Freeman, Dublin; Mrs. John S. Adams, Dublin; Mrs. Stewart Colley, Grantville; Mrs. Fuller Callaway, Sr., LaGrange; Mrs. W. A. Capps, Athens; and Miss Evelyn Hanna, Thomaston, to raise funds and plan all business details for providing a bookplate for the Georgia books, in observance of the Georgia Bi-centennial anniversary in 1933.

This work was completed in February, 1933, and the bookplates presented to Mrs. Frank Madison Dick, librarian general N. S. D. A. R., who formally accepted them for the D. A. R. library at Constitution hall on March 10, 1933. The bookplates were presented to the Georgia Society D. A. R. on March 16, 1933, by Mrs. E. B. Freeman in her report to the Georgia state conference, as chairman of the Bookplate committee, and accepted for the Georgia Society by Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent of Georgia.

Significance

er of the state; the shield of Oglethorpe is placed on the upper left and is balanced on the right by the great seal of the state of Georgia. On the left of the center inscription "Ex Libris D. A. R. Georgia," is an Indian figure representing the original inhabitants of this domain; on the right is a replica of the Statue of Liberty. The motto, "Amor patriae patrumque," carries the thought of love of country and of ancestry. Intertwining these and blending them into an interesting whole is a delicate tracery of the Cherokee rose, Georgia's state flower. A few full blown cotton bolls, Georgia's staple crop, also appear in the embellishment of the sketch. The Bi-centennial idea is expressed in the dates, 1733-1933.

FLAG CODE ADOPTED AS REVISED AND ENDORSED AT THE SECOND NATIONAL FLAG CONFERENCE, WASHINGTON

May 15, 1924

Proper Manner of Displaying the Flag

There are certain fundamental rules of heraldry which is understood generally, would indicate the proper method of displaying the flag. The matter becomes a very simple one if it is kept in mind that the national flag represents the living country and is itself considered as a living thing. The union of the flag is the honor point; the right arm is the sword arm, and therefore the point of danger and hence the place of honor.

1. The flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority. It should be displayed on national and state holidays, and historic and special occasions. The flag should always be hoisted briskly, and lowered slowly and ceremoniously.

2. When carried in a procession with another flag or flags the flag of the United States of America should be either on the marching right, i. e., the flag's own right, or when there is a line of other flags, the flag of the United States of America may be in front of the center of that line.

3. When displayed with another flag against a wall from cross-staffs, the flag of the United States of America should be on the right, the flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

4. When a number of flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs with the flag of the United States of America, the latter should be at the center or at the highest point of the group.

5. When flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States of America, the latter should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs the flag of the United States of America should be hoisted first and lowered last. No such flag or pennant flown in the former position should be placed above, or in the latter position to the right of the flag of the United States of America, i. e., to the observer's left.

6. When flags of two or more nations are displayed they should be flown from separate staffs at the same height and the flags should be of approximately equal size. (International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace).

7. When the flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony or front of building, the union of the flag should go clear to the peak of the staff unless the flag is at half-staff. (When the flag is suspended over a sidewalk from a rope, extending from a house to a pole at the edge of the sidewalk, the flag should be hoisted out from the building toward the pole, union first).

8. When the flag is displayed in a manner other than by being flown from a staff, it should be displayed flat, whether indoors or out. When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall the union should be uppermost and to the flags own right i. e., to the observer's left. When displayed in a window it should be left of the observer in the street. When festoons, rosettes or drapings of blue, white and red are desired, bunting should be used, but never the flag.

9. When the flag is displayed over the middle of the street, as between buildings, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east and west street, or to the east in a north and south street.

10. When used on a speaker's platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. If flown from a staff it should be in the position of honor, at the speaker's right. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk, or to drape over the front of the platform.

11. When used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument, the flag should form a distinctive feature during the ceremony, but the flag itself should never be used as the covering for the statue.

12. When flown at half-staff, the flag should be hoisted to the peak for an instant, then lowered to the half-staff position; but before lowering the flag for the day it is raised again to the peak. By half-mast is meant hauling down the flag to one-half the distance between the top and the bottom of the staff. If local conditions require, divergence from this position is permissible. On Memorial day, May 30, the flag is displayed at half-staff from sunrise until noon and at full staff from noon until sunset; for the Nation lives and the flag is the symbol of the living Nation.

13. Flags flown from mixed staffs are placed at half-staff to indicate mourning. When the flag is displayed on a small staff, as when carried in parade, mourning is indicated by attaching two streamers of black crepe to the spear head, allowing the streamers to fall naturally. Crepe is used on the flag staff only by order of the President.

14. When used to cover a casket, the flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave nor allowed to touch the ground. The casket should be carried foot first.

15. When the flag is displayed in the body of the church it should be from a staff placed in the position of honor at the congregation's right as they face the clergyman. The service flag, the state flag, or other flag should be at the left of the congregation. If in the chancel or on the platform, the flag of the United States of America should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation and the other flags at his left.

16. When the flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the national colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our country.

17. As the flag passes, it is fitting to always recognize it by placing right hand over the heart.

CAUTIONS

1. Do not permit disrespect to be shown to the flag of the United States.

2. Do not dip the flag of the United States of America to any person or any thing. The regimental color, state flag, organization or institutional flag will render this honor.

3. Do not display the flag with the union down except as a signal of distress.

4. Do not place any other flag or pennant above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the United States of America.

5. Do not let the flag touch the ground or the floor, or trail in the water.

6. Do not place any object or emblem of any kind on or above the flag of the United States of America.

7. Do not use the flag as drapery in any form whatever. Use bunting of blue, white and red.

8. Do not fasten the flag in such manner as will permit it to be easily torn.

9. Do not drape the flag over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle, or of a railroad train or boat. When the flag is displayed on a motor car, the staff should be affixed firmly to the chassis, or clamped to the radiator cap.

10. Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.

11. Do not use the flag as a covering for a ceiling.

12. Do not carry the flag flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.

13. Do not use the flag as a portion of a costume or of an athletic uniform. Do not embroider it upon cushions or handkerchiefs nor print it on paper napkins or boxes.

14. Do not put lettering of any kind upon the flag.

15. Do not use the flag in any form of advertising nor fasten an advertising sign to a pole from which the flag is flying.

16. Do not display, use or store the flag in such a manner as will permit it to be easily soiled or damaged.

MINUTES OF STATE OFFICERS' CLUB, D. A. R. OF GEORGIA

On Tuesday, March 15, 1933, the State Officers' club met in the Green room of the Henry Grady hotel, Atlanta.

The president, Mrs. Talmadge, called the meeting to order, and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

The president most graciously welcomed the members present. Regret was expressed that the marriage of Miss Bessie Wilkins to Hiram Cooper has moved from Georgia one of her most attractive and capable Daughters.

In the absence of Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Mell Knox was appointed acting recording secretary.

There followed the introduction by the president, of Mrs. H. F. Gaffney, vice-president general, who brought greeting from the National society, and of Mrs. Howard McCall and Mrs. John D. Pope, each of whom responded in a pleasant manner.

Next, the state regent, Mrs. McCurry, was presented. Mrs. McCurry gave the interesting information that the gavel used was made from Richard Stockton's (the Signer's) catalpa tree that bloomed for the first time on July 4, 1776, and was presented by the Princeton chapter, D. A. R., Princeton, N. J. Mrs. McCurry added further that a letter expressing sincere appreciation had been sent.

The treasurer's report was called for and Mrs. Land gave only a tentative report, as some of the checks received for dues are in state banks and their collection can not be completed until the banks reopen. As soon as these can be cleared, she will complete her report, have it verified by the auditor and send a copy to the secretary for publication in the minutes.

Mrs. Bun Wylie and Mrs. Franklin, distinguished members, were introduced. Twenty-nine members responded to roll call.

The minutes of the Waycross meeting were approved as read and the minutes of the Executive board meeting in Marietta were read.

With Mrs. Gaffney in the chair, Mrs. Talmadge, president, gave her report, which was accepted with thanks. Her recommendation was referred to the Resolution committee, composed of Mrs. Dykes, Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Wylie. The committee moved the adoption of the resolution: "That after all indebtedness of the club is paid the balance in hand be given as a contribution toward the library table in Constitution hall, which was pledged in honor of our state regent, Mrs. McCurry." The resolution was enthusiastically adopted.

Officers giving reports were: Mrs. Gaffney, first vice-president; Mrs. McCall, second vice-president; Mrs. Pope, third vice-president; Mrs. McCurry, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Herbert Franklin, historian.

There being no unfinished business, election of officers was called for.

Upon motion made by Mrs. Gaffney, Mrs. Howard McCall and Mrs. Julius Talmadge were each made honorary life presidents of the Officers club.

Mrs. Julius Talmadge nominated Mrs. Gaffney for president and those nominated for other offices were: Mrs. Max Land, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles Akerman, second vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Vereen, third vice-president; Mrs. Mell Knox, recording secretary; Mrs. Herbert Franklin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Julian McCurry, treasurer; Mrs. Rheta Coney, historian, and Mrs. W. F. Dykes, auditor.

The motion by Mrs. Land "that the office of chaplain be added to the list of offices, as any organization needs Divine guidance," carried.

Mrs. Bun Wylie was nominated for chaplain. Mrs. B. A. Tyler moved that nominations be closed and the motion carried. The secretary was instructed to cast the ballot and the officers were declared elected.

Motion by Mrs. McCurry that Mrs. Hiram Cooper, nee Bessie Wilkins, be made an honorary member, was carried.

When told that Mrs. Hillyer, Washington, D. C., was visiting in Atlanta, it was the unanimous wish of members that she be invited to the Officers' club breakfast given in honor of Mr. Magna, president general.

At this time Mrs. Talmadge presented the club with a beautiful minute book of her own handiwork in most artistic gesso work. Mrs. John W. Daniel moved the acceptance of this book with thanks, and upon suggestion of Mrs. Gaffney, the members rose as evidence of appreciation.

When Mrs. Talmadge was called from the room, Mrs. Gaffney took the chair.

Mrs. Land announced that Mrs. Nicholson and she, in response to numerous requests that tokens of love and esteem be presented Mrs. Talmadge, president State Officers' club, and Mrs. Magna, president general, National Society, D. A. R. From the State Officers' club, had purchased silver vase for Mrs. Talmadge and a silver and blue vanity for the president general. Mrs. Daniel moved that the club express thanks to Mrs. Land and Mrs. Nicholson and that their action be ratified. There were many seconds and the motion was carried.

The motion by Mrs. Pope that a telegram be sent Mrs. Bessie Wilkins Cooper from State Officers' club, carried.

Mrs. Talmadge returned and presented Mrs. Rounsaville, former state regent, who responded with interesting reminiscences.

Mrs. Gaffney, newly elected president, was presented and she bespoke her appreciation of her election to this office.

Mrs. Gaffney named the following committee to arrange entertainment for State Officers' club: Mrs. John S. Adams, chairman; Mrs. Rounsaville, Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Mrs. O. C. Bullock, and a State conference hostess chapter member.

Mrs. Thomas Mell extended greetings to the members from the Atlanta chapter.

The breakfast was announced for 7:00 o'clock the following morning, in the same room.

On motion, the State Officers' club adjourned.

On Wednesday morning, the members of the Officers' club gathered in the Green room of the Henry Grady hotel for breakfast. The tables, which formed a "U," were decorated with beautiful spring flowers and in the center a miniature fountain was at play.

Mrs. Magna, president general, was the honor guest, and she explained in detail the National Defense program of the Society.

On behalf of the club, Mrs. Land presented a gift to the president general, which she accepted most graciously.

At this point Mrs. Magna took her departure amid the good wishes of all present. She was accompanied to Candler field by Mrs. Sidney Smith, where Mrs. Magna boarded a plane for the Florida State conference.

Bespeaking the loving esteem in which she is held by all members, Mrs. Knox presented an exquisite silver vase from the Officers' club to Mrs. Talmadge, who expressed most sincere appreciation in accepting the gift.

Mrs. Talmadge introduced the newly elected officers.

A resolution "That if any member of the Officers' club fails to use the first name when speaking to or of a member, while the club is in session, that member will be fined five cents, which will be put in Constitution hall debt fund," passed.

The president, Mrs. Talmadge, welcomed the new members.

Mrs. McCurry thanked Mrs. Land for arranging the breakfast and asked that the sweet peas presented Mrs. Magna by the Martha Berry schools, be sent to Mrs. Land's son who is ill in a hospital. Mrs. Land expressed appreciation for herself and her son of this courtesy. Mrs. Rounsaville added she knew this would bring pleasure to Miss Berry.

Mrs. Franklin listed the first name of each member and Mrs. Dykes moved that the list be typed, multigraphed and one mailed each member. The motion carried.

Mrs. Hillyer, Washington, expressed her appreciation of the invitation to the breakfast.

Mrs. Land, in her usual happy manner, paid a tribute to Mrs. Talmadge, retiring president, and spoke in complimentary terms of the incoming president, Mrs. Gaffney.

Following a toast offered by Mrs. Talmadge to members, adjournment was made.

MRS. JULIUS TALMADGE, President.

MRS. MELL KNOX, Acting Secretary.
