Bookplate for Georgia books in library at Constitution Hall, a contribution of the Georgia Society D. A. R. to the Georgia Bicentennial program.

HISTORY

The work of providing a bookplate for the Georgia books in the library at Constitution Hall was begun by Mrs. John S. Adams during her first term of office as State Librarian, Georgia D. A. R. 1931-1932. At the time Mrs. Adams planned a design which, with the addition of the motto and Bicentennial dates, is the sketch used.

The Bookplates were presented to the Georgia Society D. A. R. on March 16, 1933, by Mrs. E. B. Freeman in her report to the Georgia State Conference, as chairman of the Bookplate Committee, and accepted for the Georgia Society by Mrs. Julian McCurry, State Regent of Georgia.

Significance

Many phases of Georgia history are embodied in the design of the State D. A. R. Bookplate. In the upper center appears an inset of a photogravure of General James Edward Oglethorpe, the founder of the state; the shield of Oglethorpe is placed on the upper left and is balanced on the right by the great seal of the state of Georgia. On the left of the center inscription "Ex Libris D. A. R. Georgia," is an Indian figure representing the original inhabitants of this domain; on the right is a replica of the Statue of Liberty. The motto, "Amor patriae patrumque," carries the thought of love of country and of ancestry. Intertwining these and blending them into an interesting whole is a delicate tracery of the Cherokee rose, Georgia's state flower. A few full blown cotton bolls, Georgia's staple crop, also appear in the embellishment of the sketch. The Bicentennial idea is expressed in the dates, 1733-1933.

The Pledge to the Flag

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say, can you see, by dawn's early light,

What so proudly we hail'd at twilight's last gleaming—

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof, through the night, that our flag was still there,

O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave,

O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

The American's Creed

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a Democracy within a Republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

America

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride;
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring thro' all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

My native country, thee—
Land of the noble free,—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Our fathers' God to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

KEEP THE FAITH

(Air: "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean")
O, our national organization,
A band of the fair and true,
We pledge thee thy daughters' devotion,
Our love and allegiance renew.
May thy name that we cherish stand ever,
As new members we add to thy roll,
For service and duty forever
To country a beautiful scroll.

Chorus:

Keep faith with the brave and the true,
"Carry on" in work that's to do.
Let "over the top" be our motto,
Our standard, the Red, White and Blue.

O, the Star-Spangled Banner we cherish,
And the D. A. R. takes the stand:
We pledge that its glory ne'er perish,
Nor its beauty grow dim in the land;
Our grandsires fought to defend it
In the days of its perilous youth.
We daughters will ever protect it,
Its folds of bright living truth.

The fires of the fierce revolution,
Where thunders were heard 'round the world,
Kindled thoughts of our great constitution,
And Liberty's flag was unfurled;
Our ancestors fought for our freedom
And Liberty's torch held on high;
We hold up the torch that they left us
And bear it aloft to the sky.

By ELIZABETH DUNCAN LANIER.

Adopted as a State D. A. R. Song, April, 1919.

MINUTES

MARCH 19, 1934, ALBANY, GEORGIA

The Executive Board of the Georgia Society D. A. R. met on Monday afternoon, March 19, 4:00 o'clock, at the Municipal Auditorium, Albany, Georgia, the State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, presiding. In the absence of the State Recording Secretary, Mrs. John S. Adams, Mrs. E. Blount Freeman served as Secretary Pro Tem.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated by the assembly, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag led by Mrs. John M. Slaton.

Roll call showed 14 state officers and 36 state chairmen present. The Minutes of the Executive Board meeting held in Elberton, Georgia, October 21, 1933, were read and approved.

The State Regent, Mrs. McCurry, introduced Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, Vice-President General from Georgia, who extended cordial greetings to the Board and spoke of the leading activities of that great and magnificent organization, the National Society D. A. R.

The Regent introduced three Honorary State Regents, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, Mrs. Charles Akerman, and Mrs. Max E. Land.

Mrs. Gaffney, Vice-President General and Honorary State Regent, made motion that a rising vote of confidence and appreciation be extended the State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, with the assurance that the Executive Board and the Georgia Society D. A. R. stand solidly behind her at all times. A rising vote of confidence and appreciation was given.

Mrs. John W. Daniel, State Treasurer, gave a condensed report of the work of her office, which will be given in full at the Tuesday morning session of the Georgia State Conference.

Honorary State Regent, Mrs. Talmadge, spoke of recent bereavements in the families of two members of the Executive Board, Mrs. John S. Adams, State Recording Secretary, and Mrs. Harrison Hightower, State Reporter to Smithsonian Institution, and made motion that the Corresponding Secretary send to each a telegram of sympathy. Motion seconded and carried. Upon motion of Mrs. J. M. Simmons, this body stood for one minute in silent prayer for these members.

In reply to inquiry from Mrs. Talmadge as to whether any amount be still due on the president's table at Constitution Hall, Mrs. Daniel, State Treasurer, replied that while there is no bill out against this item, the balance due was taken from the state treasury and hence is designated as deficit on her books.

Mrs. Travis, Chairman Preservation of Historic Spots and Marking of Oglethorpe Highway, presented the question of the Executive Board's endorsing the Oglethorpe Highway, Route 38, which extends from Midway to the Alabama state line. Mrs. Gaffney made motion to this effect. Motion seconded and carried.

At a previous meeting of the Executive Board the Regent was authorized to create a new committee to be designated the Traveling Genealogical Library. Mrs. J. D. Wadsworth of Columbus, chairman, was called upon at this time to speak on this work. Mrs. Wadsworth urged the advisability of admitting the general public to the use and benefits of this library. This library is to be the repository of inherited family data and, since the South has preserved so few of her records, it was shown to be our duty to make these records available to all her citizens. The Regent, Mrs. McCurry, stated that the Georgia D. A. R. is sponsoring a bill in Congress to give $30,000 to reclaim all old census records.

Mrs. Dykes, Chairman Lucy Cook Peel Memorial, made motion that money paid from state D. A. R. treasury to Stein for publishing Vol. IV., "Historical Collections Georgia D. A. R.," be refunded the state treasury since the Lucy Cook Peel Memorial Committee has now sufficient funds to cover this amount, $4.27. Motion seconded and carried.

Mrs. Travis stressed the wisdom of having state highways clearly located and named before being endorsed by Georgia D. A. R., as complications have arisen in the past over failure to do so. Mrs. Travis requested that a committee be appointed to decide which chapters shall receive the money paid in to her committee. The Regent named Mrs. Rosa McMaster, Mrs. A. H. Brenner, Mrs. E. J. Oliver, and Miss Virginia Harden on this committee.

Mrs. Travis made motion that the Bainbridge Chapter be granted the privilege of using $35.00 for marking Jackson Trail, this amount having been previously granted this chapter for marking Fort Recovery. Motion seconded and carried.

Mrs. Akerman, Chairman of Resolutions, read three resolutions which were referred to the Resolutions Committee and which will be presented to the State Conference at the Tuesday morning session.

Mrs. T. D. Power of Columbus, made motion that the Executive Board endorse Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, Georgia's Vice-President General, for a national office on Mrs. Gillentine's ticket. Mrs. A. N. Murray, Columbus, seconded. Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. Land, Mrs. Dykes, Mrs. Talmadge, Mrs. Gaffney, Miss Virginia Hardin, and Mrs. Mell Knox spoke to this motion. Discussion developed that, as the Board had at a previous meeting, on October 21, 1933, endorsed Mrs. Julius Talmadge for a national office on Mrs. Becker's ticket, it would place Georgia in an embarrassing position to endorse candidates on opposing tickets, and would materially weaken the voting strength of the state. The Regent referred the matter to the Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian stated that there is no ruling in the National Society upon which she could base a decision, but to her knowledge no State Conference had gone on record as endorsing candidates on opposing tickets. Rather than divide a hitherto harmonious state into factions, Mrs. Talmadge asked the Board to rescind the motion passed at the October, 1933, Board meeting. The members of the Board refused to consider this action. A substitute motion was immediately made by Mrs. Max Land, Honorary State Regent, "That Georgia decide by a closed ballot as to whether the Board should endorse one or two candidates on opposite tickets for national offices." The Regent instructed the Secretary to prepare ballot, appointing Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Colley, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Rucker, tellers. Mrs. Murray, chairman, read result, which was 40 to 3 in favor of endorsing only one candidate.

Mrs. Dykes, Chairman Lucy Cook Peel Memorial, made motion that the purchase of Vols. II, III, and IV, "Georgia D. A. R. Historical Collections," be placed on the list of honor roll requirements for the coming year. A rising vote was taken. Result 34 to 9 in favor of motion.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

MRS. JULIAN McCURRY, State Regent.

MRS. E. BLOUNT FREEMAN, Acting Recording Secretary.

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 19, 1934

The Daughters of the American Revolution of Georgia opened their Thirty-sixth Conference in the Municipal Auditorium, Albany, at 8:00 o'clock Monday evening, March 19, 1934.

The initial feature of the evening was a musical program. The bugle call by Boy Scout Don Yancy, heralded the entrance of the impressive processional of Standard Bearers, Pages, Distinguished Guests, Ex-State Regents, Ex-National Officers, State Officers, National Officers, Vice-President General, Hostess Regents, and State Regent.

This processional was headed by Mrs. John M. Slaton, Mrs. Julius Talmadge and Mrs. Bun Wylie, bearing respectively the flag of the United States, the ceremonial flag of the Georgia Society D. A. R., and the official flag of the State of Georgia.

The Thirty-sixth Georgia State Conference was called to order by Mrs. Julian McCurry, State Regent.

The invocation was pronounced by Rev. H. S. Cobey, Rector, St. Paul's Episcopal Church; Mrs. John M. Slaton led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, and the recital of the American's Creed was led by Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, Vice-President General from Georgia, after which the "Star-Spangled Banner" was sung.

With Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Regent Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, and Mrs. Leo Leader, Regent Thronateeska Chapter, presiding, addresses of welcome were given by prominent D. A. R. and citizens of Albany.

In her welcome speech Mrs. Leo Leader paid a beautiful tribute to the D. A. R. Society.

Mayor R. F. Armstrong extended cordial greetings from all citizens of Albany in these words:

"Albany is yours." "You are true daughters of Liberty," concluded Mr. Armstrong, "and in your veins flows royal blood."

Mr. Armstrong was introduced to the Conference by Mrs. S. S. Bennett, Honorary Regent Commodore Richard Dale Chapter.

Mrs. W. C. Holman, President Federated Women's Clubs, extended from the club women of Albany greetings abounding in hospitality and gracious welcome.

Hon. H. T. McIntosh, editor of the Albany Herald, spoke for the Alliance, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, and assured the Conference of the pleasure it afforded the Men's Civic Clubs to welcome its members to their city.

Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Honorary State Regent and Ex-Vice-President General, in her usual charming manner responded to the addresses of welcome, stating, "Albany is always a happy memory to me," since it was in this fair city that she first attended a Georgia State Conference sixteen years ago.

Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Hostess Regent, presented the State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, who gave a comprehensive review of the work of the Georgia D. A. R., stressing many of its important achievements. In her inspiring address the State Regent gave as the chief objective of the National Society D. A. R., "Preservation of Patriotism." She paid fitting tribute to President Roosevelt and assured her audience that the D. A. R. would ever give to their country unflinching devotion and loyalty.

A vocal solo, "Down in the Forest," by the composer, Landon Ronald, beautifully rendered by Mrs. O. D. Culpepper, with Mrs. A. H. Tompkins, official accompanist, at the piano, was one of the delightful features of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Bun Wylie, State Chairman National Defense through Patriotic Education, introduced Mrs. William H. Becker, National Chairman of this committee, who was the main speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Becker held the rapt attention of her audience during a masterly address, giving a true conception of National Defense and bringing a ringing challenge for service which must be met with confidence and an abiding faith that knows no defeat. Mrs. Becker made a stirring plea for the defense of our schools, our churches, our homes—the three-fold bulwark of National Defense.

Mrs. Bun Wylie thanked Mrs. Becker for her magnificent address and made motion that it be printed and a copy of same be sent to each chapter Regent. Motion seconded and carried.

A vocal solo, "Honor and Arms," aria from the opera Samson, composer, Handel, was sung by Mrs. H. B. Knowles, accompanied by Mrs. Tomkins.

The State Regent, Mrs. McCurry, presented her official family, who responded by standing:

State First Vice-Regent, Mrs. W. F. Dykes; State Second Vice-Regent, Mrs. W. E. Mann; Acting Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. Blount Freeman; State Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Thomas C. Mell; State Treasurer, Mrs. John W. Daniel; State Consulting Organizing Secretary, Mrs. T. E. Ryals; State Librarian, Mrs. Stewart Colley; State Historian, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson; State Consulting Registrar, Mrs. J. L. Mims; State Curator, Mrs. J. M. Simmons; State Chaplain, Mrs. C. D. Shelnett.

In apt words of poetic beauty and rythm, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, Honorary State Regent, introduced the distinguished guests of the evening:

Mrs. Wm. H. Becker, National Chairman National Defense.

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, Vice-President General, Honorary State Regent.

Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, National President Barons of Runnymede, Ex-Vice-President General, Honorary State Regent.

Mrs. Max Land, Honorary State Regent.

Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Parliamentarian, stated that by a two-thirds vote of the house, the order of business might be changed and the above named officers elected at the morning instead of during the evening session as slated. Mrs. Talmadge made motion to this effect and the motion was seconded and carried. There being no opposing candidates the Recording Secretary Pro Tem, Mrs. Freeman, was instructed to cast the ballot for the slate of officers who had been nominated and unanimously endorsed, by the Georgia State Conference, and Mrs. McCurry, State Regent, declared the slate of officers elected.

Mrs. Julius Talmadge nominated the Retiring State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, for the office of Vice-President General National Society D. A. R. This nomination was seconded by a rising vote of the entire Conference. Mrs. Max Land also personally seconded this nomination which was unanimously carried.

R. for this endorsement, the expression of their love and confidence.

ADDRESS OF STATE REGENT, MRS. JULIAN McCURRY, AT THIRTY-SIXTH STATE CONFERENCE, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Greetings to our Hostess Regents of Albany, Distinguished Guests and Daughters of the American Revolution.

Although officially the calendar still has a few days to turn before welcoming in spring, there is already that feeling of rejuvenation and recreation which is in itself a spiritual spring. There is a sense of warmth and welcome for us here, and a bit of planting of seeds for D. A. R. growth in the next year. For it is at the State Conference that all D. A. R. planting is really done—there each chapter delegate receives her inspiration for the chapter's work in the next year. And in order to reap a golden harvest, let us turn ourselves to the business of sowing with industry and whole-heartedly.

This Conference already has assumed a beautiful symbolism to me. For the last time I greet you as your State Regent. I feel as I imagine the conductor of a great symphony feels when he last raises his baton to direct his musicians. And the two years that I have served as Regent have been beautiful harmonies, in which the voices of all instruments were heard—blended in euphony. A symphony in which a thousand different instruments are played—an organization in which 5,000 women work together for a common good. You must see the similarity; as the instruments of an orchestra are tuned one with the other for harmony, so we are tuned with the times for progress.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have ever been in harmony with the times. A brief review of our works and achievements will indicate as much. It was the Georgia Society of the National D. A. R. that introduced the first scholarship fund, in behalf of the advancement of national education. The marking of historic spots throughout our nation has served to keep the memory of our valiant forefathers alive, to keep American history from becoming "as dry as dust." To summarize the many achievements of the D. A. R. would be too long a process to attempt in one evening.

But outstanding among this organization's work has been the preservation of patriotism. In the face of conflicting ideas in war and peace, placid pacifism against national defense, we have as a body come to uphold the ideal of preparedness. In passing, let me add that we do not advocate war for the sake of battle, or war for the sake of the financier, but rather a sense of armed security for a country that we love.

A sophisticated cynic might well call us a body of sentimental ancestor worshippers. But I hold, and I know that you agree with me, that patriotism is a noble sentiment rather than a maudlin sentimentality. The patriotism which we revere is not the sensational flag-waving hysteria that is held up for ridicule; it is that finer emotion, with which we enshrine the memories of the great Americans who have made us a national symbol of freedom and democracy that has no equal the world over.

The love which we have for our country is not blind adoration—it is perhaps, somewhat like the love of a mother for a child, though this may seem paradoxical. For although we have that sense of devotion which is patriotism unshaken in our hearts, we know that our country is not without faults. These faults are usually within our powers of correction. No mythical Utopia was ever reached without complete cooperation of its inhabitants. Unless every citizen in the United States gives his complete cooperation to the government we can never hope for a Utopia here.

One of the most essential forms of expression of patriotism is through music. Music is the most universal of the arts in its appeal—for in poetry one is limited by adjectives and meter; painting is limited to a small square of canvas; architecture is confined by mortar and stone, and sculpture is bound close in marble and bronze. But a song can live forever in the human heart, and on the lips; and with a song there is always an answering emotion.

The natives of Africa used the measured beat of the tom-toms in primitive rhythm to so excite themselves that they were not afraid in battle. In the last war, our boys in khaki sang "Over There" to bolster courage. And though there is a vast difference between the African tom-tom and the marching song of the A. E. F., the effect was the same.

I have always been impressed by the fact that the United States had a national anthem before George Washington took oath of office as first President of the United States, which shows that a nation expresses its patriotism in music before it has a ruler.

Everyone knows of the famous composition of the "Star-Spangled Banner." I am told by friends in far-away countries that there is nothing which makes them quite so homesick as hearing a band play these stirring strains. And the patriotism that stirs the hearts of present-day Americans, is the same emotion that created our country—one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

I cannot stress too deeply the immediate need for active patriotism. If the national conditions were normal, it might be well enough to sit quietly and say, "We love our country," and go blissfully about the business of living our own lives. But we cannot, today, remembering the ideals of the Daughters of the American Revolution, sit quietly by. There are many things to be done.

Were this a time of war, we would busy ourselves with lint and bandages and knitting. Because the country is not in a state of war we cannot be idle. There can be bandages for the emotional wounds that the depression has made, to keep the hearts of our fellowmen from festering with hate and cruelty to a government that permitted a depression. As a soldier in battle strives to keep up his flag, so we must strive to keep up our morale.

Surely there was never a more able leader for the crisis than our President, Franklin Roosevelt. A year ago, the country was in turmoil—banks closed, people panic-stricken and frantic. Today, the cloud of fear has become so faint that few of us notice it at all.

Nor do I advocate the Pollyanna optimism that is as fatal as pessimism to the growth of the nation. But this I know: That with faith in God and the nation, and courage in action and word, there is nothing to fear.

Fear is about the worst of the evils that have descended on our nation. Nothing can dissipate fear but confidence. There is a myth for children, told of a little boy who was sent to a miraculous fountain for water to cure his mother of a mysterious malady. The fountain was guarded by monsters—an elephant, and a tiger, and a dragon. The lad, fortified by his love for his mother, went bravely to the fountain, and found there engraved the words, "Perfect love casteth out all fear." As [he turned around, he found that the monsters had become a snap-dragon, a tiger lily, and elephant ears.

A charming story, but one with a moral: Nothing can allay our depression-fear but perfect love of home and God and country. Let me plead with you to keep that love undimmed by selfish interests and to continue to give to this organization and your country the unfailing devotion of a patriot.

As conductor, I am stepping from the stand—leaving, like Schubert, a beautiful unfinished symphony of love and loyalty and patriotism. But this know, that forever and ever, as long as this nation exists, there will be a harmonious band of women, the Daughters of the American Revolution, who will carry-on.

Accept my thanks for the most beautiful years of my life, working with people I love for a cause I love—for a country we all love.

OFFICERS' REPORTS

ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE REGENT

Mrs. Julian McCurry, State Regent

March 19, 1934

The past year has been one of national significance; it has witnessed the recovery of our country from the lethargy of a depression which bound the nation in fear. Now that the fear of the future is changing to a hope for the future, the brief review of D. A. R. achievements will indicate that despite the trying times we have gone steadily forward. We have gone a bit slowly, perhaps, but with an ever-increasing purpose to the unattainable goals we have set for ourselves.

There have been no brilliant spurts of accomplishment, but like the patient tortoise of fabled fame we have gone on and on, slowly and surely.

I have no regrets as I make this final report of my stewardship as your Regent; rather, there is an intense feeling of pride and joy in seeing the loyalty of our organization hold us together in our work. The times of stress have served to increase the need for our patriotism, and we have met the test of the past two years with a sense of responsibility not unlike the magnificent patriotism of the forefathers whose memory we honor.

It is difficult to summarize the work of the past year. Each day has brought its problem, and its achievement, and I can only touch upon the highlights. The days which will be unmentioned in this report were almost as eventful as the days that I record.

Among the most interesting experiences in my D. A. R. Regency was my visit to the Century of Progress Exposition, in June, 1933, where I attended the Board meeting and the National Flag Day celebration. On June 13 the State Regents held their meeting at which the following points were brought out: (1) The distinction between a Daughter of a Revolutionary Soldier and a Real Daughter of the American Revolution is that the Real Daughter must be, or have been, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. (2) The difference between a military flagpole and one accepted for civilian use. The flagpole topped by an eagle is not to be used by anyone except a military official. The civilian pole is topped with a ball or an arrow. (3) In boxes for Ellis Island contributions of magazines with instructions for crocheting, knitting and other handiwork are in demand. (4) The National Magazine Chairman instructs each Chapter Treasurer to deduct 20 cents from each $2.00 subscription for her chapter, sending $1.80 to the National Treasurer with the name and address of the subscriber. (5) The Committee on the Sons and Daughters of the Republic has been changed to the Sons and Daughters of the U. S. A.

At the registration in D. A. R. Headquarters in Chicago, questionnaires were filled in by all people. This has proved quite valuable in getting the names of non-members who are interested in D. A. R. work, and would like to become members. At the present, we are interested in increasing our organization, and the registration cards of non-members were mailed to the State Regents of various states, and an attempt will be made to follow-up this interest in D. A. R. activities, with the hope of increasing our roll.

Following the Board meeting on June 13, Mrs. Herrick, of Illinois, entertained the members of the Board, and among the other unique features of the occasion was the decoration. Our Vice-President General, Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, had sent the flowers from her Georgia garden, and they were very beautiful, despite their long trip, and made an effective decoration.

The Illinois State D. A. R. was the hostess at a dinner on the evening preceding the actual Parade of the Flags, and on the morning after the celebration we were their guests at breakfast.

With military escort, the Pages from the different states, each carrying her state flag, marched to the American flag in the Parade of the Flags. There they formed an avenue of flags, through which the officials passed, and the American flag was raised—a ceremony which impresses every patriot with its true symbolism of our nation. Mrs. Magna read an original poem to the flag, and the exercises were continued in the Hall of the States with an address by Mrs. Magna, and appropriate music.

Those attending from Georgia were: Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney, Vice-President General; Miss Sue Reid Vason, Regent of the Henry Walton Chapter, and Georgia Page; Miss Lottie Lou Wallace, Miss Sue Wallace, Mrs. John Marshall Slaton and your Regent.

The members of the John Benson Chapter, Hartwell, honored me as State Regent by dedicating a radio broadcast over Station WTFI to me. The program was very interesting, including, with musical selections, a history of the chapter and a talk on D. A. R. work in the state.

In August it was my privilege to visit Mrs. Harrison Hightower, of Thomaston, State Reporter to the Smithsonian Institute, where I attended a beautiful historical pageant celebrating the Georgia Bicentennial year. I also enjoyed being the guest of honor at a reception given by the John Houston Chapter at the lovely home of Mrs. E. T. Black, where I had the pleasure of meeting my loyal fellow-workers of that chapter.

Personal pleasure was mine to present to the Rhodes Memorial Department of Archives a miniature of Oglethorpe, in honor of my State Historian, Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, which was graciously acknowledged by Miss Ruth Blair. We have purchased the cabinet which was authorized by a resolution at the last Conference and placed it in the Rhodes Memorial. The miniature of Oglethorpe is in this cabinet.

I regret very much that I was unable to accept the invitation to the Fourth of July celebration of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, due to a previous engagement, but I know that I was ably represented by Mrs. W. F. Dykes, Vice-Regent.

While the house-guest of Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson in September, I had the pleasure of attending a reception given in my honor to the local Atlanta Board members, and those from nearby chapters.

I was able to bring to two chapters personally the Regent's Fall Message: the Henry Walton Chapter, Madison, and the Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens.

On November 15, there was a nation-wide celebration of the President General's birthday, in an effort to raise funds for liquidating the debt on Constitution Hall. This was wonderfully successful, for $30,000.00 was made by the plan. I attended the local birthday party at the Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens.

I also regret my inability to have attended the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the General James Jackson Chapter, but my duties kept me in Athens at that time.

It was a great honor for me to attend the U. D. C. State Convention in Athens October 17, 18, and 19 as distinguished guest from the D. A. R., where I had the privilege of responding to the welcome given the heads of every organization.

The State Board meeting was held in Elberton, Georgia, where the Board members were the guests of the Stephen Heard Chapter, Miss Edna Rogers, Regent. There we saw an impressive pageant in which the story of Nancy Hart was re-enacted. There is a replica of one of the rooms in Nancy Hart's cabin in the Nancy Hart Reservation, and it provided a very interesting glimpse back into Revolutionary times. The Board meeting was very successful and a happy occasion.

October 25th found your Regent in Washington at the National Board meeting. The following important matters came out there:

It is desired that our files be open at Washington. If the files are opened to people who contemplate joining, they may be materially helped in tracing ancestral lines. Please have the Corresponding Secretary send names of members who are willing to have their files opened to National Headquarters.

There have been some changes in committees: The Committee on Better Films has been dropped, for the reason that so many other organizations have similar committees and it seems to be an unnecessary duplication. It was considered advisable to combine the two committees of Historical Research and Preservation of Historic Spots into a single committee on Historical Research. We are to drop the title, Manual for Immigrants and substitute D. A. R. Manual for Citizenship. Instead of National Defense Embodying Patriotic Education this committee has been changed to National Defense Through Patriotic Education. Instead of National Registrar's the name will be in the future National Membership Committee. A medal for Good Citizenship has been adopted, the design to be worked out by a committee.

Gifts to the Library and Museum are henceforth to be reported at State Conference, and by the Librarian General and the Curator General at Congress. Owing to the great value of both the books to the library and gifts to the museum, in order to preclude any possible loss or damage to any of them, the presentation of gifts at Congress will be discontinued. The above officers will give due mention and credit to such contributions.

I was the guest of the Lamar-LaFayette Chapter of Barnesville in the lovely home of Mrs. Jena Collier, where we were entertained at a luncheon and I talked with the members of this Chapter on the State D. A. R. work, on November 28.

On December 3 at the Rhodes Memorial the Daughters of the American Revolution held open house. Miss Ruth Blair, State Historian of Georgia, received with the state officers, and the D. A. R. records and relics pertaining to Revolutionary times were on display. I was the house-guest of Mrs. Nicholson, State Historian, where she entertained for me at a lovely luncheon.

A memorial shaft was unveiled on December 5 to William H. Crawford by Miss Annie Crawford, his great-granddaughter, who is Chapter Regent of the Elijah Clarke Chapter. I attended these exercises and placed a wreath on the Memorial in the name of the Georgia D. A. R.

I was unable to attend the meeting of Federal Emergency Relief on December 12, but wired my efficient Vice-Regent, Mrs. W. F. Dykes, to attend. This was organized by order of Mrs. F. D.

Roosevelt, and it affords me much pleasure to see the D. A. R. so recognized to be of national importance.

I was a member of the committee to work on NRA, and personally had 425 to sign pledge cards.

On February 1 your Regent attended the National Board meeting, where plans for the National Congress were made.

The Annual Congress will convene in Washington at Constitution Hall on April 16 and adjourn on April 20. The Georgia headquarters will be at the Mayflower Hotel this year. An innovation this year is the charge of $1.00 registration fee. The money derived therefrom will go to defray expenses of the Congress.

The President General will receive the delegates on Tuesday, April 17, at Constitution Hall at 9 o'clock.

The Georgia Banquet will be held at the Mayflower Hotel on Tuesday evening, April 17. Chairman of the Banquet Committee is Mrs. Ruby Singleton, 1701 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, D. C.

On February 8, Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Miss Annie Crawford and I went to Gainesville, where we were entertained at a luncheon, guests of the Col. William Candler Chapter, Mrs. George Ashford, Regent. There were other out-of-town guests, members of the D. A. R. chapters of Clarkesville, Cornelia, Commerce, and Toccoa. We discussed the work of the D. A. R. Society, and I addressed the members. In the afternoon we were entertained at a beautiful tea in the home of Mrs. Sidney Smith, State Editor.

On February 15 I attended the birthday celebration of my own chapter, Elijah Clarke, in the home of Miss Annie Crawford, Regent; each former chapter Regent, including myself, gave a short talk summarizing her regime.

On February 22 I was entertained at a luncheon by the Toccoa Chapter, Mrs. J. W. Marks, Regent. The George Washington motif was carried out effectively by all members dressing in Colonial costume. I had the privilege of making a short talk after the luncheon.

I regret that I was only one person on this day, for I would like to have attended the meetings of the Atlanta Chapter and the Fort Valley Chapter.

In company with my Chapter Regent, Miss Annie Crawford, I had the pleasure of attending a meeting and tea given by the Baron DeKalb Chapter in Decatur, where I gave a short talk.

On February 26 I was the guest of Matthew Tolbert Chapter at Monroe, in company with Mrs. Erwin and Mrs. Talmadge; Mrs. Talmadge and I were the speakers of the occasion.

Your Regent had the honor to place wreaths on two markers in Washington, Wilkes County, Ga., erected by the D. A. R. and Mrs. Alex Anderson on February 23. These markers were made of Georgia marble, and I have a charming memento of the occasion in a marble ashtray, cut from the same block, which was given me by Mrs. Anderson. This occasion and program was planned by Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, State Historian, and many prominent D. A. R. members were present. The land on which the marker stands was deeded to the D. A. R. by Miss Pink Anderson, on whose plantation one of the markers is erected.

It was with deep regret that I had to decline the invitation of the James Pittman Chapter Birthday Party March 16 and the invitation to a luncheon with the Council of Safety in Americus March 22.

In closing let me add that the two years I have served as Regent for Georgia have been happy, successful years, and I am deeply grateful to every Daughter in the state for the loyal cooperation and splendid support accorded me while in office. Yet I know, withal, that the same loyalty will be given to every Regent in the future as it has been given to every Regent in the past, and with unfaltering purpose, we will, as a State Society, press on and on, inspired by our memories of yesterday and our dreams of tomorrow, and living in the very present so that our achievements will remain a symbol of remembrance for the past, and a hope for the future.

VICE-PRESIDENT GENERAL, NATIONAL SOCIETY D. A. R.

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney

The outstanding occurrences for Georgia continue along the lines of the Bicentennial celebrations, inasmuch as the year is only half completed, and with the Daughters, "Patriotism is a glorious reality."

"God bless the spinning wheels and looms,
Flintlock and powderhorn,
Log cabins in whose humble rooms
Five Presidents were born.
And may the spirit of our sires
Impel all, in God's sight,
To keep progression's altar fires
Forever burning bright."

April, 1933, brought another Continental Congress which I had the great pleasure to attend.

At this time I wish to assure you that I deem it a privilege to have been one of the honor guests at another of our lovely Georgia banquets, and sit with its members on such a delightful occasion, and carry for you the proverbial bouquet of gorgeous yellow roses. The excellently planned program that was carried out during the Congress still deserves much praise. I was very pleased to have shared these educational treats with you.

Upon my return home I began immediately to fill the days with worthwhile tasks, and one of the first was a Historical program held at the Columbus Country Club. Following the luncheon, many women of Georgia were signally honored who had accomplished outstanding merit along educational, artistic and cultural lines. I was selected as toastmistress, and represented you as Program chairman.

Next day, I gave a broadcast on "What the Daughters of the American Revolution Do," at Mrs. Magna's request.

On the first Thursday in May I addressed the members of the George Walton Chapter, and at the close of my address I explained the purpose of the birthday party arranged for November 15, and what joy it would bring to the organization to know that the debt on Constitution Hall was being reduced, in such a uniform manner.

June 14, I had an invitation to address for the third time the Summer School Convocation of the Alabama Polytechnical Institute, under the auspices of the Light Horse Harry Lee Chapter, at Auburn, Alabama.

Due to the fact that the National Board meeting for June was scheduled to be held in Chicago, where the Century of Progress was being enacted, I was denied the pleasure of returning to dear Auburn, the girlhood home of my mother, and the college from which my father graduated.

However, the visit to this wonderful western city, where a Star and a Miracle were bringing all tourists and educators to its gates, was the high point of my pleasant duties as your National Representative, at this particular time. Two experiences only, shall suffice for this especial journey: First, that I had the joy of sending my flowers from "Pinehaven" Green Island Hills, to be used for the floral decorations at the luncheon at the Union League Club, and another that I was privileged to take part in the wonderful parade of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and to hear the inspiring address given by Mrs. Magna.

July brought an earnest request from the Brunswick Chapter to contribute an article for the special edition of the Brunswick News. I was glad to contribute this and my subject gave the impressive points of the Century of Progress. Other patriotic addresses were sent to chapters to be read, for me, when I found it impossible to accept the invitations.

August, was the month that President Roosevelt began to make his dreams come true. At this time not only America but the whole world was re-fashioned and built upon the lines of National Recovery Administration. The satisfactory movement of "Thinking and Living for Others" was started, and citizenship has had a different meaning since that time.

Your Vice-President General was at once appointed as State Third District Chairman of Women's Division, NRA. I immediately formed the first NRA Forum in Georgia. We held frequent meetings at our Columbus Woman's Clubhouse, in the name of cultural programs, and excellent talks were made by the foremost educators and club women of Georgia. These forums were continued throughout the summer months when NRA was declared to be 100 per cent.

Button Gwinnett Chapter invited me to be the principal speaker at their October meeting, the opening one for their D. A. R. activities, and I was pleased to address them, touching at length upon the much discussed subject, "Recognition of Soviet Russia."

Many invitations came to me in November to attend and participate in the chapter programs, but duties in my own home chapter held me.

In December, Oglethorpe Chapter asked me to bring a tribute to the World War President, Mr. Woodrow Wilson, in observance of this especial patriotic day. I accepted this courtesy, and thanked the chapter in conclusion for the honor, since it was accorded me due to the fact that I created this patriotic day in our Georgia Society and was the first state chairman appointed.

January found me in Washington, D. C. I at once began one of the happiest, busiest winters of my life. My first appearance as representing the President General was occasioned by attending a lecture at Constitution Hall, and sharing the President General's box, with other national officers. This was given by the Geographic Society, who had chosen Julian Bryan as the lecturer; the subject, "Changing World in Russia."

Following this, I attended, as your representative, a symphony concert at our lovely hall, with Hans Kindler, conductor.

Every few days there was some chapter of the District holding meetings or giving benefits, and I attended most of these. Was the guest of Mrs. Beavers, Corresponding Secretary General, National Society D. A. R.; Miss Harman, Vice-President General; Mrs. Harry C. Groves, State Regent of the District; Mrs. Caldwell, Past Vice-President General, and Mrs. Hodgkins, of the National Society Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America.

The last week of January I was the house guest in New York of my dear friend and runningmate, Mrs. William Pouch, Vice-President General. While in New York State I was the honor guest of the Rufus King Chapter, then the C. A. R. Society at Staten Island, where I gave addresses. Following these engagements was a meeting of the Greater New York Chapters Council. This was held in the Washington Hotel and a luncheon assembling over 500 women brought to a close an interesting program. It was my happy pleasure to again address the Daughters of New York City. That evening I shared honors with Mrs. Gibbs, State Regent of New York, at a beautiful play in the Musical Hall of Radio City, "Mary Queen of Scotland."

Among the prominent women whom it was my pleasure to meet, and to be entertained as your Georgia representative, were Mrs. Clermont C. Covert, who is interested in Tamassee; Mrs. Laurens, State Chairman of "Approved Schools;" Mrs. Lockwood, Vice-Regent of New York; Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, Regent of Manhattan Chapter, also Past Honorary President United Daughters of the Confederacy, and Mrs. Chapman, Past National Chairman, National Society D. A. R.

February brought the National Board meeting, Dutch dinner and luncheon for members of same. These I attended, and greatly enjoyed. Then came the National Defense Conference at the Mayflower Hotel. I attended some of these sessions and heard some interesting and instructive addresses.

The two hundred and second anniversary of the birth of George Washington was a joint celebration of the Sons, Daughters and Children of the American Revolution held in Memorial Continental Hall. I had the pleasure again of being an honored guest, and attended with the other national officers. Mrs. Magna gave the principal address, using as her theme, "The Youth of George Washington."

My last invitation before leaving for home that evening, was to join the enthusiastic citizens of the nation at a meeting to be held in Constitution Hall, and hear President Roosevelt give his recent broadcast. This was indeed a great pleasure to silently re-affirm my allegiance and yours, to our illustrious leader, the Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt. While there were many other invitations sent me as your state and national representative, it was impossible to accept all, but after my stay of nearly three busy months in the nation's Capitol, I bring you this conviction, with deepest affection.

There are new horizons before us—new horizons, dedicated to the unbeatable soul who offers no alibis, makes no excuses, takes his lickings, and with eyes to the future, carries on. With you I welcome 1934—a year for greater accomplishments for the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution.

STATE FIRST VICE-REGENT

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

As my two years of service are drawing to a close, it is with a tinge of sadness I make my last report as your State First Vice-Regent. These have been happy days as we worked together and I am loath to give them up. Sweet friendships have been formed and delightful associations will ever be a pleasant memory. In October I attended the State Executive Board in Elberton where we were delightfully entertained at luncheon. Representing the State Regent, on July 4, at Joseph Habersham Chapter, gave an address. I was honor guest, in the absence of the State Regent, at the Georgia Products Dinner, given by the Joseph Habersham Chapter, and made patriotic address. Received with the State Regent at the reception given the D. A. R. by the State Historian, Miss Ruth Blair, at the Rhodes Memorial Hall. Represented the State Regent at the unveiling of the stone marker, by the Old Guard and U. D. C., on Peachtree Road, Atlanta. Was honor guest, again representing the state, at the George Washington luncheon, given by the Atlanta Chapter, February 22. Was an honor guest at the U. D. C. Convention in Athens, in October. Attended reception given State Regent and officers by the Baron DeKalb Chapter in Decatur.

With deep appreciation of the kindly consideration, helpfulness and ever ready cooperation you have given me, I am closing my administration with the happy memory of two most interesting and instructive years of service. I am grateful for this opportunity to serve my country, through my beloved Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

STATE SECOND VICE-REGENT

Mrs. W. E. Mann

As State Second Vice-Regent I met with the Executive Board in Elberton in October.

In November I attended the Tennessee State D. A. R. meeting in Chattanooga, where I was the recipient of many delightful social courtesies; a luncheon at the Hotel Patton, a tea and reception at the home of Mrs. Johnson, former State Regent of Tennessee, a luncheon given by the clubs at the Kosmos Woman's Club, and was also invited to share honors at a dinner which I was unable to accept.

An invitation was received to attend the Tennessee State D. A. R. meeting and luncheon in Knoxville in March.

It was a matter of sincere regret that I could not attend the reception given to our State Regent, Mrs. McCurry, by the Decatur Chapter, D. A. R.

STATE RECORDING SECRETARY

Mrs. John S. Adams

During my temporary absence from Georgia sojourning in Washington, D. C., I have made many trips back to the state in the interest of the D. A. R. organization, traveling many hundred miles to attend the different calls as they come.

Mrs. Mell Knox, Chairman of the Press Committee, extended a most cordial invitation to the committee to be her guest on June 15, 1933. I journeyed to Social Circle with all of the garnered material, together with the minutes of the Thirty-fifth Conference, for the inspection of the committee. I returned to the state in October, when I went to Elberton to take the minutes of the State Executive Board meeting. Mrs. Knox has issued another warm invitation to the Press Committee to be her guest on the morning of May 17. Again I am ready to deliver to this committee the work of the Georgia Daughters.

Because of my inability to be present at the Thirty-sixth Annual Conference in Albany, Mrs. E. Blount Freeman, of Dublin, was appointed by State Regent, Mrs. McCurry, to fill my place in the recording of the minutes of this Conference. Your Recording Secretary is extremely grateful to Mrs. Freeman for the magnificent work she accomplished and the Georgia Daughters wish to publicly recognize her thorough and painstaking efforts.

The compilation of the Proceedings is a fascinating piece of work, a wonderful experience enriched by friendships and in saying farewell as your Recording Secretary, I am deeply grateful for the many beautiful messages of love sent us in our recent bereavement. All this enables me to feel there is consolation in the knowledge that our sorrow is shared by those who love us.

To our beloved Regent I express my appreciation for her true guiding hand at all times.

STATE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Mrs. Thomas C. Mell

To have served as Corresponding Secretary with a Regent who was always kind and understanding has been my happy privilege. Many letters have been received and many written.

Four telegrams sent during Conference last year (Atlanta) (to Mrs. Walton, two to Mrs. Magna, and one to Col. Scott), $3.26; copies of Mrs. Magna's address sent Regents, $1.42½; State Regent's Fall message mailed, $2.63; notices of October Board meeting (Elberton), $1.66½; State Regent's Spring letters mailed, $2.97; credentials for State Conference at Albany, $2.75; invitations to Distinguished Guests, $3.03; two telegrams sent by Executive Board (Albany) (to Mesdames Adams and Hightower), 64 cents; three telegrams sent by State Conference (to Mesdames Adams, Hightower, and Knox), $1.88; telegram sent Mrs. Magna from Conference, 96 cents; letters sent at request of Conference (15), 25 cents; amount spent, $21.46.

Checks received from State Treasurer, $7.21; $14.25; total, $21.46.

The delightful invitations received from chapters during the last two years have been deeply appreciated and I regret that all could not have been accepted. Thanks for the splendid Year Books sent me.

STATE AUDITOR

Mrs. Henry J. Carswell

Mrs. James L. Mims, Auditor Pro-Tem

In the absence of the State Auditor, Mrs. Henry J. Carswell, I have examined the State Treasurer's books.

I find that the books have been audited by Eaton, Saussy Co., Certified Public Accountants of Savannah, Ga., who certify that they are correct.

STATE CONSULTING ORGANIZING SECRETARY

Mrs. T. E. Ryals

No report for the State Proceedings, as no new chapters were organized last year.

STATE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. Stewart Colley

It has been a definite pleasure to serve you for the past two years. In every way in which we have been asked to cooperate with the Librarian General, we have done so at once.

Much good work has been done in the state by donating books to our accredited D. A. R. schools and also to the American Merchant Marine Library. Lamar County History has been compiled by the Lamar-LaFayette Chapter of Barnesville and a copy has been presented to Memorial Continental Library.

REPORT OF STATE HISTORIAN, 1933-1934

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, State Historian

"History is the depository of great actions, the witness of what is past, the example and instructor of the present, and the monitor of the future.

With this wise adage always in mind, your Historian has endeavored to impress the Georgia Daughters with the importance of preserving history, of making history, and of looking to the future history of our Society and of our country. The Historian General, Mrs. William Louis Dunne, writes, "The study of history serves both as an inspiration and as a warning."

Never before has Georgia history been studied and stressed more than from February 12, 1933, Georgia Day,—the beginning of the Bicentennial celebration—with services and prayers in the churches throughout our state, to Thanksgiving Day, in November, 1933, its close. More research has been done and more interest felt in the early history of our state in the last 18 months than during any other similar period since its founding.

The celebrating of this important event has special appeal to the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, as the founding of our colony and the establishing of our state is the period of history we commemorate as a Society. In compiling state records and in research, Georgia D. A. R. have taken a most active part. The interest the chapters as a whole and the members as representatives of the D. A. R. have manifested in this state-wide anniversary has been very inspiring.

The state of Georgia staged a Bicentennial pageant in the Municipal Stadium in Savannah, April 27-29, 1933, celebrating the two hundredth anniversary of the Founding of the Colony of Georgia, beginning with "the Meeting of the Trustees of the Colony, in London, 1732," and continuing to the present time. Many of the descendants of those accompanying Oglethorpe to Georgia and who are prominent Georgia D. A. R., represented their illustrious ancestors in the various episodes of this pageant. The three Savannah D. A. R. chapters took an active part in this jubilee; the Savannah Chapter staged "The Ball for President Monroe;" the Bonaventure Chapter, "Eighteenth Century Colonial Life," and the Lachlan McIntosh Chapter presented the episode of "The Arrest of Governor James Wright."

The Lachlan McIntosh Chapter also sponsored the publication of the book, "Wills of Chatham County, Georgia, 1733-1817." This work was done by Mabel Freeman LaFar and Caroline Price Wilson, members of the chapter, and is considered an outstanding accomplishment in the field of genealogy. Among the wills are those of Sir James Wright and his wife, Lady Sarah; Sir Patrick Houston; Peter Tondee; Archibald Bullock; Samuel Elbert; Button Gwinnett, and others prominent in the early history of our state. The book contains all names which are mentioned in the wills, the locality of the lands, estates and adjoining properties. Your Historian considers this book the outstanding historical work accomplished by a chapter during the past year.

All chapters have been most active in observing Georgia's two hundredth birthday in various appropriate ways: the reading of splendid original historical papers prepared by members of the chapters; lectures on Georgia's early history by eminent speakers; moving pictures portraying the colonization of our state accompanied by lectures; the sponsoring of Georgia Products dinners; the presenting of Bicentennial pageants assisted by other local patriotic organizations; by window displays of Colonial relics; D. A. R. floats in NRA parades; by study and presentation of music and songs covering a period of 200 years, written by Georgia poets and Georgia composers; and one chapter was instrumental in having the names of four streets in their city changed to names of prominent pioneer settlers of Georgia. Out of 65 chapters making reports on historical work, no chapter reported less than two entire programs based on Georgia history; and every chapter reported part of every program given to the study of our state history. This is a wonderful manifestation of deep interest felt and displayed in observing this state-wide anniversary.

The suggested monthly programs issued by Mrs. Max Land on the study of "The National Society, D. A. R., Its Organization, Properties, and Activities," has been faithfully carried out by the chapters. The Study Programs outlined by the Historian General on "The Establishment of the United States Under the Constitution" have likewise been observed. This outline for the historical work, 1933-1934, by the Historian General, with her letter and mine of explanation, were mailed to each Chapter Regent in August. In September, the Historian General's Questionnaire, accompanied by my letter, in regard to the teaching of American History and Civil Government in all public and private schools in the state was sent to all the chapters. This was a fact-finding survey to ascertain if these studies are required or elective courses in the white and colored schools of Georgia, and if required as a credit for graduation. Ready responses were received from 70 chapters.

With the help of the State Department of Education and Statistics, your Historian compiled eight charts giving the number of white and colored public schools in the state; the number of municipal systems, with school population and number of schools in each; the number of county or school districts not under municipal control, with school population and number of schools in each; also the number of private colleges and academies in the state with approximate attendance and number covered in report.

My third Chapter Letter, in January, was in the form of an inquiry concerning historical work for the entire year. To this last questionnaire 65 chapters sent marvelous reports of work accomplished. All of my letters to the chapters and the letters of the Historian General, Mrs. Dunne, have been published in the D. A. R. columns of the newspapers in Georgia.

In response to my appeal to the chapters to write articles, not exceeding 1,500 words, on the person, place or event for which the chapter is named, I have received 40 most interesting and instructive sketches. A copy of these will be presented to the State Department of Archives and History, and I hope to have them published in booklet form later.

Your Historian has written articles on the early history of Georgia which have been published in the newspapers. One of these articles, "The Development of the State Flag of Georgia," contained data never before made public. Descriptions were given of the different flags with dates and where used. Another article appearing in the March issue of the D. A. R. Magazine contained the names of 25 of the heads of the 35 families who came in 1733 on the ship "Anne" with James Edward Oglethorpe to establish the Colony of Georgia. This list of names was presented to me as State Historian of the Georgia D. A. R. by Miss Ruth Blair, the Director of the Department of Archives and History of the State of Georgia, after many years research on her part in England and in America. I was given the honor of being the first to present this valuable data to the public.

General Lindley Camp, Adjutant-General of Georgia, has turned over to the Department of Archives in Rhodes Memorial Hall for preservation and use approximately 50,000 original letters, military rosters and other documents, of dates 1784-1865; and more than 100 books of military commissions and letters of date 1790-1865. Some years ago it was suggested by the D. A. R. that these records be placed in the Department of Archives and History by the then Adjutant-General; but their transfer was not accomplished until very recently, the last ones being removed to Rhodes Memorial Hall only a few weeks ago.

These records are now being copied for the County Histories by Miss Blair and her staff, and a number of the counties have already received their copies. The other counties will be furnished copies of their records as rapidly as the work is completed. The D. A. R. and other patriotic organizations feel the deepest appreciation and gratitude for this act of Adjutant-General Camp and for the cooperation shown to us by him and by Miss Blair whose interest and labors in our behalf are beyond praise.

Through the enthusiasm of your State Historian of our D. A. R. two markers have been erected by the Georgia Society of the D. A. R. in Wilkes County, Ga. One was erected on the Danburg-Washington highway on the Stephen Heard plantation bearing this inscription: "Stephen Heard, Acting Governor of Georgia, lived and transacted the State Government near here in 1780. Erected by the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, February 27, 1934." This marker was the gift of the State Society and of your State Historian of D. A. R. to Wilkes County, one of the oldest counties in Georgia. The land on which this marker is erected was donated by Miss Pink Anderson whose wish and intention it is to place a wall about this portion of land in replica of the old fort and to beautify the grounds enclosed. Miss Anderson also made the address at this unveiling.

The other marker was erected in the town of Washington, Wilkes County, bearing this inscription: "Washington Wilkes County, Georgia, was laid out first under legislative act of January 31, 1780, and a second time under legislative provision of July 31, 1783. Erected by the Georgia Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, February 27, 1934." The address at this unveiling was made by Miss Ruth Blair, Archivist and Historian of the State of Georgia. This marker was the gracious gift of the State Chairman of Marking Old Trails, Mrs. Alex Anderson. It is of pink marble from the Tate quarries, standing almost six feet high, and was designed by Mr. Alex Anderson. The handsomest monuments in the world are of this valuable marble from the Tate quarries in North Georgia. These two markers cost at least $600.00. Both markers were unveiled with appropriate ceremonies on February 27, 1934.

Washington, Georgia, is considered by many historians the first town in the United States named for "The Father of His Country." Many prominent D. A. R. were present and made appropriate talks, among them Mrs. Julian B. McCurry, State Regent of Georgia; Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, Mrs. Thomas C. Mell, Mrs. Eli Thomas, Mrs. J. L. Beeson, Mrs. J. I. Garrard, Mrs. Harry Erwin, and Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson, D. A. R. State Historian. Addresses were made also by several prominent citizens of Wilkes County: Mr. John Callaway, Mr. Boyce Ficklen, Sr., Mr. Earle Norman, and Mayor Johnson.

Mrs. W. I. Jackson, Regent of Kettle Creek Chapter, presided over both unveilings and at the beautiful luncheon given by the chapter to the visiting D. A. R. and other guests.

Your Historian has taken part in the exercises at the unveiling of Government markers on the graves of the following Revolutionary soldiers: Major James Carter (marked by Augusta Chapter); John Daniel Bagwell and John Graves (marked by Atlanta Chapter); William Fears (marked by Elizabeth Marlow Chapter) and Thomas Gordon (marked by Baron DeKalb Chapter). Many Revolutionary soldiers' graves have been located and marked the past year.

Our chapter activities in historical lines have been many and varied. Every chapter has reported sponsoring programs in observance of at least four special anniversaries: Georgia Day, George Washington's Birthday, Flag Day, and Constitution Day.

Many Bible Records, Tombstone Inscriptions, and copies of wills have been obtained.

The Oglethorpe Highway is now being marked, and the Nancy Hart Memorial Park has received much attention; an exact replica of this Revolutionary heroine's home has been built here which contains some of her personal possessions. Lineage books have been purchased; D. A. R. Magazines have been bound and placed in public libraries; two chapters reported keeping a fine collection of historical and genealogical books in the local city library; good papers have been written on historical subjects; five historical articles drawn from original sources have been written by Mrs. J. L. Beeson on Cherokee Indian history and have been published and received signal recognition.

One chapter reported presenting a copy of the American Creed and the Salute to the Flag to the teachers in all the city and county schools in their county with the request that the pupils be required to learn both. The collecting, preserving and displaying of Indian relics was reported by another chapter and the Elijah Clarke Chapter reports taking care of an old cemetery and keeping it in good condition.

Monroe
A marker has been erected on the old Alabama road through Upson County by the State and John Houston Chapter. Handsome stone markers bearing bronze tablets have been placed by the Hawkinsville Chapter at the side of memorial trees planted in honor of George Washington, Woodrow Wilson and General James Edward Oglethorpe. The site of Oglethorpe's home on St. Simon's Island has been marked. Old Fort King George has been located. An old Indian trail and village has been located which will be marked in the near future. One chapter reported locating four historic spots in its vicinity. The Matthews Talbot Chapter marked the site of an Indian battle on Jack's Creek. An old fort for the protection against the Indians was located in Oconee County, and numerous other historic spots have been located in various parts of the state.

Old cemeteries have been kept up and Indian relics preserved. The Lachlan McIntosh Chapter has had the records of St. John's Lutheran Church in Charleston, S. C., 1759, photostated and they are now being translated from the "Old German."

Talks have been made by your State Historian at meetings of the following chapters: Atlanta Chapter; Oliver Morton Chapter, of Gray; Sergeant Jasper Chapter, of Monticello; the James Monroe Chapter, of Forsyth, where the Regent, Mrs. E. W. Banks, gave a luncheon in my honor. At receptions given by the Baron DeKalb Chapter and the Atlanta Chapter your Historian has also been an honored guest.

Your Historian had the pleasure of entertaining the State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, and giving a reception in her honor. A miniature of General Oglethorpe was presented to Rhodes Memorial Hall by the State Regent of the D. A. R. as a tribute to the work of your Historian.

It has been my pleasure to serve as a member of the D. A. R. National Committee on Historical Research, having received the honor of this appointment by the President General, Mrs. Russell William Magna. Also, your Historian has had charge of the Scrap Book, to which she has added many valuable and interesting clippings and other data.

A Travelling Genealogical Library is sponsored by the Georgia Society D. A. R. for the purpose of compiling and preserving the family history of each member, and of soliciting the donation of books pertaining to genealogical research. A chairman has been appointed in each chapter, and letters sent to the Chapter Regents. As a member of this State Committee your Historian has assisted in this work.

In reply to my questionnaire regarding the most important historical work accomplished by the chapters, the majority of chapters answered: "Publishing the County History," or "Helping with the County History;" "Historical Work Done in Public Schools;" "Awards of Scholarships, Cash Prizes and Medals to Pupils in the Colleges, High Schools and Grammar Schools for the Best Average in American History or the Best Essay on a Given Subject in Georgia or American History." Thirty-six chapters are most active in this educational work.

Gifts and indefinite loans have been made by Georgia D. A. R. to the Georgia State Department of Archives during the past year, among them: Miniature Display Table; Medal presented to Mrs. Bun Wylie by George Washington Bicentennial Commissioners; Medal presented by United States Government to Mrs. Howard McCall, Sr., as a "dollar woman of Georgia;" Manuscripts; Copies of Original Land Grants; Family Compilations; Bible and Others Records; Genealogical Records; Copies and Abstracts of Wills; Records copied from Minutes of Old Churches; Copies of Obituary Notices, and Old Letters; and many other priceless gifts. It is hard to exactly estimate the money actually spent in historical research, but the value of the work reported by the different chapters would total several thousands of dollars. Its historical value is incalculable.

Among the valuable records received by your Historian may be listed the following: from the Henry Walton Chapter, Mrs. Kirby S. Anderson, Historian, the "List of the Original Land Lottery of 1805 for Morgan County, containing over 400 names;" the "List of the Original Land Lottery of 1815 for Morgan County;" the "History of a Pioneer Family—Five Generations;" the "History of the First Mills and Historic Homes in Morgan County." From the William McIntosh Chapter, Mrs. John Edward Lane, Historian, the "Complete List of Soldiers in the Indian Wars, and Treaties with the Indians;" "Genealogies of Fifty-five Pioneer Families of Butts County;" the "Names of Three Daughters of Revolutionary Soldiers," with all data which have never been found before. From the chapter in Commerce, Georgia, came the list, compiled by Mrs. James Pittman, Regent, of "Revolutionary Soldiers and Widows of Revolutionary Soldiers as Listed in the Cherokee Land Lottery of 1838, in Jackson County," and "Those Entitled to Draw in the Land Lottery of 1829 and the Land Lottery of 1825, in Jackson County." The Bainbridge Chapter, Mrs. L. O. Hooper, Historian, has sent "The History of the Revolutionary Ancestors of the Members of the Chapter—Thirty in All;" "Copy of the Will of the Grandmother of George Washington;" "Family Record of Mathew Whitfield, Most Prominent in the Early History of the Colony."

A complete list of all the Revolutionary soldiers buried in Hart County, with the necessary dates and data, was furnished by John Benson Chapter, Hartwell.

In carrying on the various types of splendid historical work we, the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, are offering tribute not only to the organization and to Georgia soldiers of the Revolution but we are honoring our own ancestors and, following in their footsteps, are making our country through our combined efforts an even greater and safer country for posterity.

Your Historian is deeply grateful to all chapters and to all members of our Society for the hearty cooperation, the cheerful and efficient assistance they have given to her at all times.

In the Proceedings of the Georgia Society D. A. R., 1926, page 91-97, complete list of the Revolutionary soldiers whose graves have been located and marked by the Georgia D. A. R. was presented by Mrs. S. V. Sanford, then State Chairman, assisted by Mrs. Howard H. McCall. ## STATE CONSULTING REGISTRAR

Mrs. James L. Mims

Many inquiries, concerning almost every phase of the work, have come to my desk, to all of which I have replied, giving the information sought, to the best of my ability.

Early in the year, I sent communications to the Chapter Regents and Registrars, through the official D. A. R. column of the Atlanta Constitution, as to the procedure in sending in application papers, asking for chapter rosters, stressing membership, etc.

Several chapters sent rosters.

Quite a number of application papers, many of which were new lines, have passed through my hands, all of which were promptly verified and forwarded to Washington.

The National Registrars' Committee, of which your State Registrar is, by virtue of office, a member, is serving also as a National Membership Committee. We have stressed membership this year. Upon the Registrars fall, naturally, the duty of actively expanding membership—a service greatly needed in this time of withdrawals and reduced applications, due to financial conditions. I have urged Chapter Regents, in appointing their committees, to see that their Chapter Registrars are on the Membership Committee.

Knowledge of members gives many opportunities for soliciting eligible members. This could best be attained through a systematic method of handling the membership, such as a card index filing system would afford.

An objective toward which I have worked for the past two years is the installation of such a system, and I trust that the time is not far distant when it can be installed, thereby affording greater opportunity for service, for the succeeding Registrar, and enabling her to expand membership. It would be a splendid thing, too, if every chapter could install card index systems for chapter membership. Several chapters have expressed interest and I have furnished information.

I have kept the records of our Georgia members that are sent from the Registrar General after each National Board meeting.

Books belonging to the office are: 69 volumes of lineage books; two index volumes; one copy of Georgia Historical Collections; one copy of Reprint of Land Lottery of 1827; one copy of Notable Southern Families; Vol. III, by Zella Armstrong; seven leaflets of the Camp family; one volume of Rosters of Georgia Chapters; some unsorted papers of family records; a quantity of supplemental blanks for lineage of descendants of members; several volumes of State Proceedings and a number of Chapter Year Books.

STATE REPORTER TO SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE

Mrs. W. H. Hightower

Through the kindness and courtesy of the State Historian, the list of Revolutionary Soldiers' graves was sent direct to the Reporter General to Smithsonian Institute both in 1933 and 1934. According to custom, all other state records necessary for the Smithsonian report are secured by the Reporter General from the reports of the State Regents and the various national committees, found in the published Proceedings of Continental Congress.

STATE CURATOR

Mrs. John M. Simmons

My connection with this department has brought to me dreams of its future growth and development, and of what it may mean to our state.

There have been many interesting relics located of real historic value to the people of Georgia. I had the pleasure of attending two teas during the year where my lady was gowned in dresses of ye olden days, old shawls of the finest lace, paisley and plaid; fans of peafowl and painted silk, gowns of silk, satin, linen and homespun. Hand tucked shirts, baby dresses of tucking, puffing and insets of embroidery and lace were on display, interesting old quilts, beautiful china, glass, silver, books and rare old documents were viewed with delight.

I wish we had more entertainments of like character, for it creates an appreciation of our early American relics and makes us want to care for and preserve them.

Haven't you some old treasure that you would like to donate to the museum at Memorial Continental Hall, Washington City? We are all proud of our museum there.

Then a gift would mean much to the Georgia D. A. R. for our cabinet at Rhodes Memorial Hall. If you do not care to make a gift, a loan would be appreciated.

Gifts and loans to Rhodes Memorial Hall are: A whale oil lamp of pewter from Miss Ajetta Cummings; a chelsea saucer and waterford glass salt cellar originally owned by the grandmother, Mrs. Randolph H. Ramsay, of your Curator.

Two pieces of china were given to the National D. A. R. Museum by your Curator.

STATE GENALOGIST

Mrs. Henry Storey Redding

Personal letters were sent to each Chapter Regent in the state with a copy of Instructions to Chapters sent out by the national chairman. Extremely interesting and valuable contributions have been received from those chapters that responded.

A report of the year's work has been sent to our National Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Howard McCall, and the records to the National Chairman, Mrs. D. K. Moore.

Forty-one pages of data contributed by those chapters that responded to the request made by the State Chairman, containing: Records from an old Bible belonging to Mrs. C. H. Halbrook, Atlanta, purchased 1804 by Benjamin Hicks. Copied by Mrs. Helen M. Prescott for Joseph Habersham Chapter. A copy of a letter written by John Adams to The Young Men of Augusta, Ga.; Philadelphia July 20, 1798. A copy of the obituary notice of Capt. John Freeman, a Revolutionary soldier of Wilkes County, died May 29, 1806. Copies of family records compiled from research by James M. Bowles, Taylorville, Tenn.

Inscriptions from tombstones in old Richland Church cemetery, Twiggs County, Georgia, located about six miles below Jeffersonville. Photostats of the Bennett Family Chart with a copy of the Coat-of-Arms, which was sent directly to Washington. Copied by Mrs. Mark Cooper and Mrs. Bernard Wolff for Atlanta Chapter. The records of Harmony Baptist Church, Putnam County, 1854-1872, continued by Mrs. John E. Dance, for Atlanta Chapter.

Tombstone inscriptions in Linwood Cemetery, Columbus, Ga., copied by Mrs. J. D. Wadsworth for Oglethorpe Chapter. Earliest birth date shown to have been 1777. Wilkinson County reports a complete re-indexing of county records by Miss Julia Todd and a painstaking committee for John Ball Chapter, Irwinton, Ga.

STATE EDITOR

Mrs. Sidney O. Smith

It is with a sense of appreciation to the Georgia D. A. R. that I come to the end of my term of serving as State Editor. I have enjoyed the work, the pleasant cooperation of my associate, Mrs. L. C. Rader, and the other happy contacts which have come to me. As stated at the Executive Board meeting the custom, growing with the Chapter Reporters, of sending duplicate, typewritten copies of chapter reports written in a concise form, has been of great help the latter part of my term, and I trust the method will be used by every chapter for the incoming Editor. May I suggest to state officers and state chairmen that your messages sent for publication in the D. A. R. column be of different content and expression from the messages sent direct to the chapters, as the latter are read at chapter meetings, and to have them repeated in the column is needless; whereas a different message would be read with interest.

The generosity of the Atlanta Constitution and of Mrs. Rix Stafford is appreciated. As outgoing Editor, however, I recommend that there be wider publicity for the organization through the Editor's office.

STATE CHAPLAIN

Mrs. C. D. Shelnutt

As I come to the close of my term of office, as your State Chaplain, I wish to publicly express my appreciation of the many courtesies extended me; and for your hearty cooperation.

To be an officer, committed to the task of presiding over the Memorial programs at our State Conferences, is a deeply appreciated honor.

In August of last year I prepared a ritual for use at the regular monthly meetings and mailed a copy to every Chapter Regent in the state. My response to this gesture has been most gratifying, indicating an increased interest in the reading of the scripture and prayer as an expression of gratitude to God for His care and protection. In appreciation for our State Regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, I lovingly dedicated this little volume to her.

I attended the annual Board meeting held in Elberton, and the beautiful luncheon as guest of the Stephen Heard Chapter.

I have been invited to many parts of the state to functions of various kinds, but owing to distance in many instances I have been unable to respond; and in other instances conflicting engagements prevented my acceptances.

I have written numbers of notes of condolences to those of our organization who have lost loved ones.

I feel that the year has not passed without some helpful ministrations and that some of the time has been given in the uplift and advancement for the good of our organization.

Since my last report at the 1933 Conference, 41 members have been claimed by death and they are sadly missed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

AMERICANISM

Mrs. Mark Smith

This committee is of vital concern and interest to us, if for no other reason than that its prime motive is to get at the knowledge and appreciation of America by those seeking citizenship in our country. Some of the work of this committee is not applicable to our particular locality; however, it is a fine and meritorious work to inspire our boys and girls to a more comprehensive knowledge of our heroes of American history and the general outline of our government.

A questionnaire, received from your National Chairman, was sent to each of the 95 chapters, and of the 62 chapters reporting 34 have a Chairman of Americanism, in other instances the Regent performs this work. Fifty chapters have had programs on Americanism. A phase of the work well worth while has been the attention given to illiterate Negroes here in our own state by members of the chapters who have contributed of their time to teach them to read and write, and the giving of shoes, clothing, and books.

Forty-seven chapters have given 98 prizes for excellence in U. S. History and essays on American Heroes, totaling $392.25. D. A. R. medals, silver loving cups, citizenship medals, and books, have been given in many instances and one chapter has the distinction of giving a medal to the honor cadet in a R. O. T. C. unit. Many D. A. R. floats added to the beauty of the NRA parades this winter.

Seventeen chapters have helped to keep schools open during this period of depression and others have reported this feature of the work unnecessary in their communities. In Georgia, our state and counties have not fallen down on educational funds. Sixteen chapters have helped teachers to better pay. It is with pride that we report eight of our chapters having members on the board of education.

Two of our chapters have reported that they had committees in attendance on court where immigrants were accepted as citizens in the United States; one chapter presenting Immigrants' Manual to 26 applicants for citizenship.

The Preamble to the Constitution of the United States is either used in meetings, studied in schools, or published in the Year Books of 36 of our chapters.

The work of Americanism has been carried on in many unique and interesting ways, special programs have been presented on all Patriotic Days, and its true value cannot be computed in dollars and cents. We heartily commend the work of each of the 62 chapters whose reports we have received.

Total expenditures under Americanism, $874.48.

AMERICAN'S CREED

Mrs. Glenmore Green

The American's Creed Committee, realizing the importance of implanting in the minds of youth the principles incorporated in the American's Creed, requested each Chapter Regent to appoint a Creed Chairman.

Many of the chairmen appointed were teachers in the local and rural schools and special credit should be given them for teaching the Creed in many effective ways.

Two years ago it was estimated that only 2 per cent of any large assembly in Georgia could recite the Creed, whereas, today thousands of children can lead in reciting the Creed.

Special mention should be made of Columbus Chapters' joint presentation of lantern slides, "Half-Forgotten Romances of American History," preceded by the Creed and recited in concert.

Of Fielding Lewis Chapter, Marietta, Ga., whose entire membership have memorized the Creed.

Indebtedness expressed for numbers of editorials in state papers and public addresses on the subject, and grateful acknowledgment of appreciation of 84 Chapter Regents and their committees.

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE LIBRARY

Mrs. M. J. Guyton

An important work being done by the D. A. R. is supplying the men of our American Merchant Marine, and also those of the light house and coast guard service, with good reading matter. Seamen read more than almost any other class of working men, and because of their calling they cannot use public libraries. Our part is to help supply them with good healthy literature.

Special requests are made for books pertaining to the business of the ship; books on navigation, engineering and radio. There is great demand for books of fiction, history, biography, music, poetry, accounting and farming, also foreign language books. Do not send school books. The National Geographic Magazine is appreciated. Funds are also essential as the work must be carried on regularly and efficiently.

The chapters have responded generously, and reported 250 books sent, and $6.00. The John Laurens Chapter, Dublin, sent $5.00, and the Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, Albany, sent $1.00. The Association pays freight charges. Send box of books to J. H. Hutton, Dispatch Agent, American Merchant Marine Library Association, Dock Board Tool House, Poydras Street and River, New Orleans, La. Be sure to notify your State Chairman how many books you have sent.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS

Mrs. W. H. Flanders

My plan for tuberculosis work was three-fold: first, the holding of clinics with help from the State Health Department to ascertain the active cases; second, the raising of funds for our fight against tuberculosis by the sponsoring of Christmas T. B. Seal Sales; third, the proper expenditure of funds raised.

Many chapters have actively cooperated with my program, changing it where necessary to meet the needs of their respective communities.

The three outstanding reports are from: Oglethorpe Chapter, Columbus, reporting $50.00 contributed through the Public Nurse Association.

Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens, reporting $66.00 worth of T. B. Seals purchased.

Governor David Emanuel Chapter, Swainsboro, reporting two clinics sponsored, five chapters sent to Alto and $101.78 raised by the sale of T. B. Seals.

APPROVED SCHOOLS

Miss Sue Reid Vason

A letter was sent out in the fall asking each chapter to stress the fact that the schools that had been approved were in need, also urging that each chapter have a program during the year, telling of the work of the schools.

In the spring this letter was followed by a questionnaire sent by National Chairman. Thirty-six chapters responded stating that they had held programs, appointed chairmen, and had helped in educational work.

Georgia is in the Southeastern Division of Approved Schools and for the year 1933 led all in her division.

The amount expended to the schools amounted to $46.00, however the amount expended towards scholarships to various schools in the state and their own localities, amounted to more than $5,000.00.

Various chapters reported that they had aided by sending books and clothes to their schools.

ARMISTICE DAY

Mrs. Wm. J. Vereen

Many interesting and enthusiastic reports have come to me, as your State Chairman. Outstanding among them was the program jointly observed by the Button Gwinnett Chapter at Columbus with the aid of Fort Benning, the largest Infantry School in the world. Representatives joined the American Legion in their exercises, which took place on Broadway at the German-captured Field Piece (souvenir of the World War and won by the local Legion for largest membership).

Practically all chapters joined with the schools and churches in their communities in observing this day.

Two chapters reported the sale of poppies.

Chickamauga reports the first World War Memorial Auditorium.

BEAUTIFYING HIGHWAYS

Mrs. C. H. Leavy

My report on Beautifying Highways is not as complete nor gratifying as if all chapters had sent me detailed reports of work accomplished.

Accounts that were sent in indicate that hundreds of dogwood, crepe myrtle, oaks and holly trees were planted with roses, honeysuckle and other vines used to advantage in many bald places, on fences and on shoulders of completed paving.

Areas surrounding roadside markers have been planted and beautified, adding beauty and interest to these historic spots.

Near Thomaston, the Jno. Houston Chapter has sponsored the beautification of a section on the highway, which marks an old Indian trail that became a stage route from Augusta to Montgomery, Ala., in 1826. Surrounded by 200 or more native trees and shrubs this park is a most beautiful spot.

Elijah Clarke Chapter has a special committee, which has worked faithfully on landscaping and beautifying the area around historic markers, tending and caring for the completed plantings.

Four hundred and eighty-six trees and shrubs were planted during the year by Sergeant Newton Chapter, with a special tree honoring President Roosevelt.

The grounds around the old Hartford Road marker were graded and attractively planted in grass and shrubbery by the Jno. Ball Chapter.

The Roanoke Chapter has beautified three historic spots with beautiful shrubbery and flowers and sponsors roadside planting in the county.

Many chapters report a slowing-up of new projects, incident to financial conditions, but no let-up was permitted in caring for the hundreds of trees and shrubs previously planted.

Brunswick Chapter works with the garden clubs in roadside planting, and has beautified the area around two historic markers on nearby highways.

BETTER FILMS

Mrs W. H. Hightower

We can never cease to be grateful to our National Chairman, Mrs. Russell, for inaugurating the weekly Post Card Review, for without our own D. A. R. Guide to Motion Pictures, the work of the D. A. R. Better Films Committee was impracticable if not altogether unwise. Here in Georgia, almost five days distant from Hollywood, often some of the best pictures are shown before the reviews reach us, and about one-fourth of the pictures shown are not reviewed in the Guide. Otherwise, the service is perfect.

After so many years of free and abundant Better Films literature, our people have been a little slow to take advantage of this service, but at least one Guide is received in each chapter, and several are sent to teachers, editors, and theatre managers.

Of the 95 chapters in Georgia, 83 have appointed Better Films Chairmen and the other 12 Regents receive the Guide; 62 chapters have reported to the State Chairman, and 60 of these make a monthly report to the chapter. Ten report the Guides published regularly in the local papers. Some newspapers object to what they consider free publicity, as the theatres are good paying advertisers.

About 50 per cent of the pictures shown are classed I and II. In fact, all of the I and II pictures are shown, but it would be hard to find six pictures every week classed I and II to be shown, and in many towns we have a daily change of program.

Mrs. Selden of Mary Hammond Washington Chapter, Macon, has charge of the only continuous Junior Matinee in the state, but several chapters sponsor them at intervals. Mrs. Wade of Baron-DeKalb Chapter, Decatur, does outstanding work, and asks that the "Serials" beloved by children, be mentioned in the Guides, so that they may be more intelligently selected.

The three Columbus chapters are doing splendid work under the joint chairmanship of Miss Julia Traylor, who recently gave an interesting lecture, "Half Forgotten Romances of American History," illustrated with movie shorts and colored slides.

Nearly all of our chairmen are movie fans and see from one to five pictures a week, and in several instances some member of the committee sees every picture.

Only four towns have City Better Films Committees, and in each instance the D. A. R. Chairman is a member. In only four towns does any other organization do Better Films work, in each instance the P.-T. A., but the D. A. R. Guides are used for information in many women's gatherings. There have been very few benefit shows this year, but no chapter sponsors a show not selected from Class I or II.

In many of the small towns, the school teachers are notified by telephone whenever a Number I picture suitable for school children is shown.

We sincerely hope that the Post Card Guide will be continued and that Georgia may again have the honor of being the first state to subscribe to it 100 per cent.

BLANCHE McFARLAND GAFFNEY TROPHY

Mrs. T. D. Power, State Chairman

From the first glad-hand of welcome by the people of Albany, to this the day of our departure, nothing has been left undone or said by Albanians to make the State Conference, Daughters of the American Revolution, one of the delightful and unforgettable memories.

In relinquishing this prized trophy it is the expressed wish of the members of Button Gwinnett Chapter that I convey with it their love and that you may find as much joy in its possession as they have experienced.

And now, Madam Regent of the Oglethorpe Chapter, it is my privilege and very great pleasure to award to you the Blanche McFarland Gaffney trophy and into your care and keeping I deliver it. This prize is offered from year to year by an esteemed member of your chapter, one you have delighted to pay tribute to, making her Honorary Chapter Regent.

May it prove an inspiration to you. Display it on public patriotic occasions, magnify the purpose for which it has been offered and in its possession may you find that joy which comes only to those who have striven and achieved.

Again, I congratulate you and with this treasured trophy accept also my every good wish for another year of even greater achievements.

BOOKPLATE FOR GEORGIA BOOKS IN LIBRARY AT CONSTITUTION HALL

Mrs. E. Blount Freeman

The Georgia D. A. R. Bookplate recently passed its first birthday. This anniversary was observed by 1,000 copies of the bookplate being sent to chapters to be used in the books of their chapter libraries. These bookplates were purchased at the special price of $1.00 per hundred in an order for 1,000 labels. After March 1 the price was advanced to $13.00 per thousand or $1.30 per hundred.

Interest in the Georgia D. A. R. Bookplate continues to grow. On January 29 I received a letter from Miss Natalie Sumner Lincoln, Editor of the D. A. R. Magazine, requesting a 500 word sketch of the bookplate which, together with a reproduction of the design, she wishes to use in this magazine. This article has been sent to Miss Lincoln and will appear in an early issue of the official organ of the National Society D. A. R.

On December 7 a request came from Miss Ella Bradley, Librarian of the Eastman Memorial Foundation, Laurel, Mississippi, for one of our bookplates to be included in the bookplate collection of this library. This collection is used for exhibition purposes and as models for art students in decorative designing. Miss Bradley also favored us with a copy of her library bookplate.

On October 3 bookplates were sent to Mrs. Nicholson, State Historian, to be used in books presented by her to the Rhodes Memorial Library. Several chapters have asked for copies to be used in their chapter scrapbooks.

Mrs. Dick, Librarian General, wrote: "I wish to express to you and to the Georgia D. A. R. my approval and admiration for the design and for the beautiful sentiment embodying many phases of Georgia history." Miss Lincoln, Editor of the D. A. R. Magazine, says: "We would like to congratulate you on such a beautiful and interesting bookplate."

COLLECTION AND PRESERVATION OF FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS

Mrs. Eli A. Thomas, Chairman

The collection of family Bible Records this year is important and gratifying. We are sure, however, that there are still many family records in old Bibles yet to be found, copied and sent in for future publication and preservation.

The Bashinski silver vase for the largest number of Bible Records sent in goes this year to the John Houston Chapter of Thomaston, with 92 Bibles. The Tomichichi Chapter, of Clarkesville, runs a close second with 83 Bibles, and receives honorable mention.

In addition to the 245 Bible Records, in this collection are 944 Tombstone Records from 41 cemeteries, 67 wills copied from Will Book A, Forsyth, Monroe County, Ga., from 1824 to 1847, and one deed.

The John Houston Chapter sent 92 Bible Records, as follows:

CONSTITUTION HALL MEMORY BOOK

Mrs. John Edward Lane

The Constitution Hall Memory Book Committee was established in 1933. The object of it was to collect from loyal Daughters everywhere contributions of old and useless gold to be melted and wrought into clasps for the Memory Book in which will be inscribed the names of all donors both to it and Constitution Hall, and to be kept there for all time.

The more that is given the more the book will be embellished, with, perhaps, gold corners and even the back binding. It is in vision to have the binders made of leather or rare brocade. It will be a thing of beauty and a symbol of the united love and loyalty of patriotic Daughters.

I thank the chapters most sincerely for their generous response to my appeal in this worthy work, and the National Chairman, Mrs. Brosseau, once President-General, wishes me to say to you that she is "deeply grateful to the State of Georgia for all that it is doing now as well as its work of the past."

The estimated amount contributed, $154.56.

CONSTITUTION AND MAGNA CHARTA DAY

Mrs. E. C. McDowell

Magna Charta stands for the development of human liberty and self-government for us.

It was not a constitution or instrument of government as we understand it; it simply exchanged the unwritten customs and traditional rights of Englishmen, attained through centuries of struggle for the restraint of written law imposed upon the personal despotism of the King, and secured to all Englishmen their rights to free and unbought justice, to security of persons and property and to good government.

The American Government was built upon the principles of Magna Charta.

Our Constitution was built by the founders upon the rock of eternal verities, not upon sifting sands but on the foundation of the God-given rights of liberty and justice. Its principles have been slowly establishing themselves since the earliest known history of the Anglo-Saxon race until now. For imbedded in the Constitution lies the great successor of Magna Charta, lies the whole sum and substance of Americanism.

Fifty-seven chapters observed this date.

CONSERVATION AND THRIFT

Mrs. Frank A. Dennis

The Georgia Society Daughters of the American Revolution have cooperated with all welfare agencies. Forty-five chapters reported Conservation and Thrift Chairmen; 636 Daughters aided in Red Cross community drives and other welfare work; 437 more engaged in other forms of relief work. Jobs were given the unemployed, destitute aided, lunch rooms established, school lunches prepared, clothes and books for needy children provided, circulating libraries established for mill villages, charity wards in hospitals given showers and books, games given juvenile detention home.

Amount of money given for aid of human conservation, $1,852.00.

Second only in importance is conservation of natural resources. Our Daughters last year planted 6,345 trees, preserved many more, planted shrubs, bulbs and vines for beauty in parks, on highways, library and school grounds. A drive was made for the elimination of obnoxious weeds and to prevent forest fires and careless burning of fields and woods. Bird sanctuaries have been established.

Four thousand fifty dollars and fifty-seven cents was spent in all forms of conservation last year.

Georgia's outstanding work in conservation is of course our Nancy Hart Park and preservation of Meadow Garden.

Three historic Georgia trees with their pictures are in the files in Memorial Continental Hall. They are: Laniers Oak, Lovers Oak, and Wesley Oak, all in Brunswick.

In November I wrote urging use of ligustrum, pine and cedar rather than holly, and asked all daily papers to carry an editorial commending the preservation of holly and wood plants. At your chairman's request the Game and Fish Department of the State sent bulletins of interest on wild life to all chapter Regents.

CO-OPERATIVE RELATIONS BETWEEN C. A. R. AND D. A. R. Mrs. Young Harris Yarbrough

In October, I sent a letter to every Regent, not now sponsoring a C. A. R. Society, urging them to appoint one of their members, who would act as Organizing President, also to give one meeting during the year to C. A. R. work.

Our State Regent has shown great interest and has aided the Junior Organization in every way possible. Her chapter, the Elijah Clarke, sponsored the organization of the Count D'Estaing Society. Others cooperating with societies which they have sponsored are Atlanta Chapter, Joseph Habersham Chapter, Atlanta; Baron DeKalb Chapter, Decatur; LaGrange Chapter, LaGrange; Mary Hammond Washington Chapter, Macon; Henry Walton Chapter, Madison; Nancy Hart Chapter, Milledgeville; Savannah Chapter, Savannah; Jonathan Bryan Chapter, Waycross.

I have sent to other chapters, necessary information for the organization of C. A. R. Societies, in reply to requests. The next few years will determine who will take possession of the youth of America. Shall it be patriots or radicals?

CORRECT USE OF FLAG

Mrs. John M. Slaton

COUNTY HISTORIES

Mrs. Alfred Noel Murray

In closing my two years as chairman of County Histories, I feel that we have gone forward with the work for each year there has been a gain. Up to date the D. A. R. chapters have assisted in having 17 histories printed: Hart, Cobb, Dougherty, DeKalb, Fulton, Colquitt, Bartow, Lamar, Marion, Crisp, Dodge, Irwin, Wilkinson, Walker, Macon, Coweta, Upson; two in hands of printers; 15 manuscripts: Terrell, Houston, Laurens, Jackson, Spalding, Pulaski, Mitchell, Putnam, Emanuel, Washington, McDuffie, Warren, Ware, Elbert, Hancock; seven outlined: Decatur, Early, Butts, Troup, Baldwin, Wilkes, Barrow; 12 collecting material: Walton, Turner, Clarke, Screven, Stewart, Sumter, Randolph, Jones, Glynn, Hall, Rockdale, Morgan.

D. A. R. FOREST PARK

Mrs. T. O. Tabor, Jr.

This year a reproduction of Nancy Hart's Log Cabin has been built on the original home site at a cost of $250.00. The cabin has an old field stone chimney, on the outside of which a bronze tablet has been placed by the Stephen Heard and Nancy Hart Chapters to mark this historic home site.

The members of the State D. A. R. Executive Board visited the Forest Park in October when they were entertained by the Stephen Heard Chapter of Elberton. At this time pupils of the Nancy Hart Memorial School presented a pageant at the Log Cabin depicting the life of Nancy Hart, the visit of the British soldiers, and her capture of them. The red coats of the soldiers in the woods around the cabin made a very colorful and realistic scene.

The road through the park is in good condition and the shrubbery adds much to the beauty of the grounds. Many native shrubs have been planted at the entrance and along the driveway.

We are indeed grateful to the 51 chapters making contributions to the D. A. R. Forest Park which totaled $179.10 this year.

D. A. R. MAGAZINE

Mrs. Ober D. Warthen

Your D. A. R. Magazine Committee is happy to announce that Georgia is "holding her own" as to subscriptions and expects a decided increase next year.

The Magazine has, during the past year, carried four articles of special interest to Georgia D. A. R.—three of them with pictures.

The June, 1933, issue had an excellent summary of the Thirty-fifth Georgia Conference, written by Mrs. W. E. Mann.

The July (Century of Progress) number carried a picture and article from one of our hostess chapters, the Commodore Richard Dale, written by the Regent, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, about a Colonial sitting room arranged by the chapter for the American Legion Benefit Fair and which won first prize.

The October issue told of a meeting of the Burkhalter Chapter at Warrenton, at which Georgia's two Real Daughters, Mrs. Mary Pool Newsome and Miss Sarah Pool, unveiled a government marker at the grave of their father, Henry Pool, a Revolutionary soldier. The picture shows them seated beside the beautifully decorated grave.

November's pages were graced by the beauty of our State Regent, Mrs. McCurry, and her plans for Georgia.

Mrs. J. H. Nicholson's article on the Georgia Bicentennial is scheduled to appear in the forthcoming issue. The State Capitol building of Georgia will embellish the cover of the November release and I have been advised that within the next few months a picture and short article on the Georgia Bookplate will appear.

Daughters, let each of us subscribe for our official publication and keep in touch with the work of our wonderful organization.

ELLIS ISLAND

Mrs. C. A. Rudolph

During the year Georgia chapters have given more attention to this department than during the previous year. I wish to thank all members for their loyalty and response. Reports show that 32 chapters have paid $55.72 as their quotas, two of them having paid in excess; 20 chapters report Ellis Island programs and 20 boxes sent with an estimated value of $103.85. This shows the importance of the work.

If each member could serve as State Chairman for one term, the importance of the work would be understood and great would be the response. My service as State Chairman, in addition to the honor, has given me much pleasure and the satisfaction of knowing that we have helped, in a measure, those less fortunate than ourselves.

FANNIE TRAMMELL MEMORIAL FUND

Mrs. H. L. Jarvis

Mrs. W. E. Mann, Co-chairman

Our collections have been unusually good under the circumstances and we are glad to report a large bank balance that is almost entirely promised for the coming year to students.

The following is our report for 1933:

Balance in bank last report, March, 1933, $86.21; money repaid and interest, $872.07; total, $958.28.

Eight loans to students, and tax, $542.66; balance in bank, $415.62; total, $958.28.

The Fannie Trammell Memorial Loan Fund, 1933, $5,108.38; interest in 1933, less tax, $27.41; total, $5,135.79.

Total outstanding loans to 38 students, $4,720.17; balance in bank, February 15, 1934, $415.62; total, $5,135.79.

FLAG DAY

Mrs. Frank T. Kidd

The observance of Flag Day, June 14, had its usual response by the Georgia D. A. R. Fitting programs were put on in the chapters, and the flag displayed on dates that the book gives on Correct Use of the Flag. Your chairman sent to the official page in the Atlanta Constitution an article stressing the importance of Flag Day and asking every Regent chapter to cooperate in its celebration. I have mailed every Regent dates given in the book on Correct Use of the Flag.

I consider it a privilege to have been the one to remind our 96 chapters to observe Flag Day and I have received splendid reports from 58 chapters.

I must make mention of the Oglethorpe Chapter, with Mrs. Geo. Burrus, Jr., as Regent; Flag Day was observed with a luncheon and a wonderful program.

FORESTRY

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney

My work as Forestry Chairman has been covered so fully in the chapter reports and the Blanche McFarland Gaffney trophy report that it is unnecessary to emphasize it further.

FILING AND LENDING HISTORICAL PAPERS AND PATRIOTIC LECTURES AND LANTERN SLIDES COMMITTEE

Mrs. J. L. Beeson

The papers received before the expiration of the date, February 1, 1934, were 31. A few have come later.

Most of the failures for non-acceptance come from not obeying the rules. These are:

Preparation of Manuscripts

1. All papers from a state should pass through the hands of the State Chairman. Those papers approved by her are forwarded to the National Chairman and her assistants.

2. Papers must be plainly and neatly typed on one side of the paper only. Remember to leave a 1½ inch margin at the top of each page.

3. Use white medium weight paper, 8½ x 11 inches.

4. Fasten at the top of the paper. Do not tie or put covers on new papers; it increases postage charges, and all papers are backed when filed.

5. At the top of the first page of each paper give the name of the writer, chapter and state, and date of writing.

6. We request two copies of each paper—the original and one carbon.

7. Do not send genealogical papers; they belong to another division.

8. Pictures and programs are not accepted. The space is limited.

Your chairman has had requests for papers from teachers and club women other than D. A. R., but Georgia has no state bureau for keeping or lending of historical papers. Your chairman would recommend the establishment of a Lending Bureau as early as possible, and also the establishment of the Traveling Genealogical Library. The topics of the historical papers received are:

Armistice Day; LaFayette; Washington's Appointments to the First Cabinet; Prose-poem, Moina Michael; Thomas Woodrow Wilson; Woodrow Wilson, His Speeches and Messages; The First Election; Thanksgiving; Homes of Distinguished Cherokee Indians; A History Story of Milledgeville, an Old Georgia Capital.

Old Oglethorpe University, Alma Mater of Sidney Lanier; Old Fort Wilkinson; History of the Moravian Mission at Spring Place, Georgia; Crawford W. Long; Lincoln and Davis; "The Epic of America;" Charles Holmes Herty; "The Rise of Civilization;" Ideals of Citizenship; James Edward Oglethorpe; Founding the Colony.

Georgia's Part in the Revolution; Immigrants and Early Settlements of America; Franklin, the Constitution Maker; Georgia Before the Coming of Oglethorpe; Alexander Hamilton Stephens; What Does It Mean to Be An American?

The chapters sending historical papers were: John Ball, 4; Barnard Trail, 1; Bonaventure, 7; Elijah Clarke, 6; Nancy Hart, 5; Oglethorpe, 5; George Walton, 3.

GIRL HOME MAKERS

Mrs. Lena Felker Lewis

Your State Chairman mailed a copy of the Girl Home Makers' Manual to each chapter in Georgia, requesting that a Girl Home Makers' Club be organized in every chapter, or that each chapter interest itself in some phase of the work as outlined in this manual.

A number of chapters reported splendid work along these lines during the past year, and show an increasing interest in real home making activities among our girls.

The several organizations already working in this field have been assisted in their activities by our D. A. R. chapters, since cooperation and not rivalry is always the spirit displayed by those engaged in good works. The following chapters have reported definite activity, the majority giving prizes for work among the Girl Home Makers: Oglethorpe Chapter, Columbus; Button Gwinnett Chapter, Columbus; Gov. John Milledge Chapter, Dalton; LaGrange Chapter, LaGrange; Stephen Heard Chapter, Elberton; Matthew Talbot Chapter, Monroe; John Laurens Chapter, Dublin; Mary Hammond Washington Chapter, Macon; Augusta Chapter, Augusta; Barnard Trail Chapter, Sylvester.

A number of chapters have promised to take up the work next year.

GEORGIA D. A. R. STUDENT LOAN FUND

Mrs. Howard H. McCall

The work this year has been outstanding because it has succeeded so well despite the financial stress of the times, and the inability of many students to repay loans. The salaries of many have been reduced so much that it had seemed impossible to pay, but the payments have been made, and the chairmen were thus enabled to respond to the many applications made this year for loans, and all have splendid reports to bring you.

It gives me pleasure to bring the report of amount now on hand in the five state funds.

World War Memorial Fund, $7,825.37; Fannie Trammell Memorial Fund, $5,135.79; May Erwin Talmadge Scholarship Fund, $5,699.46; Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan Memorial Fund, $210.00; Valdosta Loan Fund, $5,633.21; the Brunswick Chapter reports a Student Loan Fund of $500.00.

The David Emanuel Chapter reports an increase in the Marion Sibley Wylie Student Loan Fund.

It gives me pleasure to quote from the report to 1933 Congress of the National Chairman of the Student Loan Fund Committee, Mrs. Walter Tobey of Ohio, as follows:

"The honor of being the first state to establish a Student Loan Fund falls to the State of Georgia, where a state fund was proposed in 1916, and established February 13, 1917. In 16 years the total of state and local funds in the State of Georgia has grown to $39,097.36, the largest of any state in the Union, and more than 137 boys and girls have been assisted in securing a higher education. This record is one of the brightest stars in the history of achievements of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia. It is a great contribution to the citizenship of the state and the Union, and it liberates a powerful force reflected in the leadership taken by the boys and girls who have received this timely aid, without which their present position would have been impossible."

Only one fund remains unfinished: the Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan Fund, a memorial to one of our most beloved leaders. We would like to finish this by the 1935 Conference. This is such worthwhile work.

GEORGIA ROOM, ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, WASHINGTON

Mrs. John D. Pope

It has been my pleasure to serve as chairman of the Georgia Room the past two years with Mrs. Julius Talmadge as co-chairman.

The Georgia Room is the main office in the Administration Building and is furnished as required.

During my term as chairman, we have placed a steel filing cabinet and desk chair as requested.

I have enjoyed serving you and in serving you, we serve our country.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Miss Evelyn Cockrell

The George Washington Bicentennial is a thing of the past, but the spirit which made it such a success carries on.

Washington had so many virtues we can well emulate this observance of his birth by the D. A. R. is not only to us, but to the schools and civic organizations which join with us in the celebration. In this day when so many of our famous characters in history are being vilified in so-called historical novels and biographies it is fitting that we strive even harder to honor them ourselves and teach our children to honor them.

It has been a pleasure to be chairman of this committee and I wish to thank the 55 chapters who notified me of their observances of George Washington's Birthday.

HELEN ROGERS FRANKLIN TROPHY

Mrs. Jena C. Collier

Sufficient publicity concerning this trophy was given; notices were sent to state papers and cards were written to chapter regents.

In judging the papers submitted, the committee (100 per cent present) met on March 13, reviewed all reports and arrived at a decision.

May I say "thank you" now to the members on my committee for their help and earnest cooperation in judging the reports of the chapters.

I take pleasure in awarding this beautiful Helen Rogers Franklin Trophy which is given for general excellence to the Elijah Clarke Chapter, of Athens, whose outstanding activities are an inspiration to other chapters. Special mention is made of the John Houston Chapter, Thomaston; Oglethorpe Chapter, Columbus; Gov. David Emanuel Chapter, Swainsboro, and Baron DeKalb Chapter, of Decatur, for splendid work done.

HISTORIC POST CARDS

Mrs. C. E. Pittman

Four chapters have responded with a number of very interesting Historic Post Cards of local, state and nation-wide interest.

Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens, 28 cards of Georgia and Florida scenes, also Virginia scenes of Washington's home and Thomas Jefferson's home and others of like interest. A descriptive booklet of Old Fort Marion and St. Augustine, Fla.

Hawkinsville Chapter, D. A. R., three post cards of the three memorial trees: the Magnolia tree to George Washington, planted in 1932; the Oak tree to Woodrow Wilson, planted in 1924; the Cedar tree to Oglethorpe, planted in 1933. All native trees. Erected on the western approach to Memorial Bridge over the Ocmulgee River.

Oglethorpe Chapter, Columbus, two post cards. One, the Memorial shaft in the Historical Triangle at Fort Benning; the other, marking the spot where Oglethorpe crossed the Chattahoochee River on an historic mission nearly two centuries ago.

Five cards from James Pittman Chapter, Commerce: Rainbow Falls, Montana; Sunset Over Black Rock, Salt Lake City, Utah; First House Built in Utah, now under pergalo on Temple Block, Salt Lake City; The Gates of the Mountain on the Missouri River, Montana; The City of Polson, Montana.

In the scrap book I have finished will be found the descriptive list of cards sent by Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens. Also the Oglethorpe Chapter Year Book, with reproduction of original Seal of Georgia on front and back covers with description of Seal on inside of back cover.

I have finished the scrap book turned over to me by Mrs. Logan, and have completed one myself, using all post cards in my possession. Both scrap books will be given to Rhodes Memorial Hall at an early date.

Have written 25 letters and 20 postals.

IMMIGRANTS' MANUAL

Mrs. H. B. McMaster

Chapter reports show an increase of many activities, in distributing the Manual and having placed them in schools, libraries and other public places.

Would like to urge for the coming year individual instruction to those applying for citizenship in their locality, which is undoubtedly a step forward in presenting the Manual. See that it is used in our schools, thereby making better Americans of our own children; teaching the correct usage of our flag and more love for our country.

Wish to thank the many chapters who have used the Manuals in their meetings, and the many splendid radio programs which they have sponsored.

The members as a whole do not yet realize the value of this little book; am asking them to buy one and see that their chapter pays her 10 per cent per capita.

Chapters are requested to send all orders through the State Chairman, a charge for single copies, 20 cents each, in lots of 25 or more, 15 cents; in lots of 50 or more, 12 cents each; 100 or more, 10 cents. When ordering state purpose for which they are desired and the proposed method of distribution.

Number of Manuals reported distributed, 66; classes of Americanization, 2; radio and programs sponsored, 18; Manuals placed in schools and school libraries, 35; public libraries, 2; and many other activities which I failed to receive. More than 71 chapters paid per capita tax.

INDIAN WELFARE AND CITIZENSHIP

Mrs. J. Alva Davis

The Mary Hammond Washington Chapter D. A. R., Macon, had programs on Indians.

Dr. C. C. Harrold spoke on "Indians in Georgia Before Oglethorpe," at their October meeting and General Walter Harris spoke on "Indian Mounds in Old Ocmulgee Fields" at their February meeting.

The John Clarke Chapter, of Social Circle, has this report: At one of our meetings, government schools for Indians were discussed and Indian music was rendered.

The Elijah Clarke Chapter, of Athens, reports that one program was given to the study of "Georgia Indians and Legends," which was most instructive and interesting.

Roanoke Chapter, Lumpkin, reported that they always gave one meeting during the year to a program on Indians.

The Dorothy Walton Chapter, of Dawson, had an Indian program of songs, readings, etc., including "Indian Welfare and Citizenship."

Oglethorpe Chapter, of Columbus, reports that they are interested in Indian Welfare and that Columbus abounds in Indian lore, and that Chattahoochee, Cusseta, etc., are the results of Indian occupation during the early history of the city.

The General Daniel Stewart Chapter, of Perry, had a program on Indians, and their members were urged to give much time to the study of Indians.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mrs. James S. Wood

Independence Day, July 4, is always very generally celebrated, not only by the Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution but by all classes of citizens in our state. In the past, to ask if you celebrated this great anniversary of the Declaration of Independence was practically to ask an unnecessary question. However, it is well to ask this question, in these times, when there has come to the attention of our government considerable unpatriotic propaganda among persons striving to instill into the minds of American college students a feeling of unrest and general disrespect for the Constitution. The Daughters of the American Revolution must strive to instill into the rising generation a greater patriotism and pride of country, and must combat the evil influences that would disrupt our nation.

In observing Independence Day the real significance of the occasion should be stressed and the younger citizens should be encouraged to participate in the celebration, thus becoming better acquainted with the important historical fact and arousing in them greater patriotic interest. Ten chapters reported celebrations.

LaFAYETTE DAY

Mrs. Thomas W. Lee

As LaFayette's birthday should be observed at the first meeting of the chapters in the fall, in August I sent the following typed cards to the 96 chapter Regents in the state:

"As September 6 is the natal day of LaFayette, I am suggesting that at the meeting your chapter holds nearest this date, you include appropriate observance of this on your historic program.

After the meeting please notify me that I may make my report."

I received up to March 8, 46 replies. Most reports were made as I suggested, right after the meeting, others straggled in all along, with quite a shower the last few days before my report was compiled.

Most chapters had papers or speakers giving high lights in the events in history, in which LaFayette played the important role.

The three Columbus chapters placed a wreath on the Memorial Shaft which they jointly erected in his honor, in addition to the historical program feature.

LEGISLATION

Miss Virginia Hardin

The Committee on Legislation has endorsed the State Regent's suggestion that all teachers in our schools and colleges subscribe to the Oath of Allegiance. We go further and ask that all teachers be required to take that oath.

We also endorse the bill before our Congress, which should be known as the "Enabling Act." This act would be to enable the Congress to see that all states pass the amendment to do away with child labor. We also respectfully suggest that you each interview your candidates for legislative and other offices as to their position on the Child Labor Bill, which may be brought before the Legislature or the Congress.

We are in favor of our government enacting a law making kidnapping a capital offense.

We invite your cooperation in all matters pertinent to this work.

LUCY COOK PEEL MEMORIAL

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

The Lucy Cook Peel Memorial Committee has passed through another trying year financially. While the last book of Georgia Records published has been paid for the sales have been so small that little income from them has been realized. The appropriation of state, schools, and public libraries has been cut so materially, that few have been in a position to purchase books. Several hundred of Volume II are stored with The McGregor Company, in Athens, and large numbers of Volumes III and IV are packed in boxes and stored at North Fulton School. This is a fireproof building and through the courtesy of Mr. Dykes, no storage is charged—all books are insured.

We are not in a position to publish another volume until we dispose of these on hand. We must devise some plan to sell the books and return to the State D. A. R. treasury, the amount borrowed to pay Stein, the publisher of the last Volume. The only way we can help this committee is to have each chapter buy a book and to do this it will have to be made an Honor Roll Requirement. As chairman of this committee, I urge that this be done. Large packages of valuable papers (historical) have been sent to the Librarian General. Our records are marvelous in their historic value and we are endeavoring to place them in the hands of our Georgia D. A. R. libraries, schools and colleges. I wish to thank the chapters for their interest in sending me cards reporting their paid quota to Lucy Cook Peel Memorial.

"A people that take no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote generations." We feel that the D. A. R. agree in spirit with this great principle, so we Georgia Daughters must rally to the help of this committee in their constructive work.

MAY ERWIN TALMADGE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Mrs. Barnett Solomon

Students' notes, $4,505; amount in bank, $194.46; Atlanta Laundries bond, $1,000; total, $5,699.46.

Our collections are improving with improved conditions. As fast as repayments accumulate, new loans are made. Twenty-six students are now using money from this fund. Some loans are not yet due and others are almost repaid. A certificate of honorary record is given when payments are completed. These are used as character reference when applying for position.

The lending and collecting of this money brings many a human interest story. The deep appreciation for opportunities made possible makes you realize how much is being accomplished by the fund.

MEDALS AND PRIZES

NATIONAL DEFENSE THROUGH PATRIOTIC EDUCATION

Mrs. Bun Wylie

The subjects of interest in legislation are National Defense; Immigration and Crime. Bills have been introduced in Congress for increase in navy, army, and air forces. Your chairman has sent letters and telegrams to Georgia senators and congressmen urging support of these bills. Have sent letters and literature to chapter chairmen for programs and activities of all kinds combating communism, atheism and pacifists. The D. A. R. of Georgia are doing constructive work.

Of the 96 chapters in Georgia, 70 have reported Chairman on National Defense through Patriotic Education, with active committees. They have had special programs including study of the Constitution, current events, and citizenship classes in chapters and schools combating communism. Flags, Creeds and Pledge to the Flag given to schools. National Defense Week, February 12 to February 22 has been celebrated with special programs, prominent speakers and patriotic demonstrations, of parades and pageants, "so that the attention of the people has been drawn to American principles."

The outstanding work of the chapters has been: clubs formed in schools and medals offered for good citizenship and the writing of essays on patriotic subjects; Correct use of Flag taught; Flag Codes distributed in schools; patriotic speeches and lectures; chapter scholarships in schools and colleges; patriotic songs; medals given in schools for highest marks in American history; Americanism taught and foreigners naturalized; preparedness programs; marking historic spots, highways and Revolutionary soldiers graves; historical records and books published and sold; subscriptions to D. A. R. Magazine; Georgia Bicentennial celebrations, 200th anniversary of Georgia; observance of patriotic and historic days; cooperation with relief work for unemployed and promotion of NRA; boxes sent to Ellis Island; 15 cents per capita for National Defense; 10 cents Immigrants Manual; 3 cents Ellis Island; total, $8,368.50.

PATRIOTIC SONGS

Miss Cena Whitehead

Forty-seven chapters sing patriotic songs at their meetings; 30 of these encourage the singing of patriotic songs in the schools.

The Barnard Trail Chapter has offered two prizes in the public schools to the grades learning patriotic songs.

The Dorothy Walton Chapter gives a grade prize each year, known as the Regent's Prize, for learning patriotic songs.

The James Pittman Chapter offers three prizes, valued at $4.00, to the grades singing patriotic songs best.

The Oglethorpe Chapter has patriotic songs printed in the local papers and the children clip them and learn them. I think this would be a good idea for other chapters to follow.

The Elijah Clarke Chapter had four patriotic songs printed and each monthly meeting is opened by singing one of them.

The Governor Treutlen Chapter is urging the members to learn the songs.

I earnestly urge the Daughters to encourage the use of our patriotic songs in schools and at their chapter meetings.

PRESS COMMITTEE

Mrs. Mell Knox, Chairman

The Press Committee met May 17, 1934, in Social Circle in all day session at the home of the chairman.

The manuscript of the Proceedings was edited and sent to the printers. The Press Committee regrets the omission of some reports which had not been received and calls attention again to the resolution requiring receipts of all reports by May 1.

The Printers Code has so increased the price that reports had to be cut, in order to keep the cost as near that of previous years as possible. Reports of unusual length have been paid for by individuals.

Those desiring additional copies may purchase these through the Recording Secretary Mrs. Harrison Hightower, Thomaston, Ga., at 50 cents a copy.

Those present were: Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. W. E. Mann, Mrs. Julius Talmadge, Mrs. Francis Brown Chase, Mrs. James F. Wiley, Mrs. Harrison Hightower, and ex-officio members, Mrs. Julian McCurry and Mrs. J. W. Daniel, with Mrs. Mell Knox, chairman, and hostess.

PRESERVATION OF HISTORIC SPOTS

Mrs. Robert Travis

Your chairman regretted that she was unable to attend the exercises by the Sergeant Newton Chapter of Covington, Mrs. W. D. Travis, Regent, at the dedication of the marker on the Old Stage Coach Road that led to Milledgeville. This marker was erected at the Old Brick Store, the first brick building in Newton county, where Newton County's first superior court was held April 15, 1822. Later it was decided to move the court to Newtonborough, now Covington. The exercises were held on June 14, 1933, and Dr. S. V. Sanford, of the University of Georgia, and Hon. Claud Smith, of Covington, were the speakers.

This marker was the contribution of the Sergeant Newton Chapter to the Bicentennial celebration in Georgia, and this small chapter deserves credit for this splendid piece of work done without the help of the State D. A. R. The Baron DeKalb Chapter, of Decatur, marked one Revolutionary soldier's grave, and 146 Tombstone Records made and sent.

Chapters requesting state help in marking historic spots:

The John Ball Chapter, at Irwinton, through Mrs. Victor Davidson, has requested $50.00 to assist in marking the Federal Highway at Allentown, where it crossed two Indian trails. These trails are called by several names: Jameson's Trail, Old Federal Trail, and the Old Stage Coach Road, leading from Milledgeville to Tallahassee, Florida.

Mrs. Wm. A. Fitzgerald, Regent of the Roanoke Chapter, at Lumpkin, Stewart county, wishes the endorsement of the Georgia D. A. R. to secure government aid to mark the Battle of Shephard's Plantation. White considers this one of the most desperate battles of the Creek War in 1836.

Mrs. Lewis Godbee, Chairman of Preservation of Historic Spots, of the Vidalia Chapter, requests the D. A. R. to assist in marking Fort King George, and to help in getting government aid.

The Elizabeth Marlow Chapter, at Monticello, has its request on file for assistance in marking the Old Stage Coach Road and Old Inn at Shady Dale.

The Burkhalter Chapter, at Warrenton, wishes to erect a large boulder with the names of more than 100 Revolutionary soldiers on a copper plate; the soldiers serving from Warren county in the Revolutionary war.

Last year it was decided to give $35.00 to the Bainbridge Chapter, to mark Camp Recovery. As Camp Recovery had been marked by the United States government, your chairman was called one evening to find out if the money could not be used to mark the Jackson Trail. So your chairman took the liberty of giving the chapter permission to use the money for that purpose. The Bainbridge Chapter is putting up a large boulder to place the bronze tablet on, and the bronze tablet cost $35.00.

From Mrs. C. E. Pittman, of Commerce, Regent of the James Pittman Chapter, comes a list of the Revolutionary pensioners from Jackson county.

Chapters donated $119.34 for marking historic spots.

As its part in the celebration of the founding of the colony of Georgia, the Savannah Chapter, D. A. R., planted four trees in Oglethorpe Square on Abercorn Street, between York and State Streets, on February 13, 1933.

The Savannah, Lachlan McIntosh and Bonaventure Chapters joined in the marking of the George Washington Highway in Chatham county in May, 1933.

The Elijah Clarke Chapter, of Athens, has located in Oconee county, the site of an old Indian fort on the old Thrasher place (formerly Clarke county). The Elijah Clarke Chapter also reports that the marker erected on the site of the Wm. H. Crawford estate had to be moved to a new location on account of the relocation of the Athens-Crawford highway.

The Regent of the LaGrange Chapter, at LaGrange, sent the list of historic places in her county (Troup).

The Brunswick Chapter, at Brunswick, reports erecting a handsome granite marker on the site of the only home of General James Edward Oglethorpe in America, on St. Simon's Island, last November.

From Mrs. Jessie S. Collier, Corresponding Secretary of the Lamar-LaFayette Chapter, comes interesting material on the historic spots in Lamar county, namely: Gachet house, where LaFayette stopped in 1825, marked in 1931.

A granite marker has been purchased to mark the old Alabama road, originally an Indian trail from Augusta to Columbus, across the Chattahoochee River.

The Augusta Chapter, Augusta has spent $52.50 for the upkeep of Meadow Garden, the home of George Walton, this year.

The Council of Safety Chapter, at Americus, planned to clean the stone at Chee-Haw, near Leesburg, where the Peace Treaty was signed with the Indians, and to place a sign on the highway directing the public to Chee-Haw.

The LaGrange Chapter reports the old Stage Coach Road from Griffin to Montgomery.

George Washington Highway in Georgia

The most important work done by your chairman during the year has been the marking and dedication of the George Washington Highway, from Savannah to Augusta, through the towns of Sylvania and Waynesboro. It was through these towns that George Washington passed on his memorable visit to Georgia in 1791.

Two granite markers of our own Stone Mountain granite were erected in each of the five counties on the highway: Chatham, Effingham, Screven, Burke, and Richmond. These markers were hauled by the State Highway Department, and were installed by the county commissioners of each county.

The second marker in Chatham county was placed where the old Augusta road leaves the present Route 21, near the Chatham county line.

The first exercises on May 19 were held at Sylvania, under the auspices of the Briar Creek Chapter, Mrs. Peter Kittles, Regent, at 11:00 A. M., in the D. A. R. square in the center of the city, where one of the markers was placed.

The other marker in Burke county was placed on the Peach Orchard road near the Richmond county line.

The Oglethorpe Chapter, at Columbus, has been granted permission by the city commission to mark an oak, standing near the Oglethorpe Boulder, the Oglethorpe Oak. This truly marks the spot where Oglethorpe made the famous treaty with the Indians at Coweta Town in 1739. The tree is over 100 years old and was planted by an ancestor of four Oglethorpe Chapter members.

The Oglethorpe Chapter, at Columbus, has erected a granite boulder at the intersection of Broadway and Fourth Street, marking the spot where General James Edward Oglethorpe crossed the Chattahoochee River in 1739, on his visit to Coweta Town.

Kenard's Trail or Ferry

"Here General Oglethorpe crossed the Chattahoochee and at Coweta Town, southwest of this point, signed his famous treaty with the Indians, August 31, 1739. Erected by the Oglethorpe Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Columbus, Georgia, 1922."

From records sent in by the Oglethorpe Chapter is the statement that at Fort Mitchell, 10 miles south of Columbus, was situated the Indian Agency in 1805, and that the remains of the fort are still evident on Federal Road at Chattahoochee River crossing, and that it was the playground of the Indians in early historic days. Two miles away from Coweta is the oldest town of historic record in North America.

Nancy Hart Highway—Marked by the Georgia D. A. R.

The only highway in the country named for a woman.

These markers on the Nancy Hart Highway were unveiled during the third week of February, 1930, at the following points: Washington, Waynesboro, Sandersville, Tennille, Wrightsville, Dublin, and Waycross. Every town with a D. A. R. chapter from Hartwell to Waycross, now posses a large Nancy Hart marker.

Ten large markers and one small one have been placed on this highway. The Nancy Hart Highway is 375 miles in length.

Consent for the naming of this highway from Hartwell to Augusta, via Elberton and Washington, and from Augusta through Waynesboro, Louisville, Sandersville, Tennille over Route 15, throughout the state to Florida, was secured from the Chairman of the State Highway Board, Mr. John N. Holder.

In 1931 the chairman reports 11 markers erected at a total cost of $380.00. The chapters in Hartwell and Elberton donated stones and the citizens of Wrightsville donated the marker.

In 1932 three markers were unveiled at Thomson, Louisville, and Glenwood. Total cost $165.00. This completed the marking of the Nancy Hart Highway.

John Benson Chapter, at Hartwell, gave one Nancy Hart Highway marker, $125.00.

Stephen Heard Chapter, at Elberton, gave a Nancy Hart marker that was placed at the intersection of Cherokee Trail Road and one mile from the home site of Nancy Hart, $125.00.

Governor Jared Irwin Chapter, at Sandersville, gave marble post to mark highway. Cost $16.50.

Major General Samuel Elbert Chapter, at Tennille, gave a small marble post to mark highway. Cost $16.50.

Wrightsville gave a highway marker valued at $16.50. No chapter located there.

The John Benson Chapter, at Hartwell, helped to secure through Congressman Brand $1,000 for a memorial to Nancy Hart to be placed on the Bankhead Highway.

PUBLICITY

Mrs. W. E. Mann

Your Publicity Chairman sent reports of the Executive Board meeting in Elberton and the State Conference held in Atlanta to the D. A. R. Magazine.

The chapter meetings in the state are reported in local papers and a D. A. R. news column maintained weekly through the generosity of the Atlanta Constitution.

A picture and description of the State Capitol building has been sent to the D. A. R. Magazine at the request of Miss Lincoln.

REAL DAUGHTERS

Mrs. W. C. Vereen

Nineteen chapters reported to State Chairman. Eight chapters remembered our Real Daughters, Miss Sarah Poole and Mrs. Mary Poole Newsome.

Hawkinsville Chapter located the graves of two daughters of Revolutionary soldiers: Mary Duhart Walker Bryan and Rebecca Walker Dennard.

Vidalia Chapter located the graves of seven daughters of Revolutionary soldiers: Nancy Vonnor, Lucy Connor Ryals, Maria Connor, Eliza Connor Ryals, Winnie Ryals Calhoun, Penelope Ryals Connor, and Martha Connor.

SARAH BERRIEN CASEY MORGAN MEMORIAL FUND

Mrs. J. Thomas Wood

The name of Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan means to Georgia D. A. R.—years of faithful, efficient service for the organization; wise counsel in days of perplexity; unfaltering courage and tireless effort in behalf of worthy boys and girls.

You created a loan fund in her honor and I am happy to report that two young ladies have received loans to complete their education. One is a senior and one a junior in Georgia colleges. Your chairman does not think it wise to make loans to freshman students.

The amount raised for the loan fund is $477.52. This includes a bit of interest and the two loans which amounts to $350.00, leaving $127.52 in the state treasury.

SCRAP BOOK

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

The State Scrap Book has been my cherished and constant companion for seven happy years. The compiling of its pages has brought me in contact with your daily activities and noble ambitions. It contains your accomplishments, both great and small.

My desire has been to leave on each page your personal touch. The pictures, the poems, and articles you have sent me are all found between its covers. To these I have added bits of information, photographs, and the achievements of our big family—the Daughters of Revolutionary Heroes.

The history of our Society and the history of our state has been transplanted to its pages. And winding in and out among its leaves is the theme of love of our fellowman, loyalty to the D. A. R., and service to our country and to the high ideals to which we are pledged.

Thirty-five pages have been added to the Scrap Book the past year. Among the outstanding contributions are the following articles, pictures, and reports:

Georgia's Bicentennial Celebration and Her Progress the Past Two Hundred Years.

Georgia, a Great Experiment and the Diversity of Her First Settlers.

Pictures of General James Edward Oglethorpe, King George III, Tomichichi, and other prominent people and notable events in the early history of our state.

Interesting articles and photographs of the homes of distinguished Cherokee Indians.

Stories and pictures of Revolutionary patriots and the marking of their graves.

Articles and photographs of the placing of markers by memorial trees.

Descriptions of the unveiling of handsome markers on historic spots.

Georgia's Daughters honored both at home and abroad.

Georgia's Bookplates in the Library at Constitution Hall.

A copy of the telegram to Colonel Walter Scott on the occasion of the visit of his daughter, the President General, to our State Conference.

History of Franklin county, containing a list of the names of the persons to whom land was granted as bounties after 1785.

Among the many splendid Chapter Year Books, there stands out the one of the Oglethorpe Chapter, in Columbus, with an exact reproduction of the Seal of the Trustees of Georgia on its covers. This Seal is in the British Museum in England.

I have given information as to the compiling of Chapter Scrap Books and have urged all chapters to keep these personal records. It gives me great pleasure to report that four-fifths of the chapters are enthusiastic over their scrap books.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Mrs. James I. Garrard

It is gratifying to report interest manifested by our Georgia chapters in organizing young America in Sons and Daughters of the United States of America Clubs. I feel sure if Chapter Regents will make a more careful study of the Handbooks mailed them they will find they cannot afford not to sponsor these clubs.

Georgia won distinction last year by winning the national medal offered by Mrs. Robert Bagnell, National Chairman, Sons and Daughters of the U. S. A. Clubs, for having organized the greatest number of new clubs. We gratefully acknowledge this honor and give many thanks to the two chapters responsible for this signal honor: The Governor David Emanuel Chapter, and the John Ball Chapter. This medal will be presented to Miss Ruth Blair, State Historian, for the D. A. R. case in Rhodes Memorial Hall, Atlanta.

Sons and Daughters of the U. S. A. Clubs are organized for the purpose of "teaching the underlying principles of national, state, and municipal governments; the discussion and practice of patriotism and whatever tends to promote good citizenship; and sincere preparation for intelligent and unselfish participation in the duties of citizenship." It is vitally important to obtain the interest and cooperation of the superintendent of schools in your community. After his consent to organize the school children, work with the teachers of your local and county schools. D. A. R. members who are teachers can be of great help.

This year we have 13 clubs, four of which are new. The total membership is 319.

The John Ball Chapter is doing a splendid work among the rural schools. United States flags have been given each club. One club has started writing a community history. Christmas cards were made and sent to veterans in hospitals. Patriotic days are observed and the singing of patriotic songs is encouraged.

Nancy Hart Chapter and the State Chairman gave United States flags to each club and citizenship medals will be offered to club members. Patriotic days have been observed. The teachers are finding these clubs to be of great help in their school work and the pupils have received them enthusiastically.

We are trying to inculcate in the minds of all children what constitutes a good citizen as related to the United States, the state, his community, his family and to himself, by emulating the lives of heroes and by being of service to those with whom he comes in daily contact. To those Regents who have not taken up this work, I urge you to realize what it will mean in future years to have all children well grounded in what it means to be an American citizen, the greatest inheritance of all.

STATE EDITOR'S AWARD

Mrs. A. S. Hardy

The D. A. R. columns of the Sunday Atlanta Constitution for the past year have been replete with interesting accounts of the activities of the state officers and (the D. A. R.) chapters.

To decide just which chapter sent in best publicity material has been no easy task, but after a careful survey has been made of the original manuscripts, your committee has selected the Hawkinsville Chapter as the winner of the prize. The Elijah Clarke Chapter, of Athens, and the John Laurens Chapter, of Dublin, sent in reports of every meeting and were up to their usual standard of excellence. We also wish to make special mention of the Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, of Albany, and of the Bainbridge Chapter.

STATE REGENT'S AWARD

Mrs. Frances Brown Chase

State Regent's award was given to Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens, by unanimous vote of the committee. The percentage basis was in excess of the many chapters competing for this honor.

TEXTBOOKS

Mrs. Ben J. Tarbutton

One member of this committee outlined a course in Americanization and American History in her high school.

Several chapters have reported prizes to be given by the D. A. R. for high school pupil having highest record in American history.

I wish to urge each chapter to have a committee to review the history books in their city and county schools so we may know what our children are being taught.

TIME AND PLACE

Mrs. Charles F. Rice

As Chairman of Time and Place, it is my pleasure to present the following report:

The State Executive Board met in Elberton October 21 by invitation of the Stephen Heard Chapter, Miss Edna Rogers, Regent.

The State Conference for 1934 will meet in Albany, March 19-20-21, by invitation of the two chapters, the Thronateeska, Mrs. Leo Leader, Regent, and the Comodore Richard Dale, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Regent.

The General James Jackson Chapter, Valdosta, has extended an invitation to the State Executive Board to meet with them in October, 1934.

The Elijah Clarke Chapter, Athens, Miss Annie Crawford, Regent, extends a cordial invitation to the Georgia Daughters to be their guests at State Conference in 1935.

TRAVELING GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY

Mrs. J. D. Wadsworth

At the October, 1933, meeting, the plan for the Traveling Genealogical Library, as outlined by Mrs. Lue R. Spencer, Vice-President General, from Nebraska, who established one in Nebraska 10 years ago, was presented to Oglethorpe Chapter, with the following resolution:

"I move that Oglethorpe Chapter present, through its librarian, Mrs. J. D. Wadsworth, to the Georgia D. A. R., the idea of establishing a Traveling Genealogical Library, for the use of all the Georgia chapters and the public at large. The same to be supported by all the Georgia chapters and donations from the public.

Respectfully submitted, H. C. H. H. Wadsworth."

Oglethorpe Chapter approved it and said it should be sent to the Resolutions Committee. So the plan and resolution were sent to Mrs. McCurry who endorsed it enthusiastically, and presented it to the State Board meeting in October. Copies were also sent to Mrs. Daniel and Mrs. Stewart Colley, both of whom were delighted with it.

The State Board struck out the words, "and the public at large," thinking the public would abuse the privilege. The Board instructed Mrs. McCurry to investigate further and report to State Conference in March. I wrote Mrs. McCurry the following reasons for opening it to the public: "I am sorry indeed to note that the Board cut out 'and the public,' as I feel that will limit the usefulness of the Library to future generations. The Library should be the repository of inherited family data, and, of course, of all other family data, but inherited is more often apt to be correct. And as numerous families have intermarried through the generations and missing links are found in most unexpected places, we will lose a valuable source of information. You see, I hope to make this collection of inherited data one of the main objects of the Library, and by opening it to the public, to secure data heretofore unknown, but of inestimable value. If the public has access to the Library, those interested could be asked to contribute their data which would make the Library vast in scope, whereas, if it is limited to the D. A. R. we would acquire little other than what is already on record. It has wonderful possibilities but would include a world of work, too. The South has so few records we ought not to neglect any opportunity to collect them and make them available to the public; and this ought to be done before more of the older generation pass away."

On January 19, I sent a letter to each Chapter Regent explaining the plan for the Library and asking their members' cooperation in instructing their delegates to vote for the resolution at Conference.

VALDOSTA LOAN FUND

Mrs. Di Ingram

The same condition prevailed this year as reported last year in regard to this fund.

Due to small bank balance in September, 1933, we only pledged help to two students for this year. However, we feel collections will possibly be such by this fall we can again assist several.

The balance on hand March, 1933, $5,633.85; the balance on hand March, 1934, $5,638.21. This includes all money now loaned to students.

WELFARE WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Mrs. Retta Coney

I bring to you report of a year replete with zealous work, free gifts of untiring love and devotion of Georgia Daughters for worthy causes and work among the needy.

I proudly assert that endless work has been accomplished through the cooperation of our members. While the fields of Georgia are ripe with the harvest, I assure you her gleaners do not sleep.

In submitting this report to Conference, I extend sincere thanks to each chapter for supporting me in my work.

WOODROW WILSON DAY

Mrs. J. W. Oglesby, Jr.

It gives me great pleasure to be the one to bring a message on Woodrow Wilson Day. Also to do my bit to help make his birthday a national holiday. To me he ranks only second to the Father of our Country, George Washington.

He carried our country gloriously through the greatest war of all time, and through the period following. He was "Great in Peace and Great in War." May we continue to honor and respect the memory of one who gave his all for his country.

The chapters have done their part in celebrating the birthday of Woodrow Wilson. I thank them for the cards written to tell me of their observance of the day.

There were several chapters who had outstanding reports. The Hawkinsville Chapter placed a concrete tree marker, with bronze tablet as a memorial, something which will stand up through the ages, to show the love and respect we give a Great Patriot, Woodrow Wilson.

WORLD WAR MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

Mrs. Julius T. Dudley

February 12, 1932. On hand $7,825.37, which includes the balance of cash and money loaned to students. Last report made October 5, 1932, balance on hand was $7,557.61.

The original amount of $5,000.00, raised by assessments and gifts—$2,500.00 by Elijah Clarke Chapter and $1,500.00 by Georgia State D. A. R.—Was placed at the University of Georgia in 1919. At first only an endowment fund, is now both endowment and revolving. Students are recommended by the chapter and the State Regent for loan, and pay 4 per cent interest. Many of the loans have been paid in full with interest, but not all.

JOSEPH HABERSHAM CHAPTER, ATLANTA

Mrs. R. K. Rambo, Regent

Through the fine work of Miss Juanita Chisholm, Chairman, patriotic days were observed with special programs of value and interest.

A valuable gift, a gavel, was donated to the chapter by Mrs. James N. Brawner, Past Regent. The wood from which the gavel is made was cut from a limb of the original tree, 200 years old, still standing on the spot where General James Oglethorpe landed at Yamacraw Bluff, Savannah, Georgia, 1733.

November 13, the chapter was the guest of Mrs. William H. Kiser, honoring the birthday of her mother, Mrs. William Lawson Peel, founder of the Joseph Habersham Chapter.

Our Chairman of Scholarships, Mrs. T. J. Ripley, has made a wonderful record for 1933 and 1934; she has secured 18 scholarships, valued at $1,860.00.

Two silver cups were presented to schools of Atlanta for the best essays on Georgia history.

A bronze medal, the "Spinning Wheel," is given each year through the chapter to the most efficient student of the Army R. O. T. C. of Georgia Tech.

The chapter contributed to local charities, sewing at Red Cross headquarters, and visiting at Hospital 48.

We have four new subscribers to the D. A. R. Magazine and four renewals.

Two markers for Revolutionary soldiers' graves were placed on October 8, 1933, Clinton, Jones County, Georgia. Our Regent, Mrs. R. K. Rambo, presided at this unveiling.

We report with deepest regret the passing of two of our beloved members: Mrs. D. I. McIntire, died November, 1933, and Miss Carrie L. Stanton, died July 7, 1933.

COUNCIL OF SAFETY CHAPTER, AMERICUS

Mrs. W. M. Emmet, Regent

Fifty-six paid members. We have held regular monthly meetings, with splendid programs and attendance.

All patriotic and historic days have been observed with appropriate music and addresses. We have used the D. A. R. Guide to motion pictures. Two radio broadcasts were given, one on LaFayette's birthday and the other one on our work at Ellis Island. The chapter took an active part in Armistice Day celebration, and we have cooperated with all patriotic and civic organizations at all times. We helped to prepare, donate, and serve food to undernourished children at grammar school.

Flags have been displayed at all meetings, and Flag Chairman has had a notice in the paper asking merchants to display flags on all patriotic occasions. Two medals were given for excellence in American history, one to high school, and one to college, valued at $5.00. A box was sent to Ellis Island valued at $10.00; $4.00 was contributed to Continental Hall in honor of President General, Mrs. Magna's birthday.

A non-resident member, Mrs. Gus Harris, of Leesburg, was instrumental in having the grounds nicely cleaned around Chee-Haw Monument. Council of Safety has met all Honor Roll Requirements.

One of our best beloved members has passed away this year, Mrs. W. A. Dodson, who was one of the charter members.

Bronze markers are placed on all deceased members' graves by chapter.

ELIZABETH WASHINGTON CHAPTER, AUGUSTA

Mrs. W. I. Wilson, Regent

The Elizabeth Washington Chapter sends greetings. Meetings are held in the homes of the members with our flag always present. Our little ritualistic ceremony, led by our Chaplain, is very impressive and helpful. When our first group of officers were selected a Chaplain was included. Mrs. Ida Moseley Blasingame has filled this office most acceptably during the last four years. The chapter owns a handsome flag, the gift of Mrs. Elizabeth McAllister, which is properly displayed on patriotic occasions.

Flag Codes have been given to the different schools; also a few magazines to the rural schools. Pamphlets and D. A. R. Magazines placed in the library. Our Committee on Research Work are collecting data and establishing ancestral lines with surprising success. Our members have helped the other organizations in all their undertakings. (Mrs. Anderson Sibley and Miss Katherine Mealing did magnificent work on the recent Red Cross Drive. And Miss Julia Mealing has given intelligent attention to the Better Films work and has several interesting reports on file. Mrs. Russell Wright has filled and presented to the chapter a valuable scrap book and is compiling another). Our members appreciate the privilege of having placed the first foundation stone for the Morgan Memorial Loan Fund and promise to always "Lend a Hand" whenever possible in furthering this splendid work in honor of the peerless leader and lovable woman, Mrs. Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan.

Our Real Granddaughter, Miss Mary Jane Burnley, is an example for us. In her eighties, she is smilingly content as the world rushes by. She keeps up with current events, while she makes exquisite lace and tatting or pieces together a lovely quilt to give away.

Our newest Daughter is a resident of New York City.

Obligations all cancelled, including our handsome granite marker on Washington Street, placed to commemorate the visit of General George Washington in 1791. Our garden is growing and forming a lovely background for it, where crepe myrtle and jessamine vine, cedar of Maine, and Georgia pine, althea and canna of gorgeous color everywhere are seen. Abelia, Carolina cherry, and camellias there. All growing.

"A tree is a Psalm of Beauty,

A tree is a green-leaved prayer."

Our chain of membership is unbroken, though there has been much illness. Due to banks and other corporations going into retirement, our funds are inaccessible. Consequently our contributions are painfully small, which we deplore; but our local need could not be ignored. Membership, 42, several having moved away. Our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mamie Bland Goodwin, in her own inimitable way, fills out with suitable words and sends dainty and attractive cards to comfort the bereaved, cheer up the convalescent and entertain the "shut in." This method, we think, is better than others we have known of.

AUGUSTA CHAPTER, AUGUSTA

Mrs. A. H. Brenner, Regent

The Georgia Bicentennial program was completed. Five dollars was given for the Society's name being enrolled among the participants, at the State Capitol. Addresses were delivered at meetings, and public events, showing valuable research work in local history, by leading young men of the city.

After selecting locations for the George Washington Highway markers furnished by the State Highway Commission, the County Commissioners kindly cooperated by receiving those designated for Richmond County and had them put in place.

Proceeding through Richmond County the marker at the juncture of the Hepzibah road was unveiled and the marker nearest the city of Augusta was the scene of impressive ceremonies amid a large gathering.

Flag Day, like all designated days, was appropriately observed. On July 3, the usual Flag Festival was observed, by decorating citizens with small flags in honor of the Fourth.

The program, "The National Society, Its Organization, Properties, and Activities," was printed in Year Book form dedicated to:

Mrs. Sarah Berrien Casey Morgan,
Charter Member, National Society D. A. R., 1891,
Vice-President General, 1900-1904,
Regent Georgia Society, 1893-94, 1896-97,
Founder and First Regent, Augusta Chapter, 1892-94,
And a devoted member until her death, June 28, 1931."

Major Carter's grave was located in the Bugg burying ground, on what was the Bugg property, now the estate of Mrs. H. B. King, on the Kissing Bower road.

an opportunity to assist in needed repairs on the caretaker's cottage at Meadow Garden, by purchasing small flags. On the afternoon of the 22nd, Meadow Garden was open to the public. Though the expenses at Meadow Garden always call for a large part of the annual income, insurance and needed repairs, have made extra efforts imperative. keep of the Lachlan McIntosh lot in Colonial Cemetery, Savannah.

We have fittingly observed all patriotic days. Our library work is being carried on in a most efficient manner by our Librarian, Mrs. S. Branch LaFarr. Many new books were placed on our library shelf at Hodgson Hall.

The chapter is sponsoring the publication of a book of "Chatham County Wills." This contains abstracts of all wills on record from the year 1773 to 1817 inclusive, which have been taken from Volumes A, B, C, D and E of Chatham County Wills, the work being done by Mabel Freeman LaFarr and Caroline Price Wilson through the efforts of the Library Committee. The abstracts are being published by the National Genealogical Society, Washington, D. C.

We feel that our most outstanding feat is the library and research work we have accomplished. We have 13 years of D. A. R. Magazines in binders on our shelves.

During the past year all of our chapter members have through service of every form and nature cooperated with civic workers and especially in the National Recovery Administration work. It is with regret that we report the death of one of our chapter members, an honorary member of our chapter, Miss Margaret Arnold Cosens, better known among our local members as "Miss Meg." Some of our members attended the naturalization exercises held in United States Court.

The award that is our custom to present to the high school student will be given again. This year, they are requested to select Revolution history as their subject, and we will use the regular D. A. R. medal.

In February members attended United States Court when nine foreigners took the Oath of Allegiance to our government, a most impressive and dignified ceremony. Flags, identification cards and Manuals were distributed by the Chairman of Americanism.

At this sacred spot are buried two Revolutionary generals, two Signers of the Declaration of Independence and hundreds of other patriots whose dust mingles with the soil of this historic shrine. The meetings are very interestingly carried out in the patriotic manner.

Our chapter birthday was observed October 10 at Regent's home and Mrs. Magna's birthday was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Lane with a "covered dish" party.

The chapter has not contributed to all the various calls of the State and National D. A. R. as we wished to do but lack of funds prevented.

Our membership is gradually increasing.

We have nine members teaching and nine ex-teachers, hence "patriotic education moves on." One program was devoted to approved schools.

We have offered a prize in schools of county to one making highest mark in American history. Have asked that the Pledge to Flag be taught children, also lessons given in Citizenship Training.

We have collected quite a number of records from tombstones and Bibles. Have located two graves of Revolutionary soldiers, also a Daughter's grave and expect to mark them before next Conference.

Governor David Emanuel Chapter, with an enrollment of 47, has admitted four new members, one by transfer, and sustained one loss by death during the year.

Attractive year books were issued early in the fall, containing all regular and special programs.

We used the spiritual and patriotic programs for our regular meetings, as suggested by Mrs. Shellnutt and Mrs. Land. We have sponsored seven patriotic lectures, numbering among our out-of-town speakers of prominence, the late Lucian Lamar Knight, Judge Walter Sheppard and Col. John G. Kennedy. We have had an average attendance of over 50 per cent for our regular meetings. We have met the Honor Roll Requirements, and have exercised our rights of citizenship at the polls.

Our Committees on Patriotic Education, Eradication of Illiteracy, National Defense, Conservation and Thrift, and Welfare of Women and Children have cooperated to raise the citizenship standard and care for the needy of our community.

We have sponsored clinics and were instrumental in having five tuberculosis patients sent to Alto; $107.78 was raised during the recent Tuberculosis Seal sale which was directly sponsored by our chapter. Emanuel County's part of these funds are handled by our chapter committee.

Our chapter has accomplished much toward beautifying the highways, and is now erecting stone pillars on the north side of Highway No. 1 at the city limits of Swainsboro. It is our plan to continue this work until each approach to our city on our two national highways have been so marked.

Our Forestry Committee has been active and instrumental in having fire breaks ploughed.

We have contributed 30 books to the American Merchant Marine Library.

We are offering again this year the $2.50 prizes in our local school for the best student in United States history in high school and in grammar school. We are also offering the citizenship medals in the 11 high schools of the county. Our chapter continues to sponsor the Sons and Daughters of the U. S. A. Clubs and Girl Home Makers' Clubs in the county.

We have enlisted the aid of our local theater, thereby enabling the public to see some of the highest rated motion pictures.

We have a growing library for which we have ordered 100 Georgia book plates. We contributed $8.50 to Mrs. Magna's Birthday fund.

Two of the high lights of our year's work from an historical point of view was the unveiling of markers to the memory of two Revolutionary soldiers, Ephraim Herrington and J. C. Sumner. Appropriate programs featuring speakers of distinction marked these occasions. Other unveilings by our chapter for the past year include two World War veterans and one Spanish-American War veteran.

All D. A. R. endeavor is dear to our hearts, but one of the most cherished projects has been our Marion Sibley Wylie Student Loan fund, started in our first year and named for Mrs. Wylie who was then our State Regent. We have added $119.85 to this fund during the past year and take pride in announcing that our first protégé will receive her normal diploma in June.

One of our most interesting efforts has been the furnishing of our D. A. R. Club room. We have acquired a rug, overstuffed furniture, occasional tables, a book case, attractive window draperies and a lovely wall hanger. Pictures of George Washington and Franklin D. Roosevelt have been donated. We are going to use the Regent's gift of $25.00 toward buying a silk flag for our club room.

We are a congenial group of patriotic women carrying on the ideals of our great national organization.

BRIER CREEK CHAPTER, SYLVANIA

Mrs. Peter Kittles, Regent

Our chapter has had a very active year of service and accomplishments. We have a membership of 25, having lost three by resignation, and have four applications pending completion of records.

Ten regular meetings have been held at homes of Daughters, with fine attendance. All meetings opened with Bible reading and prayer, followed by Pledge to Flag and patriotic songs.

Our programs, following the suggestion of Mrs. Max E. Land, have featured splendid historical papers. Publicity Chairman sends notices of all meetings to local and Savannah papers, and special meetings to State Editor.

Committee on Marking Historic Spots reports three graves of wives of Revolutionary soldiers located, five graves of Revolutionary soldiers located, graves of two Revolutionary soldiers marked with impressive ceremony, November 11, that of John Arnett, ancestor of Reverend H. J. Arnett, "Screven County's Grand Old Man," and that of James Scott, March 11.

One of the outstanding features of the year's program was the unveiling of two markers of the George Washington Highway in Screven County.

Our Chairman on Patriotic Education reports two medals for excellence in United States history; total cost $5.00; singing of patriotic songs in every school in the county; flags displayed and Pledge and Salute to Flag given daily at all schools; new flag at Sylvania school; studying Flag Code in schools and at chapter meetings; American Creed, Pledge and Salute to Flag have all become loved and familiar language to the children of Screven County.

Our local school children attend unveiling exercises in a body, and together with Boy Scouts lead in patriotic songs and Pledge to the Flag.

Chairman Conservation and Thrift reports 427 trees and shrubs planted. Thrift banks used in local school with fine success. Better Films Chairman, in cooperation with local theatre, reports D. A. R. Magazine placed in school library by local chapter. Scrap Book Committee reports valuable and historical data being collected and preserved in Chapter scrap book, also a Bicentennial scrap book in the making. Chairman Genealogical Research reports copies of 12 wills and five deeds dating back to the early years of American Independence. Ten living Christmas trees were decorated on lawns of our Daughters. Ten dollars was sent to Constitution Hall Memory Book.

Thus the year has run its course; this being her last report, the Regent wishes to state that this privilege of service has been an absorbing interest and inspiration made possible through the loyalty, interest and cooperation of every Daughter of Brier Creek Chapter.

BARNARD TRAIL CHAPTER, SYLVESTER

Mrs. I. H. Mann, Regent

In our chapter meetings over the past year we have used the historical programs as outlined by our State Chairman and our work has been educational and very interesting.

The chapter has very fittingly observed all patriotic days. Washington's birthday was celebrated with a Colonial tea at which members of the chapter, wearing Colonial costumes, were hostesses to the women of Sylvester. At Christmas time we followed a custom established several years ago and decorated a living Christmas tree in the public square.

We feel that the outstanding work of the year is the completing of the Worth County History which is now in the hands of the publishers and will be off the press in a few weeks.

We have given two prizes for the best papers on "The Early History of Georgia," one prize to girl doing the most outstanding work in home economics department of the Sylvester High School, two prizes to grades learning the greatest number of patriotic songs, four citizenship medals, two in high school and two in junior high, and one history medal to senior in high school.

The members of the chapter remembered Georgia's own Real Daughters with a box of home-made candies and roasted pecans.

We have enrolled two new members and have made a loan of $8.50 to a local girl to enable her to enter college.

Striving ever onward we enter another year with renewed inspirations and determination for greater achievements.

Our chapter annually presents prizes to the high school and grammar school for highest average in American history. We have a Loan Scholarship fund which is being used by a deserving girl. Have placed copies of the Flag Code in schools, and Immigrant's Manual in school library. Our chapter sponsored a Tree of Light which beamed with good cheer during the holidays. Much welfare work has been done by our members. One was County Chairman for the Red Cross.

A list of nineteen graves of Revolutionary soldiers marked by our chapter some time ago, has been furnished the State Historian.

The Georgia song, official song of the U. D. C., and the Bicentennial pageant, "Georgia Our Queen," written by our Regent, were used by many chapters throughout the state.

Numerous trees and shrubs have been planted, our chapter has made contributions to all the most important enterprises.

JOHN HOUSTON CHAPTER, THOMASTON

Mrs. E. T. Nottingham, Regent

Seventy-six members of the John Houston Chapter send greetings to the Thirty-sixth State Conference and submit the chapter's twenty-third annual report as follows:

Besides having met the Honor Roll Requirements, $255.00 has been loaned to a senior at the University of Georgia; $10.00 given to city and county schools for prize essays on American history; three Lineage Books and one copy of the Lamar County History have been added to the chapter library.

Eight subscribers to the D. A. R. Magazine have been secured. The chapter history through the current administration has been recorded. All patriotic days have been observed. Seven members have been accepted during the year. Fifty per cent of resident members have answered monthly roll call.

The grave of William Norris, Revolutionary soldier, was marked. It is located near Covington, in Newton County. The Sergeant Newton Chapter cooperated in arranging a suitable program for the unvelving exercises which occurred June 30, 1933.

In December, 1933, the first marker (in Upson County) on the old Alabama Stage Road was erected. The Chapter Committee on Highway Beautification planted as a background for this marker 250 shrubs and flowering trees.

One box was sent to Cross Nore; $62.36 was contributed to Mrs. Magna's Birthday party; old gold valued at $26.00 was donated for Memory Book in Constitution Hall; 92 Bible Records have been sent to the State Chairman; entertained our State Regent in August.

Miniature of Col. Benjamin Hawkins, famous Revolutionary hero, has been purchased for presentation to Rhodes Memorial Hall.

Special work of our chapter has been cooperation in canvassing for local NRA pledges; entering a D. A. R. float in the local NRA parade in November, 1933, and assisting the local Chairman of Arrangements for President Roosevelt's Birthday Ball.

The total amount expended during the year amounts to $560.98.

MAJOR GENERAL SAMUEL ELBERT CHAPTER, TENNILLE

Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, Regent

Our chapter believes in preparedness, so we are working with zeal for the good times which we hope are "just around the corner." The state programs, prepared by Mrs. Max E. Land, are used at every meeting. One of our most interesting meetings included an address by the State Chaplain, Mrs. C. D. Shellnut, of Sandersville, who told of a visit to two of Georgia's Real Daughters, Miss Mary Poole, and Mrs. Mary Poole Newsome.

Our outstanding work for the year was participation in the Washington County Celebration of the Georgia Bicentennial on November 3. Our chapter presented on a float "Betsy Ross Making the Flag." With our Regent, Mrs. Herbert Franklin as chairman, our chapter had charge of a museum at the Woman's Club. A list of historic places has been furnished the committee in charge of efforts to have Route 15 paved. There are Indian relics, the remains of old forts, signs of old trails and many other reminders of days of yore.

Gave $5.00 as a prize to Girl Scouts and $5.00 as a prize in domestic arts department in the local schools. We gave $5.00 to pupil making highest average in American history and $5.00 for improvement in scholarship in Georgia history.

We hope to mark the site of Fort King George which was built by General Nicholson, of South Carolina, at the junction of the Oconee and Ocmulgee Rivers in 1720. This was probably the first military work of this kind in what is now the State of Georgia.

We visited the grave of Governor George M. Troup, in Treutlen County, on an acre of ground set apart by the legislature, tax free forever. The original tomb was placed there over the grave of Robert L. Troup. Later Governor Troup was buried there and on a marble slab in the base of the monument is the following inscription:

"George Michael Troup,
Born September 8, 1780,
Died April 26, 1856."

No epitaph can tell his worth. The history of Georgia must perpetuate his virtues and commemorate his patriotism. There he teaches us the argument being exhausted to "Stand By Our Arms."

BURKHALTER CHAPTER, WARRENTON

Mrs. Charles H. Evans, Regent

Burkhalter Chapter D. A. R. of Warrenton, Ga., organized in November, 1921, has 28 members. Plans are being mapped out for erection of a large boulder to the memory of the Revolutionary soldiers who died in Warren County. It will contain 100 or more names.

A member of the chapter presented to the Department of History and Archives of Georgia typed History of Warren County, in six volumes.

Our welfare work, which was begun last year, in one of our county consolidated schools, has been continued through our chairman, Mrs. H. J. Carswell. We have helped also, both with clothing and food, needy children in the city schools.

Lyman Hall Chapter worked faithfully in the NRA campaign, the Regent serving as chairman in the city-wide canvass.

The D. A. R. Magazine given to the high school library. The second volume of Wilkes County Records bought, and have ordered a copy of Ware County History, as soon as published. The annual package sale was held in December, the proceeds was used to help a needy mother and five children. The chapter has cooperated with other organizations in all welfare work.

In January the Regent addressed the Auxiliary on Woodrow Wilson. Had joint program with the Woman's Club and Parent-Teacher Association in December. Several officers of the chapter attended the anniversary party of the James Pittman Chapter in Commerce in March.

Good citizenship has been emphasized at all times in the chapter and in our schools. Flag Etiquette has been presented in the schools. Two medals are given each year in high and junior high school for excellence in American history. A cook book is given in domestic science classes as a prize for progress in work.

Aid was given many people during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. Forty-eight dollars was realized from the sale of Christmas Seals. The Regent was appointed by the mayor of the city to serve as General Chairman of Roosevelt Ball in January. One hundred and sixty-three dollars was realized from this affair and sent to the Warm Springs Foundation. Twenty-five dollars was given to buy books for the underprivileged children in the city schools. Practically $70.00 was realized from a beauty pageant and fashion revue presented last August.

An active Chairman of Better Films has had D. A. R. Motion Picture Guide appear in local paper. This paper has also published an account of all chapter meetings. Two meetings were sent to Atlanta papers also.

An outline of Barrow County's History has been placed in Rhodes Memorial Hall in Atlanta.

Several yards of material is being sent this month to Ellis Island. A scrap books is kept which gives a complete history of the chapter's activities from its organization in 1921 to the present time.

COURTESY EXPRESSION

Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, Chairman

A great writer has said: "Of all the lights you carry in your face, joy shines farthest out to sea." Looking out over this assemblage we find so much joy pictured in your happy faces that the sea must be alight with the brilliant sunshine of your smiles.

This is what Albany has done for us, the beautiful city where roses bloom about your doors, and their cheer and brightness live in the smiles with which you greet your guests, live in the warm clasp of your hand; and live forever in the heart of the visitor.

Words cannot express our gratitude to the Albany Chapters Daughters of the American Revolution, for we realize how faithfully you have worked for the success of the Conference. That all the plans of our hostess chapters have been carried out so beautifully is due in a great measure to the personal charm and indefatigable zeal of the Regents, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Regent Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, and Mrs. Leo Leader, Regent Thronateeska Chapter. Their committees have lent strength and power, and we commend their rare good judgment in the appointment.

We wish to express our grateful appreciation to the officials for the use of this splendid building.

We extend our thanks to those who have decorated so beautifully, for you make us feel indeed that:

"All times are good, if that one friend be true,
And one white lily lifts its lips to you."

So with all these lovely flowers about us, good times must be here to stay!

We are indeed indebted to those who have given us such a cordial welcome, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Regent Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, and Mrs. Leo Leader, Regent Thronateeska Chapter.

We appreciate the spiritual inspiration of the ministers who were with us.

We would express to Mrs. William A. Becker, National Chairman of Patriotic Defense, our heartiest appreciation of her magnificent address on opening evening. She is so imbued with patriotism and enthusiasm that none of her hearers could fail to feel inspired for higher ideals, and more ardent work for our beloved country.

She is one who sees "real duty in the task supreme of building well."

We are indebted to Georgia's own National Officer, Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, Vice-President General, for the inspiration of her presence and for her eloquent words of wit and wisdom.

We thank our own beloved State Regent for her splendid address, expressive of her patriotic ideals and sentiments. She inspires us with love for our work, love for humanity, love for God, and in setting forth these ideals for us, she brought back to herself, our love, a hundred fold from all Georgia chapters. It is said that "man forms and educates the world, but woman educates man," so she leads in our patriotic education of mankind.

What would we Georgia D. A. R. do without the noble influence and guiding hands of our Past Vice-President General, Mrs. Julius Talmadge? She leads us along the paths she has trod, with sisterly aid, holding high the torch of light and inspiration. There are others present who lend their influence and encouragement in all patriotic endeavor. Although they have made brilliant records, they are not content merely to sit upon the reviewing stand, but they keep step right along with the procession as it moves onward, our Honorary State Regents, Mrs. Max E. Land, Mrs. Charles Akerman, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and I am happy to say, "Mrs. Franklin is among those present."

We are most grateful to the musicians who have transported us to realms of joy which tongue is powerless to express, and remind us to:

"Keep your heart a-singing, till others hear the song,
And your cheerful music helps the world along."

A noted writer has said: "Good diet with wisdom best comforteth man," so throughout the Conference, we have been comforted to our hearts' delight. The feast is always ready and there is no 3.2 per cent about Albany's cordial home brew of hospitality. We are greatly indebted to the Commodore Richard Dale Chapter, Mrs. W. C. Fripp, Regent, and the Thronateeska Chapter, Mrs. Leo Leader, Regent, for the splendid banquet on Monday evening; to the two Albany chapters for the delightful luncheon on Tuesday.

We are indeed grateful to the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, and American Legion for the enjoyable dinner on Tuesday.

We would express our great appreciation to the Albany Woman's Club, American Legion Auxiliary, Business and Professional Women's Club, Colonial Dames, Dougherty County U. D. C., Pilot Club, Spanish-American Auxiliary for the luncheon on Wednesday.

Again we are under obligations to the Thronateeska Chapter D. A. R. for the tea on Wednesday at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Leo Leader. These occasions draw us close together when "hand clasps hand, and eye looks into eye," in the closest bond of friendship.

Our sincerest thanks are due the pages who have served us so charmingly. They flit around like butterflies, and lend rich color and beauty. The word "adorable" was coined just for them, and they cause us to realize that:

"Though the world is full of sadness, we can make it bright,
By smiling, smiling, by smiling with delight!
There is a silvery lining beneath the darkest cloud,
Keep smiling, smiling, smiling, keep smiling right out loud!"

We wish to express heartiest appreciation to the newspapers, to the papers here which have given us such delightful publicity in advance, and will have most enjoyable accounts of our meeting. We appreciate sincerely the kindness of the Atlanta Constitution in giving us our own columns where we may broadcast to the world our accomplishments.

This Conference inspires us to return to our homes with the determination to work with greater zeal than ever before for all D. A. R. enterprises. Let us:

Widespread the grand achievements of patriotic Daughters,
From North and South, to East and West, and on across the waters,
Uplift our glorious colors; we'll falter not nor wait,
Till in the light of glory, they float near Heaven's gate!

Article IX, Sec. 8. The representation of any chapter at any meeting of the National Society during the year, beginning February 1, shall be based upon the number of members, whose dues for the current year are credited upon the books of the Treasurer General the first day of February preceding the Continental Congress except as hereinafter stated, viz.:

Chapter Contributions

All contributions by chapters should be made through the State Treasurer, for State and National work.

Information to Members

The following resolution which applies to the nominations of a State Regent by chapters appears in the Proceedings of the Twentieth State Conference, 1918.

"Resolved, That it is the judgment of the Executive Board that nominations for State Regent should not be made by chapters earlier than three months prior to the meeting of the Conference. When so made they shall be furnished to the State Editor for publication."

Chapters are requested to hold their elections in May. It is desirable that the reports to Conference shall be made by officers whose work covers at least the greater part of the year preceding the Conference. Chapter By-Laws must be in accord with National and State By-Laws.

At the opening of the State Conference, by unanimous consent, the rights and privileges of delegates can be voted to the State Chairman, with this exception, State Chairman cannot vote in the election of State Regent and State Vice-Regent unless they have been elected delegates by their respective chapters and so registered with the Credential Committee. (The election of the State Regent and State Vice-Regent must be confirmed by the Continental Congress).

(See Article X, Section 1 and Section 2, of the National By-Laws).

"Where there is only one candidate for an office and the Constitution requires the vote to be by ballot, it is common to authorize the Secretary to cast the ballot of the assembly for such and such a person."

If anybody objects, however, it is necessary to ballot the usual way. So when a motion is made to vote unanimous, it fails if anyone objects. Passed 1915.

Each State Conference may by a two-thirds vote, adopt such additional rules of order as it may deem advisable for the government of that Conference, provided they are not in conflict with the Constitution and By-Laws of the National and State Society.

The State Director C. A. R. corresponds to the State Regent D. A. R., and is appointed by the National President, being also a member of the National Board. The State D. A. R. Chairman of Cooperative Relations Between C. A. R. and D. A. R. works for the advancement of the C. A. R. because it is the training for the D. A. R. She is appointed by the State Regent. All appointments pertaining to the Society of the C. A. R. are made by the State Director.

The D. A. R. chapters are asked to send the name of one of their members, who will act as Organizing President together with the name of the Society, to the State Director for confirmation by the National Board in Washington. The National Organizing Secretary will then send the necessary information for a Society to be formed. Local Societies should be named as far as possible for persons, places or events associated with the early history of our country. Names of girls and boys who helped promote the cause of American Independence may be chosen when practicable.

The membership of a Society must be not less than six. Any girl or boy under 21 years of age, who is lineally descended from a man or woman having rendered aid to the cause of American Independence is eligible for membership.

Girls may be transferred to the D. A. R. and boys to the S. A. R. without paying the usual initiation fee, provided the transfer card is received by the National Society before they have reached their 22nd birthday.

Entrance fee is $1.00 and annual dues are $1.00.

During the directorship of Mrs. Mell, she presented, as a personal gift, a beautiful silk Georgia flag to the National Society. The Societies were deeply grateful to Mrs. Mell for this donation.

COUNT D'ESTAING SOCIETY CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, ATHENS

Count D'Estaing Society was organized on February 19, 1934, with six members, and several other papers pending. We are sponsored by Elijah Clarke Chapter, D. A. R. The following officers were elected for the year: Senior President, Mrs. Henry Reid; Junior President, Agnes White; Recording Secretary, Rose Mayne. Our members include: Agnes White, Rose Mayne, Mary Arnold Reid, Henry Reid, Marion West, and Roby Redwine, Jr.

Two meetings have been held, with full attendance. Our meetings are opened with the Pledge to the Flag, and patriotic programs are featured, after which we spend a while with hand work which we sell for current expenses. A social half hour follows.

All of our meetings are reported to our local papers.

We have cooperated with the Elijah Clarke Chapter D. A. R. by serving at a benefit bridge party. On this occasion, the girls were attractively dressed in blue and white aprons, and head pieces, and the boys wore blue and white caps.

Having so recently organized, we have not been able to give to all requirements, but we hope to do our part next year.

We finished paying for the Society banner and have paid all debts in full. There is a balance of approximately $5.00 in the Society's account. The Treasurer was in a terrible accident and the Society sent several notes, and individuals visited her and sent her longer letters.

It is our pleasure to report that the Society has increased its membership since January, 1934, with six new members, and three applications pending.

Splendid papers on Georgia Bicentennial and on other historic subjects have been written and given by the members. Twelve historic and patriotic days observed and at each meeting the historic calendar of the month is given by the Historian.

A special feature of our work is the annual program with which the members entertain the LaGrange Chapter of D. A. R. In this and in all our programs we employ only the membership and talent of the Society. Once annually we add to our program with an address by some prominent local citizen. This year in February the Regent of LaGrange Chapter, Mrs. T. G. Polhill, gave a charming and instructive address on the subject, "Washington's Visit to Georgia."

Proper Flag Salute and Pledge are given at each meeting.

In the fall our Senior President, Mrs. Malone, entertained the members at Hutchinson's Camp, on the Chattahoochee River, at a meeting and program followed by a weiner roast.

The Harriet M. Lothrop Memorial Building fund is a project sponsored by our Society, sending 10 cents per capita. Annual dues have been 100 per cent. Six business and six social meetings have been held.

The Society has taken on a new feature of work, the joint scholarship fund with the LaGrange Chapter D. A. R. for LaGrange College. The members are giving an operetta, proceeds going towards the scholarship fund; the benefactor of the scholarship to be a member of our local Society or a daughter of a member of the LaGrange Chapter D. A. R.

MINUTES OF STATE OFFICERS' CLUB, D. A. R. OF GEORGIA

The State Officers' Club of Georgia met at the breakfast table of the New Albany Hotel, Albany, Georgia, Tuesday morning, March 20, 1934. The tables formed a "T" and were beautifully decorated in spring flowers; at each cover was a lovely shoulder spray, compliments of the Albany Garden Club.

Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney, President, greeted the members with a cheery "Good Morning" and in her gracious manner extended words of welcome on this happy occasion.

Honor guests: Mrs. Wm. H. Becker, National Chairman of National Defense Embodying Patriotic Education; Mrs. Julian McCurry, State Regent; Mrs. Julius Talmadge, first President of the Club; Mrs. Leo Leader and Mrs. W. C. Fripp, the Hostess Regents; Mrs. J. W. Walters, Throneateska, and Mrs. John D. Pope, Commodore Richard Dale, Organizing Regents, were presented.

Members were led in prayer by Mrs. Bun Wylie, Chaplain.

Twenty-seven members responded to roll call.

Messages from invited guests and absent members, expressing regrets at their inability to be present, were read by the Secretary.

Mrs. Gaffney expressed regrets at the absence, especially of Mrs. Vereen, Moultrie; Mrs. Coney, Savannah; Mrs. Sidney O. Smith, Gainesville; Mrs. Rounsaville, Rome; Mrs. Adams, Dublin; Mrs. Hightower, Thomaston, and Mrs. Howard McCall, Atlanta.

Resignations of Mrs. John L. Davidson, Quitman, and Mrs. Mary Lane Curtis, Columbus, were announced.

The Treasurer's report showed a balance of $72.16. Mrs. Dykes, Auditor, complimented the neatness and completeness of records kept by Mrs. McCurry, Treasurer. The Treasurer's report was accepted.

Mrs. Gaffney suggested a moratorium be declared for State Officers' Club for 1935 dues and a motion by Mrs. Franklin to this effect, was passed.

By vote of the Club, Mrs. John D. Pope, Albany, and Mrs. T. E. Blackshear, now a resident of Florida, were made honorary members for life. Both expressed appreciation for this honor.

Thanks were given "to Mrs. Janie Davant, President of the Albany Garden Club, for the corsages;" "to the President for presiding at the breakfast;" "to the Chairman of Arrangements, Mrs. John Adams, and her Co-chairman, Mrs. Fripp, for thoughtfulness and efficiency in planning the breakfast," and "to the President for the engagement calendars selected as souvenirs of the occasion."

Telegrams of sympathy were sent Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Hightower, because of recent bereavements.

Mrs. Gaffney stated that one of the souvenirs would be sent Mrs. Walton, mother of the State Regent of Georgia.

Adjournment was made for attendance at the morning session of the State Conference.

MRS. HERBERT FAY GAFFNEY, President
MRS. MELL KNOX, Recording Secretary.
