TO THE D. A. R.

KEEP THE FAITH

(Air, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean")

O, our national organization,
A band of the fair and true,
We pledge thee thy daughter's devotion,
Our love and allegiance renew.
May the name that we cherished stand ever,
As new members we add to thy roll,
For service and duty forever,
To country, a beautiful scroll.

CHORUS:

Keep faith with the brave and the true,
"Carry on" in the work that's to do
Let "over the top" be our motto,
Our standard, the Red, White, and Blue.

O, the Star-Spangled Banner we cherish,
And the D. A. R. takes this stand:
We pledge that its glory ne'er perish,
Nor its beauty grow dim in the land;

Our grandsires fought to defend it
In the days of its perilous youth.
We daughters will ever protect it,
Its folds of the bright living truth.

The fires of the fierce revolution,
Where thunders were heard 'round the world,
Kindled thoughts of our great Constitution,
And Liberty's flag was unfurled;
Our ancestors fought for our freedom
And Liberty's torch held on high;
We hold up the torch that they left us
And bear it aloft to the sky.

—By ELIZABETH DUNCAN LANIER.

Adopted as a state D. A. R. song, April, 1919.

Prayer—Mrs. T. E. Blackshear, state chaplain.

THE FLAG SALUTE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice to all.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

—Authorized Version.

ADDRESSES

WELCOME ADDRESS

Mrs. Henry S. Redding, regent of Jonathan Bryan chapter, on behalf of the D. A. R. of Waycross.

THE WASHINGTON BI-CENTENNIAL

Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent, Georgia D. A. R.

Madam Hostess regents, distinguished guests, Daughters of the American Revolution, fellow citizens:

For a year we have looked forward to coming to Waycross. It is my happy privilege to be your guest on this brilliant occasion—one feels as if they had stepped from the busy rush of modern life back into the Colonial period of our National History—surrounded as we are by beautiful women, wearing costumes suggestive of the Washington Inaugural ball. This is our tribute to the Bi-centennial.

February 22, 1932, was the 200th anniversary of the birth of General George Washington; "first in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen." He stands forth not only in his official life, but in his personal character as a citizen, the outstanding international as well as national figure of his time, an example for posterity. As a soldier he achieved victory for the cause of independence against great odds, and in spite of his personal leadership and determination, independence could hardly have been achieved.

The purpose of this nation-wide celebration, is to bring about a revival of devotion to country among the American people, with a renewed appreciation of what George Washington stands for in our national life. To do this it is necessary to stir the patriotic impulses of every man, woman and child living under the protection of the Republic and to make manifest this devotion and appreciation in every school, home, patriotic, civic organization, and group of citizens.

George Washington's exalted character and achievements, his unsurpassed service in the cause of liberty and American independence, and the recognition due to his illustrious memory by the Nation which he founded, impelled the Congress of the United States by joint resolution to authorize a measure for the participation of the United States in the preparation and completion of plans for the comprehensive observance of that great historic event, the Bi-centennial of the birth of George Washington which takes place within the period of special observance from February 22nd to Thanksgiving Day of this year. The president of the United States is the head of the United States commission, with Congressman Sol Bloom, associate director.

One of the first important matters to be carried forward was in securing the cooperation of the executives of the various states so that State commissions could be appointed to become the local agencies for state activities. In 1930, Governor Hardman of Georgia, appointed a Georgia commission to arouse interest throughout the state in making preparations for this important event in the history of our country. The personnel of the Georgia commission is: Mrs. Bun Wylie, chairman, State regent of Georgia

D. A. R.; Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, past vice-president general, Athens; Mrs. Herbert Franklin, past State regent, Tennille; Mrs. John W. Daniel, vice-regent, Savannah; Hon. W. M. Francis, State president, S. A. R., Atlanta; Dr. J. L. Beeson, past State president S. A. R., Milledgeville; Hon. Walter F. George, U. S. senator; Hon. W. W. Larsen, U. S. Congressman; Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president, Oglethorpe university, Atlanta; Judge James Maddox, American Legion, Rome—this appointment was confirmed by Governor Richard B. Russell, Jr.

It early became apparent that one of the most important of all phases of this celebration is in connection with the schools of our nation. Especial interest has always attached to the opportunities that exist for reaching millions of school children and instructing them in the historical significance of George Washington's services to his country and the spiritual value of his example as a citizen and an American. One of the early features favorably considered is the nation-wide essay contest, and similar contests in oratory and graphic arts. Pageants, plays, programs and other features have been prepared for the use of the schools. An effort has been made to have a flag and picture of George Washington for every school room. Arrangements have been made to introduce into school books, and the curricula of the public schools for 1932, special historical studies of a patriotic character. There will be obtainable George Washington posters, maps showing his travels and places where he was identified with incidents of historical interest. The tree planting programs are encouraged so that there will be a George Washington tree in every school and home yard and public square. In school buildings encouragement has been given to patriotic decorations, pictures and inspirational objects as part of the school equipment. Similar cooperation is asked of every patriotic, civic, educational, fraternal, and religious organization in the United States. There will be available as a part of the general program a great moving picture that will depict the life and activities of George Washington. The ministers of the country are requested to preach special patriotic sermons and prominent men and women are organizing speaking campaigns for all kinds of meetings, as well as in the use of the radio.

Special efforts are being made to collect the music of the Colonial and Revolutionary period, and some of the most famous American composers have written memorial music in honor of George Washington. Colorful dress patterns and styles of the Revolutionary period have been revived; also patriotic menus in homes and public places. Makers of calendars, cards, and general printing, also feature this period.

The spirit of the celebration should not be based upon material manifestation of patriotic fervor alone—but that the event be more in the nature of a revival of appreciation throughout the whole United States, of Washington's spiritual and intellectual achievements. The manifestations should come from the hearts of the people.

The essential thought is that it be truly American, participated in by all the people, particularly in their own homes and communities. While certain activities will center in the Nation's capitol during this celebration year, it will not be for the city of Washington any more than for any other city or town.

Among the beautiful Washington memorials, are: Washington monument, the great Memorial bridge across the Potomac, the Mount Vernon boulevard, one of the most inspiring thoroughfares in the world—extending from Washington, D. C. to Mt. Vernon, the home of Washington, where every building, stone and ancient tree seem to breathe a spirit of veneration for the name of Washington; Memorial parkway, the area including the ancient Potomac canal, which George Washington planned and supervised in construction; the restoration of Wakefield in Virginia, Washington's birthplace.

In addition to the governmental activities, it is proposed to have a Fine Arts exposition where pictures of the colonial and early constitutional period are on display; the publication of an authentic edition of all of his writings that have been preserved, the perpetuation of his entire intellectual life, this set of volumes will be on the shelves of all the public and private libraries.

From the inception of the plan to honor the memory of George Washington upon the 200th anniversary of his birth, it was recognized that the cooperation of the women of America would be indispensable, and of particular assistance in reaching the homes, schools, churches, patriotic organizations, and groups of citizens generally.

Daughters of the American Revolution, as your State regent, I call you to service, in promoting the observance of this great patriotic celebration—for it was General George Washington who led our forces to victory at Yorktown, in the war of the American Revolution. Citizens of Georgia, this opportunity is one which must not be lost or passed by, an occasion for the education of our nation in the sound political, civic, and patriotic principles which will lift it to a higher moral plane and mean the most possible to the American people.

It is particularly fitting that we, Daughters of the American Revolution, direct descendants of the men and women who knew Washington, who fought for him and with him to establish a great nation, should have a share in commemorating his achievements—and demonstrating the fundamental principles of liberty, truth, justice and honor which he represents. Let us be thankful that he has lived and that he has given to us the highest and noblest example of American citizenship. And let us be especially grateful that we have this sacred memory, which, spanning time calls us together in sincere fellowship and brotherly love on the 200th anniversary of his birth, 133 years after his death. No founder of a nation in all history is so honored.

"To add Light to the brightness of the sun or glory to the name of Washington is impossible! Let none attempt it! In solemn awe we pronounce the name—and in its deathless splendor leave it shining on through the ages!"

OFFICERS' REPORTS

ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE REGENT

Mrs. Bun Wylie, State Regent

March 1931-March 1932

Madam Vice-Regent, and members of Thirty-fourth State conference, D. A. R.:

The time has again arrived when we take the backward look and review the activities of the Georgia Society D. A. R. Our two years of patriotic service together are closing and to the state regent, life has a broader vision, a deeper purpose, a sweeter fragrance from your personal friendship and hearty cooperation along all lines of our work.

The State conference in Macon closed a year of splendid achievement in Georgia for the D. A. R. The Hostess chapter, Mary Hammond Washington, Mrs. T. E. Ryals, regent, assisted by the Nathaniel Macon chapter, Mrs. L. C. Rader, regent, extended the most cordial, delightful Southern hospitality. Every moment was a joy combined with pleasure and the important business of the conference.

After State conference, preparations for Continental congress claimed my time, as reports had to be written and sent to different national officers and national chairmen.

Early in April was the guest of the Henry Walton chapter, Madison, Miss Kitty Newton, regent, on the occasion of the unveiling of a granite shaft marking the site of an old Revolutionary Inn. The State auditor, Mrs. Harold Nicholson, shared honors with the State regent; she is a member of this chapter. We were entertained at a luncheon by the Misses Butler at their beautiful colonial home, also a reception followed the unveiling, at the home of Mrs. Leonard Wallace.

On April 16, your State regent went up to Washington, D. C., to attend the preliminary meetings and National board before congress, which opened Monday, April 20. The State regents met with the president general on the 17th and the board was held Saturday, April 18. Congress convened Monday morning with the usual beautiful processional and Monday evening was conspicuous for its brilliancy and humor, as Vice-President Curtis addressed the congress and Will Rogers gave one of his inimitable talks. The 40th Continental congress was splendid, inspiring and enjoyable. Fine reports were given from all departments, supplemented by the most outstanding speakers available in Washington. The president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, dispatched the business with dignity and promptness. The election of Mrs. Herbert Fay Gaffney for vice-president general was a signal honor to Georgia. Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge made a brilliant nominating speech, seconded by Mrs. Moulton, of Connecticut. Georgia's candidate fed the ticket.

State regents' evening was a beautiful occasion—a processional of State regents carrying lovely flowers, and pages holding State flags. Three minutes was the time limit for reports. Your State regent wishes to express to you her pleasurable pride in presenting your record of accomplishment to the National society. Only your unflinching loyalty in rendering 100 per cent service, made possible this creditable report from Georgia. The Georgia banquet at the Willard hotel Tuesday evening was a brilliant occasion. Mrs. Will J. Vereen, Moultrie, was the charming hostess. A handsome invitation to attend unveiling of U. S. Nancy Hart monument was presented to President Hoover at the White House by Mrs. G. H. Norris, regent, John Benson chapter, Hartwell, and your State regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie.

At the invitation of the State regent of Tennessee, I represented the Georgia D. A. R. at the unveiling of the monument to John Sevier in Statuary hall, Washington. The official D. A. R. banquet held at the Willard hotel Saturday evening closed a busy but enjoyable week.

Sunday, April 26, the Georgia bell was dedicated at Valley Forge. This was a beautiful, impressive ceremony. The Georgia bell is named for General Lachlan McIntosh, a Georgian who commanded forces at Valley Forge. The Georgia bell in the Washington memorial at Valley Forge has been paid for by the Georgia D. A. R. ($2,500.00). Mrs. E. B. Coddington, as State chairman, has done splendid work.

Monday, April 28th, I attended the National Board meeting in Washington.

May 14, I was the guest of the Sergeant Jasper chapter, Monticello, Mrs. T. A. Hutchinson, regent, at the unveiling of the Benjamin Harvey Hill marker, and delivered an address. A luncheon at the home of the regent preceded the ceremony.

Your State regent made an address and placed a large wreath on the monument from the D. A. R. of Georgia. On the same day a marker was unveiled at the grave of Benjamin Hawkins by the John Houston chapter and Jeffersonia Hawkins chapter, who sponsored both patriotic occasions.

Long, famous Georgia surgeon who first discovered anesthesia. On this occasion I gave a patriotic address.

The Sergeant Newton chapter, Covington, entertained at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Trox Bankston and a reception following the meeting at the home of the regent, Mrs. Travis, in honor of the State regent. Addresses on both occasions were made by the State regent.

The marking of the Nancy Hart highway has been completed by the Georgia D. A. R.—eleven handsome granite markers have been placed on the highway. Three markers were placed this year, one each at Thomson, Louisville, and Glenwood, which completes the Memorial to Nancy Hart, and the Georgia D. A. R. consider this a wonderful privilege to honor in this way one of the most famous women of Revolutionary times.

Newton. After the exercises a reception was given in honor of the State regent by the city officials at the Jefferson hotel.

On the 18th of September, your State regent, speaking before a large and enthusiastic audience, presented to the town of Glenwood a handsome granite marker. The appreciation of the citizens of Glenwood was expressed in the large number present and the order of Mayor C. M. Jordan that all places of business be closed during the hour of the exercises. Mayor and Mrs. Jordan entertained the official party at a luncheon, and Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Colson entertained at dinner and a reception in the evening. The beginning of this work was due to the efforts of our former State regent, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, together with the cooperation of our official State chairman, Mrs. J. L. Massey. Mrs. Thos. Mell and Mrs. Harold Nicholson accompanied the State regent on this tour and participated in the programs.

The State Executive Board met in Gainesville on October 14th, the guests of the Col. Wm. Candler chapter, Mrs. J. E. Palmour, regent. Ottley, Jr., to fly to Washington as their guest, and many other courtesies which space and time will not admit.

There are 98 chapters in the State, have been invited to visit 72. In connection with our National Defense work, Mrs. John W. Daniel, chairman, have had public meetings under D. A. R. auspices at which speakers having knowledge of the subject, emphasized the need of outlawing the Communist movement. The American Legion Auxiliary and Georgia D. A. R. sponsored a State National Defense conference in Atlanta March 14-15. Georgia was the first State to call a conference.

Volume IV of the Historical collection of Georgia chapters D. A. R., is ready for distribution. This volume contains certified Bible records and old wills. These valuable books, four volumes, are well bound and are sold at $5.00 per copy. The index to Volume I, compiled in 1930, by Mrs. J. C. Gentry, state chairman, Lucy Cook Peel Memorial committee, is ready for delivery. Chapters are urged to purchase these valuable books—please take this message to your chapter. Let me pay a tribute to Mrs. Gentry and her splendid committee who have rendered to the State D. A. R. a valuable service.

Mrs. Robt. Travis offered a prize of $5.00 for the best essay by a high school student on "An Unmarked Revolutionary Spot in Georgia." Won by Celia Travis, Savannah High school student, subject, "Mulberry Grove."

Mrs. J. M. Simmons, Bainbridge, chairman of Gift scholarships, offered a prize of $10.00 in gold to chapters securing the largest number of Gift scholarships. Mrs. Simmons will present prize.

"Sunshine" pledges made at congress last April amounting to $190.00 have been paid, Mrs. T. C. Mell, chairman. The Chapter histories are ready for distribution. Mrs. Sanford Gardner, chairman, has been untiring in her efforts to compile and have published these chapter records. Mrs. A. H. Brenner, regent, Augusta chapter, has rendered valuable assistance. This work was started in the regency of Mrs. H. Fay Gaffney; although there was much to be done, it has been completed during the present administration.

Mrs. Russell Magna, librarian general, National Society D. A. R., requested the sum of $400.00 for indexing Georgia records in the D. A. R. library, Washington, D. C. This is most important work. Georgia has met this obligation; $400.00 has been paid this year; $100.00 was paid in last year. In report of national chairman of Ellis Island, was delighted to find Georgia chapters had sent 10 boxes of material which could be used in Detention rooms, where aliens are taught. State chairman, Mrs. L. A. Jordan, has full report.

There is a rapidly growing interest in the library service of the Merchant Marine. They have distributed large numbers of our D. A. R. manuals on board ships, as about 40 per cent of the crew are foreigners; 600 books have been sent from Georgia, Mrs. Irving Thomas, chairman.

Letters of appreciation have been received from the Library of Congress for the portrait of Button Gwinette, one of Georgia's signers of the Declaration of Independence, and index to Volume I which your state regent presented to the Congressional library from the Georgia D. A. R. last April while at Continental Congress. The portraits of Lyman Hall and Button Gwinette were presented by the state regent from the Georgia Daughters to Continental Congress in April. Nothing presented from Georgia was more appreciated. Also presented a book of the McCall-Tidwell family by Mrs. Howard McCall.

Seventy-eight markers, monuments and tablets have been placed and unveiled. One hundred thirty-six Revolutionary Soldier's graves and 14 graves of daughters of Revolutionary soldiers have been located and many marked.

Our D. A. R. Nancy Hart memorial, Forest Park, is being beautified and kept up with the maintenance fund which was one of the honor roll requirements. The Department of Education, M. L. Duggan, state superintendent of schools, urges the D. A. R. chapters over the state to form classes for illiterate adults. Mrs. W. M. Shurling has splendid report.

The four D. A. R. Student Loan funds, having been completed, we now have $20,000 invested in loans to Georgia boys and girls. These are revolving loans, constantly benefitting new students. This does not include gift scholarships and educational loan funds for local schools and colleges, which amounted to $22,000 more, thus giving Georgia D. A. R. Educational Loan funds amounting to about $42,000. Georgia leads all other states in loan funds and patriotic education. In making contributions to Mountain schools, the chapters have remembered Tammasee, S. C., and Kate Duncan Smith, Grant, Ala., our own D. A. R. schools.

The Gov. David Emanuel chapter has created "The Marion Sibley Wylie Student Loan fund," in the Swainsboro High school, honoring their state regent who organized this chapter. I wish to express my grateful appreciation.

Mrs. Harrison Hightower has aroused interest in Better Films, giving intelligent information about picture production, especially reviews of new films. She has served on national committee.

Georgia won the medal last year for conservation and thrift. Mrs. T. O. Tabor, Jr., chairman. Again this year we have planted thousands of trees—memorial trees to Washington.

Our D. A. R. magazine must be supported by our membership or it will die. Mrs. Tom Wood, state chairman.

Mrs. Robt. Travis, chairman, Preservation of Historic Spots, has sent in a fine report which I want her to have the pleasure of giving.

Radio, the coming medium of publicity, has been much used during the past year throughout Georgia. Mrs. Lucius McConnell, chairman, reports 20 programs have been given.

Elijah Clarke chapter had a splendid radio program on Constitution day, which Mrs. Dudley dedicated to Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, and Mrs. M. R. Redwine. Savannah chapter gave Bicentennial program over radio about Sulgrave Manor. Augusta chapter gave a splendid radio program. Governor David Emanuel chapter gave radio program from Savannah. Joseph Habersham chapter, Mrs. Geo. Niles, regent, spoke over radio on the subject "Why Join D. A. R.," Atlanta chapter, Mrs. T. C. Mell, regent, gave a "Georgia Day" program over the radio.

We owe a debt of gratitude to the press for their valuable assistance to the Georgia D. A. R. The Atlanta Constitution has given us a column in their Sunday paper; Mrs. Stewart Colley, state editor.

Mrs. B. A. Tyler, chairman of County Histories, reports 12 histories published by D. A. R., and more than a dozen are now compiling and will be ready this year.

Historical programs were dedicated this year to Washington Bicentennial. Mrs. Max Land, chairman, gave us a very splendid program which was carried out all over the state. Mrs. James Logan, chairman, presents the state with an album of historic postcards, which will be placed in the D. A. R. collection of the Georgia archives, Atlanta. We are greatly indebted to Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, who has set aside a room in the archives for the preservation and exhibit of D. A. R. relics and records. Georgia's patriotic shrine, Meadow Garden, is a place of antique beauty, kept in perfect condition by Mrs. Sanford Gardner and the Augusta chapter.

Patriotic Education, Mrs. Mell Knox, chairman, has been especially stressed in Georgia—now leading all other states in contributions. The total amount given this year is $24,338.76.

Medals and prizes amounting to $843.71 have been given by chapters.

Two C. A. R. societies organized.

Georgia has two "Real Daughters"—Miss Sarah Pool and Mrs. Mary Pool Newsom.

Patriotic songs, Mrs. W. H. Flanders, chairman, have been featured this Bicentennial year and special programs arranged by the chapters.

Splendid chapter reports have been sent in, considering financial conditions.

Chapters have observed all patriotic days. Twenty-five historical and literary reciprocity papers have been sent in.

Two splendid new chapters have been organized: the Adam Brinson, Swainsboro, Mrs. Irwin Brannen, regent, Pulaski; and the Governor David Emanuel chapter, Emanuel county, Mrs. W. H. Flanders, regent, Swainsboro; Mrs. W. L. Brannen has been appointed organizing regent at Metter, and Mrs. W. H. King, at Woodland.

Chapters are urged to hold election of officers in May and report same to state recording secretary at once, that regent's name may occur in directory of chapters in proceedings.

Our hearts are saddened by the passing of six of our beloved members who have rendered service to the D. A. R., both state and national: Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, Savannah, past vice-president general; Mrs. T. C. Parker, past state regent, Macon; Mrs. Lula Kendall Rogers, Tennille; Mrs. R. P. Brooks, Forsyth; Mrs. Price Charters, Gainesville; and Mrs. J. M. High, Atlanta.

Our flag is the symbol of freedom, liberty and justice for mankind, ever reminding us of the need of constant vigilance lest its stars become dim or its stripes fade. A liberal use of our emblem is a challenge to those who oppose our government; Mrs. John M. Slaton, chairman. Two hundred Flag codes distributed and 5,000 flags given in schools.

The 41st Continental congress convenes in Washington, D. C., the evening of April 18, 1932, closing Saturday evening with the banquet. Tuesday evening, April 19, the Georgia banquet will take place in the main dining room of the Willard hotel. Mrs. Ober D. Warthen, Vidalia, is state chairman and hostess. Tickets can be secured from Mrs. Warthen. Cotton Colonial costumes will be featured at President General reception, honoring Washington Bicentennial.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation of the splendid year books sent out by the chapters. They followed out the Bicentennial program.

Have issued messages through the press, state letter in September, Christmas message, and in January sent out state letter with credential blanks, conference and congress material. Have written hundreds of letters, telegrams, phone messages.

Enroute to Waycross was the honor guest of the John Benning chapter, Moultrie, Mrs. W. J. Vereen, regent, at a beautiful reception at the home of Mrs. W. C. Vereen. Mrs. John M. Slaton shared honors with the state regent.

Let us realize those serious questions upon which our national life with its American ideals depend. Our great organization, Daughters of the American Revolution, with a concerted effort must defend our principles against those insidious invasions which threaten us today.

Let us remember that great achievements were never along lines of least resistance—to solve momentous problems requires indomitable perseverance. As I say good-bye to you, my beloved Daughters, my heart is sad at parting, but filled with love and gratitude for your loyalty and inspiration during the past two years we have worked together. Forward! is the watchword. I bid you keep faith with the past as you perform the duties of the present.

Yours to serve,

MARIAN SIBLEY WYLIE,
(MRS. BUN WYLIE, State Regent).

STATE FIRST VICE-REGENT

Mrs. Mell Knox

There have been no executive duties to the office of state vice-regent, but many social pleasures for which I am profoundly thankful and it would have been a delight to have accepted every invitation so kindly extended.

Many and cordial have been the expressions of interest sent me, within the past year, and to Georgia daughters I take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation for these messages, my thanks for your many courtesies of the past, and my assurance of continued activity in our beloved D. A. R. society.

STATE SECOND VICE-REGENT

Mrs. John W. Daniel

Madam State Regent, distinguished guests and members in Conference assembled:

Your state 2nd vice-regent brings you greetings.

While the duties of this office are not great yet one finds much pleasure in them. Our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, not being present at the Southern Divisional congress held in Charleston, the responsibility of extending the invitation to the congress to meet in Georgia 1932, fell to me. This invitation was extended as a result of the vote of the conference held in Macon.

As Kentucky and Arkansas had also extended most cordial invitations to have the congress meet in their respective states, our president general, Mrs. Hobart, thought it wise to let it be decided upon by ballot. Seven states votes as follows: Two for Kentucky, one for Arkansas, and four for Georgia. Mrs. Hobart announced that Georgia's invitation was accepted.

It was my privilege to share honors with our state regent at a beautiful luncheon given by the John Laurens chapter of Dublin, to the members of the U. D. C. convention.

The visit of "Old Ironsides" to Savannah in December was a notable occasion. At the request of our state regent I presented flowers to Captain Gulliver in the name of the Georgia Daughters of American Revolution, which were duly acknowledged by the Captain to our state regent.

It has been an honor, as well as a very great privilege, to have served you as state second vice-regent.

RECORDING SECRETARY

Mrs. W. E. Mann

It has been my pleasure as your recording secretary to attend the Board meeting in Gainesville. Also get out the proceedings for 1931, after approval of the Press committee. I wish to thank all the officers and committees who helped in making this splendid report.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Mrs. W. F. Dykes

Madam regent, madam vice-president, general daughters, with such a competent and interested regent as ours, there is very little for a corresponding secretary to say, except that the duties of her office have been fulfilled. It has been lovely to work with Mrs. Wylie, she has done so much of my work. I think she just loves to help people, never too busy or tired. We were most fortunate in having her for our state regent during these strenuous times, as she has been most economical and saved the state many, many dollars. We have used last year's cards as you all know; by a little scratching and a little ink eradicator wonders have been done; the money saved has helped in most important work. Mrs. Wylie has made many visits to the chapters in the state and given so many interesting talks, she has represented the D. A. R. so wonderfully, we have been honored by the many courtesies shown her. I give three cheers for Mrs. Wylie, our beloved state regent, "May she live long and be happy."

STATE AUDITOR

Mrs. J. Harold Nicholson

Your state auditor concurs in the report of Mr. Albert S. Rowland, certified public accountant, Athens, Georgia, who thoroughly audited the books of the state treasurer, finding them in perfect order.

STATE LIBRARIAN

Mrs. John S. Adams

As we come to the close of another D. A. R. year and realize that special indexing has been taken care of by the Honor Roll requirement nothing but the Doxology can express our united feelings. As the interest and understanding of the library grows the members realize that we have an index system that places the library in the foremost rank in the country in this particular field of endeavor.

It was considered unwise to put too great a strain on the finances of the chapters this year and I asked that they investigate their own public libraries and schools, establish lending libraries in outlying communities, give aid to public and county school children when books were needed. The result has been most gratifying as the following report will show. We have not contributed to as many of the endorsed schools as we have previously done but chapters have done a splendid work at home. Many chapters have contributed to a Book fund that some of the books needed for Constitution Hall library might be purchased.

In closing Mrs. Magna wishes me to tell the Georgia Daughters of her appreciation for your courtesies, cooperation, and splendid generosity, and I acknowledge with deep appreciation your generous response to my many and urgent calls.

STATE CHAPLAIN

Mrs. Thos. E. Blackshear

This year your State chaplain waited till February before writing the chapter regents, hoping thereby to obtain a complete report. I stressed the fact that I wished Georgia to have a 100 per cent report to send to the chaplain general.

Seventy-five chapters responded quite promptly but whereas the number reporting is much larger than last year, my report falls 25 per cent short of the desired goal. I trust my successor may be able to obtain responses from all next year.

Of the chapters heard from most of them reported chapter chaplains, several local ministers serving in that capacity and one reported devotionals led by the regent.

The Council of Safety chapter reported they had had the same chaplain for twenty-three years, viz: Mrs. Littlejohn. The Stone Castle, Thronateeska, and Hawkinsville chapters reported they had had chaplains since organization of the chapters.

After thirteen years service in the state D. A. R. of Georgia it is a real grief to sever my connection with the many fine women with whom I have so long been associated. When I moved to Florida the fall after my election, I felt it my duty to resign as your chaplain but the fact that the board refused to consider my resignation was a great comfort to me.

I have served you these last two years to the best of my ability and although there is regret in my heart that I have been remiss in my duties there also abides there a lasting love for the Georgia D. A. R. and even a faint hope that I may someday attend another State conference. With this hope I most fervently pray, "The Lord watch between thee and me while we are absent the one from the other."

STATE HISTORIAN

Mrs. J. L. Beeson

It is great to be D. A. R. state historian in this George Washington Bi-centennial year. Think of the beautiful chapter year books dedicated to the memory of George Washington, our country's greatest statesman and leader; think of the D. A. R. George Washington programs put on in the chapter meetings and in rural and city schools; think of the George Washington parties and teas when the guests dressed in beautiful Colonial costumes; think of the living pictures accurately copied from celebrated paintings; think of the trees that have been planted in memory of George Washington; think of the shop windows exhibits that have been made to arouse interest in historic things; think of the George Washington plays and pageants that have been produced; and be glad that in the pageant writing contest, put on by the National D. A. R. Society, Georgia won two medals offered by the George Washington Bi-centennial commission.

One medal, third honor, was won by Miss Mattie Thomas, of Dawson, Georgia, and one, fourth honor, was won by Dr. Amanda Johnson, of the Georgia State College for Women, Milledgeville, Georgia. The latter pageant was produced with great brilliancy on two consecutive evenings, the combined audiences numbering 2,500 people.

Your historian asks you to consider with her report, the reports of six state chairmen whose work is allied to hers. They are: Mrs. Eli H. Thomas, Mrs. John D. Davidson, Mrs. Robert A.

Travis, Miss Virginia Harden, Mrs. B. A. Tyler, and Mrs. J. H. Pledger; then know that each one of them has said in her heart, with Edward Everett Hale:

"I am but one,
But I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But I can do something;
What I can do, I ought to do,
And what I ought to do,
God helping me, I will do."

In the publication of the chapter histories by Mrs. Sanford Gardner, your historian rejoices as much as if the work were hers.

Oglethorpe Memorial Garden

The $200.00 Oglethorpe university marker, your historian reported last year, but the unveiling on March 31 on the ninety-fourth anniversary of the founding of the university; the beautiful letter of thanks received from Reverend James Thomas, stated clerk of the Augusta Presbytery; and the Oglethorpe Memorial garden, come this year as the marker's aftermath.

The site of the marker with historic Thalian hall still standing was beautiful from the first, but Mrs. H. D. Allen conceived the idea of a memorial garden as a background for the marker. She was aided in her plan by Mrs. Harry Stewart of Macon, Georgia. It is she who has the honor of evolving from the great and small foundation stones of old Oglethorpe university which could not be used in the marker itself, a large rock-garden with its waterfall, its pool, and its myriad plants and flowers. Mr. J. Yarbrough lent his skill to Mrs. Stewart's plans. The electric light cable was placed underground, plantings of large and beautiful shrubs were made, and one would think to see it that someone there possessed Aladdin's lamp and had given it a vigorous rub. So add to the Oglethorpe marker the Oglethorpe Memorial garden, which honors not only Sidney Lanier, Georgia's greatest poet, but also 72 Presbyterian ministers and 317 men who graduated here.

Historical Findings

Many fascinating experiences in historical work have come to your historian. She can truly say:

"Who hath a book
Has friends at hand
And gold and gear
At his command."

"His kingdom is
His inglenook,
All this is his
Who hath a book."

In an old leather-bound history, with title page missing, was found the military service of Principal Chief Pathkiller, Cherokee Indian, colonel in the War of 1812.

The secretary of the Librarian at the Congressional library in Washington, D. C., wrote that the history was that of John H. Eaton, secretary of war, under Andrew Jackson and added this fascinating bit: "Chapters I-V were written by Major John Reid, an eye witness of the events related therein."

A searcher through the files of the Cherokee Phoenix in the Congressional library found that Pathkiller's Cherokee name was Nung na hee ah dah hee.

This information was given by your historian to Mrs. C. R. Reeves, president of the Woman's club at Calhoun, Georgia, and she has obtained a Government headstone.

Pathkiller was Colonel in the regiment of Col. Gideon Morgan, Jr., in the War of 1812.

In an old book also, was found the Revolutionary service of Andrew Torrance, whose name was found on no roster, state or national.

From an old newspaper of 1830 was traced the Revolutionary service of Francis Ward, whose name was on no roster, state or national. The Quartermaster General has had both names placed on the Revolutionary roster in the War department. There were found many Georgia soldiers of whose service the War department had no record.

Revolutionary Soldiers' Graves

Your historian has found this year the graves of 22 Revolutionary soldiers and the graves of nine soldiers of 1812.

She has marked, this year, with Government headstones, the graves of 20 Revolutionary soldiers and the graves of four soldiers of 1812.

These graves of Revolutionary soldiers, added to the number which the chapter regents will report make a grand total of 51 Revolutionary graves discovered, and 35 Revolutionary graves marked.

The chapter regents report also the discovery of 17 graves of Daughters of the Revolution. Verification slips have been received for all markers, except three.

Besides an old book, a friend is of greatest value. Miss Louisa M. Wright, Ordinary of the court, Louisville, Georgia, heads the list with the discovery of 12 graves of Revolutionary soldiers near Louisville, Ga., the old capitol of the state. Miss Wright, herself will receive the headstones, and descendants of the old heroes will set them up. The names of Revolutionary soldiers in Miss Wright's list are:

John Gamble, Roger Lawson, Robert Patterson, William Lyons, John Powell, Josiah Powell, Hugh Alexander, John Patterson, William Patterson, Seth Pierce, Col. Littlebery Bostick, Col. Ambrose Wright.

The Revolutionary soldiers' graves found by your historian are those of:

James Amos, Corp. John Baxter, Capt. John Hart, Ephraim Ivey, William McGhee, Henry Pool, Andrew Torrance, Francis Ward, Jeremiah Warren, James Youngblood.

The graves of soldiers of 1812 are those of:

Sergeant William Bivins, Amos F. Byington, David Greer, Corp. Wyatt Harper, Capt. Charles Hicks, Capt. David McNair, John B. Moran, Tilman Snead, William Sykes.

Your historian tells with pride of the finding of the grave of John Hart, son of Georgia's invincible daughter and heroine, Nancy Hart, and of the grave of William Bostwick, soldier of 1812, whose widow is still living, and of the grave of Henry Pool, father of Georgia's two real daughters, who intend to be present at the unveiling of the Government marker at the grave of their Revolutionary father. Your historian gave one grave of a soldier of 1812, that of John Moran, to Mrs. Lucius McConnell, president of Daughters of 1812, for her to mark.

One of the graves found is that of Charles Hicks, soldier of 1812, distinguished Principal Chief of the Cherokee nation, United States interpreter for many years, Moravian Christian Convert, and a lesser edition, only, of the Apostle Paul, in his Christian ministry.

In connection with the marking of his grave, and the restoration of the Chief McNair cemetery, your historian refers with pride to the receipt of a beautiful letter of thanks from Reverend Edmund Schwarze, Ph.D., of Salem, North Carolina. Dr. Schwarze is the author of one of the most interesting Georgia books, "History of the Moravian Missions Among Southern Indian Tribes."

In this book references are made to Captain David McNair, another Cherokee chieftain. The War department at Washington, D. C., supplied the military record. Your historian now has the privilege of marking the grave of this soldier of 1812, who, after the Georgia Guard had driven the missionary and the teacher away from the Moravian school at Spring Place, took them to his beautiful home just across the line in Tennessee and there, at his own expense, maintained the missionary and the school itself for three years. It was to David McNair's home that John Howard Payne went in 1835, after his thirteen day's imprisonment at Spring Place, Georgia.

Old Marriage Licenses Not Recorded

Your historian publishes in this report thirteen marriage licenses which are not recorded in any court house. They are copied from the original papers now in the Baldwin county court house, which records were taken over from the Court of ordinary at the old Hillsboro court house, near Eatonton, Georgia, this being Baldwin county's first court house.

The minutes of the Court of ordinary at Hillsboro begin with the year 1807.

The first court at Milledgeville met Monday, January 4, 1808. All of these marriage licenses are for the year 1806. They are:

- George Cavenah and Catherine Miles, November 9, 1806. Philip Cook, J. P.; A. M. Devereaux, J. I. C.
- Samuel M. Mordecai and Caroline Louise Westmire, Nov. 12, 1806. A. M. Devereaux, J. I. C.; Fred Freeman, C. C. O.
- Allen Hudson (Hancock county) and Miss Rebecca Boswell, Aug. 13, 1806. Peter Flournoy, J. P.; Fred Freeman, C. C. O.
- James Langley and Elizabeth Bandy, Nov. 11, 1806. Simon Holt, J. P.; Fred Freeman C. C. O.
- Sampson Wilder (Wilkes county) and Jenny Jones, Dec. 21, 1806; Francis Flournoy.
- Waid Hill and Martha (Patsy) Lane, Dec. 24, 1806. Francis Flournoy.
- Jabez Roberts and Hetty Thompson, Nov. 16, 1806. Ben Tarver, J. I. C.
- David Thompson and Nancy Fetchstone, Dec. 5, 1806. Illegible name (perhaps Flournoy), J. P.
- William Dunaho and Elizabeth Thrash, Dec. 4, 1806. John Mathews for Frederick Freeman, clerk; married by Peter Flournoy.
- Thomas King and Elizabeth Lumpkin, Dec. 16, 1806. Lewelling Williams for Fred Freeman, C. C. O.; by Francis Flournoy.
- Samuel Eles and Jane Holloway, Dec. 14, 1806. Stephen Noble, D. C.; by Francis Flournoy.
- William Bowdown and Martha Smith, Dec. 4, 1806. Simon, J. P.
- Ralph Sawyer and Elizabeth Fort, Dec. 23, 1806. John Miles, J. P.

Historical Articles

Your historian has had the pleasure of writing historical articles about the old capitol at Milledgeville, about Capt. Charles Hicks, Cherokee chieftain, of the War of 1812, about Pathkiller, Principal Chief of the Cherokees, and about old Oglethorpe university.

She had the historical feature on the programs at the following marker-unveilings; at Monticello at the marker for Benjamin Harvey Hill; at Spring Place at the marker of the Moravian mission; at Milledgeville at the marker for Oglethorpe university; in Wilkinson county, at the Richard Whitaker headstone.

She had the pleasure of accepting invitations to speak before the Atlanta chapter D. A. R. on Constitution Day, and before the Major Samuel Elbert chapter, D. A. R., on Georgia day.

She was entertained in Atlanta at a beautiful tea at the Druid Hills Golf club by Miss Ruth Blair of the State department of archives and history. She here pays tribute to Miss Blair for her valiant aid and many courtesies.

Records of Life in the South

Through your historian there has been presented to the Historical museum of the Georgia State College for Women, two old church books of 1833. Both books contain the entire white membership of the churches and the entire membership of the slaves—the latter far outnumbering the former. In the book reporting the church conferences, if a slave offended, he was received back into the full fellowship of the church, when he repented of his sin. His master even, had to acknowledge his sin and repent of it, before he was received back into full fellowship. One prominent member promised "not again to transact his business at a gander-pulling." These old records of life in the South should be preserved diligently, for even in this year, 1932, the South, listening in, is told by a prominent Chicago radio announcer of negro spirituals, that the slaves when they worshipped, had to steal away into the woods from their masters.

Before referring to the last piece of historical work, your historian would call attention to the 16 historical suggestions of Mrs. Flora Myers Gillentine, historian general, N. S. D. A. R. This year Georgia can answer "Yes" to all but three of them.

While giving to each regent and to each chairman the privilege of reporting her very own work, your historian will for a moment, pattern after the society editor of the old Macon News who headed her column "The Nosegay," with this motto:

"We bring you a nosegay of culled flowers
Only the thread that ties them is ours."

—Montaigne.

In answer to the question of the historian general, N. S. D. A. R., "What unusual historical accomplishment has occurred in your State," your historian took your own rare flowers and tied them with her own thread!

Six of these rare blossoms were these:

(1). The erection of a monument by the United States government to Nancy Hart, Georgia heroine of the Revolution, through the efforts of Congressman Charles H. Brand, who said at the unveiling that the suggestion came from D. A. R. women;

(2). "Locating the grant of land which the State of Georgia gave to Count D'Estaing;"

(3). "All shop windows in town were decorated in honor of the George Washington Bi-centennial;"

(4). "We planted a child of the old Washington elm at Cambridge in remembrance of Washington;"

(5). "We had all school children make their own George Washington scrap books";

(6). The D. A. R. cooperated with every rural school of the county in Georgia Day and George Washington programs.

FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURES OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS' NAMES

And lastly, patterning after Miss Ruth Blair, state historian, who, in her book, "Revolutionary Soldiers' Receipts for Bounty Grants," 1828, published their fac-simile signatures, your historian from old and crumbling land papers and court house records, has collected seventy-nine autographs of Revolutionary soldiers, and publishes them here, before many of them crumble into nothingness. For five others, she gives credit to Miss Blair. These names are each marked by an asterisk.

For many names your historian is indebted to Miss Louisa M. Wright, Ordinary of the Court, Jefferson county, Georgia, and she obtained many from the Court house of Baldwin county. Some came from old land papers of Mr. H. J. STATE CONSULTING REGISTRAR

Mrs. Jerry Alva Davis

Your state consulting registrar has enjoyed every minute of her work during the past two years, and it has been her privilege to assist quite a number of people in tracing their lineage back to Revolutionary ancestors, among the number, a little girl who wanted to join the Children of the American Revolution.

Every person in the State of Georgia who has asked assistance of your registrar, has been assisted in so far as she was able to render assistance.

She has kept a record of the Georgia members N. S. D. A. R., that were sent to her, and she regrets that all of the chapter registrars have not turned in a list of their members, their national numbers and their ancestors.

Every invitation extended your registrar during her term of office has been most appreciated, and she leaves you grateful for the joy that has been her's in serving you.

Statistical report:

The following constitutes the books and pamphlets belonging to the office of the State Consulting registrar:

Sixty-four volumes of the Lineage books; 2 Index volumes; 1 copy of Georgia Historical Collections; 1 copy of the reprint of the Land Lottery of 1827; 1 copy of Notable Southern Families by Zella Armstrong, Vol. III; 7 numbers of the Camp Family, Bulletin 1 to 7, inclusive; 1 volume of Rosters of Georgia Chapters; some unassorted papers of family records; a quantity of blanks for filing with the chapter registrars the lineage of descendants of chapter members and others; 1 book Proceedings of the Georgia D. A. R. 1930; 1 book Proceedings of the Georgia D. A. R. 1931; some supplemental records sent by Mrs. John L. Faver, of LaGrange, Ga.; and quite a number of the year books of the Georgia chapters N. S. D. A. R.

STATE EDITOR

Mrs. Stewart Colley

It was indeed a privilege to serve you, Georgia Daughters of the American Revolution, as your state editor. My duties were regular but pleasant. Each chapter through their regent has been most gracious in their cooperation and desire to help, and this sincere interest was, at all times, an inspiration to us.

The splendid work of our great organization is very near to the heart of your State editor, and we believe that there is no work in the entire membership which more thoroughly familiarizes you with this work than the work of the State editor.

Mrs. Bessie Stafford, of the Atlanta Constitution, was at all times most courteous and vitally interested in the news value of every report.

FORTY-FIRST CONTINENTAL CONGRESS

Mrs. Bun Wylie, State Regent

The opening session of Continental congress Monday evening, April 18, 8:30 o'clock, was a brilliant occasion. The grand procession of the national officers, escorted by the pages, with state flags; the forty-eight State boxes filled with beautifully gowned women, and the entire hall packed to its utmost capacity, was an inspiring, patriotic scene long to be remembered. The forty-first Continental Congress was called to order by the president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, who, after the invocation by Dr. Z. B. Phillips, chaplain U. S. Senate, Salute to the Flag; the American's Creed and our National Anthem; introduced the speakers of the evening. After greetings from the District of Columbia by Commissioner D. A. Davidson, the vice-president of the United States, Charles Curtis, addressed the congress; this was followed by a group of lovely songs, sung by our Georgia boy, James Melton.

America's gratitude to her friends of 1776: Ambassadors of France, Germany, Poland and Minister of the Netherlands. More beautiful music by James Melton, and addresses by Hon. Simeon D. Fess and Commissioner Charles Moore.

Tuesday was Patriot's Day. Mrs. Herbert Hoover was our guest of honor and brought greetings from the White House, for both herself and the president of the United States.

Reports of the president general and national officers were most interesting.

Tuesday afternoon was given over to State meetings. The Georgia State meeting was held in the Michigan room, Memorial Continental hall, with a large attendance of 38. After the meeting, the delegation had their State picture made on the east portico of Memorial Continental hall, grouped around the "Georgia column," which is our pride, as Georgia contributed this to the building of Memorial Continental hall.

At 6:30 Tuesday evening the Georgia banquet took place in the Crystal dining room at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Ober D. Warthen was the charming Georgia hostess and it was one of the most beautiful State dinners we have ever had at Continental congress. The state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, had the pleasure of sending to Mrs. Russell Magna, the prospective president general, a basket of lovely flowers, from the Georgia D. A. R. The same evening at 8:30 o'clock was the reception of the president general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart. The national officers, members D. A. R. and guests were in Colonial costume in honor of the Washington Bicentennial. The same evening at ten o'clock the pages were given a ball at the Willard hotel.

Wednesday morning reports and resolutions followed with a wonderful address by Hon. Arthur M. Free, U. S. representative from California, on National Defense.

The chaplain general presided at the Memorial service at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon. Tributes were paid to ex-vice-presidents general by Mrs. Howard McCall; among them she paid a beautiful tribute to our beloved Mrs. S. B. C. Morgan, who was charter member, state regent, and vice-president general.

A beautiful tribute was paid Mrs. T. C. Parker, ex-state regent, and Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent, placed the flowers in the wreath for both departed members.

Wednesday afternoon a pilgrimage was made to Arlington to place a wreath on the grave of the Unknown soldier. From Arlington, we journeyed to Mt. Vernon to place wreaths on the tombs of George and Martha Washington. On leaving Mt. Vernon, we stopped at the south entrance to plant and dedicate thirteen cedar trees, in honor of George Washington—each of the 13 original colonies. It was with much pride, your state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, placed the Georgia dirt (which I carried from Georgia) around the Georgia trees and dedicated it in honor of George Washington from the Georgia D. A. R. From Mt. Vernon we attended the reception at George Washington Masonic National Memorial, Alexandria, Va.

Wednesday evening we had nominations of national officers.

Thursday was "State Regents evening"—a beautiful processional of the 48 state regents all wearing lovely gowns and carrying beautiful flowers. I am sure you would have been pleased with your state regent as she made your splendid Georgia report, which you had made possible by your fine constructive work. I thank you for giving me this privilege.

The tellers reported the result of the election, which took place Thursday. The names of the new national officers will be found on page 5.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Hoover received the members of the congress at the White House at 5 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon the newly elected national officers and state regents were confirmed. Then came in processional which was very beautiful—the retiring state regent and the newly elected state regent—on the platform, they stood opposite each other, coming forward at the call of the president general and placing the ribbon over the shoulder of the new regent. It was my happy privilege to place my ribbon on Mrs. Julian McCurry, our new state regent, and wish great success in her administration.

Congress closed Saturday evening with a wonderful banquet in the Willard hotel. Georgia had a voting strength of 37—with 10 alternates; seven pages, the state regent and Georgia delegation had many courtesies shown them. Your state regent, Mrs. Wylie, was the guest of the Eastern airport on their largest plane, the Curtis King, to Washington.

The hearts of the Georgia delegation were saddened by the death of our Senator, William J. Harris, which occurred during congress.

The Georgia delegation voted to give the new state regent, Mrs. Julian McCurry, a library table in Constitution hall, $250.00. Two Georgia girls, Miss Mattie Thomas, Dawson, and Miss Amanda Johnson, Milledgeville, won Bi-centennial medals. Miss Cecilia Travis won state medal for best essay on Historic Spots, and Milton Richardson, university contest, for best oratorical contest.

The Georgia box is our pride and much used by our members. Let me thank you again for the splendid demonstration of friendship and love you gave me at the State conference in Waycross, which enabled your state regent to represent you at congress; for the lovely flowers sent me and all the sweet, friendly courtesies you have extended me as your state regent. After all "Living is but loving and loving is but to serve."

AMERICAN'S CREED DAY

Mrs. Young Harris Yarbrough

Never has there been a time when the principles, incorporated in the American's Creed, should be stressed as now, under conditions existing in our country. Our nation will endure only, when so long as our people adhere to the principles upon which our government was founded.

April 3rd, having been designated by National congress as American's Creed day, has been appropriately observed by most of our chapters.

Elijah Clarke chapter reported a radio program planned; Sergeant Newton chapter the distribution of copies of the American's Creed; Augusta and Nancy Hart chapters included the American's Creed in their yearbooks. Others reporting observance of the day are as follows: Lamar-LaFayette, Barnesville; Oglethorpe, Columbus; John Laurens, Dublin; Col. Wm. Candler, Gainesville; Gov. David Emanuel, Swainsboro; John Clarke, Social Circle; James Pittman, Commerce; Gov. John Milledge, Dalton; Nathaniel Macon, Macon; Atlanta, Atlanta; Stephen Heard, Elberton; Nancy Hart, Milledgeville.

AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE LIBRARY

Mrs. Irving Thomas

As chairman of the American Merchant Marine Library association for the Georgia Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, I beg to report a larger number of books sent than during the previous years. The Joseph Habersham chapter, Atlanta, sent one hundred and forty-seven books and reports more to follow. Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, always a banner chapter, reports having sent eighty splendid books most of them being new books of fiction, travel and history. "The very best collection of books we have ever sent" is the way the regent describes them. The Governor David Emanuel chapter has sent twenty-five fine selected books, among the books sent by this chapter is a set of "The New Cabinet Cyclopaedia." The fiction for the most part were selected novels of the "Book of the Month Club."

The Adam Brinson chapter sent a check representing five cents for each member of the chapter. This check was used to buy books.

Some books have been sent direct to New Orleans, but the chapters have failed to notify the chairman and it is impossible to give credit for same. Books may be sent direct to Dock Boars Tool House, Poydras Street and River, New Orleans, La. But notify your chairman.

ARMISTICE DAY

Mrs. C. A. Rudolph

Armistice day in 1931 was fittingly observed by chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution throughout Georgia. Many gratifying reports have been received by this chairman of the interest manifested and of the active cooperation on the part of other patriotic organizations in bringing this day in 1931 to the attention of the public as the anniversary of that day in 1918 when all nations lay down arms and there was peace.

Special notice should be called to the observance of the day by John Benson chapter, Hartwell, which your chairman had the pleasure of attending. A memorial to Nancy Hart, famous Revolutionary heroine, was unveiled with most impressive ceremonies.

Activities and programs by the chapters over the state were of high standard and the Daughters of the American Revolution have been commended by word and press for the patriotic manner in which this day was observed.

BEAUTIFICATION OF HIGHWAYS

Mrs. Clyde Forrest Hunt

I deeply appreciate the honor of being appointed, by Mrs. Bun Wylie, our state regent, to fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. R. P. Brooks, our beloved and efficient chairman of Beautifying National Highways.

During the few months which remained I have endeavored to carry forward the work so carefully planned by Mrs. Brooks.

The first official work of your chairman was a letter to every chapter regent urging the planting of trees and shrubs on highways. A letter was sent to Mrs. Colly, state editor, who was very prompt in having it appear in the D. A. R. column of the Atlanta Constitution.

It was a delightful privilege to attend the Executive Board meeting at Gainesville in October.

Your chairman has solicited the cooperation of other organizations, and they have been very responsive. The chapters have been working hard and many of them have made wonderful reports.

The other members of this committee, Mrs. J. C. Collier, Mrs. T. E. Ryles, Mrs. J. C. Comer, Mrs. McArthur Jones, Mrs. John Adams, and Mrs. Eli Calloway have cooperated beautifully. All of this has made the work of your chairman a pleasure and enables her to make the following report:

Planted on highways: 688 trees (pine and pecan); 2,343 dogwood and red beech; 1,041 evergreen shrubs; 30 magnolias; 50 miscellaneous; 10 holly; total, 4,142 trees and shrubs.

One mile dogwood and crepe myrtle; 1 mile Japanese cherries; 1 mile dogwood, crepe myrtle and other shrubs; 1 mile trees and shrubs; 9 3/4 miles trees and shrubs; total, 13 3/4 miles trees and shrubs.

Two embankments planted with roses; overpass planted with roses; roses and honeysuckle planted on shoulders of highway by several chapters. I wish that I could mention individually the work of chapters, but time limit forbids. Lamar-LaFayette chapter, Barnesville, Mrs. J. C. Collier, regent, must have honorable mention for their marvelous work in beautifying the highways of Lamar county. I want to thank the chapter regents and every D. A. R. for their splendid cooperation with our committee.

"Let me plant a tree by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by,
The men who are good, the men who are bad
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the slacker's seat,
While others carry the load
Let me plant a tree, with shrubs and flowers
To help beautify the road."

BETTER FILMS

Mrs. W. H. Hightower

In spite of the depression, or perhaps because of it, people still flock to our moving picture shows, and we feel that our responsibility for showing really good pictures is greater than ever, and are pleased to report that the work goes on splendidly.

Of the ninety-eight chapters eighty-three have regularly appointed Better Films chairmen, and fifteen regents serve in this capacity. Seventy-five chapters have reported to the state chairman.

It has been our pleasure to serve on the National Theatre Review committee for Georgia, and with the cooperation of chapter chairmen, were able to send in a very creditable report.

We wish to thank our state regent, our national chairman, and vice-chairman for their kind advice and generous support.

We wish to thank each loyal chapter chairman and regent who carries on the work of the Better Films committee; we are sure that it has been worthwhile, and will bear its fruit, not only in the ever increasing demand for higher class entertainment, but in the lives of our children, the sons and daughters of our illustrious past, the citizens of tomorrow.

BLANCHE McFARLIN GAFFNEY TROPHY

Mrs. T. D. Powers

Realizing the importance of raising the educational standard of our state inspired Mrs. Bun Wylie to create a chairmanship, which would in its very nature more actively and sympathetically motivate plans toward this end. This constructive and worthy project proved to be the opportunity for the Blanche McFarlan Gaffney trophy to be offered as a prize to the chapter doing best work in the eradication of illiteracy. It was not our fine and often difficult task to decide which chapter had done the best work, but it was Mrs. W. M. Shurling who names the Brunswick chapter as the winner, and it is my happy privilege and very great pleasure to award to you this coveted prize. May this achievement and the possession of this beautiful trophy throughout the coming year prove a stimulus to even higher endeavor.

In my hearty congratulations to the members of your chapter, I vision Brunswick by the sea, your wealth of history and archaeology, your sky and sea, your marsh and wonderful oaks shot through with gorgeous sunsets, rosy dawns, soft moonlights making shadows which fall on "sweet ferns and fawns." Thus enchanted our master poet, Sidney Lanier, out of it all saw God, admired nature and loved man anew. Into literature he wrote a poem of matchless beauty on "The Marshes of Glynn." "A shaft of light" united earth with heaven as he watched and wrote:

"The slant yellow beam down the wood-aisle doth seem Like a lane into heaven that leads from a dream."

In the making of your history the emerald marsh one day turned crimson. For always it has been through the blood of patriots freedom has been won.

With my hearty congratulations I deliver into your keeping this beautiful trophy with the love of her who offered it, and with the hearty good wishes of every Daughter of the American Revolution of Georgia.

CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Mrs. C. E. Pittman

It has been with great pleasure and interest that I have served as your State Chairman of Children of the American Revolution. It has been most gratifying that more interest is taken year after year by the chapters. We are beginning to realize the importance of the childrens' organization of the C. A. R.

Below is a list of organized chapters of Children of the American Revolution:

Lady Elizabeth Oglethorpe, Atlanta; Dolly Madison, Atlanta; Col. Henry Lee, Savannah; LaGrange chapter, LaGrange; Col. Benjamin Hawkins, Macon; Cherokee chapter, Dalton; Benjamin Fitzpatrick, Madison; Robert Sallette, Decatur.

Winona chapter, organized the afternoon before the state conference, March 29, 1932, Waycross, with 10 members. Mrs. P. N. Harley, organizing president; Miss Carol Harley, president.

Those under formation are as follows: Athens, Ashburn, Americus, Columbus, Barnesville, Eatonton, Grantville, Perry, Social Circle, Dublin, and Jeffersonville.

I have written two articles for daily paper; fifteen postals, and twenty letters.

CONSERVATION AND THRIFT

Mrs. T. O. Tabor

It is with great pride that I report that Georgia won a medal for outstanding work in Conservation and Thrift last year, given by the national chairman at National D. A. R. conference in Washington in April, 1931.

There has been greater interest shown this year by Georgia D. A. R. in conservation and preservation of forests, wild life, running streams and human conservation than ever before. We realize that a policy that safeguards while it encourages the intelligent use of our natural resources, with least waste and abuse, assures us a prosperous nation. So, we have determined to be more thrifty and frugal in the use of our natural resources and to be more aggressive in the development of our food and timber supplies as well as in reforestation.

Many chapters have done extensive work in Soldier Relief work, Red Cross, Child Welfare and aiding Boy and Girl Scouts. The best work along this line was done by the Atlanta chapter, Atlanta, and Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens.

Every D. A. R. chapter in Georgia has celebrated in some way the Bi-centennial of George Washington's birth. A great number of chapters planted memorial trees on highways, parks, avenues, and had impressive ceremonies and programs to commemorate this great occasion. Please register trees planted in memory of George Washington with the American Tree association, Washington, D. C., so that Georgia D. A. R. may receive due credit. The three D. A. R. chapters in Columbus planted trees and had an elaborate historical pageant. The two chapters in Atlanta cooperated with other organizations and had impressive ceremonies at the State capitol, Atlanta, with Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent D. A. R., and chairman of Georgia comission of George Washington Bicentennial celebration, in charge of ceremonies. The three Savannah chapters, the Waynesboro chapter and the two Augusta chapters are celebrating the Bicentennial with pageants and plan to make a pilgrimage in May over the route which George Washington traveled on his tour of the south from Savannah to Augusta. These chapters are erecting markers at the home where he spent the night and where he was met by Georgia notables near Augusta.

This year the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia planted 22,561 trees, 19,997 shrubs, 40,828 bulbs, and the total expenditure for Conservation and Thrift has been $5,314. The Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, deserves special mention for their splendid work and wonderful report.

The Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park has been much improved this year. All underbrush and unnecessary trees have been cleared. A road is being built from the main road through the forest to the place where Nancy Hart's log cabin stood. At the entrance of the road two large old field stone pillars, with pink granite insets marking the place, have been erected. A picture of the entrance will be sent to the national chairman of Memorial Continental hall and to state scrap book. Total expenditure on Forest Park has been $65.00. This committee wishes to express their appreciation to:

The Georgia Granite corporation, Elberton; Mr. Oge Smith, Elbert county road commissioner; Prof. F. M. Young and boys of Nancy Hart school; Mr. Dave Downer and T. F. Kelley, for their generosity and splendid help in improving the Georgia D. A. R. Forest Park. I wish to thank the following chapters for contributions for improving the D. A. R. Forest Park: Thronateeska, Richard Dale, Council of Safety, Elijah Clarke, Atlanta, Joseph Habersham, Augusta, Bainbridge, Lamar-LaFayette, Brunswick, Cairo, Button Gwinnett, George Walton, Oglethorpe, James Pittman, James McIntosh, Fort Early, Sergeant Newton, John Milledge, Stone Castle, Baron DeKalb, John Laurens, William Few, Samuel Reid, Stephen Heard, David Emanuel, Governor Treutlen, Fort Valley, William Candler, Arthur Fort, Oliver Morton, Hawkinsville, William McIntosh, William Marsh, LaGrange, Mary Hammond Washington, Henry Walton, Stephen Hopkins, Nancy Hart, Mathew Talbott, Sergeant Jasper, Oconee, Sarah Dickinson, Hawthorn Trail, Daniel Stewart, Hannah Clarke, Jared Irwin, Savannah, John Clarke, Hancock, Briar Creek, Barnard Trail, Ochlocknee, James Jackson, and Vidalia.

CONSTITUTION AND MAGNA CHARTA DAY

Mrs. Julius T. Dudley

" . . . This government, the offspring of our own choice, uninfluenced and unawed, adopted upon full investigation and mature deliberation, completely free in its principles, in the distribution of its powers, uniting security with energy . . . has a just claim to your confidence and your support."—From George Washington's Farewell Address.

Is there any nation, state or society however small in membership, or insignificant in plan and objective that can survive for any length of time without a charter—without a constitution? Do we not neglect in many ways the duty we owe our nation—upholding after understanding its laws; do we not neglect oftener to see that the younger members of our clubs and other organized groups, understand and uphold our magnificent constitution? It must be perpetuated because of our active support. Calvin Coolidge warns us that should our constitution fall into disrespect or disrepute our organized government would come to an untimely end! Correctly interpreted, and through guided study forcibly impressed upon the minds and hearts of the youth in our colleges and universities, it has a great and mighty influence upon their lives as useful citizens. We, as older members of all organized groups, should encourage the observance of this "Constitution and Magna Charta Day," September 17th; and finally encourage our diligent teachers in all schools to influence the younger generation to know it, understand it, and actively support it.

As chairman, may I thank Mrs. Kirby-Smith Anderson, of Madison, and Mrs. G. Walker Jordan, of Hawkinsville, for their splendid suggestions, and the regents of the following chapters who reported some impressive observance of the day:

Elijah Clarke chapter, Athens, radio program; Augusta chapter, Augusta, reading and discussion of "George Washington's Letter to LaFayette on the Constitution;" also Oglethorpe chapter, Columbus; Stone Castle chapter, Dawson; Nancy Hart chapter, Milledgeville; Thronateeska chapter, Albany; Etowah chapter, Cartersville; Brunswick chapter, Brunswick; Adam Brinson chapter, Summit; Atlanta chapter, Atlanta; Lamar-LaFayette chapter, Barnesville; Stephen Heard chapter, Elberton; George Walton chapter, Columbus; Fort Early chapter, Cordele; Savannah chapter, Savannah; Com. Richard Dale chapter, Albany; John Laurens chapter, Dublin; LaGrange chapter, LaGrange; Joseph Habersham chapter, Atlanta; Fielding Lewis chapter, Marietta; Oothcaloga chapter, Adairsville; John Benson chapter, Hartwell; Gov. John Milledge chapter, Dalton; Gov. David Emanuel chapter, Swainsboro; Roanoke chapter, Omaha; Altamaha chapter, Jesup; James Pittman chapter, Commerce.

COUNTY HISTORIES

Mrs. B. A. Tyler

Your chairman of the committee on the compilation of county histories for the celebration of Georgia's Bi-centennial has a very incomplete report, but in view of the well-known depression and the fact that there is still almost a whole year allowed by the act of the legislature requiring each county to arrange for the publication of these important documents, perhaps it is as complete as could be expected.

Fifteen counties of the state already have histories finished and published, some of them in response to the act referred to above and many of them compiled some years ago. Fifteen chapters have reported to me that the histories of their counties are now being compiled, in most cases by the chapter, but in any case with the chapter cooperating in the work. Your chairman sincerely hopes that the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible so as to be complete by Georgia day in 1933, and that in case it is absolutely impossible to publish the history at this time, that three typed copies will be made, of which one shall be sent to the State historian of Georgia, Miss Ruth Blair, one given to the County ordinary for preservation among the county archives and the third kept by the chapter which may be able to publish at some future time.

CONFERENCE PROPERTIES

Mrs. H. S. Redding

Properties in good condition and ready to be shipped to Atlanta.

COOPERATION BETWEEN D. A. R. AND S. A. R.

Mrs. Edward Jones

As chairman of the committee on Cooperation between D. A. R. and S. A. R., I take pleasure in reporting splendid cooperation between these two organizations throughout the state. It was gratifying to receive reports from a number of the chapters.

The Hawkinsville chapter presented two citizenship (S. A. R.) medals through the public schools this year. The Baron DeKalb chapter, Decatur, presented three similar medals. The following chapters each report the presentation of one such medal: Henry Walton chapter, Madison; William Few chapter, Eastman; Samuel Reid chapter, Eatonton; Nancy Hart chapter, Milledgeville.

CORRECT USE OF FLAG

Mrs. John M. Slaton

I have sent to each of the 98 regents copies of Flag lessons for the year, prepared by the national chairman of Correct Use of the Flag committee, Mrs. Charles Brand.

Many of our chapters are now using these lessons, with much interest and enthusiasm, and some have carried them into their local schools. Some have placed copies of the Flag Code in schools. Your committee on Correct Use of the Flag would be glad to report that every city and county school displayed a Code, hung by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Most of our chapters observe Flag day, June 14th, and Independence day, July 4th, as well as Washington's birthday with patriotic exercises and music; and a majority of the chapters use the Salute to the Flag at every monthly meeting. As state chairman of Correct Use of the Flag, I presented to the Georgia D. A. R. a silk Georgia flag in honor of our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie.

D. A. R. MAGAZINE

Mrs. J. Thomas Wood

As chairman of this committee I regret that I must report a slight decrease in the number of subscribers to the D. A. R. Magazine. We have only 235 subscribers and last year we had 245. In view of the fact that there is a loss in the total number of subscribers, the national chairman says, "I should not feel discouraged over the ten decrease."

I am disappointed, however, that so few regents sent me a report. To the seventeen chapters reporting to me, I wish to express my thanks. They are: Elijah Clarke, Atlanta, John Houston, Lamar-LaFayette, James Pittman, Sergeant Newton, Governor John Milledge, John Laurens, Samuel Reid, John Benson, Roanoke, Gov.

Jared Irwin, Adams Brinson, Savannah, Bonaventure, Jonathan Bryan, Altamaha, Gov. David Emanuel.

The silver loving cup offered by Mrs. John Perdue for the largest number of new subscriptions will be awarded to the Gov. David Emanuel chapter. This chapter is less than a year old and credit for winning this cup is due to the Magazine chairman, Mrs. T. H. Swinson.

EDUCATIONAL LOAN FUNDS

Mrs. Morgan Roby Redwine

Your chairman is pleased to report that the interest shown by the various chapters in establishing and maintaining loan scholarships has been most gratifying. Eleven new chapter loan funds have been started this year, and many old funds have been augmented. A healthy increase of $1,443.18 over last year's report attests to the interest in this very valuable phase of D. A. R. work.

Chapter loan funds are as follows:

Elijah Clarke	$1388.61	Maj. Gen. Samuel Elbert	125.00
Hannah Clarke	589.90	Nathaniel Abney	205.00

DIVISIONAL CONFERENCE

Mrs. W. J. Vereen

The Southern Divisional conference met in Charleston, S. C., October 23-24, by invitation of the South Carolina D. A. R. state society, Mrs. J. C. Coulter, state regent. Georgia was represented by twelve members.

D. A. R. STUDENT LOAN FUND

Mrs. Barnett Solomon

The 1932 combined report of the Georgia D. A. R. Student Loan funds speaks for itself. No organization in the state has done more to preserve and raise the standards of citizenship. By assisting students to enter college who would otherwise be unable to do so we are procuring for them a wider horizon, a freer release of vital energies, a deeper understanding of mankind. It is our hope that they will return to their homes and communities as leaders, ever striving toward elevation and betterment for themselves and their neighbors.

ELLIS ISLAND

Mrs. L. A. Jordan

It has been a pleasant privilege to serve the Daughters of the American Revolution. My annual letter was mailed in October, requesting that each chapter, in addition to the three cents per capita, send a box of material to Ellis Island to carry on the very splendid work being done there. Sixty-three chapters have contributed, $89.20; 7 boxes sent, valued at $28.34.

FANNY TRAMMELL MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

Mrs. H. L. Jarvis, Chairman

As chairman of the Fanny Trammell Memorial Loan fund, I beg to say that after the six years of hard work done by your former chairman, Mrs. W. E. Mann, I found the fund in such excellent condition that I have had very little to do the past year.

Mrs. Mann has made wise selections and has good substantial notes to back all loans which has made the work easy and pleasant for the present chairman. I wish to submit the following report for the past year:

Balance on hand, 1931	$ 398.79

FLAG DAY

Mrs. J. L. Mims

The observance of Flag day, the birthday of our Nation's Flag, had its usual response by our Georgia D. A. R. chapters, with fitting programs participated in by members.

As your state chairman, I sent an article to the state editor for publication on our official page in the Atlanta Constitution, stressing the importance of Flag day.

Communications were mailed to every chapter, asking that as the birthday of our flag would fall this year on Sunday, that chapters observe the day by having sacred programs in the churches, to give thanks for our country and to honor its flag.

Thirty-two chapters reported the observance of the day and many complied with the request of the chairman and held appropriate services in the churches. These programs were most inspiring and many were outstanding.

In many instances, Boy and Girl Scouts, American Legions, schools, or patriotic and civic organizations generally were asked to cooperate with chapters.

This is a time when every American patriot should look gratefully upon the flag that has carried the people through dark days and bright days. The Stars and Stripes, during its glorious history, has floated cheerfully, in times of distress, as it has with pride in days of happiness. Let me urge you, chapter regents, to see that the Flag is lifted high on June 14, 1932, our Nation's Flag day.

GEORGIA BANQUET AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mrs. Ober D. Warthen

The Georgia banquet at the New Willard hotel, Washington, D. C., Tuesday evening, April 19th, was the main social occasion held by the Georgia delegation at the Forty-first Continental congress. Thirty-nine were present.

The honor guests were Mrs. Blanche Fay Gaffney, vice-president general; Mrs. Bun Wylie, state regent; Mrs. Julian McCurry, state regent-elect; Mrs. Howard McCall, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, and Mrs. Moulton, of Rhode Island.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Walter Scott Coleman

The 200th anniversary of the birthday of George Washington has brought to the nation vividly the services and achievements of the Father of our country. The members of the Georgia D. A. R. have responded nobly in recognition of this historical epoch in the annals of our country. Everywhere this celebration was fittingly observed by patriotic Americans in conjunction with the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The sixty-eight chapters are recorded as their response was received. This service was a privilege and I wish to express appreciation to our state regent, Mrs. Bun Wylie, and my committee for their cooperation in making this celebration a success.

GEORGIA DAY

Mrs. A. R. Colcord

One of the most gratifying and progressive manifestations of the celebration of Georgia day since its beginning in 1909, is the fact that not only our state but other states are becoming better acquainted with the true background of Georgia.

Let us look back two hundred years when Oglethorpe left Europe and faced the wilds of a new country to seek a colony whose chief thought was the interest of the individual—his happiness, security and prosperity.

We wish that time would permit us to give the names of the many Georgians who have, since that day, made history for our state.

Oglethorpe builded well and if we are to uphold the principles of our forefathers our citizens must continue in their high ideals of unselfish patriotism which is our heritage. We must hand on the torch to the next generation as it came to us, undimmed.

Your chairman has urged the observance of Georgia day through fitting exercises and programs and has received such pleasing reports from many chapters.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

Mrs. John Lee Davidson

With a feeling of gratitude to the chapters and individuals whose cooperation has made it possible, my last report is herewith submitted:

No doubt our state genealogist, whose work takes the place of this committee, will get better results. Her office deserve the financial and moral support of the State D. A. R. and the chapters, for there is no more important and far-reaching work before us than the preservation of the priceless records of Georgia, and making them available to an interested public.

GIFT SCHOLARSHIPS

Mrs John M. Simmons

The one thing most vital to the youth of our land, whose opportunity of an education has been taken away on account of conditions, is to render aid in their tuition and other educational expenses. If ever there was a time when our boys and girls need the help of this department it is now.

The chapters making donations to this cause are performing an invaluable service in their assistance to our youth.

Our work is purely voluntary and the cordial, prompt and efficient cooperation of our chapters in replying to letters sent them has been greatly appreciated. Letters were sent to every chapter regent in the state.

Many reported clothing, board, music, and books; others were not able to make gifts this year. Some, I regret to say, did not reply. Please give amount and number of scholarships when making reports, and do not report loans to Gift Scholarship chairman.

GIRL HOME MAKERS

Mrs. C. E. Felton

It is indeed a distinct pleasure to report on a work so dear to my heart—that of Girl Home Makers. Despite the fact that there is much ground to be covered because of the similarity of most work pertaining to domestic science. Still there have been many splendid reports. I have written about 109 letters and have received about 30 reports.
