MEADOW GARDEN FURNISHINGS,

Mrs. Leonard G. DeLamar

Placing the lovely Georgian Mahogany sofa in the Best Room added much to this room, and in the opinion of this chairman, more or less completes the furnishing of Meadow Garden as far as large pieces of furniture are concerned. A lace collar, circa 1800, was restored and reframed and is once again hanging in the Walton Bedroom. Lava-Fyre (volcanic granules) were added to the kitchen fireplace giving it the look of authenticity. We are deeply grateful to Mrs. J.H. Elliott, Jr., for these accomplishments. Cash contributions in the amount of $554.75 have been received this year for the Furnishings Fund. The search for smaller accessories continues while an effort is made to keep our treasures in good repair. It is a privilege to serve the Meadow Garden and the State Society in this capacity under the leadership of our enthusiastic State Regent.

MEADOW GARDEN LANDSCAPING,

Mrs. R.H. Cagle, Jr.

This has been a busy year for Meadow Garden. The cottage has been torn down and plans will be made to use that area for flowers and herbs. Pansies have been planted to add color this winter. Several trees have been trimmed and the fence cleared. The area under the front porch has been cleaned up. Our yard service keeps the grass cut and our tour guide Gloria Clark takes a special interest in the yard so that it will look good for our visitors. Many thanks to all the chapters who have supported the Landscaping projects this year. It has been a pleasure to serve on this committee.

On Friday, April 17, our bus rolled onto the interstate headed for Continental Congress. After two nights in Richmond, Virginia, we drove into Washington arriving in time for the ladies to attend the dedication which took place in our Georgia Period Room. During the week many meetings were attended, unknown miles were walked through the halls of our buildings, and tons of DAR related material were collected for the chapters back home. September found us once again on the highway headed for North Carolina. Fifteen ladies enjoyed a trip to Crossnore School. We had a tour of the school and ate lunch there on campus. After struggling to "cram" numerous purchases from the Weaving Room into 2 vans that were already filled to capacity, we traveled on to Gatlinburg, Tennessee for yet MORE shopping and sightseeing. I attended State Conference, Continental Congress, 2 workshops, and Fall Board of Management. Thank you Madam State Regent. It has been my pleasure to serve you and our State Society.

We work with the schools in order to get the Seniors of all the high schools to write an essay on citizenship, and then we honor the winners with a tea. We have 3 judges to select the first, second and third place winners. I believe this is good for us to know that we have lots of good young people in our community to be the leaders of tomorrow. I also believe that every member of our DAR is aware of the reasons that our organization was founded on in 1890, and each of us wants to work together so that we can make the DAR better each year. We can do this with each member joining hearts and hands and working together to fulfill the dreams of our organizers at the beginning more than a hundred years ago.

PHILADELPHIA WINN CHAPTER, SNELLVILLE

Virginia McIntosh, Regent

National Gold Honor Roll

In April 1992, the Philadelphia Winn Chapter celebrated its tenth anniversary of being chartered. We have been working for several years to obtain office space in the Gwinnett County Historic Courthouse. Hopefully this move will be forthcoming in the next month. For the first time we hope to have all of our records under one roof so they will be accessible to the chapter. The new officers felt the size of the chapter would prevent the group being equally successful in so many different areas of service, so our chapter decided to choose two areas to devote most of our efforts, while continuing minimum support of all committees. The two areas our chapter chose to concentrate on are Tamasee and Conservation. Each meeting the members were requested to report their conservation efforts. The January speaker was a plant geneticist who spoke about Colonial forests. Tamasee has become a very emotional word for our members. Each December, for five years, Dean Bare and a cottage of children have been invited for a Christmas party. A covered dish luncheon was planned inviting husbands, prospective members, the C.A.R., and other guests to help distribute gifts to the children. The generosity of the members toward this project is evident in the $475 collected to buy presents for the children, help with travel expenses and to make a $100 cottage contribution. In addition one of our members was instrumental in getting a $500 contribution from CIBA Vision for the school. As I said, Tamasee is a very emotional word for this chapter.

C.A.R.

Georgia State Society Children of the American Revolution 1992-1993

This Senior State Officer began her term in Washington, D.C. in April of 1992 with her installation at the George Washington Masonic Temple. She then worked closely with the State President to select committee Chairmen. This duty was made a bit trickier than usual by the reorganization of our national committees so as to fit with the national organization. This officer also began the continuing duty of writing her message in CARgoes.

This Senior State Officer was pleased to attend the organizational meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty in April. She watched as the State President installed their officers and assisted in helping the new, mostly very young, members sing the C.A.R. song for the first time. This Senior State Officer enjoyed greatly a joint meeting of Lucy Spell Raiford's Marietta members with Allen Howard and Abraham Musick Societies at the Cobb County Youth Museum. It was fun to watch the members really get into their parts in skits about two famous persons who made their marks in history – Clara Barton, who was a DAR, and Jacques Cousteau. This Senior State Officer especially liked this get-together because she was a docent, or tour guide, at this museum for five years between 1979 and 1984.

This Senior State Officer attended the Southeastern Regional Meeting in July in Mobile, Ala. and chaperoned her group at all functions. She and her state president organized a very productive summer workshop in Roswell on the last weekend of July. Officers and chairmen prepared skits and talks to present their contests. Packet sheets in a folder for each person present were handed out. Societies learned how to set up their year to be able to enter contests.

This officer attended two DAR District Workshops in August. She accompanied her daughter Amy, the State President to the NE Georgia District Workshop in Cornelia. She and Amy talked about their C.A.R. plans to the ladies gathered for their workshop. Because Amy had to leave for a college sorority event, her sister Claire, the State Recording Secretary represented her at the NW Georgia District Workshop in Carrollton.

A large number of societies sent their members and seniors on the President's Trip to the New Echota Cherokee Homecoming Festival near Calhoun on September 19, 1992. Much attention is now being given to the need to commemorate the Trail of Tears and State President Amy thought this event would be productive and enjoyable for the members. Members and seniors watched native dances and craft making and toured the reconstructed New Echota settlement. Some members even took part in the dancing with the Cherokees. A moving moment was the presentation of the colors of the Eastern and Western Banks and the colors of the United States carried by Cherokee members of the Armed Forces.

The next state function was the Government Studies Seminar held in Macon, Georgia on October 24, 1992. Chairman Claire Richardson prepared a program on the voting process that promoted group involvement. In December, the entire Richardson family was invited to the Glass Brothers Society Christmas party. Amy could not attend but the rest of the family did so.

The last state function of the 1992-1993 year was the State Conference, the 54th annual one, held at the Sheraton Columbus, Columbus, Georgia February 26-28, 1993. Hosts were the Lucy Spell Raiford Society, which is the Richardson family's own society, and the Brunswick and Winona Societies, who ably and beautifully decorated for the luncheon and banquet. The banquet decorations were hand crafted dolls depicting heroes and heroines of the Revolutionary War period. A candidates' night was held on Friday. A business session was the next day. C.A.R. was honored to have greetings brought by Mrs. Jerido Ward, DAR State Regent, and LTC Frank Cleary for the sons of the American Revolution. Reports of officers, chairmen and society presidents followed. Candidates were presented once again, and voting was done under the watchful eyes of the Credentials Committee and the Tellers.

Luncheon was a treat with a magician for entertainment. Awards were given out at the Banquet that night in a new way, being grouped by society with the State President reading some humorous anecdotes before each society received their awards. The State President had felt strongly that the prior method of calling out contest awards by the contest itself led to a less than exciting night. She was proved right as many congratulated her on the night's proceedings. A dance was held afterward to the delight of all.

One last function of the year needing the presence of this Senior State Officer was the DAR State Conference in Columbus, Georgia on March 5, 1993. Although she could not be present for the business sessions for reports of officers and chairmen, due to her classroom teaching responsibilities, she did arrive late afternoon for the State Regents Banquet. One special segment of the later night's business was the presentation of three C.A.R. Debutantes; Amy Richardson, Lucy Spell Raiford Society; Mardi Senn of the Glass Brothers and Laura Vance of Habersham Society. The girls were escorted by their fathers or grandfathers and wore white. Ethan Boyes, Honorary State President, introduced the girls and made remarks on their activities and C.A.R. achievements. Mrs. Enver Hoff worked closely with Mrs. Jerido Ward to begin what is hoped to be an annual occurrence. Amy presented flowers to Mrs. Ward to thank her for the close connection C.A.R. has felt with DAR this year. The Daughters made a donation of over $500 just recently.

The Sons of the American Revolution have also been in very close contact with C.A.R. this year. James Holman, their president, and the SAR-C.A.R. committee have encouraged their membership to make individual donations to become State Patriots and thus receive the C.A.R. goes newssheet. Many men had done so. DAR ladies at their workshops and meetings have also participated individually. The 1992-1993 year has seen some concentrations by this officer: 1. Encouraging the two newest societies – Sukey Hart in Milledgeville and Sons and Daughters of Liberty in Atlanta; 2. Implementing the new national committees; 3. Presiding as the Senior State Board voted to award the offices of Honorary Senior State President to Mrs. FAn Hall Dewberry and Mrs. Rena S. Morgan; 4. Supporting her State President as she bravely took a new direction at her awards banquet, and 5. Attending the 1993 National Convention to help her new State President, Adelaide McCullough begin what promises to be another great year for Georgia C.A.R.
